00:00:00,549 --> 00:00:04,550

Everywhere that you look, there are monuments

00:00:04,550 --> 00:00:08,552

that the archaeologists had absolutely no knowledge of whatsoever.

00:00:08,552 --> 00:00:11,553

What seemed to be all of the cultures

00:00:11,553 --> 00:00:15,554

were trying to signal some kind of sky people.

00:00:17,555 --> 00:00:20,556

What if when we go past that wall,

00:00:20,556 --> 00:00:23,557

the real treasure trove is waiting inside?

00:00:24,558 --> 00:00:28,559

With the technology that has been and is being developed

8

00:00:28,559 --> 00:00:32,560

at the moment, archaeology will have to accept the fact that we have been visited by extraterrestrials in the remote past.

00:00:32,560 --> 00:00:37,562

10

00:00:38,562 --> 00:00:41,564

Since the dawn of civilization,

11

00:00:41,564 --> 00:00:47,566

mankind has credited its origins to gods and other visitors from the stars.

12

00:00:47,566 --> 00:00:50,567

What if it were true?

13

00:00:50,567 --> 00:00:56,569

Did extraterrestrial beings really help to shape our history?

14

00:00:57,569 --> 00:01:01,571

And if so, will new evidence reveal once and for all

15

00:01:01,571 --> 00:01:04,572

that we are not alone?

16

00:01:26,579 --> 00:01:29,581

The History of the World

17

00:01:37,583 --> 00:01:40,584

Throughout recorded history,

18

00:01:40,584 --> 00:01:43,585

archaeologists have discovered new structures,

19

00:01:43,585 --> 00:01:46,587

carvings and texts.

20

00:01:47,587 --> 00:01:52,589

It had put into question the established notions of our past,

21

00:01:52,589 --> 00:01:56,590

ruins dating back thousands of years

22

00:01:56,590 --> 00:02:01,592

reveal engineering skill surpassing even modern capabilities.

23

00:02:02,592 --> 00:02:07,594

Ancient rock art depicts figures that resemble astronauts

24

00:02:07,594 --> 00:02:11,595

and mysterious monoliths aligned with the stars

25

00:02:11,595 --> 00:02:15,597

dot the landscapes of nearly every continent.

26

00:02:15,597 --> 00:02:19,598

In his 1968 book, Chariots of the Gods,

27

00:02:19,598 --> 00:02:25,600

Eric Bondanikin proposed that all of this evidence pointed to one profound truth

28

00:02:25,600 --> 00:02:29,602

that extraterrestrials had visited Earth in the distant past

29

00:02:29,602 --> 00:02:33,603

and changed the course of human history.

30

00:02:34,604 --> 00:02:38,605

This concept is known as ancient astronaut theory

31

00:02:38,605 --> 00:02:44,607

and today it is embraced by literally millions of people around the world.

32

00:02:44,607 --> 00:02:46,608

Everyone in this room wants to ask,

33

00:02:46,608 --> 00:02:49,609

have you watched Ancient Aliens?

34

00:02:49,609 --> 00:02:52,610

And what's your comment about that series?

35

00:02:52,610 --> 00:02:56,611

King Touch Tomb may have more mysteries to reveal.

36

00:02:56,611 --> 00:03:00,613

The California Institute of Technology published a study claiming they have discovered

37

00:03:00,613 --> 00:03:03,614

a true ninth planet beyond Pluto.

38

00:03:03,614 --> 00:03:09,616

Ancient astronaut theorists suggest the evidence that extraterrestrials visited Earth

39

00:03:09,616 --> 00:03:14,618

is all around us and say that with new technology

40

00:03:14,618 --> 00:03:18,619

we are uncovering more proof than ever before.

41

00:03:19,619 --> 00:03:22,621

Liquid water has been found on Mars.

42

00:03:22,621 --> 00:03:25,622

NASA's Hubble Space Telescope have made independent confirmations

43

00:03:25,622 --> 00:03:28,623

in the hunt for extrasolar planets.

44

00:03:28,623 --> 00:03:34,625

Gliese 581, this would be the most Earth-like exoplanet yet discovered.

45

00:03:35,625 --> 00:03:41,627

In the past few years, different shafts were discovered in the Great Pyramid.

46

00:03:42,628 --> 00:03:47,629

That was only possible because of our modern technology.

47

00:03:48,630 --> 00:03:50,630

The same thing happens in astronomy.

48

00:03:51,631 --> 00:03:56,633

Because of the Hubble Telescope, we have discovered more than two and a half thousand

49

00:03:56,633 --> 00:04:03,635

so-called exoplanets, planets out of our solar system.

50

00:04:03,635 --> 00:04:06,636

The same thing in genetics.

51

00:04:07,636 --> 00:04:14,639

It's all connected. We should finally understand to link all these things together.

