00:00:00,000 --> 00:00:10,000

Ancient monuments deep underwater, a once thriving metropolis,

00:00:10,000 --> 00:00:14,000

now half a mile under the sea.

00:00:14,000 --> 00:00:19,000

Lost cities submerged for thousands of years.

00:00:19,000 --> 00:00:22,000

All over the world there are sunken cities.

00:00:22,000 --> 00:00:27,000

There's more than 200 known sunken cities in the Mediterranean alone.

00:00:27,000 --> 00:00:30,000

What we're looking at are the remains of cities.

00:00:30,000 --> 00:00:36,000

At a time when mainstream archaeology tells us there were no cities anywhere in the world.

00:00:36,000 --> 00:00:42,000

Are underwater monuments examples of mankind's earliest civilizations?

00:00:42,000 --> 00:00:48,000

Or is there evidence of skills far beyond that of primitive man?

10

00:00:48,000 --> 00:00:52,000

And if so, where did it come from?

11

00:00:52,000 --> 00:00:58,000

The native legends are very clear that something or someone landed

12

00:00:58,000 --> 00:01:02,000 and then knowledge all of a sudden spread.

00:01:02,000 --> 00:01:08,000

There's many, many legends with lights coming from under the water.

00:01:08,000 --> 00:01:16,000

You start to get the idea that there's some kind of ancient alien underwater base.

15

00:01:16,000 --> 00:01:21,000

Millions of people around the world believe we have been visited in the past

16

00:01:21,000 --> 00:01:23,000

by extraterrestrial beings.

17

00:01:23,000 --> 00:01:26,000

What if it were true?

18

00:01:26,000 --> 00:01:30,000

Did ancient aliens really help to shape our history?

19

00:01:30,000 --> 00:01:36,000

If so, what evidence lies deep underwater?

20

00:01:51,000 --> 00:01:56,000

The Earth's Ocean

21

00:01:56,000 --> 00:02:00,000

The Earth's Ocean

22

00:02:00,000 --> 00:02:16,000

Covering more than 71% of the planet, the Earth's oceans are a vast and largely unexplored mystery.

23

00:02:16,000 --> 00:02:23,000

For most of recorded history, man could only guess at what lay beneath the ocean surface.

24

00:02:23,000 --> 00:02:27,000

But new technologies are reaching new depths.

25

00:02:27,000 --> 00:02:34,000

Researchers around the world are finding the unexpected, underwater complexes,

26

00:02:34,000 --> 00:02:40,000

and sophisticated monuments that defy the conventional historical record.

27

00:02:40,000 --> 00:02:54,000

There are remains of urban civilizations on parts of the Earth that were exposed on land 10,000 and more years ago.

28

00:02:54,000 --> 00:03:02,000

And this means that urban civilization is far older by many thousands of years

29

00:03:02,000 --> 00:03:07,000

than many scientists now believe possible.

30

00:03:08,000 --> 00:03:18,000

Scientific theories suggest that during Earth's last ice age, ocean levels were once much lower than they are today.

31

00:03:18,000 --> 00:03:27,000

You have to envisage a world in which there are two mile deep ice caps sitting on top of Northern Europe and North America,

32

00:03:27,000 --> 00:03:32,000

in which are accumulated enormous quantities of water.

33

00:03:33,000 --> 00:03:43,000

And we know that this water began to melt about 21,000 years ago and finished melting about 10,000 years ago.

34

00:03:43,000 --> 00:03:49,000

As a result, rich coastal lands were slowly submerged by rising sea levels.

35

00:03:49,000 --> 00:03:55,000

10 million square miles of land was flooded all around the world.

36

00:03:55,000 --> 00:03:59,000

That's roughly the size of Europe and China added together.

37

00:03:59,000 --> 00:04:02,000

We're just rubbed from the record.

38

00:04:02,000 --> 00:04:05,000

They just disappear from the story.

39

00:04:05,000 --> 00:04:12,000

And in my opinion, archaeology is not doing enough work to investigate those lost and submerged lands.

40

00:04:12,000 --> 00:04:16,000

While much of the ocean's floor remains unexplored,

41

00:04:16,000 --> 00:04:23,000

for thousands of years, philosophers and scientists have been drawn to one of the greatest mysteries of the sea.

42

00:04:23,000 --> 00:04:27,000

The legend of the lost city of Atlantis.

43

00:04:30,000 --> 00:04:37,000

It's been said that more books have been written about Atlantis than any other subject.

44

00:04:37,000 --> 00:04:46,000

But most of what we know comes from the Greek philosopher Plato, who wrote two books about Atlantis, the Timaeus and the Critias.

45

00:04:46,000 --> 00:04:52,000

Written in 360 BC, Plato described Atlantis as a highly advanced city.

46

00:04:52,000 --> 00:04:59,000

Ringed by concentric walls, which flourished 9,000 years before his own time.

47

00:04:59,000 --> 00:05:06,000

There are descriptions of huge palaces for kings.

48

00:05:06,000 --> 00:05:15,000

It's stated that Atlantis had huge naval forces, which it used to conquer other parts of the world.

49

00:05:15,000 --> 00:05:18,000

It was an urban civilization.

