

1

00:00:00,000 --> 00:00:08,000

This gigantic pyramid in Antarctica would be the oldest pyramid on our planet.

00:00:08,000 --> 00:00:15,000

It's possible that underneath the ice will be keys for us to reclaim our ancient past.

00:00:15,000 --> 00:00:19,000

The Nazis were particularly interested in Antarctica.

4

00:00:19,000 --> 00:00:26,000

Saucers were coming up out of the water and we're shooting them with some sort of beam, literally cutting ships in half.

00:00:26,000 --> 00:00:36,000

Antarctica may hold lost remnants of an extraterrestrial civilization that existed there thousands and thousands of years ago.

6

00:00:36,000 --> 00:00:45,000

Since the dawn of civilization, mankind has credited its origins to gods and other visitors from the stars.

7

00:00:45,000 --> 00:00:48,000

What if it were true?

8

00:00:48,000 --> 00:00:54,000

Did extraterrestrial beings really help to shape our history?

9

00:00:54,000 --> 00:01:03,000

And if so, might the ultimate proof be found when we uncover the pyramids of Antarctica?

10

00:01:24,000 --> 00:01:31,000

The Earth

11

00:01:35,000 --> 00:01:47,000

Stretching over five million square miles across the southernmost reaches of the Earth lies the coldest and most isolated continent in the world,

12

00:01:47,000 --> 00:01:50,000

Antarctica.

13

00:01:50,000 --> 00:02:03,000

Because of its hostile climate, including average daily temperatures of minus 49 degrees Fahrenheit and wind speeds of over 200 miles per hour,

14

00:02:03,000 --> 00:02:08,000

Antarctica remains largely untouched by mankind.

15

00:02:08,000 --> 00:02:16,000

According to historical records, modern man did not even set foot on the continent until 1853,

16

00:02:16,000 --> 00:02:25,000

when ship captain, Mercator Cooper, landed on what is now known as the Oats Coast, a Victoria land.

17

00:02:25,000 --> 00:02:33,000

Today, anywhere from 1,000 to 5,000 people reside at the research stations scattered across the continent,

18

00:02:33,000 --> 00:02:41,000

braving the extreme conditions in hopes of learning more about this mysterious landscape.

19

00:02:42,000 --> 00:02:52,000

The thing about Antarctica is that as much as 98% of it is covered in ice.

20

00:02:52,000 --> 00:03:01,000

Just occasionally, there are little areas that stick out, mountain tops, ridges, peaks.

21

00:03:01,000 --> 00:03:08,000

Antarctica is the least explored of the continents, even the North Pole, which is just ice has been explored more.

22

00:03:08,000 --> 00:03:16,000

It is a mystery and it's right here on the Earth. It's perhaps the last big unexplored part of our home planet.

23

00:03:16,000 --> 00:03:23,000

Antarctica is a vast frozen world and we know very little about it.

24

00:03:23,000 --> 00:03:29,000

And in fact, the ice in Antarctica is up to three miles thick in certain places.

25

00:03:29,000 --> 00:03:34,000

And what's beneath the ice is still largely a mystery to scientists.

26

00:03:34,000 --> 00:03:41,000

You just have to imagine this. The Sears Tower is a little less under a third of a mile tall.

27

00:03:41,000 --> 00:03:51,000

So you have to imagine that you can stack nine Sears Towers on top of each other and they would still not peek out from that ice sheet.

28

00:03:52,000 --> 00:04:01,000

Most geologists believe Antarctica has been completely frozen and uninhabited for over 12 million years.

29

00:04:01,000 --> 00:04:09,000

But in 2012, new photographs revealed formations in the landscape that challenged this notion.

30

00:04:10,000 --> 00:04:16,000

Mysterious pyramid structures emerging from the now melting ice.

31

00:04:17,000 --> 00:04:25,000

Recently, there have been a number of reports of pyramids being found on Antarctica.

32

00:04:25,000 --> 00:04:41,000

There are various photographs that show what appear to be perfect four-sided pyramids, very similar in design to those at Geyser, Egypt and perhaps other places around the world.

33

00:04:44,000 --> 00:04:51,000

While the photos were explained away by mainstream scientists as nothing more than natural land formations,

34

00:04:51,000 --> 00:04:57,000

satellite imagery analysts like Joseph White are not entirely convinced.

35

00:04:57,000 --> 00:05:04,000

In March of 2013, he uncovered what he believes is evidence of yet another pyramid,

36

00:05:04,000 --> 00:05:10,000

located just south of Antarctica's remote Shackleton Mountain Range.

37

00:05:10,000 --> 00:05:13,000

I initially found the structure whilst looking on Google Earth.

38

00:05:13,000 --> 00:05:18,000

I was in fact looking at some of the rather strange blank spots that you get in Antarctica.

39

00:05:18,000 --> 00:05:28,000

When I stumbled upon this very large square structure, which seems to be some kind of building or perhaps even a pyramid, but certainly very large and very square,

40

00:05:28,000 --> 00:05:34,000

it actually aligns up perfectly with the coordinates of the compass north, south, east and west.