52

00:04:15,639 --> 00:04:20,641

With all of the new technologies that archaeologists have to use now,

53

00:04:20,641 --> 00:04:27,644

ground penetrating radar, satellite images, even the access of Google Earth

54

00:04:28,644 --> 00:04:32,645

has been a tremendous boon to archaeologists.

55

00:04:32,645 --> 00:04:36,647

And they're now finding things that we never thought existed.

56

00:04:38,647 --> 00:04:42,649

Science ultimately is a belief system that is based on certain evidence,

57

00:04:42,649 --> 00:04:46,650

but as new evidence comes in, authentic scientific investigation

58

00:04:46,650 --> 00:04:51,652

requires you to incorporate that evidence into the model that you are constructing.

59

00:04:52,652 --> 00:04:59,655

If we look at the recent findings, we're seeing the most revolutionary breakthroughs

60

00:04:59,655 --> 00:05:03,656

in the field of ancient astronaut theory that we have ever seen.

61

00:05:06,657 --> 00:05:08,658

Wildshire, England.

62

00:05:10,659 --> 00:05:16,661

Here stands one of the most mysterious stone monuments on Earth, Stonehenge.

63

00:05:17,661 --> 00:05:21,663

For centuries, it has baffled archaeologists.

64

00:05:21,663 --> 00:05:26,664

But in September of 2015, just two miles away,

65

00:05:26,664 --> 00:05:31,666

a discovery was made that could provide an important new piece to the puzzle.

66

00:05:33,667 --> 00:05:39,669

At the Darrington Walls, Great Britain's largest ancient hem structure, or circular earthwork,

67

00:05:40,669 --> 00:05:46,672

archaeologists using ground penetrating radar uncovered something astonishing,

68

00:05:47,672 --> 00:05:51,673

nearly 100 monolithic standing stones.

69

00:05:52,674 --> 00:05:58,676

Recently, a type of superhenge was discovered only two miles from Stonehenge.

70

00:05:59,676 --> 00:06:05,678

And it's a giant mystery because, according to the working archaeologists, it's older.

71

00:06:06,679 --> 00:06:12,681

So the question now is, if it's older than Stonehenge, what was its purpose and why was it built?

72

00:06:15,682 --> 00:06:20,684

This is the southern side of Darrington Walls, the southern edge.

73

00:06:21,684 --> 00:06:24,685

It's the middle of the Great Superhenge.

74

00:06:25,685 --> 00:06:32,688

And beneath my feet is at least one and another here of the 90 Great Stones.

75

00:06:34,689 --> 00:06:43,692

Now these stones, which were perhaps 15 feet in size, weighing anything between 10 and 15 tonnes a piece,

76

00:06:43,692 --> 00:06:50,694

were part of a huge arc that faced out towards the northern night sky.

77

00:06:51,695 --> 00:06:58,697

They were constructed as part of a mysterious monument even earlier than Darrington Walls,

78

00:06:59,697 --> 00:07:01,698

which dates to around 2500 BC.

79

00:07:02,698 --> 00:07:06,700

So there could be hundreds, perhaps even thousands of years earlier,

80

00:07:07,700 --> 00:07:10,701

and exactly why it's here is a complete mystery.

81

00:07:11,702 --> 00:07:21,705

These stones were purposely buried, and they seem to be part of a ritual complex that goes way beyond that particular site into the entire plain, on which it's found.

82

00:07:22,706 --> 00:07:29,708

So these stones encircle one part of the site and were consequently buried under a mound, which is really mysterious.

83

00:07:30,708 --> 00:07:35,710

While the stones of Stonehenge that have been discovered so far form an arc,

84

00:07:35,710 --> 00:07:45,714

many researchers believe that it was originally a full circle, much like another ancient structure located just 300 yards to the south.

85

00:07:46,714 --> 00:07:47,714

Woodhenge.

86

00:07:48,715 --> 00:07:50,715

This is Woodhenge.

87

00:07:51,716 --> 00:08:04,720

This was a smaller monument consisting of six concentric rings of wooden posts that pointed up towards the sky as much as 4000 years ago.

88

00:08:06,721 --> 00:08:21,726

And this monument itself, being circular in the same way that Stonehenge was, suggests to us that the 90 stones around the edge of Darrington was a huge great circle in itself.

89

00:08:22,727 --> 00:08:27,729

The largest ring of stones anywhere in Europe, perhaps even in the world.

90

00:08:27,729 --> 00:08:37,732

Incredibly, the newly discovered Superhenge is not all that has been uncovered beneath the earth here.

00:08:38,732 --> 00:08:50,737

Since July 2010, an international team of experts, as part of the Stonehenge Hidden Landscapes Project, has been mapping the entire area using the latest technology.

00:08:51,737 --> 00:08:55,738

More than 15 underground sites have been found.

00:08:57,739 --> 00:09:08,743

There's no doubt that these finds will cause English archaeologists to have to revisit everything we know about Stonehenge because Stonehenge is not going to be considered an isolate or something that's curious.

