The first responders on the scene reported a UFO.

00:00:07,540 --> 00:00:09,600

Miraculous appearances.

00:00:09,700 --> 00:00:13,180

Inside the tilma was a virgin mother.

00:00:13,280 --> 00:00:16,140

And visions that changed the world.

00:00:16,240 --> 00:00:18,780

This extraordinary sign from Heavens

00:00:18,880 --> 00:00:24,060

becomes one of the crucial turning points in human history.

8

00:00:24,160 --> 00:00:26,780

Stories of strange encounters accompany

00:00:26,840 --> 00:00:30,480

many of history's major events.

10

00:00:30,580 --> 00:00:33,340

Is it merely coincidence?

11

00:00:33,440 --> 00:00:38,580

Or might it be evidence of extraterrestrial intervention?

12

00:00:38,680 --> 00:00:42,280

It appears that there is an ongoing plan in place,

13

00:00:42,380 --> 00:00:45,860

a hidden hand in history that is manipulating events

14

00:00:45,960 --> 00:00:48,520 for a certain given outcome.

15

00:00:48,620 --> 00:00:50,860

Millions of people around the world

16

00:00:50,960 --> 00:00:53,200

believe we have been visited in the past

17

00:00:53,300 --> 00:00:55,960

by extraterrestrial beings.

18

00:00:56,020 --> 00:00:59,060

What if it were true?

19

00:00:59,160 --> 00:01:03,720

Did ancient aliens really help to shape our history?

20

00:01:03,820 --> 00:01:07,420

And if so, might mankind's greatest moments

21

00:01:07,520 --> 00:01:10,800

have been influenced by alien encounters?

40

00:01:40,120 --> 00:01:57,120

Japan, March 11, 2011, emanating 43 miles off the eastern coast of the Oshika Peninsula.

41

00:01:57,120 --> 00:02:05,720

One of the largest earthquakes in recorded history, a magnitude 9.0, shakes the Earth.

42

00:02:05,720 --> 00:02:11,320

The massive movement of two tectonic plates instantly moves the entire Japanese mainland,

43

00:02:11,320 --> 00:02:19,320

some eight feet, ripping down buildings, setting fires, and killing thousands of people.

44

00:02:19,320 --> 00:02:23,320

But the worst is yet to come.

45

00:02:23,320 --> 00:02:27,720

The earthquake also triggers enormous tsunamis.

46

00:02:27,720 --> 00:02:35,520

Waves as high as 130 feet begin smashing ashore with devastating consequences.

47

00:02:35,520 --> 00:02:43,120

One wave in particular struck the Fukushima Daiichi power generating plant and overwhelmed the safety systems,

48

00:02:43,120 --> 00:02:51,520

which caused the plant to enter a critical phase and release radioactive material into the atmosphere and into the water.

49

00:02:51,520 --> 00:02:59,920

With the nuclear power plant's reactors melting down and radiation seeping into the atmosphere,

50

00:02:59,920 --> 00:03:04,520

the authorities evacuate the region.

51

00:03:04,520 --> 00:03:12,520

Only people who remain are employees who struggle for days to prevent a larger catastrophe from occurring.

52

00:03:12,520 --> 00:03:19,520

But according to eyewitnesses on the scene, these workers were not alone.

53

00:03:19,520 --> 00:03:29,520

There were UFO sightings reported in some significant numbers in that area in the weeks and the days leading up to the earthquake and tsunami.

54

00:03:29,520 --> 00:03:39,520

And there were a number of UFO sightings reported in the immediate area directly afterward.

55

00:03:39,520 --> 00:03:47,520

And this suggests the possibility that extraterrestrials were involved in stabilizing that situation.

56

00:03:47,520 --> 00:03:58,520

Because had that Fukushima plant melted down, it would have made a large swath of Asia uninhabitable for a very long time.

57

00:03:58,520 --> 00:04:10,520

Is it possible that extraterrestrials became aware of this meltdown and they did something to lessen the impact of this disaster

58

00:04:10,520 --> 00:04:18,520

and ultimately save mankind from what could have been a much worse cataclysm?

59

00:04:18,520 --> 00:04:24,520

Could extraterrestrials really have been present at the Fukushima meltdown?

60

00:04:24,520 --> 00:04:30,520

And might they have helped to prevent it from being an even more catastrophic disaster?

61

00:04:30,520 --> 00:04:45,520

Ancient astronaut theorists point out that similar accounts of strange objects seen in the sky were also reported 25 years earlier during the meltdown at the Chernobyl nuclear power plant in Ukraine.

62

00:04:45,520 --> 00:04:52,520

A number of witnesses reported that there were UFOs hovering around the power station.

63

00:04:52,520 --> 00:05:07,520

And that even beams of light were coming down from these UFOs and doing something to the nuclear power plants and keeping them from having a much worse meltdown than they did have.

64

00:05:07,520 --> 00:05:15,520

Some have speculated that the UFOs that were seen during the crisis may have been perhaps protecting us.

65

00:05:15,520 --> 00:05:24,520

Trying to stave off a horrifying nuclear explosion or if not protecting us, at least protecting our world.