41

00:05:34,000 --> 00:05:43,000

And this dictates to me that it's probably an intelligent structure because random structures like mountains are not aligned to the compass.

42

00:05:43,000 --> 00:05:48,000

And in another way, we know that a structure is not naturally curing.

43

00:05:48,000 --> 00:05:57,000

It's generally to look for symmetry, things like right angles and equilateral triangles and shapes that you would not normally find in nature.

44

00:05:57,000 --> 00:06:01,000

This structure is exactly two kilometers square.

45

00:06:01,000 --> 00:06:08,000

This corner to this corner is two kilometers and this corner to this corner is also exactly two kilometers,

46

00:06:08,000 --> 00:06:14,000

which would make this more than double the size of any pyramid thus far found on Earth.

47

00:06:14,000 --> 00:06:21,000

While it may seem unthinkable that pyramids could exist in an arctica,

48

00:06:21,000 --> 00:06:28,000

in recent years, archeologists have found pyramids all over the world that had been lost for centuries,

49

00:06:28,000 --> 00:06:35,000

mistaken as natural formations or hidden in the most unlikely places.

50

00:06:35,000 --> 00:06:43,000

They have been discovered in the plains of northern Peru, buried beneath dirt and rubble in Indonesia,

51

00:06:43,000 --> 00:06:48,000

and one may even exist in Los Angeles, California.

52

00:06:48,000 --> 00:06:53,000

All the way around the world, we find evidence of pyramid structures.

53

00:06:53,000 --> 00:07:01,000

We should start looking at the possibility that there was habitation on Antarctica.

54

00:07:02,000 --> 00:07:05,000

Was it a lost civilization?

55

00:07:05,000 --> 00:07:08,000

Could it be ancient astronauts?

56

00:07:08,000 --> 00:07:17,000

And just maybe the earliest monuments of our own civilization came originally from Antarctica.

57

00:07:17,000 --> 00:07:23,000

If this gigantic pyramid in Antarctica is an artificial structure,

58

00:07:23,000 --> 00:07:28,000

it would probably be the oldest pyramid on our planet.

59

00:07:28,000 --> 00:07:37,000

And in fact, it might be the master pyramid that all the other pyramids on planet Earth were designed to look like.

60

00:07:37,000 --> 00:07:46,000

There has been extensive research done on pyramids throughout the world in terms of their structure and what it is that they really are.

61

00:07:46,000 --> 00:07:50,000

And one of the theories is that pyramids are power generators.

62

00:07:50,000 --> 00:07:56,000

And so if you have these pyramids strategically placed around the world generating this charge,

63

00:07:56,000 --> 00:08:06,000

it's possible to create a general standing wave around the world that is basically a wireless transmission of energy.

64

00:08:06,000 --> 00:08:14,000

It's been theorized that ancient ships, extraterrestrials, and those with high technology,

65

00:08:14,000 --> 00:08:22,000

could use this interconnected wireless energy system to navigate around the planet.

66

00:08:22,000 --> 00:08:32,000

And it makes sense that if there was some kind of worldwide pyramid power grid like this,

67

00:08:32,000 --> 00:08:37,000

that Antarctica would have pyramids as well.

68

00:08:37,000 --> 00:08:44,000

The whole idea of these pyramidal structures, where did it come from?

69

00:08:44,000 --> 00:08:48,000

It's not an arbitrary thing and these structures, they exist worldwide.

70

00:08:48,000 --> 00:08:52,000

So, you know, what was the impetus? What's the origin?

71

00:08:52,000 --> 00:09:02,000

And even more fascinating, did they originate on the Antarctic continent?

72

00:09:02,000 --> 00:09:08,000

Might the pyramid Joseph White claims to have discovered near the Shackleton Mountain Range

73

00:09:08,000 --> 00:09:13,000 and other pyramid-shaped formations recently photographed in Antarctica

74

00:09:13,000 --> 00:09:21,000

provide evidence of extraterrestrial visitation to our planet in the remote past?

75

00:09:21,000 --> 00:09:27,000

And if they are actually man-made structures, how is such a thing even possible

76

00:09:27,000 --> 00:09:33,000 in a place that has been buried beneath the ice for over 12 million years?

77

00:09:33,000 --> 00:09:39,000

According to ancient astronaut theorists, Antarctica may not have been a frozen continent

78

00:09:39,000 --> 00:09:44,000

for as long as mainstream scientists suggest.

79

00:09:44,000 --> 00:09:50,000

And they say proof can be found by examining a 500-year-old map

80

00:09:50,000 --> 00:10:01,000

depicting the continent without any ice.

81

00:10:01,000 --> 00:10:06,000

Siberia 2013

82

00:10:06,000 --> 00:10:11,000

A woolly mammoth is discovered flash-frozen in the glacial ice

83

00:10:11,000 --> 00:10:18,000

engulfed so quickly that its blood and muscle tissue are perfectly preserved.

84

00:10:18,000 --> 00:10:23,000

It is just one of dozens that have been found within the Siberian ice

85

00:10:23,000 --> 00:10:26,000 since the turn of the 20th century.

