

1

00:00:00,940 --> 00:00:03,560

How has the Apollo program changed everyday life?

2

00:00:03,800 --> 00:00:05,600

[Historic audio] Altitude velocity lights.

3

00:00:06,480 --> 00:00:08,540

[Historic audio] Three and a half down, 220 feet.

4

00:00:08,800 --> 00:00:12,940

Fifty years ago, the Apollo program developed technologies at an unprecedented pace. [Historic audio] Fifteen

5

00:00:13,660 --> 00:00:16,920

paving the way for the incredible innovations we have today.

6

00:00:16,920 --> 00:00:22,420

[Historic audio] All engine running. Liftoff, we have a liftoff on Apollo 11. [On screen] Technology developed for

7

00:00:22,420 --> 00:00:25,700

shock absorbers that keep structures standing during earthquakes

8

00:00:26,220 --> 00:00:29,740

and medical monitors that help save lives every day.

9

00:00:29,740 --> 00:00:33,760

[Historic audio] We have an extraordinary picture here. [On screen] Technology created for the historic moonw

10

00:00:33,760 --> 00:00:36,740

[Historic audio] This exploration at its greatest.

11

00:00:37,240 --> 00:00:41,220

radiant barrier insulation to safeguard people and homes

12

00:00:41,620 --> 00:00:46,400

and polymer fabrics that protect firefighters, the military and civilians.

13

00:00:46,400 --> 00:00:51,340

[On screen] Technology engineered for getting home safely grew into [Historic audio] This nation should comm

14

00:00:51,340 --> 00:00:53,880

[Historic audio] and returning him safely to the earth.

15

00:00:53,940 --> 00:00:56,300

inflatable rafts that have saved countless lives

16

00:00:57,620 --> 00:01:01,080

and rechargeable hearing aid batteries

17

00:01:01,080 --> 00:01:03,440

helping people hear the world around them.

18

00:01:03,820 --> 00:01:07,140

The Apollo program brought real-world benefits to people here on Earth.

19

00:01:07,140 --> 00:01:12,920

[Historic audio] OK, Houston as I stand out here in the wonders of the unknown at Hadley. [On screen] Today,

20

00:01:12,920 --> 00:01:17,820

[Historic audio] I go to realize there's a fundamental truth to our nature. [On screen] we are building cutting-edge

21

00:01:17,820 --> 00:01:20,260

[Historic audio] man must explore. [On screen] that drive exploration
