00:00:00,360 --> 00:00:06,362

And here he is, King Tut himself.

Laying right in front of us more than 3,000 years later,

00:00:11,363 --> 00:00:15,365

this tomb was made for ultimate protection.

00:00:15,365 --> 00:00:20,366

And when they first opened this tomb, people died mysteriously.

00:00:23,367 --> 00:00:26,368

The ancient barrels with a place of curse

00:00:26,368 --> 00:00:31,369

on all those who would enter into their tombs.

00:00:32,370 --> 00:00:37,371

What is the deadly secret behind the curse of King Tut?

00:00:37,371 --> 00:00:40,372

We're dealing with an extraterrestrial force.

00:00:40,372 --> 00:00:43,373

But the ancient Egyptians were utilizing to protect these tombs.

10

00:00:43,373 --> 00:00:48,375

Does alien technology prevent us from learning our true past?

11

00:00:48,375 --> 00:00:53,376

Something very significant that perhaps we still don't understand was hidden in that tomb.

12

00:00:53,376 --> 00:00:59,378

And if so, what might happen when the so-called curse is finally lifted?

13

00:00:59,378 --> 00:01:05,380

According to the idea that I subscribe to, it will be the return of the extraterrestrials.

14

00:01:23,385 --> 00:01:38,390

O'Geiland, Nova Scotia, Canada 2017

15

00:01:38,390 --> 00:01:44,392

Rick and Marty Lagina returned to the land they purchased here 10 years ago

16

00:01:44,392 --> 00:01:48,393

in an effort to solve a centuries-old mystery.

17

00:01:48,393 --> 00:01:55,395

One that began in 1795, when three Nova Scotia farm boys set out to explore the island

18

00:01:55,395 --> 00:02:00,396

after witnessing strange lights coming from its shore in the middle of the night.

19

00:02:00,396 --> 00:02:08,399

According to a legendary curse, seven men must die before the island will reveal a treasure

20

00:02:08,399 --> 00:02:12,400

that lies buried deep beneath its surface.

21

00:02:12,400 --> 00:02:19,402

So far, six lives have been lost in pursuit of the treasure.

22

00:02:19,402 --> 00:02:26,404

The island has been studied and explored by generation after generation of earnest seekers.

23

00:02:26,404 --> 00:02:31,406

The current owners have brought in much heavier equipment than has ever been used before and they are dedicated to finding out the secret of O'Geiland.

24

00:02:31,406 --> 00:02:35,407

25

00:02:35,407 --> 00:02:41,409

But some ancient astronaut theorists believe they already know what will be found.

26

00:02:41,409 --> 00:02:49,411

There was a giant shaft that had been dug into the island very, very deep.

27

00:02:49,411 --> 00:02:56,414

And at certain levels, flood, tunnels had been built from the ocean that came to the shaft.

28

00:02:56,414 --> 00:03:02,415

And so you have to wonder, what was the secret of O'Geiland?

29

00:03:02,415 --> 00:03:09,417

The cave to the shaft, and so you have to wonder if people have gone through a lot of effort to protect something.

30

00:03:09,417 --> 00:03:13,419

And I would suspect the Ark of the Covenant.

31

00:03:13,419 --> 00:03:19,421

The Ark of the Covenant? The golden chest built to house the Ten Commandments?

32

00:03:19,421 --> 00:03:26,423

How would this have ended up buried more than 100 feet beneath the earth on O'Geiland?

33

00:03:26,423 --> 00:03:30,424

And what does it have to do with a curse?

34

00:03:31,424 --> 00:03:37,426

Ancient astronaut theorists say the answer lies more than 5,000 miles away with a curse that dates back to the 14th century BC.

35

00:03:37,426 --> 00:03:43,428

36

00:03:48,429 --> 00:03:55,431

Egypt, Valley of the Kings, November 4th 1922.

37

00:03:55,431 --> 00:04:01,433

A young boy working for a British excavation team led by Howard Carter

38

00:04:01,433 --> 00:04:09,436

is riding his donkey home one night when suddenly the animal's hoof slips into a hole below the sand.

39

00:04:09,436 --> 00:04:16,438

Thinking he may have stumbled upon the entrance to a tomb, he rushes home and alerts Carter.

40

00:04:17,438 --> 00:04:23,440

When Howard Carter came in, they dug feverishly all the way through the tomb.

41

00:04:23,440 --> 00:04:32,443

72 steps till they reached the sealed door of the tomb, which was right here.

42

00:04:32,443 --> 00:04:39,445

He instantly made a hole into the wall before destroying it, and Howard Carter peeked in and said,

43

and I quote, I see wonderful things, which was very true.

44

00:04:46,447 --> 00:04:51,448

Right inside King Tut's tomb, there were wonderful things.

45

00:04:51,448 --> 00:04:58,451

This tomb was packed with gold and treasure.