86

00:10:26,000 --> 00:10:32,000

Many seemingly caught in suspended animation, some with food in their mouths

87

00:10:32,000 --> 00:10:38,000 and some with vegetation in their stomachs that would only grow in a much warmer climate.

88

00:10:38,000 --> 00:10:43,000

The discovery of a woolly mammoth that was flash-frozen raises some interesting scientific questions.

89

00:10:43,000 --> 00:10:48,000

Just something happened very locally to the woolly mammoth that it froze very fast.

90

00:10:48,000 --> 00:10:52,000

But it does also raise the question of how quickly can climate really change

91

00:10:52,000 --> 00:11:01,000

and does it take some sort of cataclysm, a one that's sudden and unexpected?

92

00:11:01,000 --> 00:11:12,000

In 1958, Charles Halfgood, a Harvard-educated scientist, published the book Earth's Shifting Cross.

93

00:11:12,000 --> 00:11:19,000

In it, he proposed that portions of the Earth's crust experienced violent and sudden shifts

94

00:11:19,000 --> 00:11:23,000

during Earth's geological history.

95

00:11:23,000 --> 00:11:30,000

His theory, known as crustal displacement, posited that both Siberia and the continent event arctica

96

00:11:30,000 --> 00:11:36,000

were located in slightly more temperate climates prior to the end of the last ice age,

97

00:11:36,000 --> 00:11:40,000

approximately 12,000 years ago.

98

00:11:40,000 --> 00:11:50,000

But then some unknown catastrophe plunged them into their current positions.

99

00:11:50,000 --> 00:11:59,000

Professor Halfgood came up with the idea that the previous North Pole position had been in the air of the Hudson Bay

100

00:11:59,000 --> 00:12:05,000 and then it shifted to where the Pole is today.

101

00:12:05,000 --> 00:12:14,000

And at the southern pole, he believes that the area of Antarctica had previously also experienced a temperate climate

102

00:12:14,000 --> 00:12:22,000 and that this was suddenly now thrust into this deep ice and this harsh, freezing climate.

103

00:12:22,000 --> 00:12:32,000

He believed the last time that this had actually taken place was approximately 12,000 years ago.

104

00:12:32,000 --> 00:12:38,000

When we think about Earth's crust displacement theory and plate tectonics, you want to think of the crust

105

00:12:38,000 --> 00:12:43,000

basically floating on the magna and being able to shift and move around on top of it.

106

00:12:43,000 --> 00:12:48,000

The Earth's crust is not one solid piece. We know it's made of individual pieces.

107

00:12:49,000 --> 00:12:53,000

So you can look and see how the continents probably used to fit together

108

00:12:53,000 --> 00:12:57,000 and where they moved and how they move apart over a long period of time.

109

00:12:57,000 --> 00:13:03,000

But the question is, you know, would something the size of Antarctica shift suddenly or is that too big?

110

00:13:03,000 --> 00:13:09,000

These crustal shifts, according to Halfgood, actually could happen over a period of even days.

111

00:13:09,000 --> 00:13:16,000

And so if you had a thriving civilization, this crustal displacement could have hit it very, very quickly

112

00:13:16,000 --> 00:13:20,000

but it could have actually been frozen over a very short period of time.

113

00:13:23,000 --> 00:13:30,000

Although Halfgood's theory of sudden large-scale shifts of the Earth's crust was not widely accepted,

114

00:13:30,000 --> 00:13:38,000

renowned physicist Albert Einstein was electrified by it and even wrote the forward of Halfgood's book.

115

00:13:39,000 --> 00:13:45,000

Halfgood would also find additional support for his theory when in 1960,

116

00:13:45,000 --> 00:13:53,000

while combing through the Library of Congress archives, he unearthed an unusual map published in 1531.

117

00:13:53,000 --> 00:13:59,000

The map, credited to mathematician and cartographer Arantas Finneas,

118

00:13:59,000 --> 00:14:06,000

appears to depict an ice-free continent remarkably similar to today's maps of Antarctica.

119

00:14:08,000 --> 00:14:17,000

It was not until as late as 1820 that we had any real idea of what Antarctica looked like.

120

00:14:17,000 --> 00:14:23,000

Yet here on the Arantas Finneas map from 1531, here was Antarctica.

121

00:14:23,000 --> 00:14:29,000

How the hell is it possible that it could appear on this map?

122

00:14:31,000 --> 00:14:36,000

Researchers are baffled as to how the Arantas Finneas map could include a continent

123

00:14:36,000 --> 00:14:40,000 that was not discovered until over 300 years later

124

00:14:40,000 --> 00:14:47,000 and are even more perplexed by the fact that it depicts Antarctica free of ice.

125

00:14:48,000 --> 00:14:55,000

If explorers somehow discovered Antarctica in the 1500s, it would have been completely frozen over.

126

00:14:56,000 --> 00:15:02,000

Remarkably, the Finneas map shows not only a detailed coastline free of ice,

127

00:15:02,000 --> 00:15:10,000

but the entire continent, including interior features such as rivers, valleys and mountains.

128

00:15:13,000 --> 00:15:20,000

The map shows mountain ranges that have rivers coming out of the mountain ranges.