94

00:09:09,743 --> 00:09:26,749

While mainstream scientists believe Stonehenge and its surrounding sites were ancient ritual and burial grounds, there is no written record to explain why ancient people chose to move and erect massive blocks that weigh up to 50 tons.

95

00:09:27,750 --> 00:09:31,751

The blocks of which were transported from over 100 miles away.

96

00:09:32,752 --> 00:09:41,755

And now that a second Stonehenge has been found, the theory that these sites were simply burial grounds has been thrown into greater question.

00:09:42,755 --> 00:09:48,757

These ancient people had a great deal of knowledge about how to align these structures perfectly.

98

00:09:48,757 --> 00:09:52,759

So we're dealing with an advanced civilization to say the least.

00:09:53,759 --> 00:10:01,762

Where they had that knowledge, where they got that knowledge, where they developed the ability to put these incredible monuments together, it boggles the mind.

100

00:10:02,762 --> 00:10:15,767

Archaeologists believe that Stonehenge's two rings of standing stones may be simply the remains of a much larger structure based on the presence of the earthenhenge that surrounds it.

101

00:10:16,767 --> 00:10:27,771

This is led to speculation that Superhenge also contained additional rings and that these structures might even have had walls and roofs.

102

00:10:29,772 --> 00:10:36,774

But if true, was this area of England much more than simply a site of religious ceremony?

103

00:10:37,775 --> 00:10:44,777

When we look to these extraordinary structures on earth, it makes you wonder, did extraterrestrials have a hand in creating these walls?

104

00:10:45,777 --> 00:10:50,779

Did they create massive monuments? Or did they teach humans how to build these monuments?

105

00:10:51,780 --> 00:10:57,782

So you have to wonder what the purpose of these giant stone circles are around the world.

106

00:10:58,782 --> 00:11:02,783

Is it possible they were some kind of spaceport or conceived city?

107

00:11:03,784 --> 00:11:15,788

Is it possible that Stonehenge and the many structures that surround it are the remnants of an extraterrestrial spaceport?

108

00:11:16,788 --> 00:11:29,793

Ancient astronaut theorists say yes and suggest that further proof exists in the form of DNA evidence hidden in the tomb of King Tut.

109

00:11:32,794 --> 00:11:39,797

Coming up, they have confirmed that they might have discovered another pathway behind King Tut's burial chamber.

110

00:11:40,797 --> 00:11:45,799

When we go in there, we're going to find artifacts that could be undeniably extraterrestrial.

111

00:11:50,800 --> 00:11:59,804

Luxor Egypt. Here lies the tomb of the world's most famous pharaoh, King Tutankhamun.

112

00:12:03,805 --> 00:12:17,810

When it was discovered in 1922, completely intact and preserved after more than 3,000 years, it was considered one of the most significant archaeological discoveries of all time.

00:12:18,810 --> 00:12:31,815

But as spectacular a find as it was, almost a century later, new evidence has come to light that there may be much more to King Tut's final resting place than meets the eye.

114

00:12:32,815 --> 00:12:43,819

While examining high-resolution scans of the tomb, on September 28, 2015, British Egyptologist Nicholas Reeves found something remarkable.

115

00:12:44,820 --> 00:12:51,822

The possibility of two hidden passages connected directly to King Tut's burial chamber.

116

00:12:52,822 --> 00:12:59,825

There was a Spanish company who was recruited to scan the tomb of Tutankhamun in order to replicate it.

117

00:13:00,825 --> 00:13:11,829

It is through this high-definition photography scanning that Reeves noticed that on the north wall of the burial chamber, there are some cracks indicating the possibility of a door.

118

00:13:12,830 --> 00:13:17,831

And also on the eastern wall. So there's two possible chambers.

119

00:13:18,832 --> 00:13:27,835

Reeves took his laser images to Dr. Mamduh al-Damati, who is the minister of antiquities in Egypt, and they both decided to dig further.

120

00:13:28,835 --> 00:13:43,840

The used thermal scanning, which tells you the exact density of the wall at every pot, and they have confirmed that they might have discovered another pathway or a chamber behind King Tut's burial chamber.

121

00:13:44,841 --> 00:13:53,844

Whether there are more buried treasures beyond the painted walls remains to be seen. But if so, Reeves has a theory.

122

00:13:54,844 --> 00:14:04,848

He believed the passageway may lead to the tomb of Queen Nefertiti, the wife of Pharaoh Akhenaten, who ruled during the 14th century BC.

123

00:14:05,848 --> 00:14:11,850

But why would Nefertiti's tomb be hidden beyond King Tut's?

124

00:14:12,851 --> 00:14:20,854

Ancient astronaut theorists believe there may be a profound reason that Queen Nefertiti was not of this world.