46

00:04:58,451 --> 00:05:04,452

Incredibly, Howard Carter and his team had unearthed the tomb of King Tutankhamun.

47

00:05:05,453 --> 00:05:14,455

To this day, it is considered the best preserved and most intact tomb ever found in the Valley of the Kings.

48

00:05:17,456 --> 00:05:26,459

Although the excavation team achieved instant worldwide fame for their discovery, their triumph was short-lived.

49

00:05:27,459 --> 00:05:31,461

During the opening of the tomb of King Tut,

50

00:05:32,461 --> 00:05:37,462

all the workers were very wary, the Egyptian ones.

51

00:05:37,462 --> 00:05:43,464

It is known that ancient Egyptian tombs have the curse of the pharaohs.

52

00:05:43,464 --> 00:05:47,466

Whoever enters the tomb first will die.

53

00:05:50,466 --> 00:05:56,468

While most Westerners involved did not take the ancient stories of a curse seriously,

54

00:05:56,468 --> 00:06:02,470

the opening of King Tut's tomb was almost immediately followed by numerous tragedies,

55

00:06:02,470 --> 00:06:08,472

some with eerie connections to the alleged curse.

56

00:06:08,472 --> 00:06:14,474

Soon after the opening of the tomb, a messenger went to the archaeologist's house.

57

00:06:14,474 --> 00:06:16,474

This was Howard Carter.

58

00:06:17,475 --> 00:06:22,476

He found Carter's beloved canary in the mouth of a cobra,

59

00:06:23,476 --> 00:06:27,478

which was the symbolic snake of the pharaoh.

60

00:06:28,478 --> 00:06:33,480

Later, we learned that Lord Canarban himself was bit on the cheek by a mosquito.

61

00:06:33,480 --> 00:06:37,481

In the very same place that King Tut, it turned out, was also wounded.

62

00:06:38,481 --> 00:06:43,483

He died within weeks of a blood-borne disease, very mysteriously.

63

00:06:43,483 --> 00:06:50,485

Howard Fields, another archaeologist who came to the tomb, had his home burned down and flooded.

64

00:06:50,485 --> 00:06:55,486

And people began to wonder if, in fact, this was the curse of Tutankhamen.

65

00:06:56,487 --> 00:07:02,488

No fewer than seven deaths have been associated with the opening of the tomb,

66

00:07:02,488 --> 00:07:08,490

the same number of lives that Oak Island must claim, according to the legend.

67

00:07:08,490 --> 00:07:13,492

Could there really have been a curse protecting King Tut's tomb?

68

00:07:13,492 --> 00:07:17,493

And if so, what was behind it?

69

00:07:18,493 --> 00:07:22,494

Curses were a tool of Hecca.

70

00:07:22,494 --> 00:07:30,497

The magical technology that the ancient Egyptians used, that they said was a gift of their extraterrestrial gods.

71

00:07:30,497 --> 00:07:35,498

This suggests that the curse of the pharaohs is an extraterrestrial force,

72

or perhaps even technology that the ancient Egyptians were utilizing to protect these tombs.

73

00:07:42,500 --> 00:07:51,503

Is it possible that some type of extraterrestrial technology was activated with the opening of King Tut's tomb?

74

00:07:52,504 --> 00:08:01,506

Ancient astronaut theorists say yes, and as further evidence point to the so-called magic bricks found at the tomb.

75

00:08:03,507 --> 00:08:10,509

In the tomb of Tutankhamen, there were four bricks in the four cabinet positions.

76

00:08:11,509 --> 00:08:19,512

With some magic and spells from chapter 151 of the Book of the Dead, spells of protecting the dead.

77

00:08:19,512 --> 00:08:23,513

They believed in magic, they believed in the power of the words.

78

00:08:23,513 --> 00:08:27,514

The word for them makes power, makes protection.

79

00:08:29,515 --> 00:08:36,517

When we go over to the Tibetan arena, we see these prayer wheels, and this is a very interesting thing,

80

00:08:36,517 --> 00:08:41,518

because the priests would actually go by and they would roll these cylindrical drums with their hands.

81

00:08:41,518 --> 00:08:49,521

And they believed that the simple rolling of the drum would actually impress the words upon the space around them.

82

00:08:49,521 --> 00:08:52,522

They believed that space was alive and intelligent.

83

00:08:52,522 --> 00:09:00,524

So this suggests the possibility that certain words do in a sense become imbued with a force.

00:09:00,524 --> 00:09:07,526

That force may be something that certain types of extraterrestrial or extra-dimensional beings can actually access.

85

00:09:08,527 --> 00:09:20,530

Is it possible that the Egyptians were working with extraterrestrials who would in fact generate these types of seemingly magical phenomena in the event that people tried to transgress into these locations?