129

00:15:20,000 --> 00:15:24,000

How could that be? It's frozen, it's ice.

130

00:15:24,000 --> 00:15:32,000

There's a NASA image of the continent of Antarctica using radar so that mountain ranges come through it can be seen.

131

00:15:33,000 --> 00:15:41,000

And you can see a mountain range on one photograph and on the Arantas Finneas map, it's right there too.

132

00:15:41,000 --> 00:15:43,000

It's the same mountain range.

133

00:15:45,000 --> 00:15:51,000

According to climatologists, the estimates of when this feature would have been free from ice cover

134

00:15:51,000 --> 00:15:54,000 was at least 6,000 years ago.

135

00:15:55,000 --> 00:15:59,000

So how is it possible that this map exists?

136

00:15:59,000 --> 00:16:05,000

Did Finneas have access to an older map, one dating back thousands of years?

137

00:16:07,000 --> 00:16:14,000

Perhaps more confounding, U.S. Air Force cartographers that were sent the maps in the 1960s

138

00:16:14,000 --> 00:16:21,000

concluded that they were drawn using advanced spherical trigonometry with remarkable precision,

139

00:16:21,000 --> 00:16:25,000

especially when considering the maps were made hundreds of years ago.

140

00:16:25,000 --> 00:16:33,000

The fact that we find something that's a reference to modern day technology on a map that dates back to the 16th century

141

00:16:33,000 --> 00:16:40,000

makes me think, is it possible that some type of advanced radar technology was used

142

00:16:40,000 --> 00:16:46,000

because in order to produce a map that would outline the areas we see,

143

00:16:46,000 --> 00:16:51,000

you would have to be at an altitude of 80 miles.

144

00:16:51,000 --> 00:16:54,000

So how was that possible?

145

00:16:54,000 --> 00:17:05,000

Could it be that the basis for these maps was gleaned from maps that were cartographed by extraterrestrial land surveyors?

146

00:17:06,000 --> 00:17:14,000

The implications of all this, and if you now are able to add things like pyramids,

147

00:17:14,000 --> 00:17:20,000

this would really indicate that there was some kind of ancient civilization in Antarctica

148

00:17:20,000 --> 00:17:23,000 and that it would have been over 12,000 years ago.

149

00:17:23,000 --> 00:17:27,000

And you've got to wonder what kind of civilization this was.

150

00:17:27,000 --> 00:17:30,000

Is it possible that it was extraterrestrials?

151

00:17:31,000 --> 00:17:38,000

Could Antarctica have been inhabited by extraterrestrials in the distant past?

152

00:17:38,000 --> 00:17:45,000

Did they study this continent and leave behind detailed information about its landscape?

153

00:17:45,000 --> 00:17:51,000

If so, just what happened to these otherworldly visitors?

154

00:17:51,000 --> 00:17:58,000

Ancient astronaut theorists believe more clues can be found in Egyptian stories

155

00:17:58,000 --> 00:18:02,000

describing an Earth-altering catastrophe.

156

00:18:12,000 --> 00:18:14,000

Edfoo, Egypt.

157

00:18:14,000 --> 00:18:17,000

Located on the western bank of the Nile,

158

00:18:17,000 --> 00:18:24,000

the Temple of Edfu is one of the largest and most well-preserved temples of the ancient kingdom,

159

00:18:24,000 --> 00:18:28,000

dating back to 237 BC.

160

00:18:30,000 --> 00:18:33,000

The Edfu temple is of tremendous importance.

161

00:18:33,000 --> 00:18:37,000

As you enter the temple, it's like you're going inside a book.

162

00:18:37,000 --> 00:18:39,000

It's literally full of texts.

163

00:18:39,000 --> 00:18:44,000

Every wall, every column, every room, every chamber is filled with texts.

164

00:18:44,000 --> 00:18:47,000

They're known collectively as the Edfu texts.

165

00:18:47,000 --> 00:18:53,000

What is very interesting is that the majority of these texts speak about the creation of the world.

166

00:18:55,000 --> 00:19:03,000

According to the texts, the Earth was created by powerful gods who came down from the sky.

167

00:19:03,000 --> 00:19:10,000

And these gods first established a place known as the Island of the Egg.

168

00:19:12,000 --> 00:19:19,000

Two gods, they created an island in the middle of the eternal lake.

169

00:19:19,000 --> 00:19:23,000

Creation started with that island.

170

00:19:25,000 --> 00:19:31,000

The occupants of this so-called primordial mythical world, very strange creatures,

171

00:19:31,000 --> 00:19:34,000

there seems to be three groups of people.

172

00:19:34,000 --> 00:19:39,000

One called the sages, one called the builders,

173

00:19:39,000 --> 00:19:42,000 and the other called the Shephtiou, nobody knows who they are.

174

00:19:42,000 --> 00:19:48,000

These are the ones that are very mysterious because they are sent to emerge from the water.

175

00:19:49,000 --> 00:19:55,000

Then the Egyptians believed a series of gods came and built the first temples.