66

00:05:24,520 --> 00:05:32,520

Was it simply good fortune that the nuclear accidents at Fukushima and Chernobyl weren't far more deadly?

67

00:05:32,520 --> 00:05:44,520

Or is it possible that the UFOs, eyewitnesses spotted, were responsible for averting these catastrophes when humans were powerless to do so?

68

00:05:44,520 --> 00:05:56,520

Ancient astronaut theorists believe these encounters weren't random occurrences, but part of an extraterrestrial agenda that has been in place on Earth for thousands of years.

69

00:05:56,520 --> 00:06:22,520

It appears that there is an ongoing plan in place, a hidden hand in history that is manipulating events that we are interacting with an alien civilization and that we are experiencing the fruits of what they are offering us because our history is being intelligently guided and directed to steer us towards a particular outcome.

70

00:06:22,520 --> 00:06:33,520

But if alleged alien encounters really are evidence that extraterrestrials are intervening in human affairs, what is their purpose?

71

00:06:33,520 --> 00:06:44,520

Ancient astronaut theorists suggest the answer can be found by looking back at the very earliest alien encounters ever recorded.

72

00:06:44,520 --> 00:06:50,520

Mount Sinai, the 15th century BC

73

00:06:50,520 --> 00:06:58,520

According to the Bible's Book of Exodus, it was on the peak of this holy mountain that Moses met with God.

74

00:06:58,520 --> 00:07:07,520

But ancient astronaut theorists believe Moses' encounter may have been with a different kind of otherworldly entity.

75

00:07:07,520 --> 00:07:25,520

There's an interesting legend passed down from Temple Times itself that when Moses ascended to Mount Sinai to speak with God, a cloud came down from heaven and told Moses, come into the cloud to ascend to God.

76

00:07:25,520 --> 00:07:31,520

A door opened in the cloud and Moses walked in and closed behind him and he ascended.

77

00:07:31,520 --> 00:07:37,520

The Lord descends with smoke, fire, loud noise, trembling and so on.

78

00:07:37,520 --> 00:07:46,520

All religions speak about the same thing or they use different names and the stories change but the basic stories are always the same.

79

00:07:46,520 --> 00:07:58,520

Somebody descended with loud noise, smoke, fire. The humans could not understand what it was. They misinterpreted and believe it that this was God or the gods.

80

00:07:58,520 --> 00:08:07,520

It's just a misinterpretation. I am absolutely sure there's no doubt that we were visited by beings from outer space.

81

00:08:07,520 --> 00:08:18,520

According to ancient astronaut theorists, such accounts of unearthly encounters can be found in every major religion, including Islam.

82

00:08:18,520 --> 00:08:28,520

Where the angel Gabriel, also known as Jibril, was sent to be the intermediary between the prophet Muhammad and the Muslim God Allah.

83

00:08:28,520 --> 00:08:36,520

Jibril normally would come and dispense wisdom to Muhammad inside this cave that he was dwelling in.

84

00:08:36,520 --> 00:08:42,520

But on two occasions, Muhammad did not meet Jibril in the cave in person.

85

00:08:42,520 --> 00:08:49,520

Muhammad went outside the cave and it was at this time that something absolutely fantastic happened.

86

00:08:49,520 --> 00:08:53,520

What did Muhammad see when he went outside the cave?

87

00:08:53,520 --> 00:09:00,520

The records show that there was a magnificent shining object there in front of him.

88

00:09:00,520 --> 00:09:05,520

It was said to have 600 wings and it was burning as if it was on fire.

89

00:09:05,520 --> 00:09:11,520

What do we know of in modern times that could add up to a sighting like that? It's obvious.

90

00:09:11,520 --> 00:09:19,520

A craft that would be hovering there in front of him, giving off brilliant white light that he interpreted as fire.

00:09:19,520 --> 00:09:31,520

And when he went out and saw this magnificent shining object, the same wisdom that he was getting from Jibril was imparted to him, though he could not see any being.

92

00:09:31,520 --> 00:09:33,520

He only could see this object.

93

00:09:34,520 --> 00:09:46,520

Is it possible that many of the stories of gods and angels descending from the heavens are not actually divine events, but extraterrestrial visitations?

94

00:09:46,520 --> 00:09:51,520

And if so, are they purposely guiding our future?

95

00:09:52,520 --> 00:09:56,520

Ancient astronaut theorists believe further evidence can be found.

96

00:09:56,520 --> 00:10:03,520

By examining the famous vision so important, it changed the course of human history.

97

00:10:08,520 --> 00:10:14,520

Rome, October 27th, 312 AD.

98

00:10:15,520 --> 00:10:26,520

Just north of the city, the emperor Constantine leads his troops toward the Milvian bridge and a decisive battle with Maxentius to reclaim his throne.

99

00:10:26,520 --> 00:10:32,520

At stake is control over the western part of the vast Roman Empire.

100

00:10:35,520 --> 00:10:42,520

According to an account from the historian Eusebius, on the eve of the battle, Constantine looks up into the sky

101

00:10:43,520 --> 00:10:46,520

and sees what he believes is a divine vision.