50

00:05:19,000 --> 00:05:27,000

According to the ancient Greek texts, Atlantis was connected with extraterrestrials from the beginning.

51

00:05:27,000 --> 00:05:30,000

It was founded by the Greek god Poseidon.

52

00:05:34,000 --> 00:05:42,000

Poseidon can be regarded as an extraterrestrial in the sense of not being of this earth.

53

00:05:43,000 --> 00:05:51,000

Poseidon, one of the extraterrestrials, found a pretty wonderful young woman girl on earth.

54

00:05:51,000 --> 00:06:00,000

And he took this woman girl, made her pregnant, and to protect his new family, he founded Atlantis.

55

00:06:02,000 --> 00:06:09,000

According to the legend, after a failed attempt to invade Athens, disaster struck the island.

56

00:06:09,000 --> 00:06:14,000

According to Plato, Atlantis was destroyed in a day and a night.

57

00:06:19,000 --> 00:06:26,000

And it had a chlysmic destruction that sank the entire island and its capital city.

58

00:06:27,000 --> 00:06:34,000

Some researchers believe that the Atlantians somehow destroyed themselves.

59

00:06:35,000 --> 00:06:40,000

According to Plato, Atlantis was located in front of the Pillars of Hercules,

60

00:06:40,000 --> 00:06:45,000

a location beyond what some scholars attribute to modern Gibraltar.

61

00:06:46,000 --> 00:06:53,000

And to the ancients, as they left the Mediterranean Sea to go into the larger Atlantic Ocean,

62

00:06:54,000 --> 00:07:00,000

this was where they went beyond the Pillars of Hercules between Spain and Morocco.

63

00:07:01,000 --> 00:07:08,000

Across the Atlantic lies the island chain of the Bahamas, just southeast of Florida.

64

00:07:09,000 --> 00:07:16,000

Here in 1968, archaeologist Jay Manson Valentine believed he found part of Atlantis

65

00:07:16,000 --> 00:07:22,000

when he discovered an unusual rock formation off the coast of North Bimini Island.

66

00:07:24,000 --> 00:07:29,000

It's only in about 12 to 18 feet of water so you can view it easily.

67

00:07:31,000 --> 00:07:34,000

First scientists thought this was just beach rock,

68

00:07:34,000 --> 00:07:40,000

but then several other scientists exploring the Bimini Road noticed that the beach rock

69

00:07:40,000 --> 00:07:45,000

was on top of other beach rock with balancing stones wedged in between.

70

00:07:45,000 --> 00:07:48,000

And they said, nature doesn't do that, man does.

71

00:07:48,000 --> 00:07:53,000

And they realized this is a harbor, a breakwater for a harbor.

72

00:07:54,000 --> 00:08:01,000

From the shallow edges of Bimini, all the way to the Gulf Stream in 300 feet of water,

73

00:08:01,000 --> 00:08:09,000

we have found many fascinating complexities that look like remnants of ancient cities or structures,

74

00:08:09,000 --> 00:08:14,000

roads, pathways, structures covered in coral.

75

00:08:15,000 --> 00:08:18,000

Could the Bimini ruins be remnants of Atlantis?

76

00:08:18,000 --> 00:08:24,000

And if so, could these roads lead to other sites buried under sand and water?

77

00:08:26,000 --> 00:08:31,000

In the year 2000, while mapping the seafloor off the western coast of Cuba,

78

00:08:31,000 --> 00:08:37,000

a research expedition led by Russian-Canadian oceanographer Paulina Zalitsky spotted symmetrical stone structures deep below the water.

79

00:08:37,000 --> 00:08:41,000

80

00:08:41,000 --> 00:08:45,000

Remarkably, they were over a half mile down.

81

00:08:45,000 --> 00:08:52,000

Divers cannot do this kind of investigation, so we have to use a remote operating vehicle.

82

00:08:52,000 --> 00:08:57,000

And this vehicle is equipped with video cameras and manipulators,

83

00:08:57,000 --> 00:09:01,000

and it's controlled from the deck of the ship.

84

00:09:04,000 --> 00:09:08,000

The expedition was also armed with side-scan sonar equipment

85

00:09:08,000 --> 00:09:14,000

used to create images of large areas of the seafloor and underwater objects.

86

00:09:15,000 --> 00:09:21,000

I was in control room on the board of the ship, and we were receiving that image coming from side-scan.

87

00:09:21,000 --> 00:09:29,000

And this is just one of the many other images that we were obtaining of the area of structures

88

00:09:29,000 --> 00:09:36,000

made of large stones placed one on top of another.

89

00:09:37,000 --> 00:09:41,000

Well, what do they end up with?

90

00:09:41,000 --> 00:09:50,000

It is an image that shows these rectangular 90-degree angles over and over and over

91

00:09:50,000 --> 00:09:55,000

on very large structures that seem to have wide avenues.

92

00:09:55,000 --> 00:10:00,000

The exploration found huge stone blocks in pyramid shapes.

93

00:10:00,000 --> 00:10:02,000

Others more circular.

94

00:10:02,000 --> 00:10:09,000

Most were gigantic, reaching 16 feet in height and weighing several tons.

