

NASA Celebrates
WOMEN'S HISTORY MONTH

1
00:00:00,030 --> 00:00:05,100
Watching a poll of Soyuz for me was what really did it. Watching the United States

2
00:00:05,100 --> 00:00:08,099
and the Soviet Union shaking hands across an airlock at the height of the 3

00:00:08,099 --> 00:00:13,170
Cold War made me think, space is a really unifying thing for the planet. One 4

00:00:13,170 --> 00:00:17,010
of the things I love about coming to work every single day is being able to 5

00:00:17,010 --> 00:00:20,699 take the bureaucracy off the backs of our scientists and our engineers and 6

00:00:20,699 --> 00:00:24,420
free them up to just focus on the mission. When I first started in my 7

00:00:24,420 --> 00:00:28,920
career there were no women. There were maybe one or two. But now there are women

8
00:00:28,920 --> 00:00:34,320
across NASA. We have women in all kinds of leadership positions now. We have two 9

00:00:34,320 --> 00:00:38,550
women center directors. We have women on the space station now. You don't