86

00:09:20,530 --> 00:09:25,532

87

00:09:26,532 --> 00:09:35,535

If the so-called magic bricks really were alien technology, as ancient astronaut theorists suggest, might they have triggered the terrible events that were set in motion when Howard Carter breached the entrance to King Tut's tomb?

88

00:09:35,535 --> 00:09:43,537

89

00:09:43,537 --> 00:09:50,539

And is there a connection to the curse that is said to exist on Oak Island today?

90

00:09:51,540 --> 00:09:59,542

Perhaps further clues will be revealed by examining an artifact in King Tut's tomb that isn't found in any other.

91

00:09:59,542 --> 00:10:02,543

A fifth magic brick.

92

00:10:05,544 --> 00:10:09,545

September 22, 1926.

00:10:09,545 --> 00:10:16,547

Howard Carter and his team begin their fifth excavation season at the tomb of King Tutankhamen.

94

00:10:17,548 --> 00:10:25,550

The focus of their work is an unwalled room on the far end of the burial chamber called the Treasury.

95

00:10:25,550 --> 00:10:31,552

When they enter, the first thing they come upon is a fifth so-called magic brick.

96

00:10:31,552 --> 00:10:36,553

This fifth brick has a harrowing inscription that reads,

97

00:10:36,553 --> 00:10:44,556

While other pharaoh's tombs were found to contain four magic curse bricks,

98

00:10:44,556 --> 00:11:04,342

they are also known as the 99

00:11:06,563 --> 00:11:11,564

only King Tut's includes a fifth. But why?

100

00:11:11,564 --> 00:11:24,568

That fifth brick may be a clue, a sort of X marks the spot, treasure map, that shows us that something very significant that perhaps we still don't understand was hidden in that tomb.

101

00:11:24,568 --> 00:11:39,573

On September 28, 2015, British Egyptologist Nicholas Reeves made a remarkable discovery while examining high-resolution scans of King Tut's tomb.

102

00:11:39,573 --> 00:11:44,574

The possibility of hidden cavities within the burial chamber.

103

00:11:45,574 --> 00:11:57,578

Dr. Reeves looked at high-resolution images of this wall and he noticed a crack that looks like it should have been a door.

104

00:11:57,578 --> 00:12:09,582

And it was right about here. They brought thermal scanners in and scanned behind this wall and they believed they found cavities behind this specific area.

105

00:12:09,582 --> 00:12:17,584

He took the permission to go inside the north room and dig through to discover what's behind this wall.

106

00:12:17,584 --> 00:12:23,586

Just a couple of months before the mission took place, it was stopped for unknown reasons.

107

00:12:23,586 --> 00:12:30,588

Who or what may be hidden in this secret chamber is hotly debated.

108

00:12:30,588 --> 00:12:43,592

But some researchers believe it is possible that it contains the remains of Egypt's most controversial pharaoh, Akinatan, who also happens to be the father of King Tut.

109

00:12:43,592 --> 00:12:52,595

Ancient Egypt had always been polytheistic, many gods, and then there is a new leader, a new pharaoh with a new idea.

110

00:12:52,595 --> 00:12:59,597

Akinatan announces there will be one god, they will be monotheistic people.

111

00:12:59,597 --> 00:13:13,601

Akinatan, the sun god, would be the one divinity they all worshipped. The images, the sun disc. It shook the empire in really terrible ways.

112

00:13:14,601 --> 00:13:22,604

What could have inspired Akinatan to make such drastic changes during a time of tremendous prosperity?

113

00:13:22,604 --> 00:13:28,606

Ancient astronaut theorists suggest there may have been an otherworldly influence.

114

00:13:28,606 --> 00:13:34,608

And as evidence, point to the way he was depicted by artists of the time.

115

00:13:35,608 --> 00:13:42,610

Akinatan introduced the idea that every time his artisans would carve something, it had to be lifelike.

116

00:13:42,610 --> 00:13:46,611

So it had to be represented exactly the way it was seen.

117

00:13:46,611 --> 00:13:52,613

Which is interesting because if you look at the likenesses of Akinatan, he looks very strange.

118

00:13:52,613 --> 00:13:58,615

Akinatan had himself depicted in the most peculiar way.

119

00:13:59,615 --> 00:14:07,618

He had this elongated face, he had this protruding belly, he had these almost like chicken leg type legs.

120

00:14:07,618 --> 00:14:12,619

Very peculiar with this elongated skull at the back.

121

00:14:14,620 --> 00:14:23,622

Now all other pharaohs had themselves depicted looking as, shall we say, majestic and muscular as possible.

122

00:14:24,623 --> 00:14:34,626

One has to wonder if Akinatan may have been some type of an extraterrestrial hybrid and that is why he introduced this one god rule.