125

00:14:22,854 --> 00:14:31,857

Nefertiti's parents are unknown. On pictures, she is shown with one of these elongated heads.

126

00:14:32,858 --> 00:14:39,860

Now we know the gods, the old Egyptian gods, they had longer heads than we have.

127

00:14:40,861 --> 00:14:50,864

And according to the pyramid texts, sometimes they left the earth and then they returned again. So Nefertiti's parents were maybe extraterrestrials.

128

00:14:51,865 --> 00:14:57,867

King Akhenaten and his wife looked completely different than all the other ancient Egyptian kings.

129

00:14:58,867 --> 00:15:07,870

King Akhenaten always was depicted with an elongated skull, a bigger size hip, a belly that drools over his belt.

130

00:15:09,871 --> 00:15:17,874

He believed that he wasn't a man and he wasn't a woman and he wasn't a king, he was just something else.

131

00:15:18,874 --> 00:15:26,877

The most unusual feature is an elongated skull. There's been a lot of discussions about what these skulls meant, whether they were literally a skull.

132

00:15:27,877 --> 00:15:30,878

They were elongated skulls or whether they were just decoration features.

133

00:15:31,879 --> 00:15:37,881

It's certainly very intriguing, it doesn't appear before or afterwards. So there's something rather odd about this, I have to admit.

134

00:15:39,882 --> 00:15:49,885

The reign of Akhenaten and Nefertiti introduced a new and controversial monotheistic faith to Egypt, worshipping the disc-shaped sun god, Atten.

135

00:15:50,885 --> 00:16:00,889

The Atten was described as this flying sun disc. Egyptologists are merely saying that this was nothing else but the sun.

136

00:16:01,889 --> 00:16:08,892

But the question is, can the sun instruct you in different disciplines? And the answer is no.

137

00:16:09,892 --> 00:16:19,896

So we have to see whether or not our ancestors encountered technology and misinterpreted as something in nature.

138

00:16:20,896 --> 00:16:31,900

Is it possible the depictions of Akhenaten and Nefertiti, along with their worship of a disc-shaped god, are evidence that they were not of this world?

139

00:16:31,900 --> 00:16:39,903

And if so, my Queen Nefertiti's tomb contained DNA evidence of their extraterrestrial origins.

140

00:16:41,904 --> 00:16:48,906

The ancient Egyptians did not want us to know anything about Nefertiti or Akhenaten or even Tutankhamun.

141

00:16:49,906 --> 00:16:55,908

They made every effort they possibly could to erase all references to their existence.

142

00:16:56,909 --> 00:17:08,913

So what is it about Nefertiti that makes the opening of her tomb so powerful? This ultimately goes back to Akhenaten and Nefertiti's introduction of the teaching of the celestial disc.

143

00:17:11,914 --> 00:17:22,918

What if when we go past that wall, the real treasure trove is waiting inside? And when we go in there, we're going to find artifacts that could be undeniably extraterrestrial.

144

00:17:23,918 --> 00:17:36,923

Could this tomb hide other worldly secrets and treasures? Might we be on the verge of locating indisputable evidence of extraterrestrial intervention in the distant past?

145

00:17:37,923 --> 00:17:45,926

Perhaps additional pieces to the puzzle can be found deep within the temple of a flying serpent god.

146

00:17:46,927 --> 00:17:53,929

Coming up, why would you put liquid mercury inside its home?

147

00:17:54,929 --> 00:17:58,931

Mercury has very good uses in space travel.

148

00:18:06,934 --> 00:18:12,936

Teotihuacan, Mexico. April 24th, 2015.

149

00:18:15,937 --> 00:18:31,942

For six years, Mexican archaeologist Sergio Gomez has been performing an excavation of the ancient city's third largest pyramid, the pyramid of Quetzalcoatl, which dates back to the 2nd century AD.

150

00:18:32,943 --> 00:18:48,949

Gomez has uncovered numerous relics in the course of his excavation, but on this date, he discovered something completely unexpected in a chamber below the pyramid. Large quantities of liquid mercury.

151

00:18:49,949 --> 00:19:07,955

Gomez has been gradually penetrating a tunnel and has now reached a depth of 300 feet, but along the way they found liquid mercury. Now why would you put liquid mercury inside a tomb?

152

00:19:08,956 --> 00:19:16,958

You wouldn't want to put mercury down there just for the heck of it, because if you get too close to it or too involved with it, it's going to kill you.

153

00:19:19,959 --> 00:19:29,963

Mercury is an extremely rare and conductive element that today is used primarily in electronics and automobiles.

154

00:19:30,963 --> 00:19:36,966

So the presence of this dangerous substance below an ancient Aztec pyramid has puzzled scientists.

00:19:37,966 --> 00:19:55,972

But ancient astronaut theorists believe the mercury found at this temple, a temple built to honor Quetzalcoatl, the feathered serpent that came down from the sky, may have a direct connection to the beings the Aztecs referred to as their gods.

