

1
00:00:00,539 --> 00:00:20,340
Today, with social media and a lot of role models, there's a lot more awareness that

2
00:00:20,340 --> 00:00:23,360
kids can do just about anything.

3
00:00:23,360 --> 00:00:25,290
We have an African-American president.

4
00:00:25,290 --> 00:00:26,290
There's an

5
00:00:26,290 --> 00:00:29,290
African-American that's the administrator of NASA.

6
00:00:29,290 --> 00:00:35,801
We've had a multitude of African-American astronauts, and when I was growing up, we

7
00:00:35,801 --> 00:00:38,620
didn't have any of that.

8
00:00:38,620 --> 00:00:39,620
Doors were

9
00:00:39,620 --> 00:00:47,230
opened up to me because, I think, I was curious, of course, and you know, when different opportunities

10
00:00:47,230 --> 00:00:50,390
opened up, I would take advantage of that.

11
00:00:50,390 --> 00:00:51,390
That's one thing that I would 12

00:00:51,390 --> 00:00:55,470

always encourage people to do: When there's an opportunity, it might be outside of your

13

00:00:55,470 --> 00:00:59,780

comfort zone, but go ahead and go for it.

14

00:00:59,780 --> 00:01:01,739

You'll more than likely grow from that 15

00:01:01,739 --> 00:01:02,739

experience.

16

00:01:02,739 --> 00:01:06,110

"Welcome to the Kennedy Space Center Visitor Complex."

17

00:01:06,110 --> 00:01:10,220

For me, working at NASA has just been fabulous.

18

00:01:10,220 --> 00:01:14,750

Working here, we work the space program, but it's opened up so many other doors.

19

00:01:14,750 --> 00:01:17,390

I've met so many people.

20

00:01:17,390 --> 00:01:18,390

Just this infectious