123

00:14:34,626 --> 00:14:47,630

Perhaps that sun disc aatin that Akinatan prayed to wasn't a sun in the sky at all, but it could have been an extraterrestrial that instructed Akinatan.

124

00:14:48,630 --> 00:14:55,632

The texts say it's a winged disc. The sun is not referred to as a winged disc.

125

00:14:58,633 --> 00:15:05,635

Following Akinatan's death, his enemies went to extreme lengths to obliterate his legacy.

126

00:15:06,636 --> 00:15:13,638

Right here opposite King Tut's tomb is the very mysterious KV-55.

127

00:15:13,638 --> 00:15:20,640

Most Egyptologists agree that the mummy they found inside was King Akinatan's mummy.

128

00:15:22,640 --> 00:15:30,643

They found him destroyed coffin and every wall painting was already chiseled off, intentionally chiseled off.

129

00:15:31,643 --> 00:15:40,646

Which would make sense, it would make sense that this tomb has been trying to wipe out King Akinatan's memory.

130

00:15:41,646 --> 00:15:49,649

Because the tomb had been so badly vandalized, it could not be verified with absolute certainty who it belonged to.

131

00:15:50,649 --> 00:16:00,652

And some Egyptologists claim that examination of the mummy proves definitively that it was not Akinatan, it was someone else.

132

00:16:01,652 --> 00:16:15,657

When it was examined, it turned out to be somebody who is in his early 20s and could not have been more than 24 or 25 at the most.

133

00:16:16,657 --> 00:16:21,658

Akinatan is known to have come to the throne when he was 16 and he ruled for 17 years.

134

00:16:22,659 --> 00:16:27,660

At the death, he could not have been less than 34 at any rate.

135

00:16:28,660 --> 00:16:33,662

The ancient Egyptians did not want us to know anything about Akinatan.

136

00:16:34,662 --> 00:16:40,664

You can only wonder if there's a connection now to the curse that protects King Tut's tomb.

137

00:16:41,664 --> 00:16:44,665

Was it in fact to protect an even darker secret?

138

00:16:45,666 --> 00:16:56,669

Is it possible that the mummy of Akinatan was not buried in his tomb, but instead was secretly placed in a hidden chamber in the tomb of his son, King Tut.

139

00:16:58,670 --> 00:17:12,674

And might the so-called curse of the pharaohs have been put in place to keep us from finding it until a time when we are ready to discover the truth about Akinatan's other worldly origins?

140

00:17:13,674 --> 00:17:26,678

Ancient astronaut theorists say yes and suggest an even more profound secret can be found by examining King Tut's sarcophagus and the name that was removed from it.

141

00:17:28,679 --> 00:17:32,680

Egypt, Valley of the Queens

142

00:17:33,680 --> 00:17:36,681

January 26, 1909

143

00:17:37,681 --> 00:17:50,685

13 years before the discovery of King Tut's tomb, artist and playwright Joseph Lyndon Smith and Egyptologist Arthur Weigel perform a theater piece for Howard Carter's team.

144

00:17:50,685 --> 00:17:59,688

The play tells the story of a curse that was placed on the pharaoh Akinatan by the priests of Amun who he had defied.

145

00:18:00,688 --> 00:18:09,691

According to the curse, Akinatan would not be able to travel to the other world, but would be doomed to walk the earth as a ghost.

146

00:18:11,692 --> 00:18:17,694

Now some very interesting circumstances unfortunately took place when they went through with this play.

147

00:18:17,694 --> 00:18:30,698

This storm comes up out of nowhere, blinds one of the actresses. One of the playwright's wives is befuddled with this unknown sickness.

148

00:18:31,698 --> 00:18:37,700

It really raises a lot of questions as to disperse around Akinatan actually being real.

149

00:18:38,700 --> 00:18:53,705

In the legends of many curses, there is often a story that a certain mantra or reading a certain script will suddenly activate the curse.

150

00:18:54,705 --> 00:19:04,708

So you have to wonder, is it possible that there is some kind of extraterrestrial device that's activated by sound?

151

00:19:05,708 --> 00:19:19,712

Just in the same way that we would talk to Siri or Alexa from Amazon and activate it with our voices and give it commands and then it's going to do something for us.

152

00:19:19,712 --> 00:19:37,718

Is it possible that there is some form of alien technology that was enacted with both the unsealing of King Tut's tomb and the recitation of ancient lines contained in the play to lift Akinatan's curse?

00:19:38,718 --> 00:20:00,725

Ancient astronaut theorists say yes and suggest that the curse was designed not only to hide the truth about Akinatan's extraterrestrial ancestry, but also another incredible secret about mankind's past, one that can be found by examining the sarcophagus of King Tut.

00:20:01,725 --> 00:20:20,731

Every mummy had coffins that look like the king. The face was sculpted in a way that looks like the mummy inside it. Whether the coffins were made of wood or made of solid gold like King Tut's, it had to resemble the way King Tut looked.