156

00:19:56,973 --> 00:20:14,979

Now liquid mercury was not only found in Teotihuacan. According to old Indian texts, liquid mercury was one part of the propulsion system which extraterrestrials used for their flying machines.

157

00:20:15,979 --> 00:20:25,983

There are many legends that the Nazis themselves actually went through these Sanskrit texts in order to help them develop their own flying craft technology.

158

00:20:26,983 --> 00:20:47,991

What we know from the leaked German scientific reports is that apparently if you subject mercury to a very high level of electrostatic charge and then rotate it, you get a gravitational thrust which allows you to create inertial force that can counteract the normal force of gravity.

159

00:20:48,991 --> 00:20:59,995

So the idea that we have references to mercury in a chamber of the feathered serpent, one has to ask the question, what was this feathered serpent?

160

00:20:59,995 --> 00:21:11,999

According to the ancient astronaut theory, we are talking about physical craft that at some point were misinterpreted as living creatures.

161

00:21:13,000 --> 00:21:22,003

Could this incredible discovery of liquid mercury provide further proof that the feathered serpent was actually a spacecraft?

162

00:21:22,003 --> 00:21:29,005

Ancient astronaut theorists believe another toxic tune may help answer this question.

163

00:21:30,006 --> 00:21:33,007

Shanxi Province, China

164

00:21:35,007 --> 00:21:40,009

Here, buried deep under a hill, lies Emperor Qin Shi'an.

165

00:21:41,009 --> 00:21:50,013

Undisturbed for more than 2,000 years, his tune is best known for the discovery of thousands of terracotta warriors.

166

00:21:50,013 --> 00:21:58,015

But much of the massive underground structure has not yet been excavated due to high levels of mercury.

167

00:21:59,016 --> 00:22:07,019

If somebody were to ask me what is the most fantastic archaeological site on the planet Earth, my answer would be simple and it would be quick.

168

00:22:07,019 --> 00:22:09,019

It's the Tomb of Emperor Qin.

169

00:22:10,020 --> 00:22:22,024

Writings from the time of Emperor Qin, 2nd century BC told us that this guy was buried in a tomb that had a scale model of China inside of it, with flowing rivers of mercury moving around the cities that were built in scale models.

170

00:22:22,024 --> 00:22:28,026

171

00:22:28,026 --> 00:22:39,030

Is it coincidence that an ancient tomb in China and an ancient temple in Mexico both contain liquid mercury?

172

00:22:40,030 --> 00:22:54,035

Curiously, much like the Aztec story of Quetzalcoatl coming down from the sky, the Chinese say the ancestor of Qin Shi'an, the Yellow Emperor, descended from the heavens on a dragon.

173

00:22:55,036 --> 00:23:08,040

According to some mythological accounts, the Yellow Emperor was riding around on a dragon when he saw the people of Earth in need, and so he descended from the heavens to help them.

174

00:23:09,041 --> 00:23:17,043

According to Chinese myth, after ruling for 100 years, the Yellow Emperor called for the return of the dragon.

175

00:23:18,044 --> 00:23:29,048

70 different people from his own staff all got on board this dragon and flew away. The dragon is said to travel vast distances in short periods of time.

176

00:23:30,048 --> 00:23:43,053

So the Yellow Dragon does appear to be a very large spacecraft, traveling at extraordinary speed, and all of the events that I'm describing to you actually did take place in physical tangible reality.

177

00:23:43,053 --> 00:24:04,060

Liquid mercury is such an obscure substance. So how do we account for both the ancient Aztecs and the Chinese creating rivers of mercury in the tombs of some of their greatest figures unless they know the hidden secrets of this substance, hidden secrets that were taught to them by extraterrestrials?

178

00:24:05,060 --> 00:24:19,065

Is it possible that the Aztec story of a flying feathered serpent and the Chinese story of a dragon coming down from the sky are both describing alien spacecraft?

179

00:24:22,066 --> 00:24:28,069

And is this why liquid mercury has been found in tombs both in Mexico and China?

180

00:24:29,069 --> 00:24:46,075

Ancient astronaut theorists say yes and propose even more compelling evidence that our ancestors encountered other worldly technology might lie high in the mountains of Peru, hidden beneath the earth.

181

00:24:47,075 --> 00:24:51,077

Coming up.

182

00:24:51,077 --> 00:24:57,079

Equipment detected that there was metal inside this hidden chamber.

183

00:24:57,079 --> 00:25:03,081

Talking about being able to recover the power that Pachacutec possessed.

184

00:25:08,083 --> 00:25:10,083

Machu Picchu, Peru.

185

00:25:11,084 --> 00:25:26,089

This stone citadel of the Inca civilization was built high in the Andes Mountains around 1450 AD, but was suddenly and mysteriously abandoned roughly a century later.