95

00:10:09,000 --> 00:10:18,000

Thirty geometric structures emerged, appearing to be the remains of streets, buildings, tunnels and pyramids,

96

00:10:18,000 --> 00:10:23,000

all at a depth of 2,200 feet below the surface of the water.

97

00:10:24,000 --> 00:10:33,000

We might well have here the evidence of a prehistoric culture that would probably go back tens of thousands of years,

98

00:10:33,000 --> 00:10:35,000 and that's very exciting indeed.

99

00:10:38,000 --> 00:10:43,000

Using dating techniques based on the presence of nearby volcanic ash,

100

00:10:43,000 --> 00:10:48,000

geologists estimated the underwater city sank over 6,000 years ago.

101

00:10:48,000 --> 00:10:56,000

Could this be a half-mile down some part of the sunken Atlantis?

102

00:10:56,000 --> 00:11:01,000

From 9,000, 10,000 years ago, the Plato talked about.

103

00:11:01,000 --> 00:11:08,000

Well, the Atlantis myth is integrally related with the area of the Caribbean and the Bahamas.

104

00:11:08,000 --> 00:11:12,000

In particular, Cuba, Plato talks about an island empire.

105

00:11:12,000 --> 00:11:16,000

He's probably talking about dozens of different islands of different sizes,

106

00:11:16,000 --> 00:11:23,000

not just in the western Atlantic, but probably stretching out right into the central Atlantic area.

107

00:11:24,000 --> 00:11:30,000

Both the Cuban and the Bahaman ruins lie on the western edge of the Bermuda Triangle,

108

00:11:30,000 --> 00:11:35,000

an area of ocean covering over 500,000 square miles,

109

00:11:35,000 --> 00:11:44,000

known for magnetic anomalies, extraterrestrial sightings, and unexplained disappearances of aircraft and ships.

110

00:11:44,000 --> 00:11:51,000

Could there be a connection between Atlantis and the area known as the Devil's Triangle?

111

00:11:53,000 --> 00:12:00,000

On the edge of the Bermuda Triangle, there are underwater ruins of the ancient city of Atlantis,

112

00:12:00,000 --> 00:12:05,000

the prehistoric city of Atlantis. So yes, there is a theory that Atlantis lies, not near Greece, but in the Bermuda Triangle.

113

00:12:05,000 --> 00:12:09,000

114

00:12:12,000 --> 00:12:19,000

If Plato's texts are true, then other Greek myths may provide a hint of the true fate of Atlantis.

115

00:12:19,000 --> 00:12:29,000

One myth tells of the Titan goddess named Asteria, who fell from the sky and became an island.

116

00:12:29,000 --> 00:12:38,000

In ancient Greece, we have a number of myths which describe islands, bronze-gleaming islands,

117

00:12:38,000 --> 00:12:42,000

that fell from the sky and landed in water.

118

00:12:43,000 --> 00:12:51,000

I don't think that Atlantis, therefore, was an actual stationary physical island.

119

00:12:51,000 --> 00:13:00,000

Atlantis, according to Plato, disappeared in one night with a lot of fire and a lot of smoke.

120

00:13:00,000 --> 00:13:07,000

See, I don't think that Atlantis sank. I think Atlantis lifted off.

121

00:13:12,000 --> 00:13:19,000

Was Atlantis a safe haven for ancient aliens before the end of Earth's last ice age?

122

00:13:19,000 --> 00:13:26,000

And if so, could there be other alien cities submerged deep underwater?

123

00:13:28,000 --> 00:13:36,000

Yonaguni, Japan. This small island is at the westernmost tip of the Japanese archipelago.

124

00:13:38,000 --> 00:13:45,000

Scholars believe the first inhabitants migrated here from Southeast Asia during prehistoric times.

125

00:13:50,000 --> 00:14:02,000

In 1987, in nearby waters, dive tour operator Kichiru Arataki made a shocking discovery.

126

00:14:03,000 --> 00:14:10,000

A massive complex of stone formations lay hidden a mere 60 feet beneath the ocean surface.

127

00:14:11,000 --> 00:14:18,000

Experts call it one of the greatest discoveries in the history of underwater archaeology.

128

00:14:20,000 --> 00:14:30,000

What's intriguing about the complex at Yonaguni is that there are a whole range of monuments pretty much side by side.

129

00:14:30,000 --> 00:14:39,000

And this, to my eye, looks unmistakably to be the work of human beings, not the random action of the ocean on differential layers of stone.

130

00:14:39,000 --> 00:14:46,000

There are several reasons why I think this is not a natural formation.

131

00:14:46,000 --> 00:14:51,000

A number of tools and numerous engraved stones were found at the site.

132

00:14:51,000 --> 00:14:57,000

Because of these things, there is no doubt to me that this was made artificially.

133

00:14:57,000 --> 00:15:09,000

Submerged beneath 60 to 100 feet of water, the largest of the formations resemble a massive five-layered stepped pyramid, the size of two football fields.

134

00:15:11,000 --> 00:15:17,000

You see unambiguous carvings that clue the size of the water.

135

00:15:17,000 --> 00:15:21,000

The size of two football fields.

136

00:15:23,000 --> 00:15:31,000

You see unambiguous carvings that clearly are geometric in nature, tons of right angles.

137

00:15:31,000 --> 00:15:37,000

We see channels that you can walk through with stairwells at the end that are perfectly rectangular in shape.