102

00:10:47,520 --> 00:11:00,520

Constantine and his followers saw in the sky what their chroniclers say was a huge white fiery cross.

103

00:11:02,520 --> 00:11:10,520

Now, his followers didn't know what to make of this, but Constantine decided that this was the Christian cross.

104

00:11:11,520 --> 00:11:18,520

Constantine feels after viewing this extraordinary sign from the heavens, this lightened cross in the sky,

105

00:11:18,520 --> 00:11:25,520

that he will go forth the next day and he will conquer the Roman Empire, and this is exactly what he does.

106

00:11:30,520 --> 00:11:36,520

This vision becomes one of the crucial turning points in human history.

107

00:11:41,520 --> 00:11:51,520

After winning the brutal battle of Milvian bridge, Constantine consolidates his power and begins a campaign of religious tolerance across the Empire,

108

00:11:51,520 --> 00:11:54,520

and he himself converts to Christianity.

109

00:11:59,520 --> 00:12:06,520

But what exactly did Constantine see in the sky that ended up changing the course of western civilization?

110

00:12:07,520 --> 00:12:10,520

Was it a divine vision or something else?

111

00:12:11,520 --> 00:12:16,520

Don't we all see crosses up in the sky when we look at planes?

00:12:17,520 --> 00:12:24,520

Because you have lights on the sides and at the front, and if you have a little bit of light shining on it, sometimes they look like crosses.

00:12:24,520 --> 00:12:30,520

So we have to ask ourselves, is it possible that this was absolutely no Christian symbol at all,

114

00:12:30,520 --> 00:12:37,520

but that it was adapted over time after something that was witnessed up in the sky?

115

00:12:38,520 --> 00:12:43,520

Is it possible that extraterrestrials were responsible for Constantine's vision?

116

00:12:47,520 --> 00:12:58,520

Ancient astronaut theorists say one compelling piece of evidence that aliens have tried to manipulate mankind through religious visions still exists today.

117

00:13:01,520 --> 00:13:07,520

Mexico City, December 1531

118

00:13:08,520 --> 00:13:14,520

According to an account called the Nikon Mopoa, published in the Aztec language Abnauatol,

119

00:13:15,520 --> 00:13:23,520

a peasant named Juan Diego was walking in the countryside when he heard a beautiful voice singing on the other side of a hill.

120

00:13:24,520 --> 00:13:32,520

Diego climbed the hill and saw an angelic vision, a woman in white garments that shone like the sun.

121

00:13:33,520 --> 00:13:43,520

And she said to him, Juan Diego, I am the Virgin Mary and I am asking you to build a sanctuary for me here on this hill.

122

00:13:43,520 --> 00:13:49,520

Well Juan Diego fell to his knees in awe and he said, great lady, I will do as you desire.

123

00:13:49,520 --> 00:13:59,520

But according to the story, Juan Diego couldn't convince the local bishop that he had actually seen the Virgin Mary,

124

00:13:59,520 --> 00:14:04,520

so he went back to the hill where he again saw the vision.

125

00:14:04,520 --> 00:14:10,520

He says, lady, please give me a sign because nobody believes me when I tell them that I have seen you.

126

00:14:10,520 --> 00:14:13,520

And she says, Juan Diego, take off your cloak.

127

00:14:13,520 --> 00:14:19,520

And he does. He takes off his cloak and she fills his cloak with roses.

128

00:14:22,520 --> 00:14:31,520

He took the roses to the bishop and the bishop fell down on his knees because it wasn't the roses as to why he believed the story from Diego,

129

00:14:31,520 --> 00:14:37,520

but inside the tilma was a painting of the Virgin Mother.

130

00:14:38,520 --> 00:14:43,520

And the bishop believed and they built the church on that hill.

131

00:14:46,520 --> 00:14:57,520

This cloak still exists today and despite its braille fabric, it is reportedly remained in pristine condition despite the cruel ravages of time.

132

00:14:58,520 --> 00:15:09,520

Right now you can go to the church and see the tilma hanging there and it is not degraded over the 400 plus years that they've had it.

133

00:15:09,520 --> 00:15:17,520

It's been through a fire, it's been through an explosion where purportedly an iron cross was twisted from the explosion,

134

00:15:17,520 --> 00:15:22,520

but the tilma right next to the cross was still fine.

135

00:15:22,520 --> 00:15:32,520

Could the sacred image on the cloak really be evidence of a visitation by the Virgin Mary or might it have a different other worldly explanation?

136

00:15:32,520 --> 00:15:42,520

In addition to the tilma inexplicably enduring for hundreds of years, those who have studied it have found other unexplainable qualities.

137

00:15:42,520 --> 00:15:46,520

Most bizarre of all are the eyes of the image.

138

00:15:48,520 --> 00:16:03,520

Approximately 7 to 8 millimeters wide, what we see inside those eyes is a highly enigmatic mystery because it appears that there are characters in the eyes, the faces of the people who were there at the time that the tilma was unveiled by our Lady of Guadalupe in 1531.