155

00:20:21,731 --> 00:20:33,735

Every pharaoh was buried not within one coffin, but several concentric coffins, like a Russian nesting doll. King Tut has three.

156

00:20:34,735 --> 00:20:56,742

Right in front of me is the sarcophagus of the king. Now there's a lot of debate about the middle coffin. It has different facial features than the rest and it also seems like the cartouche where the name of the king would be was replaced with King Tut's name instead.

157

00:20:57,742 --> 00:21:13,747

Now under further analysis, they were able to read the name on the cartouche underneath King Tut's name and that read, Ankh Khyperura. Ankh Khyperura was not King Tut.

158

00:21:15,748 --> 00:21:21,750

Why was a sarcophagus that was made for Ankh Khyperura used to hold the mummy of King Tut?

159

00:21:22,750 --> 00:21:31,753

His death at 19 was definitely a problem for the tombmakers. It ended up being a rush job. He got the smallest tomb in the valley.

160

00:21:32,753 --> 00:21:41,756

But who is Ankh Khyperura? Every ruler in ancient Egypt was given a throne name that was different from his birth name.

161

00:21:41,756 --> 00:21:51,759

The throne name of Ankh Khyperura is believed to have belonged to a very important and mysterious member of King Tut's family.

162

00:21:55,760 --> 00:22:07,764

Ankh Khyperura could have been the throne name of Prince Totmose, who was allegedly Akhenaten's brother and was supposed to rule before or after Akhenaten, but never got to.

163

00:22:08,764 --> 00:22:13,765

There are numerous theories regarding Akhenaten's mysterious brother, Totmose.

164

00:22:14,766 --> 00:22:27,770

But the most profound comes from an unexpected source, Sigmund Freud, who in addition to being the founder of psychoanalysis was also a scholar of Judaism and ancient Egypt.

165

00:22:28,770 --> 00:22:49,776

Sigmund Freud, the famous psychoanalyst, in 1939, first suggested that monotheism began with Akhenaten, and he thought that someone in Akhenaten's court, perhaps his brother, Totmosis, could in fact be the historical Moses.

166

00:22:50,777 --> 00:23:01,780

Could Sigmund Freud's audacious conclusion be true? That Akhenaten's biological brother was in fact the Hebrew leader, Moses.

167

00:23:02,780 --> 00:23:16,785

According to Freud, the events depicted in the Bible surrounding Moses' birth, exile, and most importantly, his introduction of monotheism, perfectly coincide with the historical record of Totmos.

168

00:23:17,785 --> 00:23:30,789

The name Totmosis means son of the god Thoth. If you take away the Tot element in his name, it simply means son of.

169

00:23:30,789 --> 00:23:48,794

Moses means the son of. Now the name Moses is very similar to Moses, and it just so happens that the story of Moses in the Bible is set at exactly the time that Totmos disappears from history.

170

00:23:49,795 --> 00:24:08,800

And we're told in the Bible that Moses grows up as the brother of the prince apparent to the throne. In other words, the historical Totmos could be the biblical Moses.

171

00:24:09,801 --> 00:24:20,804

In recent years, a number of Egyptologists, like Ahmed Osman, have proposed theories similar to Freud's.

172

00:24:21,804 --> 00:24:40,810

Freud realized the similarity between Akhenaten's religion and the Jewish religion. He suggested that after Akhenaten left his throne, Totmosis took the religion of Akhenaten, of one god with no image, and gave it to the Israelites.

173

00:24:41,810 --> 00:24:49,813

The only evidence of an Israelite exodus from Egypt to Sinai took place in that time.

174

00:24:53,814 --> 00:25:03,817

Curiously, at the same time as the exodus of the Israelites, it is also recorded that the followers of Akhenaten were forced to flee Egypt.

175

00:25:04,817 --> 00:25:13,820

Do the stories of Moses and Akhenaten reveal an extraterrestrial agenda to alter the course of humanity?

176

00:25:14,820 --> 00:25:25,824

Ancient astronaut theorists propose that much like Akhenaten, many of the events surrounding the life of Moses point to an otherworldly connection.

177

00:25:26,824 --> 00:25:34,826

The Egyptian Museum, Cairo, Egypt

178

00:25:35,827 --> 00:25:42,829

On prominent display in the King Tutankhamun exhibit is a wooden chest covered in gold leaf.

179

00:25:43,829 --> 00:25:49,831

On top of it sits the statue of a jackal, the Egyptian god Anubis.

180

00:25:50,831 --> 00:26:02,835

When Howard Carter and his team began their fifth season excavating King Tut's tomb in 1926, they came upon this unusual shrine, guarding the entrance to the treasury room.