138

00:15:38,000 --> 00:15:45,000

There are places where you find megaliths piled on top of one another to create a tunnel through which you can swim.

139

00:15:45,000 --> 00:15:51,000

There is a set of megaliths positioned side by side against the side of the cliff.

140

00:15:51,000 --> 00:15:55,000

There is a gigantic human face carved underwater.

141

00:15:58,000 --> 00:16:03,000

There is a stone in which is carved, a face almost 23 feet tall.

142

00:16:03,000 --> 00:16:09,000

Our first impression was that it looked a lot like the Moai on Easter Island.

143

00:16:10,000 --> 00:16:16,000

Then we began to realize that it strongly resembled the Sphinx, which guarded the pyramids.

144

00:16:16,000 --> 00:16:21,000

We wondered if that might be the function the face is also serving here.

145

00:16:22,000 --> 00:16:30,000

It's the whole combination of all these structures together, which convinced me that we're looking at a ceremonial complex.

146

00:16:31,000 --> 00:16:38,000

The mystery surrounding the Yonaguni underwater structure is when did it go underwater?

147

00:16:39,000 --> 00:16:46,000

The geological evidence is that it was submerged during the meltdown of the last Ice Age.

148

00:16:53,000 --> 00:17:03,000

All around the world, whether it is France, India or Japan, there are man-made structures that lie underwater.

149

00:17:03,000 --> 00:17:07,000

Two ways how our ancestors could have done this.

150

00:17:07,000 --> 00:17:18,000

Either they had scuba gear, I don't think so, or this stuff was built when the ocean levels were lower.

151

00:17:18,000 --> 00:17:22,000

And that was over 14,000 years ago.

152

00:17:22,000 --> 00:17:29,000

And 14,000 years ago, according to mainstream archaeology, we were just dwelling in caves, hunter-gatherers.

153

00:17:30,000 --> 00:17:34,000

Could the Yonaguni structures have been built by such primitive people?

154

00:17:35,000 --> 00:17:39,000

And what evidence exists of the people who inhabited this island?

155

00:17:40,000 --> 00:17:45,000

Human fossils were found, so I'm sure there were people living on the island.

156

00:17:45,000 --> 00:17:51,000

But there's some question about whether or not they had the technology to create structures or anything like this.

157

00:17:52,000 --> 00:17:56,000

It's not so much the question of could the stone have been chipped away and removed.

158

00:17:56,000 --> 00:18:04,000

It's a question of the vision, of the scale of the complex, of thinking in those kind of terms.

00:18:04,000 --> 00:18:15,000

And we know of no other stone age culture that thought in those kind of terms of creating a gigantic, seemingly ceremonial complex.

160

00:18:16,000 --> 00:18:23,000

If, according to scholars, the ancient Japanese people could not have built this monument.

161

00:18:23,000 --> 00:18:27,000

Who did? And how did it get here?

162

00:18:28,000 --> 00:18:33,000

Speculation is that extraterrestrials created the Yonaguni monument.

163

00:18:33,000 --> 00:18:38,000

The engineering is just beyond the capacity of stone age civilizations.

164

00:18:39,000 --> 00:18:48,000

Ancient astronaut theorists also believe the key to the Yonaguni mystery is found in its global positioning.

165

00:18:51,000 --> 00:18:59,000

Strangely, the complex lies within an area of the Pacific, long suspected of extraterrestrial activity.

166

00:19:00,000 --> 00:19:03,000

It's called the Dragon's Triangle.

167

00:19:03,000 --> 00:19:10,000

Just south of Japan, you have a mysterious area called the Dragon's Triangle,

168

00:19:10,000 --> 00:19:16,000 which is very similar to the Muto Triangle because you have planes that have disappeared from the air,

169

00:19:16,000 --> 00:19:19,000

ships that have disappeared from the ocean.

170

00:19:19,000 --> 00:19:23,000

In fact, Japan has declared this a disaster area.

171

00:19:27,000 --> 00:19:29,000

Don't fly through it.

172

00:19:29,000 --> 00:19:35,000

Stay the heck away because if you go in there, terrible things can happen to you.

173

00:19:39,000 --> 00:19:45,000

In ancient Japan and even into the relatively modern era, there are stories about the Dragon's Sea

174

00:19:45,000 --> 00:19:50,000

in which objects rise out of the water and sail through the air.

175

00:19:50,000 --> 00:19:54,000

In ancient Japan, these were winged monsters breathing fire.

176

00:19:55,000 --> 00:20:01,000

In more modern times, these took on the appearance of actual machines.

177

00:20:01,000 --> 00:20:09,000

When you compare those descriptions of these devices with the description that Columbus gave

178

00:20:09,000 --> 00:20:15,000 of a craft near the Muto Triangle actually rising out of the water, a light that followed the ship,

179

00:20:15,000 --> 00:20:21,000

you realize there's a similarity in both of these locations to things, objects,

180

00:20:21,000 --> 00:20:26,000

that are in the water and rise out of the water and fly through the air.

181

00:20:26,000 --> 00:20:33,000

But why are the two submerged structures found within the perimeter of the strange regions of the planet

182

00:20:33,000 --> 00:20:37,000

where so much unusual activity occurs?