176

00:19:55,000 --> 00:20:01,000

It says that here the first temples were built, the first ones ever in the world.

177

00:20:01,000 --> 00:20:07,000

And these became the blueprint for every temple in Egypt.

178

00:20:08,000 --> 00:20:13,000

Once all the creator gods have done their job with creating the world,

179

00:20:13,000 --> 00:20:17,000

they would meet with their big bird and a sent to the sky.

180

00:20:19,000 --> 00:20:27,000

Ancient Egyptians believed with all their heart that everything listed and inscribed on these walls

181

00:20:27,000 --> 00:20:31,000

are true, true, true.

182

00:20:31,000 --> 00:20:39,000

If the walls say there's an island in the middle of nowhere where gods would go and a sent to the sky,

183

00:20:40,000 --> 00:20:46,000

then ancient Egyptians, the devoted ones, would believe that island exists.

184

00:20:48,000 --> 00:20:53,000

According to the Edfu texts, not all of the occupants left.

185

00:20:53,000 --> 00:20:59,000

And after many generations, the island suffered a terrible fate.

186

00:21:02,000 --> 00:21:07,000

The texts are very different as to what happens to the occupants, these strange gods.

187

00:21:07,000 --> 00:21:12,000

They seem to once they have set the scene, once they have built the temples,

188

00:21:12,000 --> 00:21:18,000

they hand over their work to the historical lineage and then they depart.

189

00:21:18,000 --> 00:21:20,000

We don't know where they go.

190

00:21:20,000 --> 00:21:24,000

There seems to be something very interesting here. There seems to be a wall going on.

191

00:21:24,000 --> 00:21:32,000

The armies of these divinities is led by this falcon god and he battles a kind of enemy represented by snake.

192

00:21:33,000 --> 00:21:38,000

In the skies appeared what was known as the enemy snake.

193

00:21:38,000 --> 00:21:41,000

It had a name. It was called the Great Leaping One.

194

00:21:41,000 --> 00:21:48,000

And it was said that immediately it appeared there was a time of darkness and there was something flat

195

00:21:48,000 --> 00:21:51,000

that destroyed this sacred island.

196

00:21:52,000 --> 00:22:01,000

And when the waters receded, these original beings, who were known as the ancient ones or the elder ones,

197

00:22:01,000 --> 00:22:04,000

were now no longer there.

198

00:22:05,000 --> 00:22:16,000

Perhaps the Great Leaping One, this enemy snake, was the memory of the comet that entered into our inner solar system,

199

00:22:16,000 --> 00:22:21,000

broke up, causing devastation and disruption.

200

00:22:22,000 --> 00:22:34,000

Might the account of this ancient catastrophe inscribed on the walls of the Edfu temple be describing a natural event?

201

00:22:34,000 --> 00:22:38,000

Or was it a deliberate attack?

202

00:22:38,000 --> 00:22:46,000

An attack targeting another worldly civilization existing on what we now know as the Antarctic continent?

203

00:22:47,000 --> 00:22:56,000

We need to take a second look at the Edfu text and the story of the island of the egg because it's the source material from Plato's story.

204

00:22:56,000 --> 00:23:00,000

In his story of Atlantis, he gives a very important detail.

205

00:23:00,000 --> 00:23:08,000

He describes it as an immense island the size of Libya and North Africa combined.

206

00:23:08,000 --> 00:23:14,000

Now the thing about it is that there's only one island on the planet that's out in the middle of the ocean

207

00:23:14,000 --> 00:23:18,000

that matches that description and that's Antarctica.

208

00:23:22,000 --> 00:23:32,000

Curiously, the island continent depicted on the Orantis Phineas map reveals a shift of the South Pole of 7.5 degrees,

209

00:23:32,000 --> 00:23:36,000 or nearly 1,000 miles from what it is today.

210

00:23:37,000 --> 00:23:44,000

Might this shift corroborate the accounts of a major catastrophic event in the remote past?

211

00:23:44,000 --> 00:23:53,000

If so, could the creation myth recorded at Edfu be describing something more than mythology?

212

00:23:53,000 --> 00:24:00,000

The cataclysm which would have shifted Antarctica, this would have destroyed the civilization that was there.

213

00:24:00,000 --> 00:24:07,000

And then, over time, whatever buildings and pyramids that were there would be covered with ice.

214

00:24:07,000 --> 00:24:18,000

So the whole idea that Antarctica is hiding beneath its ice, some ancient civilization, is a very intriguing idea

215

00:24:18,000 --> 00:24:21,000 and one that may very well be true.

216

00:24:21,000 --> 00:24:33,000

Might there actually be evidence of an ancient extraterrestrial civilization buried under the ice of Antarctica?

217

00:24:33,000 --> 00:24:42,000

Ancient astronaut theorists say yes and believe that this long history of an alien presence there is precisely what brought another occupying force to its frozen shores.

218

00:24:42,000 --> 00:24:48,000

219

00:24:48,000 --> 00:24:50,000

The Nazis.

220

00:24:52,000 --> 00:24:57,000

Hamburg, Germany, December 1938.