181

00:26:03,835 --> 00:26:18,840

What ancient astronaut theorists find most intriguing about this artifact is its undeniable similarities with perhaps the most important sacred object in all of Judeo-Christian history, the Ark of the Covenant.

182

00:26:19,840 --> 00:26:29,843

The Ark of the Covenant is the central shrine to ancient Israel. It's actually a box, a wooden box, made out of acacia wood, overlaid in gold.

183

00:26:30,844 --> 00:26:39,846

And on the cover are two mythological beings, cherubs. There are also rings on the side of the box through which poles are placed.

184

00:26:40,847 --> 00:27:03,854

What we have in Tutankhamun's tomb is an Egyptian version of the Ark of the Covenant. If Prince Tut-Moses was the historical Moses, it would explain why when he led the Israelites out of Egypt into the Sinai wilderness that he got them to make this Ark of the Covenant.

185

00:27:03,854 --> 00:27:08,855

It is exactly the same as the item found in Tutankhamun's tomb.

186

00:27:11,856 --> 00:27:17,858

But what could account for the similarity between the Anubis shrine and the Ark of the Covenant?

187

00:27:18,858 --> 00:27:28,861

According to the biblical text, Moses was given instructions for building the Ark of the Covenant when he spoke with God at the top of Mount Sinai.

188

00:27:29,861 --> 00:27:38,864

However, some ancient astronaut theorists suggest there is evidence that the Ark already existed in Egypt.

189

00:27:40,865 --> 00:27:47,867

There's numerous depictions on the temple walls that reference a device that resembles the Ark of the Covenant.

190

00:27:48,867 --> 00:27:58,870

At the temple of Sadi and Abados in the Osiris Chapel, we see depicted on the walls the single most powerful relic in all of human history.

191

00:27:59,871 --> 00:28:04,872

It's called the Osiris device. It functioned as a stairway to heaven.

192

00:28:05,872 --> 00:28:10,874

What most people don't realize is that the Osiris device was actually the biblical Ark of the Covenant.

193

00:28:11,874 --> 00:28:25,878

Is it possible that the Anubis shrine found in King Tut's tomb was a representation of the Osiris device, the Egyptian name for what would become known as the Ark of the Covenant?

194

00:28:26,879 --> 00:28:33,881

Could it have originally belonged to Akhenaten and might Moses have taken this with him when he left Egypt?

195

00:28:33,881 --> 00:28:42,884

Ancient astronaut theorists say yes and suggest that this object contained extraterrestrial technology.

196

00:28:45,885 --> 00:28:50,886

The Bible records that when the Ark was, lack of a better word, activated.

197

00:28:52,887 --> 00:29:02,890

Two sons of the high priest Aaron approached it and because they were not properly prepared, the Bible says a fire came forth and burned.

198

00:29:03,890 --> 00:29:16,894

But the legends state that the nature of this fire was two beams of light that actually entered inside their nostrils and burned them from within.

199

00:29:17,894 --> 00:29:21,896

It sounds very similar to what we today understand as electrocution.

200

00:29:24,896 --> 00:29:28,898

It was said that the Ark could create lightning, that the Ark could fly.

201

00:29:28,898 --> 00:29:37,900

We know that the Ark of the Covenant is a communication device between man and God because God tells us so in Exodus.

202

00:29:39,901 --> 00:29:55,906

So was this God some kind of extraterrestrial and was the Ark of the Covenant some sort of device that allowed communication between Moses and Aaron and some extraterrestrial spaceship orbiting the earth?

203

00:29:58,907 --> 00:30:10,910

But if extraterrestrials directed Moses and perhaps Akhenaten before him to lead the Israelites towards a new monotheistic faith, what motivated them to do so?

204

00:30:12,911 --> 00:30:19,913

What if these alien visitors didn't want future generations of humans to know that they had intervened in our development?

205

00:30:20,913 --> 00:30:32,917

If a new monotheistic religion were to arise, then people would start to relegate figures like Amun Ra and all the rest to the realm of mythology.

206

00:30:33,917 --> 00:30:40,920

The extraterrestrials could hide our true history until a time when we were ready to have it revealed.

207

00:30:41,920 --> 00:30:51,923

Did alien visitors attempt to change the course of history first through Akhenaten and then Moses?

208

00:30:52,923 --> 00:31:04,927

And might this be why a so-called curse was put on King Tatstoon to hide the clues that lead to this connection until humanity is ready to know the truth?

209

00:31:05,927 --> 00:31:16,930

Perhaps further answers can be found by examining the fate of the Ark of the Covenant after the time of Moses and the curse that followed it.

210

00:31:17,931 --> 00:31:29,934

Jerusalem, 586 BC

211

00:31:30,935 --> 00:31:45,939

Roughly 750 years after the death of Akhenaten and the exodus of Moses and the Israelites from Egypt, the Ark of the Covenant is believed to reside here in Solomon's Temple, where the Israelites were born.