139

00:16:03,520 --> 00:16:11,520

140

00:16:13,520 --> 00:16:24,520

But if our Lady of Guadalupe really does have other worldly origins, did it come from a heavenly realm or somewhere else?

141

00:16:26,520 --> 00:16:32,520

Not only do ancient astronaut theorists believe Juan Diego's vision was an extraterrestrial encounter,

142

00:16:32,520 --> 00:16:38,520

but even some members of the church claim that it was something other than a religious experience.

143

00:16:39,520 --> 00:16:44,520

Our Lady of Guadalupe is definitely a heavenly visitor.

144

00:16:44,520 --> 00:16:52,520

In my opinion though, what her story said disagrees with what the Bible says.

145

00:16:52,520 --> 00:16:58,520

In fact, she said she would protect the people that worship at the church.

146

00:16:58,520 --> 00:17:06,520

What that does is really deify Mary when the Bible is very clear that only God can protect those that serve Him.

147

00:17:07,520 --> 00:17:15,520

And so any other worldly being that demands worship or respect, it cannot be an angel from God.

148

00:17:17,520 --> 00:17:27,520

Juan Diego may have witnessed not just an apparition, but an actual live extraterrestrial appearing through some sort of advanced technology whose mission was to impart spiritual faith and a thirst for the divine.

149

00:17:27,520 --> 00:17:33,520

150

00:17:37,520 --> 00:17:47,520

Could it be that some of history's most significant religious visions have actually been produced by alien beings carrying out a secret mission?

151

00:17:47,520 --> 00:17:56,520

Ancient astronaut theorists say yes and believe further proof that extraterrestrials have been guiding our future

152

00:17:56,520 --> 00:18:04,520

can be found in the story of a mysterious magician that may have helped propel humanity into the modern age.

153

00:18:07,520 --> 00:18:11,520

The English Channel

154

00:18:11,520 --> 00:18:14,520

1588

00:18:14,520 --> 00:18:21,520

King Philip II of Spain has dispatched an enormous armada of ships to invade England.

156

00:18:21,520 --> 00:18:28,520

They are reportedly filled with more than 20,000 soldiers and scores of medieval torture devices.

157

00:18:29,520 --> 00:18:37,520

According to some historians, Philip, a devout Catholic, wants to bring the brutal Spanish Inquisition to England

158

00:18:37,520 --> 00:18:43,520

to punish Queen Elizabeth I and her subjects for leaving the Catholic Church.

159

00:18:44,520 --> 00:18:52,520

Philip was a Catholic and England had been turned Protestant by Elizabeth's father Henry VIII when he broke with the Catholic Church in order to marry Elizabeth's mother Anne Boleyn.

160

00:18:52,520 --> 00:18:55,520

161

00:18:56,520 --> 00:19:02,520

So to Philip, the English were sinners and their ways needed to be reformed

162

00:19:02,520 --> 00:19:07,520

so he sent a great armada, a great fleet of over 130 ships.

163

00:19:07,520 --> 00:19:10,520

There had never been anything like it before.

164

00:19:14,520 --> 00:19:21,520

England didn't have a lot of money and a lot of their vessels were not even official government vessels.

165

00:19:21,520 --> 00:19:26,520

They were whatever merchant seamen and sailors could cobble together.

166

00:19:28,520 --> 00:19:33,520

The Spanish armada seemed invincible and the British severely over-matched.

167

00:19:35,520 --> 00:19:42,520

But when the two forces finally met, superior English tactics and strategy forced the armada to retreat.

168

00:19:43,520 --> 00:19:52,520

But the number of Spanish ships was so overwhelming that the English couldn't score a decisive victory until a freak storm struck.

169

00:19:52,520 --> 00:19:55,520

The English ships were more maneuverable than the Spanish ships.

170

00:19:55,520 --> 00:19:58,520

In order to counter this, the Spanish cut their anchors and they figured,

171

00:19:58,520 --> 00:20:01,520

well, let's get rid of some of this dead weight, so to speak.

172

00:20:03,520 --> 00:20:11,520

But when the winds hit, they had no way to find a mooring and then therefore the winds blew their ships all over the place including into the coast.

173

00:20:11,520 --> 00:20:15,520

They lost roughly half their fleet due to the weather.

174

00:20:15,520 --> 00:20:26,520

From the point of view of the English people, this extraordinary storm that destroys the Spanish armada is a miracle, destroying the might of Spain when mankind cannot do it.

175

00:20:27,520 --> 00:20:32,520

The English believe this miraculous storm was the work of God.

176

00:20:32,520 --> 00:20:40,520

But some ancient astronaut theorists claim there is evidence that suggests it may have actually been the work of other worldly beings.

177

00:20:42,520 --> 00:20:50,520

Their first clue comes from one of Queen Elizabeth's closest advisors, a mysterious man named John Dee.

178

00:20:50,520 --> 00:20:59,520

John Dee was the court astrologer, mathematician, philosopher, medical doctor at the court of Queen Elizabeth I.

179

00:20:59,520 --> 00:21:03,520

He was an extraordinarily learned man for his time.