183

00:20:37,000 --> 00:20:46,000

Is it coincidence that the Earth's 25th parallel north cuts through both the Muto Triangle and the Dragon's Triangle?

184

00:20:47,000 --> 00:20:55,000

They lie on a plane along the same line and both of them have the same magnetic phenomena

185

00:20:55,000 --> 00:21:00,000

in which compass bearings are lost and instruments go down.

186

00:21:00,000 --> 00:21:05,000

People wonder if there's a real strange UFO connection.

187

00:21:06,000 --> 00:21:13,000

If UFOs and flying saucers do exist, then we should suspect that they could originally come from an ancient super civilization.

188

00:21:13,000 --> 00:21:17,000

It makes you wonder if flying saucers, UFOs, or whatever you want to call them,

189

00:21:17,000 --> 00:21:25,000

actually use the area of the triangle as their major base and perhaps even coming back to the remnants of a civilization that they were familiar with.

190

00:21:27,000 --> 00:21:33,000

What if the sunken monuments at Yonaguni and near Cuba had alien origins?

191

00:21:33,000 --> 00:21:37,000

Might they have been used as alien bases?

192

00:21:37,000 --> 00:21:44,000

And if we believe extraterrestrials functioned on land, could they have also functioned underwater?

193

00:21:44,000 --> 00:21:49,000

Could there be more evidence lying in the vast Pacific?

194

00:21:53,000 --> 00:22:01,000

As an island nation, it should come as no mystery that much of Japan's rich history is tied to the waters of the Pacific Ocean.

195

00:22:02,000 --> 00:22:11,000

But although many of Japan's legends are largely unknown to the West, some are drawing the attention of ancient astronaut theorists.

196

00:22:14,000 --> 00:22:22,000

One such legend dates back to 1803 and traces its origins to a beach north of Tokyo.

197

00:22:23,000 --> 00:22:31,000

Allegedly, a craft that was quite large in size washed up on the shore in Japan.

198

00:22:32,000 --> 00:22:41,000

Strange round ship drifted ashore in this area and the people investigated inside of the ship.

199

00:22:41,000 --> 00:22:45,000

They found young, beautiful woman inside the boat.

200

00:22:45,000 --> 00:22:49,000

The woman did not speak any language they could identify.

201

00:22:49,000 --> 00:22:53,000

There were written inscriptions inside her craft that they could not identify.

202

00:22:53,000 --> 00:22:58,000

And she's clutching this box that she didn't want anybody to touch.

203

00:22:58,000 --> 00:23:03,000

In some reason, the box was used for severe lovers' heads.

204

00:23:03,000 --> 00:23:14,000

However, the shape of the box is a little bit different from the box that is traditionally used for severe heads in Japan.

205

00:23:14,000 --> 00:23:21,000

So I have no idea the function of this box. So it's an interesting mystery.

206

00:23:22,000 --> 00:23:31,000

Known as the legend of the Utsurobune, or hollow ship, the details of the story have puzzled historians for centuries.

207

00:23:31,000 --> 00:23:35,000

Where, for example, did the mysterious hollow ship come from?

208

00:23:35,000 --> 00:23:40,000

Could it have come from the area of the submerged Ionaguni monument?

209

00:23:40,000 --> 00:23:43,000

Who was the strange woman?

210

00:23:43,000 --> 00:23:47,000

And what were the contents of the box she guarded so carefully?

211

00:23:47,000 --> 00:23:53,000

Was it a human head? Or was it, as some ancient astronaut theorists believe, a type of brain or other form of extraterrestrial intelligence?

212

00:23:53,000 --> 00:23:58,000

213

00:23:58,000 --> 00:24:06,000

If so, could it have been intended as a gift to the early Japanese by an ancient space traveler?

214

00:24:08,000 --> 00:24:13,000

There's five different drawings that have survived from completely different regions of Japan.

215

00:24:13,000 --> 00:24:17,000

They're almost identical to modern UFO reports.

216

00:24:17,000 --> 00:24:28,000

The motif of this legend is the same as that of modern UFO legend that is visited from outer world in the disc-shaped craft.

217

00:24:28,000 --> 00:24:36,000

I think that this legend may have a key to solve the modern UFO legend.

218

00:24:37,000 --> 00:24:45,000

As evidence to support their claims, ancient astronaut theorists point to early Japanese carvings and statuary,

219

00:24:45,000 --> 00:24:49,000

each suggesting a variety of extraterrestrial encounters.

220

00:24:50,000 --> 00:24:54,000

This is a dogu figure, and it comes from Japan.

221

00:24:54,000 --> 00:25:05,000

Even to the untrained eye, you look at this, and it's as if this being is wearing some type of a suit with a helmet, some goggles on the back.

222

00:25:05,000 --> 00:25:11,000

There are all these weird buckles and circles, you know, straps.

223

00:25:11,000 --> 00:25:15,000

Very similar to a modern-day space suit.

224

00:25:15,000 --> 00:25:23,000

In my opinion, this is a likeness of a possible extraterrestrial that visited Earth thousands of years ago.