00:31:46,940 --> 00:31:56,943

It is heavily guarded, but the city has been under siege by the Babylonians, who finally managed to break through Jerusalem's walls.

213

00:31:57,943 --> 00:32:04,945

In 586 BCE, the Babylonians came and ultimately destroyed the Temple of Solomon.

214

00:32:05,945 --> 00:32:08,946

The million-dollar question is, what happened to the Ark of the Covenant?

215

00:32:09,947 --> 00:32:19,950

According to historical accounts, the Babylonians stole every treasure they could find from Solomon's Temple, but there is no mention of the Ark of the Covenant.

216

00:32:20,950 --> 00:32:33,954

One story proposes that King Solomon had a son named Menelik with the Queen of Sheba, and that Menelik stole the Ark and took it to Ethiopia with him long before the Babylonians invaded.

217

00:32:34,954 --> 00:32:40,956

Hiding it in a small chapel in the city of Aksum, where it still resides today.

218

00:32:41,956 --> 00:32:54,960

But many believe the Ark remained hidden at the site of Solomon's Temple long after the Babylonian invasion, until it was smuggled out of Jerusalem by the ancient order of the Knights Templar.

219

00:32:54,960 --> 00:33:03,963

The Knights Templar were a mysterious order of warrior monks who were formed in the 12th century.

220

00:33:04,963 --> 00:33:09,965

King Baldwin II of Jerusalem gave them a wing of a palace on what we now know as the Temple Mount.

221

00:33:10,965 --> 00:33:28,971

A number of historians have speculated that it was part of their mandate to do excavations at Solomon's Temple in Jerusalem, and that during these excavations they discovered in a hidden chamber beneath the temple a secret room that had the Ark of the Covenant in it.

222

00:33:30,971 --> 00:33:35,973

Were the Knights Templar really in possession of the Ark of the Covenant?

223

00:33:36,973 --> 00:33:46,976

Ancient astronaut theorists say yes, and suggest there is evidence that like King Tut's tomb, it too was protected by a curse.

224

00:33:52,978 --> 00:33:58,980

Eudelausite, Paris, France. March 18, 1314.

225

00:33:59,980 --> 00:34:13,984

After enduring seven long years of torture, Jean-Tamollet, the 23rd and final Grand Master of the Knights Templar, is executed by order of King Philip IV and Pope Clement V.

226

00:34:14,985 --> 00:34:23,987

It's thought that King Philip really wanted to get rid of the Templars so that he could take their treasure and pay off his own debts.

227

00:34:23,987 --> 00:34:31,990

But you have to wonder, did King Philip and maybe the Pope realize that the Templars had the Ark of the Covenant now?

228

00:34:31,990 --> 00:34:40,993

And perhaps this is what they really wanted, an extra-terrestrial device that was being kept by the Knights Templar.

229

00:34:41,993 --> 00:34:52,996

Jean-Tamollet gets the last word. He curses both the Pope, Clement V and the King Philip IV directly from the stake before he dies.

230

00:34:53,996 --> 00:35:04,000

But he doesn't stop there. Jean-Tamollet does not just curse the King, he curses the entire line of the Capetian Kings.

231

00:35:05,000 --> 00:35:16,003

Shortly after the Pope died of a rare disease, the church where the service was to be held for the Pope burned down.

232

00:35:16,003 --> 00:35:32,008

The King died. The house that followed him lost control of the throne. All this shortly after the Grand Master was executed. The curse seems to have come literally true.

233

00:35:33,008 --> 00:35:47,013

Over the course of the next 14 years, all three of King Philip's sons died and his only grandson died as well, ending the Capetian dynasty exactly as Jean-Tamollet had cursed.

234

00:35:47,013 --> 00:36:02,017

So you have to wonder if this curse on King Philip and the Pope was something that came through the Ark of the Covenant in some strange way, and this curse was all about protecting that device itself.

235

00:36:03,017 --> 00:36:13,021

Is it possible that the curse placed upon King Tut's tomb was also the same one that protected the Ark of the Covenant?

236

00:36:13,021 --> 00:36:21,023

And could it be that the curse has its origins in an extraterrestrial intelligence?

237

00:36:21,023 --> 00:36:29,025

When the Knights Templar were persecuted in France in the 14th century, Scotland became their safe haven.

238

00:36:30,026 --> 00:36:44,030

Some researchers believe they brought the Ark of the Covenant with them before a Templar named Henry Sinclair secretly smuggled it to the New World, landing in Nova Scotia in 1398.

239

00:36:45,030 --> 00:36:59,035

Curiously, a tribe called the Mi'kmaq that occupied this region of Canada during Sinclair's alleged expedition designed their flag in a manner that is a mirror image of the Templar battle flag.

240

00:37:00,035 --> 00:37:07,037

Within this greater Nova Scotia area, there are many signs that the Templars were there.