180

00:21:04,520 --> 00:21:12,520

He dealt with magic and potions and what we might call spells to try to effect change.

181

00:21:16,520 --> 00:21:18,520

John Dee was a hermetic thinker.

182

00:21:18,520 --> 00:21:26,520

Hermetic thinkers believed that there was a contemporary of Moses by the name of Hermes Trismegistus who lived in Egypt.

183

00:21:26,520 --> 00:21:35,520

And just as God revealed the Ten Commandments to Moses, God revealed to Hermes the secret knowledge of how nature worked.

184

00:21:35,520 --> 00:21:46,520

And that with the proper mindset and proper tools that one could uncover essentially what God was thinking by reading the world.

185

00:21:47,520 --> 00:21:58,520

According to legend, John Dee used this knowledge of the natural and supernatural worlds to predict the storm that would ultimately for the Spanish Armada.

186

00:22:01,520 --> 00:22:09,520

The story goes that John Dee told Queen Elizabeth not to worry because the storm would destroy the Spanish fleet.

187

00:22:09,520 --> 00:22:15,520

And then when it happened it confirmed his knowledge of the world and what lay beneath it.

188

00:22:16,520 --> 00:22:21,520

But if John Dee really did make such a prophecy, what was the source?

189

00:22:21,520 --> 00:22:24,520

Was it something divine?

190

00:22:24,520 --> 00:22:35,520

Or is it possible, as ancient astronaut theorists contend, that this mysterious man was using hermetic wisdom to establish communication with extraterrestrial beings?

00:22:36,520 --> 00:22:45,520

John Dee was very interested in the occult and seemed to spend a lot of time harnessing or finding a way to communicate to life forms beyond this earth.

192

00:22:45,520 --> 00:22:51,520

We really don't understand the influence over John Dee as to how he was able to interpret such accurate information.

193

00:22:51,520 --> 00:22:58,520

It's very possible that John Dee was receiving his information from an outside source that was possibly an extraterrestrial.

194

00:23:00,520 --> 00:23:08,520

But if John Dee's pursuit of hermetic wisdom gave him insights into the alien agenda on earth, what did he find?

195

00:23:08,520 --> 00:23:13,520

And why would extraterrestrials want to sink the Spanish Armada?

196

00:23:13,520 --> 00:23:22,520

It is possible that these extraterrestrials had a vested interest in preserving the monarchy of Queen Elizabeth and seeing that the monarchy was not overthrown.

197

00:23:22,520 --> 00:23:32,520

And they repelled any such invading forces in order to make sure that this carefully constructed power structure was kept fully intact.

00:23:33,520 --> 00:23:49,520

Ancient astronaut theorists suggest extraterrestrials were not acting to favor Protestants over Catholics, but may have wanted to preserve the great cultural and scientific developments that would occur in England in the coming centuries.

199

00:23:50,520 --> 00:23:59,520

What happened in England after Queen Elizabeth's time was nothing less than miraculous.

200

00:23:59,520 --> 00:24:15,520

We had the scientific revolution, we had people like Isaac Newton, and we had other great scientists develop what eventually became the industrial revolution, steam trains, electricity, and the modern world.

00:24:16,520 --> 00:24:32,520

The period that followed also gave rise to champions of the scientific method, like Francis Bacon and John Locke, and led to an age of exploration that would give rise to a greater investment in the still fledgely new land of America.

202

00:24:33,520 --> 00:24:45,520

If the Spanish had succeeded in conquering England, they would have brought the Inquisition with them in a period of darkness and torture, and likely the industrial revolution never would have happened.

203

00:24:46,520 --> 00:24:58,520

Might some other worldly entity really have intervened in the Spanish invasion, sending a storm to destroy their ships and ensure the future of England?

204

00:24:58,520 --> 00:25:05,520

And if so, is this a sign that aliens really do have an interest in our future?

205

00:25:05,520 --> 00:25:13,520

Perhaps the answer can be found by examining the vision that inspired one of the world's newest religions.

206

00:25:16,520 --> 00:25:24,520

Manchester, New York. September 21, 1823.

207

00:25:24,520 --> 00:25:33,520

As he settles into bed, a 17-year-old farmhand named Joseph Smith begins to say his prayers.

208

00:25:33,520 --> 00:25:43,520

Suddenly, without warning, an overpowering light envelops his room, and a robed figure appears.

209

00:25:44,520 --> 00:25:52,520

According to Smith's account, not only was his robe exceedingly white, but his whole person was glorious beyond description.

210

00:25:52,520 --> 00:26:03,520

Speaking from the center of the light, the angel, whose name is Moroni, sends Smith on a quest for several sacred texts hidden near a local tree.

211

00:26:04,520 --> 00:26:14,520

Upon locating the tree, Joseph dug and indeed found the text, but they recorded a language which he could not read.

212

00:26:14,520 --> 00:26:26,520

A second visitation from Moroni told Joseph Smith where he could find what we might call a device of some kind that would allow him to read the text.

213

00:26:26,520 --> 00:26:45,520

Joseph Smith was given this translating stone, the urim and the thumim, with which he was able to not only write down this text, but also to be able to translate it.