221

00:24:57,000 --> 00:25:09,000

Four years into Adolf Hitler's reign as Fuhrer, he is beginning to establish his total dictatorship by taking direct control of the German military.

222

00:25:10,000 --> 00:25:16,000

Flink wie 500, T-milära und Hartigruppstall!

223

00:25:18,000 --> 00:25:26,000

But on the brink of World War II, Hitler is also involved in much stranger endeavors that are hidden to the public.

224

00:25:26,000 --> 00:25:34,000

He is committing every remaining resource to searching for ancient relics that he believes could hold incredible powers.

225

00:25:35,000 --> 00:25:43,000

On December 17th, the German freighter MS Schwabenland sets out on one of these top secret missions.

226

00:25:43,000 --> 00:25:55,000

Its 33-member team is rumored to include scientists, military experts, construction crews, and key members of the Thule Society,

227

00:25:55,000 --> 00:26:01,000

an elite group associated with the Nazis that focused on mysticism and the occult.

228

00:26:02,000 --> 00:26:06,000

Thirty-two days later, they arrive at their destination.

229

00:26:06,000 --> 00:26:09,000

And Artica.

230

00:26:10,000 --> 00:26:19,000

The Nazis themselves were fascinated by ancient civilizations and legends of vanished super races.

231

00:26:20,000 --> 00:26:26,000

They were searching for this lost, Arctic home that they thought that the Aryans had come from.

232

00:26:26,000 --> 00:26:31,000

They were looking all over the world and that included Ann Artica.

233

00:26:32,000 --> 00:26:43,000

The Thule Society actually believed that there were mystics or channels who were able to communicate with these beings who claimed to be either extraterrestrial in origin

234

00:26:43,000 --> 00:26:48,000

or claimed to belong to this civilization that lived in Earth's interior.

235

00:26:49,000 --> 00:26:55,000

They gave a lot of information about the building of advanced aerospace vehicles, flying sources.

236

00:26:55,000 --> 00:27:01,000

And I think this is where Hitler's Nazi party got a lot of its information about Antarctica.

237

00:27:01,000 --> 00:27:09,000

That in Antarctica there is this ancient civilization or bases where they could find a lot of these advanced technologies.

238

00:27:10,000 --> 00:27:20,000

During their time in Antarctica, the Nazis were believed to have mapped huge swaths of the icy landscape by air.

239

00:27:21,000 --> 00:27:30,000

Ancient astronaut theorists believe they also established an elaborate underground headquarters known as Base 211.

240

00:27:31,000 --> 00:27:35,000

Hitler and the Nazis were particularly interested in Antarctica.

241

00:27:35,000 --> 00:27:39,000

I think they really believed that there were things going on deep under the ice.

242

00:27:39,000 --> 00:27:50,000

And there have always been rumors that the Nazis with their submarines have underwater caverns, small cities that they escaped there after World War II.

243

00:27:52,000 --> 00:28:01,000

When the Germans got to Antarctica, what they found were massive cities that were highly technological.

244

00:28:01,000 --> 00:28:07,000

And these buildings were not just on the surface, they went deep down underground.

245

00:28:07,000 --> 00:28:13,000

So they began relocating a massive amount of equipment and personnel to Antarctica,

246

00:28:13,000 --> 00:28:18,000

repressurizing these ancient facilities and reoccupying them.

247

00:28:22,000 --> 00:28:27,000

In 1946, one year after the end of World War II,

248

00:28:27,000 --> 00:28:32,000

the U.S. government launched its own large-scale mission to Antarctica.

249

00:28:33,000 --> 00:28:43,000

Operation Hydrop deployed 4,700 troops, 13 ships and aircraft carrier and a number of sea planes to Antarctica.

250

00:28:44,000 --> 00:28:52,000

Although the government denied it at the time, it would later become known that one of the operation's primary objectives was,

251

00:28:52,000 --> 00:29:00,000

quote, extending the United States' sovereignty over the largest practicable area of the Antarctic continent.

252

00:29:02,000 --> 00:29:09,000

The U.S. Navy then sent what was basically a flotilla of armed ships to Antarctica.

253

00:29:09,000 --> 00:29:18,000

In Operation Hydop, there were stories that were quite strange that ultimately came out of that expedition, which ended quite early.

254

00:29:18,000 --> 00:29:27,000

There were stories of craft coming up out of the water around the ships and of flying saucer-type vehicles.

255

00:29:28,000 --> 00:29:37,000

Saucers were coming up out of the water and were shooting them with some sort of beam, literally cutting ships in half.

256

00:29:37,000 --> 00:29:47,000

They were shooting planes out of the sky and they traveled so fast that it was almost impossible to visually reference where the disk was going.

257

00:29:49,000 --> 00:29:56,000

So the American fleet had to limp back to the United States, totally broken and destroyed.

258

00:29:57,000 --> 00:30:01,000

It's still a mystery all of the activities that were going on in Antarctica.

259

00:30:01,000 --> 00:30:10,000

You have to wonder if the American military and other governments too are aware of structures under the ice, of pyramids beneath the ice,

260

00:30:10,000 --> 00:30:18,000 and perhaps they know that there's some kind of ancient civilization frozen beneath the ice of Antarctica.