225

00:25:26,000 --> 00:25:32,000

Archaeologists have catalogued the existence of more than 15,000 dogu figures,

226

00:25:32,000 --> 00:25:41,000

made during the Jomon period of prehistoric Japan, dating from approximately 14,000 to 300 years BC.

227

00:25:41,000 --> 00:25:54,000

But could, as ancient astronaut theorists believe, these strange dogu figures really be a primitive interpretation of a pressurized space suit or diving apparel?

228

00:25:55,000 --> 00:26:08,000

The story behind those dogu figures is very clear, and anyone can go and read translations of the ancient texts that the dogu a long time ago descended from the sky

229

00:26:08,000 --> 00:26:12,000

and taught the first Japanese people in various disciplines.

230

00:26:13,000 --> 00:26:22,000

And the whole Japanese culture, including the T-mono, the tea ceremony, the use of wasabi and ginger for eating sushi,

231

00:26:22,000 --> 00:26:32,000

the way that they build their architecture, the written language, everything they say came from these visitors, from these gods, from the universe.

232

00:26:32,000 --> 00:26:39,000

The picture shows beings who look like astronauts. They are dressed like an astronaut.

233

00:26:39,000 --> 00:26:46,000

They have the helmet as an astronaut. They have some strange tools in their hands, tools which we do not understand.

234

00:26:47,000 --> 00:26:57,000

Now there is a link. The Japanese call it dogus. In North America, we have still the Hopi tribe in Arizona.

235

00:26:57,000 --> 00:27:04,000

And the Hopi Indians are still making today Kachina dolls.

236

00:27:06,000 --> 00:27:12,000

Kachina dolls look similar to the Japanese dogu figures.

237

00:27:13,000 --> 00:27:21,000

Further back in the Sahara desert, Africa, we found cave paintings.

238

00:27:24,000 --> 00:27:30,000

When you see the picture, you see definitely an astronaut suit. No doubt. Absolutely.

239

00:27:31,000 --> 00:27:40,000

Now you compare these cave paintings with the Kachina dolls of the Hopi and with the dogu of Japan. We have one line.

240

00:27:43,000 --> 00:27:52,000

Do the mysterious dogu figures provide tangible evidence of extraterrestrial encounters in Japan's ancient past?

241

00:27:54,000 --> 00:28:03,000

And does the legend of the Yotsuru Bune suggest that the Earth's oceans may be hiding even more proof of alien contact?

242

00:28:05,000 --> 00:28:11,000

Perhaps the answer can be found deep in the waters off the coast of India.

243

00:28:13,000 --> 00:28:25,000

In 2001, researchers from India's Oceanic Institute detected anomalies on the bottom of the Gulf of Combat, seven miles from shore.

244

00:28:26,000 --> 00:28:36,000

They had been commissioned by the Indian government to do a survey of pollution in the Gulf of Combat up in the northwest of India.

245

00:28:36,000 --> 00:28:40,000

And they were not expecting to find anything except a mess down there.

246

00:28:41,000 --> 00:28:48,000

But suddenly, their side scan sonar started returning images of regular structures.

247

00:28:49,000 --> 00:28:59,000

The images revealed an enormous network of stone buildings, now shrouded in mud and sand and covering an area of five square miles.

248

00:28:59,000 --> 00:29:05,000

What we're looking at in the Gulf of Combat are the remains of cities. There's actually two of them.

249

00:29:06,000 --> 00:29:10,000

And it turns out that they are positioned on the side of ancient river channels.

250

00:29:11,000 --> 00:29:19,000

They look like cities that have been submerged for a very long time, at a time when mainstream archaeology tells us there were no cities anywhere in the world.

251

00:29:21,000 --> 00:29:27,000

Powerful cross currents made it nearly impossible to dive the 170 feet to the bottom.

252

00:29:29,000 --> 00:29:36,000

Still, scientists retrieved dozens of artifacts, including wood and pottery shards.

253

00:29:37,000 --> 00:29:48,000

Some of the dates on some of the human artifacts that were brought up extended as far back as 32,000 years.

254

00:29:49,000 --> 00:29:57,000

But the oceanographers concluded that the area had been covered by water about 9,000 years ago.

255

00:29:57,000 --> 00:30:05,000

So this city had apparently existed from 32,000 to about 9,000 years ago.

256

00:30:07,000 --> 00:30:14,000

Mainstream scholars today claim that ancient Indian civilization only goes back four or five thousand years.

257

00:30:15,000 --> 00:30:24,000

Yet, Hindu scholars themselves say that Hindu civilization is going back many tens of thousands, even hundreds of thousands of years.

258

00:30:25,000 --> 00:30:30,000

Might the ruins below the Gulf of Combat prove the Hindu scholars right?

259

00:30:31,000 --> 00:30:34,000

Another recent discovery may support their claims.

260

00:30:38,000 --> 00:30:43,000

200 miles to the northwest lies the modern city of Diwarka.

261

00:30:44,000 --> 00:30:51,000

Archaeologists digging deep under the city found signs of a settlement once inundated by the sea.

262

00:30:54,000 --> 00:31:01,000

Inspired by this clue, they began searching for more ruins in waters just off the coast.

263

00:31:04,000 --> 00:31:14,000

In only 70 feet of water, divers discovered sandstone walls, cobblestone streets and evidence of a prosperous seaport.