214

00:26:46,520 --> 00:26:52,520

He then translated the texts into English, which become the Book of Mormon.

215

00:26:52,520 --> 00:27:06,520

And it depicts, among other things, that after Jesus ascended into heaven, he came to the Americas and ministered to the native peoples here to convert them to his way of life.

216

00:27:06,520 --> 00:27:12,520

And that at some point, the texts that become the Book of Mormon are deposited here so that Joseph Smith could find them.

217

00:27:16,520 --> 00:27:30,520

Seven years later, Smith publishes these texts as part of the Book of Mormon, establishing the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, a denomination with more than 15 million followers today.

218

00:27:32,520 --> 00:27:37,520

Many religions worldwide have been founded with the help of angels.

219

00:27:37,520 --> 00:27:48,520

Whether they're representatives of Christian, Muslim, or Buddhist gods, these apparitions are thought to be a way that gods intervene on earth with humans.

220

00:27:48,520 --> 00:27:57,520

Angels, when they appear in religious legends and in myths, generally are messengers between the heavenly realm and the human realm.

221

00:27:57,520 --> 00:28:04,520

Throughout the Bible, we have stories of angels and demons appearing to mankind.

222

00:28:05,520 --> 00:28:14,520

In fact, Paul says that you be careful how you entertain strangers because some of you entertain angels unaware.

223

00:28:15,520 --> 00:28:23,520

The Bible is very clear that angels can take on human form and appear in the likeness of man.

224

00:28:24,520 --> 00:28:36,520

But ancient astronaut theorists suggest that sometimes these heavenly visions and apparitions may not actually be angels sent by an omniscient god.

225

00:28:36,520 --> 00:28:50,520

And curiously, the so-called angel that led Joseph Smith to the sacred texts that would become the Book of Mormon did not profess to have heavenly origins, but claimed to be from another part of the universe.

226

00:28:51,520 --> 00:28:55,520

Now, Moroni did not say that he was an angel.

227

00:28:55,520 --> 00:29:03,520

He said that at one time he had lived on earth, but that now he came from the Pleiades star cluster.

228

00:29:03,520 --> 00:29:06,520

And he said there were many others like him.

229

00:29:08,520 --> 00:29:15,520

When we look at the background of the Book of Mormon, we see some very interesting parallels to what could be an extraterrestrial tale.

230

00:29:15,520 --> 00:29:18,520

This angel Moroni that appears to Joseph Smith.

231

00:29:20,520 --> 00:29:23,520

Seems to be more than just chance.

232

00:29:23,520 --> 00:29:29,520

It's very possible that Joseph Smith was interacting with the type of extraterrestrial.

233

00:29:31,520 --> 00:29:45,520

These extraterrestrials may be giving these messages to world leaders and to prophets and seers and mystics to let us know that we are the product of an extraterrestrial interbreeding

234

00:29:45,520 --> 00:29:51,520

and an ongoing contact with these other people who were not born on earth.

235

00:29:51,520 --> 00:30:08,520

And we have lost touch with that history only because we refuse to believe the truth that is reported in our historical books and see what's right in front of our faces even now with the encounters that are happening in the modern world.

236

00:30:09,520 --> 00:30:19,520

But if an extraterrestrial being really did inspire Joseph Smith to found the Mormon church, why?

237

00:30:19,520 --> 00:30:34,520

Joseph Smith's encounter ultimately led the Mormons to migrate west to establish a new Holy Land in Utah, which has led some to speculate that aliens once again were guiding the course of humanity.

238

00:30:34,520 --> 00:30:41,520

Moroni let Joseph Smith know that he would be the prophet and he would lead his people to the new Jerusalem.

239

00:30:41,520 --> 00:30:54,520

Mormonism is another example potentially of an extraterrestrial influence steering the course of our humanity and helping steer the outcome of historical events here on earth.

240

00:30:55,520 --> 00:31:05,520

Is it possible that Joseph Smith, the founder of the Mormon religion, was guided by an extraterrestrial being?

241

00:31:05,520 --> 00:31:13,520

And if so, was this alien encounter another attempt to guide us into a more enlightened age?

242

00:31:13,520 --> 00:31:27,520

Ancient astronaut theorists say yes and believe further evidence can be found by examining a dream that helped defeat one of the 20th century's most diabolical dictators.

243

00:31:28,520 --> 00:31:34,520

Olympia Greece

244

00:31:34,520 --> 00:31:48,520

This valley on the Peloponnesus peninsula, once filled with temples, altars and statues, is where the ancient Greeks came to pay tribute to their gods.

245

00:31:48,520 --> 00:31:58,520

Near the temple to Zeus, the king of the gods, was a sanctuary dedicated to the Mori, the only beings that Zeus was said to fear.

246

00:31:58,520 --> 00:32:06,520

These mythical figures were believed to control destiny. English speakers call them the fates.

247

00:32:06,520 --> 00:32:12,520

In ancient times, fate and human destiny were thought to be in the hands of the gods.