261

00:30:21,000 --> 00:30:29,000

If in fact the Nazis were seeking extraterrestrial technology in Antarctica, is it possible that they actually discovered it?

262

00:30:30,000 --> 00:30:38,000

And might the U.S. military have encountered this powerful technology years later during Operation Hydop?

263

00:30:40,000 --> 00:30:53,000

Ancient astronaut theorists believe that further proof of an alien presence in Antarctica may be found in a prehistoric lake, buried under two miles of ice.

264

00:31:00,000 --> 00:31:03,000

Lake Vostok, Antarctica.

265

00:31:04,000 --> 00:31:10,000

Buried under two miles of ice is a 4,800 square mile body of water.

266

00:31:10,000 --> 00:31:18,000

It is by far the largest of the continent's nearly 400 lakes that are entirely covered by ice.

267

00:31:19,000 --> 00:31:30,000

In 2001, pilots collecting data here recorded unusual and extreme irregularities in the magnetic field at the southeastern corner of the lake.

268

00:31:31,000 --> 00:31:42,000

Spanning a remarkable 65 by 46 miles, the anomalous area is producing an unusually high level of magnetic energy.

269

00:31:43,000 --> 00:31:54,000

This anomaly was roughly 50 miles in diameter and was something that would be commensurate with the magnetic field being generated by a city.

270

00:31:55,000 --> 00:32:09,000

I have been to Lake Vostok several times as part of expedition research and when we were in the area we did pick up this magnetic anomaly, but we also found other magnetic anomalies which are actually transitioning from one place to another.

271

00:32:10,000 --> 00:32:16,000

They were moving. Highly rare and extremely unusual, we weren't able to determine what was causing these anomalies.

272

00:32:17,000 --> 00:32:34,000

It's totally inexplicable. Of course, this has given rise to theories that perhaps there is something else here. Perhaps it's a UFO, perhaps it's some kind of alien base, perhaps even the remnants of a lost civilization.

273

00:32:35,000 --> 00:32:44,000

Now the NSA themselves have almost put a blanket over any further research and it's almost become a no-go area.

274

00:32:46,000 --> 00:33:00,000

Vostok is not the only site with limited outside access. Seven different countries have claimed territories in Antarctica, yet it remains one of the most restricted locations in the world.

275

00:33:01,000 --> 00:33:15,000

Currently, there are 68 international bases here, many of which require permits or special permissions to visit. They are manned not just with scientists, but also military personnel.

276

00:33:16,000 --> 00:33:18,000

But whammy is it so restricted?

277

00:33:21,000 --> 00:33:31,000

McMurdo Station and Antarctica, located on the southern peninsula of Ross Island. This is the largest research station on the continent.

278

00:33:32,000 --> 00:33:41,000

It was opened by the U.S. government in 1956 and houses up to as many as 1200 residents at a time.

279

00:33:43,000 --> 00:34:00,000

In January of 2015, a U.S. Navy flight engineer who served with the Antarctic Development Squadron at McMurdo for 14 years came forward to investigative reporter Linda Moulton-Howell with bizarre accounts of his time in Antarctica.

280

00:34:01,000 --> 00:34:12,000

In January of 2015, I got an email from a retired naval flight engineer. He's asked me to call him only Brian in the world public.

281

00:34:13,000 --> 00:34:33,000

And this is what he told me, from about 1983 to when he retired from the Navy in 1997. He was in all kinds of what they call Antarctic Squadron Expedition missions that included rescuing people in and out of various places.

282

00:34:33,000 --> 00:34:40,000

In all these trips, nothing of a high strangeness occurred and then all of a sudden it was one thing after another.

283

00:34:41,000 --> 00:34:52,000

During a squadron mission in the Trans-Antarctic Mountains, the whole crew saw a whole bunch of silver darting objects and they are round.

284

00:34:52,000 --> 00:35:02,000

And he says they're doing the strangest thing. They're going like to this peak in a group, to this peak in a group, to this peak in a group, and then they'd all take off.

285

00:35:03,000 --> 00:35:08,000

And not only did this happen once, it happened over and over.

286

00:35:08,000 --> 00:35:17,000

According to the informant, this was just one of many strange mysteries on the continent that he witnessed during his time there.

287

00:35:17,000 --> 00:35:27,000

They get an assignment not long after. There's a medical emergency. They are now under the gun, the clock is ticking and a decision was made.

288

00:35:27,000 --> 00:35:34,000

They're going over through the no-fly zone because it's a medical emergency. And what do they see?

289

00:35:35,000 --> 00:35:42,000

In the ice, like a huge entrance to a cave but slanted going down.

290

00:35:42,000 --> 00:35:48,000

And he said, I think it was at least landed 200 feet in diameter, a big hole in the ice.

291

00:35:48,000 --> 00:35:55,000

And he said, our instruments are not operating. We were losing electricity. We had magnetic anomalies.

292

00:35:55,000 --> 00:36:02,000

And we concluded there's something about this hole that is now causing these problems.