186

00:25:27,089 --> 00:25:39,094

Mainstream scholars contend, the construction of Machu Picchu was led by Emperor Pachacutec and took thousands of men working decades to complete.

187

00:25:40,094 --> 00:25:59,101

But ancient astronaut theorists suggest that the precise construction, the transportation of massive blocks and the Inca's own accounts all point to a very different explanation for Machu Picchu, that it was built with the help of other worldly beings.

188

00:26:01,102 --> 00:26:06,103

Ever Pachacutec was believed to have had a special bond with the god Viracoka.

189

00:26:07,104 --> 00:26:22,109

Pachacutec, in the days leading up to the great battle against the Chonko, he takes kind of a retreat. He goes to a lake and out of the sky drops this piece of metal into the lake.

190

00:26:22,109 --> 00:26:29,111

When he fishes it out of the lake, it's a mirror and he sees an image in the mirror.

191

00:26:30,112 --> 00:26:40,115

This supernatural creature in the mirror tells him, I am your father. You will win many battles in your lifetime, this one included.

192

00:26:40,115 --> 00:26:43,116

The image is actually Viracocha, the creator deity.

193

00:26:44,117 --> 00:26:56,121

And then as Pachacutec stood with his vastly smaller army, these giant megalithic stones came to life and became his army and crushed the Chonko.

194

00:26:57,121 --> 00:27:03,123

Pachacutec actually had the power of Viracocha behind him.

195

00:27:03,123 --> 00:27:07,125

It makes one wonder if in fact this was extraterrestrial technology.

196

00:27:08,125 --> 00:27:14,127

Could the story of Pachacutec, levitating massive stones, be true?

197

00:27:14,127 --> 00:27:20,129

And might the mirror that fell from the sky have been some type of alien technology?

198

00:27:21,130 --> 00:27:32,134

Ancient astronaut theorists say yes and suggest a new discovery at Machu Picchu may reveal what happened to this other worldly device.

199

00:27:34,134 --> 00:27:39,136

French engineer David Kresby was vacationing in Machu Picchu in 2010.

200

00:27:39,136 --> 00:27:48,139

When he discovered that at the bottom of one of the main buildings, there seemed to be a doorway purposely sealed up with rocks.

201

00:27:50,140 --> 00:28:01,144

In August of 2011, he reached out to Thierry Jamal, a French archaeologist that has been studying Peru and the Incan Empire for more than 15 years.

202

00:28:03,145 --> 00:28:11,148

Within a month, Thierry started his own investigation with local archaeologists and specialists in funerary sites.

203

00:28:11,148 --> 00:28:19,150

Thierry and radar technician Ricardo Hamada took a scan from above the blocked entrance with ground penetrating radar.

204

00:28:20,151 --> 00:28:31,155

The image on the radar detector reveals a large cavity and the broken lines indicate there may also be stairs leading even further down into the earth.

205

00:28:32,155 --> 00:28:40,158

Other equipment detected that there was metals inside this hidden chamber.

206

00:28:41,158 --> 00:28:52,162

Gold, silver and other types of metallic objects suggesting very strongly that we're dealing with some kind of a tomb.

207

00:28:53,162 --> 00:29:08,168

Although Thierry has confirmed Kresby's suspicions that the odd structure was an entrance sealed off at some point by the Incas, the Peruvian authorities have since banned his return to the site for further investigations.

208

00:29:10,168 --> 00:29:19,172

All of the iconographic and archaeological elements show us that this is all associated with the mausoleum of Pachacutec.

209

00:29:20,172 --> 00:29:26,174

Maybe the most important archaeological treasure ever found in Machu Picchu.

210

00:29:28,175 --> 00:29:32,176

Could the tomb of Pachacutec lie beyond these rocks?

211

00:29:33,177 --> 00:29:48,182

And is it possible, as ancient astronaut theorists suggest, that it might also contain advanced technology, the so-called magic mirror that was said to have been given to Pachacutec by the creator god Viracocha.

00:29:50,183 --> 00:29:56,185

We're talking about the emperor as having a connection with this extraterrestrial being.

213

00:29:58,185 --> 00:30:10,190

Now think about it, if we're talking about recovering his tomb and his artifacts, then we're talking about ultimately being able to recover the power that Pachacutec possessed.

214

00:30:11,190 --> 00:30:20,193

And what we're going to be seeing here is, I believe, iron-clad evidence emerging of extraterrestrial involvement in human affairs.

215

00:30:21,194 --> 00:30:33,198

When the underground chamber found at Machu Picchu is excavated, will we discover undeniable proof that this site was constructed with extraterrestrial technology?

216

00:30:34,198 --> 00:30:48,203

Ancient astronaut theorists suggest further evidence can be found by examining newly discovered Nazca lines, as well as similar geoglyphs found on the other side of the world.

217

00:30:51,204 --> 00:30:52,205

Coming up.