248

00:32:12,520 --> 00:32:20,520

There was much less this idea that we're in charge of our own destiny and that we make our own lives through choices and decisions and action.

249

00:32:20,520 --> 00:32:27,520

The idea was that human destiny was in someone else's hands, it was in the hands of the fates.

250

00:32:27,520 --> 00:32:39,520

There were three supernatural creatures, Clotho, who spun the thread of life, Lachesis, who wove it, and Atrapos, who cut the thread at the moment of death.

251

00:32:39,520 --> 00:32:47,520

In the ancient times, gods and goddesses were thought to be able to influence people's destiny in that they were constantly interfering in human affairs.

252

00:32:47,520 --> 00:32:56,520

They were constantly messing with humans. They could make humans do all kinds of things. They could disguise themselves. They could trick humans. They could persuade humans.

253

00:32:56,520 --> 00:33:02,520

And yet, that final moment of destiny was still in the hands of the fates.

254

00:33:03,520 --> 00:33:14,520

Other ancient cultures had similar beliefs. The Egyptians personified fate as the god Shai, who was said to control the actions of humans.

255

00:33:14,520 --> 00:33:21,520

While the Vedic texts of ancient India talked about a universal order called Rida.

256

00:33:21,520 --> 00:33:32,520

There was a similar legend in ancient Mesopotamia, and it was of the Mamatou, who was a goat-headed goddess who lived with the Anunnaki in the realms of the sky.

257

00:33:32,520 --> 00:33:46,520

The Mamatou was also in charge of our fate. So you have to wonder, was the Mamatou and these other gods of fate some kind of extraterrestrials that were controlling our lives?

258

00:33:47,520 --> 00:33:59,520

Is it possible, as some ancient astronaut theorists suggest, that the gods who were said to control our fate were actually members of an advanced alien civilization?

259

00:33:59,520 --> 00:34:05,520

And if so, how were they able to interfere in people's lives undetected?

260

00:34:05,520 --> 00:34:17,520

Some ancient astronaut theorists suggest that extraterrestrials not only communicate with us through visions and physical encounters, but even through our dreams.

261

00:34:19,520 --> 00:34:23,520

New York City, Spring 1940.

262

00:34:23,520 --> 00:34:37,520

At the Bell Laboratory Complex in Manhattan, a young engineer named David Parkinson is using a device called a potentiometer to track the varying electrical voltages that course through a telephone when people use it.

263

00:34:37,520 --> 00:34:44,520

Parkinson's work with potentiometers seems unimportant compared to the big news of the day.

264

00:34:44,520 --> 00:34:49,520

The matches have begun, they're shattering blitz on brick.

265

00:34:50,520 --> 00:35:02,520

The Nazis have conquered most of Europe, forcing the Allies to flee the continent in a ragtag flotilla of civilian boats after the Battle of Dunkirk.

266

00:35:04,520 --> 00:35:12,520

The Nazis were almost undefeatable at this time in the war and there was tremendous despair and fear amongst the Allied forces.

267

00:35:13,520 --> 00:35:20,520

And the story goes that David Parkinson had a dream one night and in the dream he was standing beside a certain type of gun.

00:35:25,520 --> 00:35:30,520

And that gun was hitting every Nazi plane with absolute accuracy.

269

00:35:31,520 --> 00:35:35,520

Parkinson's dream gave him a brilliant idea.

270

00:35:35,520 --> 00:35:45,520

He could use the same technology that tracked electrical charges flowing through a telephone to track enemy airplanes flying through the sky.

271

00:35:45,520 --> 00:35:53,520

And in the dream he was able to see the technology that was created to make this gun so accurate.

272

00:35:54,520 --> 00:36:03,520

And it is said that when he awoke he went back to the labs and he ultimately created the technology that was necessary to shoot down Nazi aircraft.

273

00:36:06,520 --> 00:36:19,520

Parkinson's dream inspired him to create the M9 electrical gun director, which allowed Allied anti-aircraft guns to hit moving targets like the dangerous V1 rocket with incredible accuracy.

274

00:36:20,520 --> 00:36:27,520

But how could such an advanced weapon be completely realized in a single dream?

275

00:36:30,520 --> 00:36:37,520

The weird part about it is this guy was a scientist but he knew nothing about aeronautics.

276

00:36:38,520 --> 00:36:50,520

Because David Parkinson had no background in aerodynamics, his contemporaries, other scientists and the military were literally taking him not seriously at all.

277

00:36:50,520 --> 00:36:59,520

But he insisted and even spent a lot of his own time creating prototypes which eventually were found to work.

278

00:36:59,520 --> 00:37:08,520

Throughout human history there are amazing stories of how mankind has been inspired through their dreams and through their visions.

279

00:37:08,520 --> 00:37:17,520

I think we have to ask ourselves what is the source of this inspiration? Where do these dreams and visions come from?

280

00:37:17,520 --> 00:37:23,520

Is it possible that we are being communicated with by other worldly beings?

281

00:37:24,520 --> 00:37:32,520

Could extraterrestrials really be using dreams to convey ideas and information to the human race?