264

00:31:15,000 --> 00:31:22,000

Scholars declared these ruins to be the remains of the ancient and legendary city of Diwarka.

265

00:31:25,000 --> 00:31:33,000

Ancient Hindu texts explain that the legendary city of Diwarka was said to be the dwelling place of Lord Krishna,

266

00:31:34,000 --> 00:31:37,000

a deity worshipped across many traditions of Hinduism.

267

00:31:38,000 --> 00:31:48,000

Imagine what it would mean for the Christian world to all of a sudden discover the actual holy grail, the actual Ark of the Covenant.

268

00:31:49,000 --> 00:31:55,000

That would be akin for the Indian population to discover an actual Diwarka.

269

00:31:56,000 --> 00:32:04,000

This was a very powerful city which was ruled by Lord Krishna and Krishna is still revered until today.

270

00:32:05,000 --> 00:32:08,000

It's one of the highest gods that we have in Hindu culture.

271

00:32:09,000 --> 00:32:17,000

Hindu texts explain that a king named Shalva attacked Lord Krishna in the mythical Diwarka.

272

00:32:18,000 --> 00:32:27,000

Ancient astronaut theorists believe the descriptions of the battle suggest the use of alien technology and even spacecraft.

273

00:32:28,000 --> 00:32:41,000

According to the ancient Sanskrit texts, with this spacecraft, Shalva attacked the city, raining down energy weapons that resemble lightning.

274

00:32:42,000 --> 00:32:47,000

He destroyed large parts of the city in this way.

275

00:32:48,000 --> 00:33:00,000

When this happened, the king of the city, the god Krishna, responded by firing weapons at this spacecraft.

276

00:33:01,000 --> 00:33:04,000

The weapons are described as arrows, but they're not ordinary arrows.

277

00:33:05,000 --> 00:33:12,000

It's said that they roared like thunder when they were launched and resembled bolts of lightning or rays of the sun.

278

00:33:13,000 --> 00:33:22,000

In response, it is said that the spacecraft began to appear in different places simultaneously.

279

00:33:23,000 --> 00:33:30,000

It appeared to be moving in ways that resemble modern descriptions of UFOs.

280

00:33:31,000 --> 00:33:43,000

So what I find interesting about this account is there's a spacecraft made of metal that is firing down weapons on a city on earth.

281

00:33:44,000 --> 00:33:51,000

The legend says that Krishna eventually departed earth and the ocean consumed his city of Diwarka.

282

00:33:52,000 --> 00:34:01,000

For many people, the description of fabulous ancient cities and the Sanskrit writings of India were simply mythology.

283

00:34:02,000 --> 00:34:13,000

But with the discovery of the remains of a sunken city off the coast of India in the location of Diwarka, all that has changed.

284

00:34:14,000 --> 00:34:26,000

People are beginning to look at these ancient writings in a new light and see them not simply as mythology, but as actual historical records.

285

00:34:29,000 --> 00:34:34,000

Did India's ancestors witness a war between extraterrestrial entities?

286

00:34:35,000 --> 00:34:46,000

If the mythical city cited in the Hindu texts turned out to be real, could there also be evidence of Krishna and his supernatural powers?

287

00:34:47,000 --> 00:35:02,000

Ancient alien theorists believe a link between the submerged ruins and extraterrestrials can be found in another set of texts known as India's Sangam literature.

288

00:35:04,000 --> 00:35:08,000

Sangams were assemblies of sages.

289

00:35:09,000 --> 00:35:17,000

It says that the first two Sangams took place on a sunken landmass called Kumari Kandam.

290

00:35:18,000 --> 00:35:27,000

This area was once above water thousands of years ago according to the accounts, but it's now underwater.

291

00:35:28,000 --> 00:35:35,000

It's also interesting that these assemblies of sages included extraterrestrial beings as well.

292

00:35:36,000 --> 00:35:47,000

And this fits in with evidence discovered in the Gulf of Cambay and off the coast of the present city of Diwarka.

293

00:35:54,000 --> 00:36:01,000

Are the interpretations of India's ancient texts proof of alien contact in Earth's past?

294

00:36:02,000 --> 00:36:08,000

And are the descriptions of gods actually descriptions of extraterrestrials?

295

00:36:10,000 --> 00:36:20,000

Perhaps another discovery, one beneath a mysterious lake, will yield even more evidence of alien visitors in the remote past.

296

00:36:24,000 --> 00:36:26,000

The Andes Mountains, Peru.

297

00:36:27,000 --> 00:36:38,000

Here, at an elevation of 12,500 feet, lie the dark waters of Lake Titicaca, the highest navigable body of water in the world.

298

00:36:40,000 --> 00:36:48,000

In August of 2000, an Italian team of divers and archaeologists launched an underwater investigation of the legendary lake.

299

00:36:49,000 --> 00:37:01,000

There, submerged under 100 feet of water, the team uncovered traces of a paved road, a stone terrace, and a wall nearly a half mile long.

300

00:37:03,000 --> 00:37:09,000

For centuries, local legends have spoken of a lost underwater city called Winaku.

301

00:37:10,000 --> 00:37:15,000

Could these ruins provide proof that such a city did in fact exist?

