

1
00:00:06,289 --> 00:00:03,409
NASA kicked off a series of forums to 2

00:00:08,990 --> 00:00:06,299
identify showcase and support innovative

3
00:00:11,299 --> 00:00:09,000
approaches to sustainability challenges

4
00:00:13,400 --> 00:00:11,309
the new initiative is called launch

5
00:00:16,519 --> 00:00:13,410
hosted by NASA's deputy administrator

6
00:00:18,560 --> 00:00:16,529
lori garver the first forum launched

7
00:00:21,290 --> 00:00:18,570
water is being held at NASA's Kennedy

8
00:00:24,980 --> 00:00:21,300
Space Center in Florida March 16 through 9

00:00:27,470 --> 00:00:24,990
18 we have been maybe uniquely certainly

10
00:00:30,529 --> 00:00:27,480
in the government but but beyond as well

11
00:00:32,930 --> 00:00:30,539
the only folks who agree there was no

12
00:00:35,870 --> 00:00:32,940
such thing as waste water the things

13
00:00:37,850 --> 00:00:35,880

that you carry to space are absolutely 14

00:00:40,550 --> 00:00:37,860

critical weight is very important in the 15

00:00:43,310 --> 00:00:40,560

recycling water has been a very very 16

00:00:44,960 --> 00:00:43,320

large goal for us other launch partners

17

00:00:47,780 --> 00:00:44,970

include the US Agency for International 18

00:00:50,810 --> 00:00:47,790

Development the US State Department and 19

00:00:52,760 --> 00:00:50,820

Nike the water forum brings together 10

20

00:00:54,350 --> 00:00:52,770

entrepreneurs from around the world who 21

00:00:57,320 --> 00:00:54,360

have proposed solutions to water

22

00:01:00,170 --> 00:00:57,330

shortages and 22 council members

23

00:01:01,610 --> 00:01:00,180

representing business policy engineering
