

1

00:00:01,010 --> 00:00:05,729

Hey I'm NASA Kennedy's Josie Burnett taking you Inside KSC!

2

00:00:05,729 --> 00:00:11,870

The Kennedy Space Center workforce, guests and visitors gathered January 28 for the NASA

3

00:00:11,870 --> 00:00:13,410

Day of Remembrance.

4

00:00:13,410 --> 00:00:17,340

The ceremony was held near the new "Forever Remembered" display in the Space Shuttle Atlantis

5

00:00:17,340 --> 00:00:22,020

attraction at the nearby Kennedy Space Center Visitor Complex, and honored the crews of 6

00:00:22,020 --> 00:00:27,210

Apollo 1, space shuttles Challenger and Columbia, and all astronauts who have lost their lives

7

00:00:27,210 --> 00:00:32,189

while furthering the cause of space exploration and discovery.

8

00:00:32,189 --> 00:00:36,059

An aft skirt, similar to one that will be used on a solid rocket booster that will help

9

00:00:36,059 --> 00:00:41,089

launch NASA's Space Launch System rocket, was transported January 20 from its fabrication

10

00:00:41,089 --> 00:00:46,589

facility to the Rotation, Processing and Surge Facility at Kennedy Space Center.

11

00:00:46,589 --> 00:00:51,479

Inside the RPSF, the aft skirt will be prepared for stacking with booster segments to test

12

00:00:51,479 --> 00:00:55,989

recent facility upgrades as the center prepares for NASA's journey to Mars.