293

00:36:02,000 --> 00:36:16,000

They do their medical recovery. And the next thing they know, they're all being chewed out by men in suits that are not from McMurdo.

294

00:36:16,000 --> 00:36:28,000

They appear to be from Washington, D.C. And as he said, they told us that we are never ever to fly over that hole and we are never to discuss it again.

295

00:36:28,000 --> 00:36:35,000

What is that about? And does that have anything to do with all these other pieces that keep emerging?

296

00:36:35,000 --> 00:36:40,000

That there might be something archeological in Antarctica.

297

00:36:41,000 --> 00:36:50,000

According to ancient astronaut theorists, this was not the first time a massive hole has been spotted in the ice of Antarctica.

298

00:36:50,000 --> 00:37:03,000

Famous polar explorer Admiral Richard Byrd allegedly reported seeing a massive entrance to an underground world during his 1947 expedition to the South Pole.

299

00:37:03,000 --> 00:37:21,000

Admiral Byrd made a lot of unusual statements, allegedly talking about a large opening at the South Pole that went deep inside the Earth ice-free and was inhabited by various sorts of aliens.

300

00:37:21,000 --> 00:37:29,000

And when Byrd got back to the United States, he was brought back to Washington where he was questioned very heavily about his statements.

301

00:37:29,000 --> 00:37:34,000

And allegedly he was told to stop talking about this.

302

00:37:34,000 --> 00:37:48,000

You have to wonder, is the South Pole some kind of extraterrestrial entry zone, some kind of portal that's so important that it has to be controlled by the military?

303

00:37:49,000 --> 00:37:55,000

Is the United States government covering up an extraterrestrial presence in Antarctica?

304

00:37:55,000 --> 00:38:04,000

And if so, could they be the same otherworldly beings that once occupied the continent thousands of years ago?

305

00:38:04,000 --> 00:38:13,000

Ancient astronaut theorists believe the truth may be revealed when Antarctica's ice finally disappears.

306

00:38:18,000 --> 00:38:24,000

East and Arctic October 2015.

307

00:38:24,000 --> 00:38:38,000

Scientists at NASA announced that despite years of thinking otherwise, they are now finding that the ice in this region is actually growing, averaging 82 billion tons a year.

308

00:38:38,000 --> 00:38:50,000

Snowfall is currently adding ice to most of the continent, but at the same time, glaciers are rapidly melting along the coast of western Antarctica.

309

00:38:50,000 --> 00:39:04,000

Scientists calculate that since 2009, as much as 60 cubic kilometers of ice, the equivalent of 70,000 Empire State buildings, is disappearing into the ocean each year.

310

00:39:05,000 --> 00:39:13,000

But why is the ice here melting when it is growing throughout much of the rest of the continent?

311

00:39:13,000 --> 00:39:21,000

We see these graphic pictures on television of the ice caps melting and falling into the sea.

312

00:39:21,000 --> 00:39:28,000

But it's actually only in some areas that the ice caps are actually melting.

313

00:39:28,000 --> 00:39:41,000

What's so strange is that through various factors that the ice in Antarctica might actually be growing and extending, this is very strange.

314

00:39:41,000 --> 00:39:54,000

We can't rule out the possibility that in certain cases there could be entire cities that are built underground that may even be actively maintained by extraterrestrials now,

315

00:39:54,000 --> 00:40:05,000 and that as those cities are powered up or expanded in size, that they are giving off some kind of heat, and that heat in turn is melting the ice above them.

316

00:40:05,000 --> 00:40:14,000

If there are things buried under the miles of ice at Antarctica, then that would mean that had to have happened before the last Ice Age.

317

00:40:14,000 --> 00:40:23,000

So who knows what we'll find there? Remnants of a lost civilization, perhaps even tools with which these civilizations were built.

318

00:40:25,000 --> 00:40:35,000

It's possible that underneath the ice will be keys for us to actually save ourselves and reclaim our ancient past.

319

00:40:35,000 --> 00:40:48,000

We may end up in a situation where this can't be covered up anymore, where visible ruins, gigantic pyramids, gigantic obelisks start to peek through the ice.

320

00:40:48,000 --> 00:40:54,000

And at that point it's game over. No longer can this be swept under the rug.

321

00:40:54,000 --> 00:41:02,000

There's no question that under the ice of Antarctica, there could be extraterrestrial craft, there could be cities down there.

322

00:41:02,000 --> 00:41:11,000

Bottom line is, it will shock the entire belief system of humankind. It will just change everything we know.

323

00:41:12,000 --> 00:41:17,000

What really lies beneath the ice and snow in Antarctica?

324

00:41:17,000 --> 00:41:27,000

Was this frozen continent once covered with lush vegetation, as well as pyramids that predate those in Egypt?

325

00:41:27,000 --> 00:41:37,000

And if extraterrestrials truly did inhabit Antarctica, could these other worldly visitors still be hiding out there today?

326

00:41:38,000 --> 00:41:46,000

Perhaps one day soon we will discover what the ice of Antarctica has hidden for thousands of years.

327

00:41:46,000 --> 00:41:53,000

And it will finally expose the truth about our alien past.