241

00:37:07,037 --> 00:37:14,039

You have the Newport Road Island Tower that is thought to have been built by the Knights Templar.

242

00:37:14,039 --> 00:37:23,042

You have images of knights with swords and helmets that are carved on rocks in New Hampshire and Massachusetts.

243

00:37:23,042 --> 00:37:33,045

And on Oak Island itself is a giant cross a thousand feet long that's made out of six huge boulders.

244

00:37:33,045 --> 00:37:43,048

And the central boulder looks like a human head and it has a sword carved into the side.

245

00:37:43,048 --> 00:37:48,049

Did the Ark of the Covenant really end up buried on Oak Island?

246

00:37:49,050 --> 00:37:57,052

Perhaps further clues can be found by examining the curse that continues to plague the island to this day.

247

00:38:04,054 --> 00:38:09,056

Oak Island, Nova Scotia, Canada, 1803.

248

00:38:10,056 --> 00:38:19,059

Simeon Lens forms the Onslow Company, the first formal organization dedicated to excavating the treasure at Oak Island.

249

00:38:20,059 --> 00:38:30,062

Within a year, while digging in the infamous borehole known as the Money Pit, they discover an unusual stone slab at a depth of 90 feet.

250

00:38:31,062 --> 00:38:40,065

When it is brought to the surface, the excavators immediately notice strange hieroglyphs of an unknown language covering the stone.

251

00:38:41,066 --> 00:38:48,068

Shortly after this, a series of calamities befall everyone who attempts to search for the treasure.

252

00:38:49,068 --> 00:38:59,071

There is famously a curse around Oak Island and it is said that seven people must die before the treasure of Oak Island will reveal itself.

253

00:38:59,071 --> 00:39:03,072

And there have in fact been tragic deaths on Oak Island.

254

00:39:06,073 --> 00:39:14,076

The island claimed its first victim in 1861 when the boiler of a cast-iron pump and steam engine burst,

255

00:39:14,076 --> 00:39:18,077

scalding one man to death and injuring others.

256

00:39:18,077 --> 00:39:27,080

In 1897, Maynard Kaiser was killed when a hoisting rope slipped off a pulley, dropping him down a shaft.

257

00:39:28,080 --> 00:39:38,083

And in 1965, Robert Restall also fell into a shaft after inhaling mysterious fumes that rendered him unconscious.

258

00:39:39,083 --> 00:39:47,086

His son Bobby and two other men who attempted a rescue died along with him, bringing the death toll to six.

259

00:39:51,087 --> 00:39:56,088

Could this be evidence that a curse truly exists on Oak Island?

260

00:39:56,088 --> 00:40:03,090

And might it be connected to the stone slab that contained mysterious hieroglyphic writing?

261

00:40:04,091 --> 00:40:08,092

When you look at the so-called 90-foot stone, you have to ask yourself,

262

00:40:08,092 --> 00:40:13,093

is this the clue that gets you to understand what the treasure of Oak Island is?

263

00:40:13,093 --> 00:40:19,095

Or might it be a curse brick that is actually trying to protect that secret?

264

00:40:19,095 --> 00:40:27,098

There is an undeniable similarity between this brick that we see at Oak Island and the curse bricks that we see in King Tut's tomb.

265

00:40:28,098 --> 00:40:36,100

The Templars chose Oak Island to bury whatever it is that they found at the Temple in Jerusalem during the Crusades.

266

00:40:36,100 --> 00:40:44,103

In my opinion, what they had discovered was either the complete Ark of the Covenant or components of it.

267

00:40:44,103 --> 00:40:51,105

And the Ark of the Covenant, according to the ancient Asnot theory, contained an extraterrestrial device.

268

00:40:51,105 --> 00:40:58,107

This suggests that there could be one unified group that is behind Oak Island, behind King Tut's tomb,

269

00:40:58,107 --> 00:41:04,109

that is protecting the Ark of the Covenant, that is protecting the Egyptian heritage of Moses,

270

00:41:04,109 --> 00:41:10,111

and may in fact be concealing the truth of humanity's extraterrestrial origins.

271

00:41:10,111 --> 00:41:20,114

Could an ancient Egyptian curse really be guarding an incredible secret concerning mankind's alien origins?

272

00:41:20,114 --> 00:41:27,116

And might proof of that secret be contained within the legendary Ark of the Covenant?

273

00:41:27,116 --> 00:41:40,120

There are those who believe the answer is a profound yes, and that the evidence lies buried some 160 feet below a remote island in Nova Scotia.

274

00:41:40,120 --> 00:41:46,122

And which, like King Tut's tomb, remains guarded by a deadly curse,

275

00:41:46,122 --> 00:41:54,124

one that demands the sacrifice of seven lives, before the secret can be revealed.