218

00:30:53,205 --> 00:30:57,206

They're much more complex than the Nazca geoglyphs in that they are three-dimensional.

219

00:30:58,207 --> 00:31:03,208

This could have been some huge, great, megalithic, stonsetic.

220

00:31:08,210 --> 00:31:10,211

Nazca Peru.

221

00:31:11,211 --> 00:31:21,215

First discovered in 1927, the Nazca lines consist of hundreds of designs known as geoglyphs that can only be seen from above.

222

00:31:22,215 --> 00:31:36,220

Scattered over 200 square miles in southern Peru, mainstream archaeologists believe the figures were created by the ancient Nazca people sometime between the first and eighth centuries AD.

223

00:31:37,221 --> 00:31:52,226

Ancient astronaut theorists have been studying the Nazca lines for years, and they say new evidence proves that aliens not only visited Nazca, but continued to return there over the centuries.

224

00:31:53,226 --> 00:32:10,232

On July 7th, 2015, a team of anthropologists from Yamagata University in Japan revealed they had found new Nazca lines that due to erosion are impossible to make out with the naked eye.

225

00:32:11,233 --> 00:32:27,238

By conducting a three-dimensional scan of the ground, they uncovered a total of 24 images, including strange-looking humanoid figures, a disembodied head, and a llama 65 feet long.

226

00:32:28,239 --> 00:32:40,243

According to their findings, the new geoglyphs date from 400 to 200 BC, making them hundreds of years older than those previously discovered.

227

00:32:40,243 --> 00:32:55,248

These new finds are instrumental in showing the duration of which these types of modifications were going on on the desert floor for hundreds and hundreds of years, involving different cultures.

228

00:32:55,248 --> 00:32:59,250

With different motivations and different depictions.

229

00:32:59,250 --> 00:33:14,255

It would seem to be all of the cultures were trying to signal some kind of sky people, and probably over time were trying to induce them to come back down from the sky and land their ships.

230

00:33:14,255 --> 00:33:23,258

You have to wonder then, if with at least four successive cultures doing this, that you would think they must have had some success.

231

00:33:26,259 --> 00:33:42,265

Some ancient astronaut theorists have even suggested that the discovery of older Nazca lines may indicate that the people responsible for the later geoglyphs were imitating what was originally made by the extraterrestrials themselves.

232

00:33:43,265 --> 00:33:58,270

The question starts to rise, is were various different people coming to Nazca to make these petroglyphs and these large diagrams, or were they possibly recreating some initial experiment or some initial thing that took place?

233

00:33:59,271 --> 00:34:14,276

What if some of the early cultures in Nazca actually experienced interaction with beings that were creating edifices that could only be seen from the sky, and the only way to get to lure them back was to create these ways to communicate from an aerial perspective.

234

00:34:15,276 --> 00:34:22,279

For decades, it was thought that there was no other place on Earth like Nazca.

235

00:34:22,279 --> 00:34:29,281

But recently, a shocking discovery was made on the opposite side of the globe.

236

00:34:30,282 --> 00:34:35,284

Turgai Kazakhstan, October 2015.

237

00:34:35,284 --> 00:34:45,287

Using satellite photography, NASA captures images of more than 260 geoglyphs covering the ground here.

238

00:34:47,288 --> 00:34:54,290

They're located in a very rural part of Kazakhstan, and they could only be found thanks to modern technology.

239

00:34:55,291 --> 00:35:00,292

There are much more complex than the Nazca geoglyphs in that they are three-dimensional.

240

00:35:00,292 --> 00:35:07,295

They are mounds and trenches, whereas the Nazca lines are etchings in the sand.

241

00:35:07,295 --> 00:35:25,301

We're talking here about massive features that are constructed from earthen mounds and also from wood, showing everything from rings to squares to crosses and even swastikas that are on the ground.

242

00:35:28,302 --> 00:35:36,305

The archaeologists in the area have no idea who made the geoglyphs or what they represent.

243

00:35:36,305 --> 00:35:49,310

But one fact they've been able to determine is that some of these glyphs date back 8,000 years, nearly 6,000 years older than the Nazca lines.

244

00:35:50,310 --> 00:35:57,313

Since these can be dated to almost 8,000 years old, we have to wonder who they were trying to communicate with.

245

00:35:57,313 --> 00:36:03,315

Could it have been possibly what a lot of these ancient cultures referred to as gods?

246

00:36:04,315 --> 00:36:18,320

I think the fact that we're finding more and more of these symbols simply tell us that the humankind at that time tried to communicate with what they thought were the gods from above.

247

00:36:20,321 --> 00:36:30,324

Could the new geoglyphs found in Kazakhstan be evidence that our ancestors encountered extraterrestrial visitors as much as 8,000 years ago?

248

00:36:31,325 --> 00:36:43,329

Ancient astronaut theorists say yes and suggest that these glyphs may prove to have been made at the same time as the newly discovered Superhenge.

