Frank Borman Jim Lovell and Bill Anders

6
00:00:17,240 --> 00:00:14,360
set out on what was at that time

7
00:00:19,160 --> 00:00:17,250
humanity's boldest journey they became 8

00:00:20,689 --> 00:00:19,170
the first people to leave Earth orbit as 9

00:00:23,359 --> 00:00:20,699
they embarked on a trip to 10

00:00:25,640 --> 00:00:23,369
circumnavigate the moon their mission

11
00:00:27,740 --> 00:00:25,650
proved and provided the capability that 12

00:00:30,080 --> 00:00:27,750
ultimately led to the first footsteps on 13

00:00:31,880 --> 00:00:30,090

the moon here on the International Space

14

00:00:34,490 --> 00:00:31,890

Station we're learning how to live and

00:00:37,280 --> 00:00:34,500

work in space lessons that will help our

00:00:39,020 --> 00:00:37,290

plans to return to the moon and take

00:00:41,889 --> 00:00:39,030

journeys of human exploration beyond the

00:00:44,990 --> 00:00:41,899

lunar surface in the years to come on 19

00:00:46,700 --> 00:00:45,000

Christmas Eve the Apollo 8 crew read

00:00:49,150 --> 00:00:46,710

from the book of Genesis while circling

21

00:00:52,310 --> 00:00:49,160

Earth's closest celestial neighbor an 22

00:00:54,590 --> 00:00:52,320

unforgettable moment now 40 years later

23

00:00:56,569 --> 00:00:54,600

we remember those brave explorers and