282

00:37:32,520 --> 00:37:43,520

Ancient astronaut theorists say yes and claim the proof that dream manipulation is a real possibility can be found in the human brain.

283

00:37:44,520 --> 00:37:52,520

Throughout history many of mankind's greatest thinkers have been inspired by their dreams.

284

00:37:52,520 --> 00:38:01,520

Scientist James Watson, claimed the double helix structure of DNA came to him through his dream of a spiral staircase.

285

00:38:01,520 --> 00:38:11,520

Friedrich August Kekule discovered the chemical structure of benzene when he had a dream of a group of snakes swallowing their tails.

286

00:38:12,520 --> 00:38:27,520

Srinivasa Ramunajan, whose mathematics principles are still being used by quantum physicists today, said that he obtained these mathematics theorems in dreams implanted in his mind by the Hindu goddess Namagiri.

287

00:38:27,520 --> 00:38:34,520

We are seeing an ongoing pattern of dreams being used to communicate information.

288

00:38:34,520 --> 00:38:43,520

This is a widespread phenomenon. It's been going on for many thousands of years and it continues right straight through to the present day.

289

00:38:43,520 --> 00:38:51,520

Is it really possible that extraterrestrial beings could actually manipulate our dreams?

290

00:38:51,520 --> 00:38:54,520

Ancient astronaut theorists say yes.

291

00:38:54,520 --> 00:39:04,520

And as evidence, they point out that modern science is already starting to understand how to interpret and manipulate dreams.

292

00:39:06,520 --> 00:39:11,520

Moran Sir is a neuroscientist who studies human brain waves.

293

00:39:11,520 --> 00:39:20,520

In one of his experiments, he shows pictures to test subjects while they're awake and analyzes how their brains process the images.

294

00:39:20,520 --> 00:39:25,520

Each of those little squares here corresponds to a cell in Matt's brain.

295

00:39:25,520 --> 00:39:34,520

Right now, Matt has 128 electrodes in his brain. They come from all parts of his brain. Right, left, and so on.

296

00:39:34,520 --> 00:39:40,520

All of those wires go into this computer and what we see here are the activities of those little cells in his brain.

297

00:39:40,520 --> 00:39:47,520

If I pick cell number 36 and I double click on that, what you see here is the activity inside his brain.

298

00:39:47,520 --> 00:39:51,520

This is like a microphone sitting next to one cell in his brain.

299

00:39:51,520 --> 00:40:03,520

Dr. Surf can determine which cell stores the memory of a particular picture, like movie star Kerry Grant, by analyzing which cell reacted when he showed it to his test subject.

300

00:40:05,520 --> 00:40:16,520

Once he's figured this out for dozens of cells, Dr. Surf waits for his patients to go to sleep and then watches for signs that they're dreaming about the images he has shown them.

301

00:40:17,520 --> 00:40:21,520

In a very basic way, he can see his patients' dreams.

302

00:40:23,520 --> 00:40:33,520

But in the future, Dr. Surf may actually be able to dictate our dreams by stimulating the set of cells that store our memories about a person or event.

303

00:40:33,520 --> 00:40:43,520

If I really map the entire sequence, if I know all these, say, one million cells, then code Kerry Grant in your brain and know exactly what they are, then I activate all of them, I stimulate all of them.

304

00:40:43,520 --> 00:40:47,520

Then we believe you're going to actually see Kerry Grant.

305

00:40:50,520 --> 00:40:59,520

If aliens really have been coming to Earth for thousands of years, could they be using similar technology to manipulate our dreams?

306

00:41:00,520 --> 00:41:10,520

Is it possible that the extraterrestrials don't want to directly interfere in our society, but to guide us from behind the scenes?

307

00:41:11,520 --> 00:41:24,520

And even though they have to push us along in certain directions, we need to have the feeling that we're doing it, even if it does include some extraterrestrial guidance.

308

00:41:26,520 --> 00:41:39,520

But they continue to communicate with humans through dreams and visions and other methods of indirect communication in order for them to provide guidance, but also to provide this guidance in a hands-off way.

309

00:41:41,520 --> 00:41:47,520

Is it possible that they withdrew from our reality because we had to modernize?

310

00:41:48,520 --> 00:42:00,520

It could be that the purpose of this was to give us the opportunity to follow them without being pushed, and if they forced it upon us, we would simply worship them as gods and we would have learned nothing.

311

00:42:01,520 --> 00:42:12,520

But by doing it ourselves, we form our own path, we actually make our own ascension experience, and we become much more like them in the process.

312

00:42:13,520 --> 00:42:20,520

Has life on Earth been influenced by alien encounters for thousands of years?

313

00:42:21,520 --> 00:42:31,520

Are divine visions, prophetic dreams, and modern-day UFO sightings all signs that we are being manipulated by a more advanced race of beings?

314

00:42:32,520 --> 00:42:39,520

Could it be that these encounters are not meant for them to get to know us, but for us to get to know them?

00:42:39,520 --> 00:42:53,520

And if so, what are they guiding us towards? Perhaps we are getting closer to our ultimate destination, and when we reach it, we will once again be reunited with our alien ancestors.