302

00:37:16,000 --> 00:37:19,000

Then, another shocking discovery.

303

00:37:20,000 --> 00:37:24,000

Line on the lake bed was a large, sculptured stone head.

304

00:37:25,000 --> 00:37:31,000

Could this ancient relic offer a clue to the origins of this incredible archaeological find?

305

00:37:35,000 --> 00:37:44,000

Comparisons were quickly made to similar stonework found at the nearby ancient city of Tijuanaqo, just 12 miles south of Lake Titicaca.

306

00:37:45,000 --> 00:37:52,000

A city long thought by ancient astronaut theorists to have extraterrestrial origins.

307

00:37:54,000 --> 00:38:07,000

When the early conquistadors talked to the local Amara Indians, they were told that giants at the beginning of creation had created Tijuanaqo.

308

00:38:07,000 --> 00:38:16,000

The Spanish too were amazed by the gigantic blocks of stone. They felt that the devil had built this building.

309

00:38:19,000 --> 00:38:36,000

If you look at some of the rock cut and megalithic structures in the site of Tijuanaqo, I personally believe very strongly that we are looking at an older episode of construction and the traces of a forgotten episode in the human story.

00:38:37,000 --> 00:38:46,000

But if the ruins found at the bottom of Lake Titicaca are from the legendary lost city of Wanaku, what happened to it?

311

00:38:47,000 --> 00:38:58,000

Did it fall prey to a major earthquake or other natural disaster? Or was the city, as some ancient astronaut theorists believe, deliberately flooded?

312

00:38:59,000 --> 00:39:11,000

The more you know about Lake Titicaca, the stranger it gets. Archaeologists have problems in really explaining why there are sunken ruins there.

313

00:39:12,000 --> 00:39:18,000

Because they're saying that the ruins aren't that old. They're only 1500 years old.

314

00:39:18,000 --> 00:39:38,000

And that would mean that Lake Titicaca has gone through a number of major changes in that period. And it's possible that somehow the lake itself and its shorelines were manipulated so that certain areas of Lake Titicaca were flooded in a sort of artificial way.

315

00:39:39,000 --> 00:39:56,000

There is a type of seahorse that lives in Lake Titicaca, and seahorses are coming from saltwater and oceans. Yet these seahorses are living at nearly 13,000 feet in the Andes.

316

00:39:57,000 --> 00:40:09,000

But just how could an ancient people have artificially created South America's largest lake, a lake that is 118 miles long and 50 miles wide?

317

00:40:09,000 --> 00:40:25,000

When you ask the local population, how did all of this come into being? The Imara Indians will tell you that all of this has existed since before the beginning of time.

318

00:40:25,000 --> 00:40:36,000

In the Imara legends, the lake is like the place of Genesis, the place where it starts all the civilizations in our continent.

319

00:40:36,000 --> 00:40:48,000

There's very, very, very old roots. I mean, we're not talking only about these civilizations, these humanity. We're talking about our seeds, the roots of the stars.

320

00:40:49,000 --> 00:41:07,000

Some people believe that extraterrestrial build, but what I believe is that the space brothers help us, direct us, teach us, because they had experience in many ways.

321

00:41:08,000 --> 00:41:22,000

The legend says that once the space brothers came to this planet and they used to live with us, and they was very important in our lives, and they used to be very powerful people.

322

00:41:23,000 --> 00:41:37,000

But is it possible that the lost city of Wanaku was really built or inhabited by the ancient ancestors of the indigenous Imara people?

323

00:41:37,000 --> 00:41:46,000

And if so, could it have been deliberately flooded to avoid detection from the outside world?

324

00:41:47,000 --> 00:41:53,000

The elders, they used to talk about the underwater city.

325

00:41:53,000 --> 00:42:09,000

They talk about the lights like stars connecting with the lake. The stars, when they come down to the lake, there is changes in the temperatures.

326

00:42:10,000 --> 00:42:21,000

There is many legends with lights coming from the underground of the lake. It seems they come, they go, and they return in the different moments.

327

00:42:21,000 --> 00:42:35,000

You'd start to get the idea that there's some kind of ancient alien underwater base. And it's possible that some of these sunken ruins are somehow part of that base.

328

00:42:36,000 --> 00:42:49,000

Could the ancient city of Wanaku really have been built by alien visitors? And if so, why? What was their purpose?

329

00:42:49,000 --> 00:42:57,000

Could the discovery of this and other sunken cities provide the evidence that mankind has been seeking for centuries?

330

00:42:57,000 --> 00:43:03,000

Evidence that proves we are not alone.

331

00:43:03,000 --> 00:43:11,000

These mysterious underwater structures really don't have any context or any background but just seem to come from nowhere.

332

00:43:11,000 --> 00:43:20,000

They seem to stand out as being out of place in time. So there's some question marks, some mysteries surrounding them that might shed new light on human history.

333

00:43:21,000 --> 00:43:34,000

Atlantis, Lake Titicaca, Dwarka. All those ancient mystery places always have had a connection to the gods.

334

00:43:34,000 --> 00:43:40,000

The gods, when the ancient astronaut opinion, were flesh and blood extraterrestrials.

335

00:43:40,000 --> 00:43:48,000

And in the end, the ancient astronaut theory will be proven right.