249

00:36:44,329 --> 00:36:55,333

Because while Stonehenge is considered to be at least 5,000 years old, some believe the buried monolith of Superhenge could be much, much older.

250

00:36:56,333 --> 00:37:03,336

Stonehenge is only one small part of a gigantic archaeological puzzle.

251

00:37:04,336 --> 00:37:13,340

Now we today, we must stumble over these stone circles, over these stone lines and automatically we have to ask questions.

252

00:37:13,340 --> 00:37:18,341

What is it? How have they done it for our purpose?

253

00:37:18,341 --> 00:37:25,344

And soon or later we come up with the question, is there maybe a message by the extraterrestrials?

254

00:37:27,344 --> 00:37:38,348

Is it possible that the geoglyphs recently discovered in Nazca and Kazakhstan are tied to not only the new discovery of Superhenge in England,

255

00:37:38,348 --> 00:37:45,351

but also to other mysterious sites around the world that were made to be seen from the sky?

256

00:37:46,351 --> 00:37:59,356

If so, could evidence that these markers were intended for extraterrestrial visitors be hidden beneath the Earth in Mexico, Peru, China and Egypt?

257

00:38:00,356 --> 00:38:11,360

Ancient astronaut theorists say yes and suggest that we are on the verge of uncovering the ultimate proof of alien contact.

258

00:38:12,360 --> 00:38:26,365

Ancient astronaut theorists argue that in recent times the mainstream has dismissed the possibility that another race of advanced beings came to Earth in the distant past,

259

00:38:27,366 --> 00:38:31,367

even though the signs are all around us.

260

00:38:31,367 --> 00:38:39,370

Experts believe a series of mysterious objects surrounding a giant star could be marked an alien megastructure.

261

00:38:39,370 --> 00:38:47,373

1500 light years from Earth, signals are blasting from the star KIC 84-62-85-2.

262

00:38:47,373 --> 00:38:51,374

It could be a giant solar panel built by an alien civilization.

263

00:38:51,374 --> 00:38:59,377

Thousands of miles away in a cave in South Africa, archeologists discovered hundreds of ancient bones and a new human ancestor.

264

00:38:59,377 --> 00:39:11,381

As more and more new evidence pours in, is ancient astronaut theory nearing a point where it will be considered by mainstream scholars as a serious possibility?

265

00:39:12,382 --> 00:39:17,383

Great thinkers like Galileo are dismissed as fools and heretics.

266

00:39:17,383 --> 00:39:21,385

They were the ones that had the right idea, but new ideas are not accepted easily.

267

00:39:22,385 --> 00:39:26,387

For centuries it was believed that the Earth was flat.

268

00:39:26,387 --> 00:39:28,387

We are stubborn people.

269

00:39:29,388 --> 00:39:37,391

As we evolve as a humankind, we are going to realize that what we were taught in the past may not be what is going to be in the future.

270

00:39:39,391 --> 00:39:48,394

We're going to continue to learn new things about past civilizations and new things of what could have been future civilizations as well.

271

00:39:49,395 --> 00:39:57,398

And you've got to conclude that we are not alone in the universe and that we've been visited and we continue to be visited.

272

00:39:58,398 --> 00:40:14,404

With the technology that has been and is being developed at the moment, ultimately archeology will have no other choice but to accept the fact that we have been visited by extraterrestrials in the remote past.

273

00:40:14,404 --> 00:40:24,407

For me personally, I think that these extraterrestrials, they left a purpose. I call it something like a time capsule.

274

00:40:25,408 --> 00:40:32,410

That's why they made these gigantic stone circles and stone lines. It was addressed to us.

275

00:40:33,410 --> 00:40:37,412

And we should ask who were these extraterrestrials? Where did they come from?

276

00:40:37,412 --> 00:40:42,414

What was the reason? Will they come down again?

277

00:40:43,414 --> 00:40:45,415

I'm sure they will show up.

278

00:40:46,415 --> 00:40:59,420

We are now living in a paradigm shift in which the new evidence is upholding an older and ancient idea that extraterrestrials came to Earth and had a huge influence on human affairs.

279

00:41:00,420 --> 00:41:03,421

And that ultimately our future depends on our involvement with these beings as well.

280

00:41:03,421 --> 00:41:15,425

As technology continues to improve, will irrefutable evidence be uncovered of extraterrestrial intervention on Earth?

281

00:41:16,426 --> 00:41:26,429

Evidence that world governments have been hiding from us for decades. Could the smoking gun be concealed behind a tomb wall?

282

00:41:27,429 --> 00:41:34,432

Hidden away in an ancient temple? Or even buried right under our feet?

283

00:41:35,432 --> 00:41:54,439

If other worldly beings really have been observing us, perhaps as we get closer to the truth, the proof will come not in the form of an artifact or scientific discovery, but in face-to-face contact with our alien ancestors.
