00:00:00,795 --> 00:00:04,795

Launch control at the Cape.

00:00:04,795 --> 00:00:06,795

D minus 10 minutes in pounding.

00:00:06,795 --> 00:00:08,795

Retro, go!

Light up, go!

00:00:09,795 --> 00:00:10,795

Go!

00:00:10,795 --> 00:00:11,795

Control, go!

00:00:11,795 --> 00:00:12,795

Delta, GSC, go!

00:00:16,795 --> 00:00:18,795

Ignition sequence start.

00:00:18,795 --> 00:00:24,795

Six, five, four, three, two, one.

00:00:24,795 --> 00:00:30,795

All engines running.

00:00:30,795 --> 00:00:31,795

Lift off.

00:00:31,795 --> 00:00:32,795

We have a lift off.

00:00:32,795 --> 00:00:34,795

32 minutes past the hour.

00:00:34,795 --> 00:00:36,795

Lift off on Apollo 11.

00:00:44,795 --> 00:00:47,795

July 20, 1969.

00:00:47,795 --> 00:00:52,795

Apollo 11's lunar module lands on the surface of the moon.

00:00:54,795 --> 00:00:59,795

Listen, the tanguality base here, the eagle has landed.

00:00:59,795 --> 00:01:04,795

Six hours after the Apollo 11 lunar module landed on the moon,

00:01:04,795 --> 00:01:08,795

Neil Armstrong stepped out, walked down the ladder,

20

and became the first human being to set foot on the moon.

21

That's one small step for man.

22

00:01:15,795 --> 00:01:18,795

One giant leap for mankind.

23

00:01:19,795 --> 00:01:25,795

The moment is broadcast live to a worldwide audience.

24

00:01:25,795 --> 00:01:32,795

19 minutes later, Buzz Aldrin joins Neil Armstrong on the lunar surface.

Beautiful view.

26

00:01:34,795 --> 00:01:38,795

In that moment, I ignore this one side, I hear.

27

00:01:38,795 --> 00:01:43,794

Armstrong and Aldrin spend approximately two and a half hours

28

collecting rock samples and reporting their observations back to NASA.

29

00:01:52,794 --> 00:01:55,794

Move on files reveal that within those two and a half hours,

30

00:01:55,794 --> 00:01:59,794

there were actually two minutes of missing transmissions,

31

which NASA blamed on an overheated camera.

32

Although the broadcast was considered live,

33

00:02:04,794 --> 00:02:07,794

the truth is NASA had a very extensive transfer system

34

where the signals were received in Australia,

35

sent across the oceans, went through multiple computers.

Anywhere along that line, they could have gone in and edited out things

they didn't want people to hear, cut off things they didn't want people to see,

38

and changed it rather than from a live broadcast into a sort of preplanned,

39

almost scripted, delayed broadcast.

40

00:02:28,794 --> 00:02:33,794

Did something happen during these crucial two minutes

41

that NASA did not want the American public to see or hear?

42

00:02:40,794 --> 00:02:46,794

Hundreds of ham radio operators who had their own high frequency receiving equipment

were able to hear the actual live uncensored audio feed between NASA and the astronauts.

And what they picked up was very eerie.

45

00:03:03,794 --> 00:03:06,794

So NASA asked what's there, and moments later, Apollo comes back with.

46

00:03:06,794 --> 00:03:08,794

These babies are huge, sir, they're enormous.

47

00:03:08,794 --> 00:03:11,794

Things like, oh my God, I'm telling you there are other spacecraft out there

48

lined up on the far side of the crater edge.

49

00:03:14,794 --> 00:03:16,794

They're on the moon watching us.

50

00:03:16,794 --> 00:03:20,794

Isn't it really interesting that this is what took place during those missing two minutes?

51

That's about all we can make out.

52

00:03:22,794 --> 00:03:23,794

This is incredible.

53

00:03:23,794 --> 00:03:29,794

A record of two astronauts openly discussing possible extraterrestrial spacecrafts.

54

00:03:29,794 --> 00:03:32,794

And we're not talking just one light in the sky here.

55

00:03:32,794 --> 00:03:37,794

There are multiple ships parked right there observing their actions.

56

00:03:39,794 --> 00:03:43,794

I couldn't even begin to imagine how Neil Armstrong and Buzz Aldrin felt encountering such craft on the moon.

57

58

00:03:46,794 --> 00:03:52,794

This had to be the most awe-inspiring and maybe frightening thing that they probably had ever seen.

59

00:03:53,794 --> 00:04:00,794

This supposed sighting by the crew of Apollo 11 has never been officially acknowledged by NASA.

00:04:00,794 --> 00:04:07,794

But it is just one of many strange observations reported on the surface of the moon.

61

Does our government and NASA already have knowledge of extraterrestrials on the moon?

And possibly even on Mars.

63

00:04:16,794 --> 00:04:20,794

MUFON opens its files right now.

64

00:04:21,794 --> 00:04:29,794

The Mutual UFO Network, known as MUFON, is an independent organization not bound to any government.

65

00:04:29,794 --> 00:04:34,794

They investigate reports of UFO sightings from around the world.

66

00:04:34,794 --> 00:04:40,794

Over the past five decades, they have collected more than 70,000 files

67

stored at a secure location known as Hanger One.

68

00:04:44,794 --> 00:04:50,794

Now MUFON is granting access to their vast archive.

69

00:04:51,794 --> 00:04:54,794

These are the files of Hanger One.

70

00:04:59,793 --> 00:05:01,793

The Moon

71

00:05:06,793 --> 00:05:12,793

July 21, 1969. Tranquility Base, The Moon.

72

00:05:12,793 --> 00:05:19,793

Hundreds of amateur ham radio operators pick up a sensor transmission from Apollo 11

73

reporting the sighting of multiple UFOs on the lunar surface.

74

00:05:25,793 --> 00:05:32,793

In 1979, Maurice Chatelin, former chief of NASA communication systems,

75

00:05:32,793 --> 00:05:39,793

confirmed that Neil Armstrong had switched over to the medical channel to make that statement.

76

This switching in communications to another line makes a lot of sense

because all the astronauts had a private line directly to their personal doctors

78

where they could talk about things that they didn't want the general public to hear.

79

00:05:52,793 --> 00:05:58,793

Our files suggest that on the Apollo 11 moon landing, NASA was prepared for them to encounter UFOs.

For their mission, they were given a secure system designed to sensor radio transmissions before they reached the public.

81

00:06:06,793 --> 00:06:12,793

According to the files, Apollo 11 had two more strange encounters during their mission.

82

00:06:12,793 --> 00:06:17,793

Many believe they were being monitored by some other worldly presence.

00:06:18,793 --> 00:06:25,793

The science digest published a story from astronomer author James Molaney in July of 1977.

00:06:25,793 --> 00:06:36,793

The crew of Apollo 11 during the first moon landing reported that their capsule was paced by what appeared to be a mass of intelligent energy.

This is really astounding. A mass of intelligent energy?

00:06:41,793 --> 00:06:48,793

These are actual astronauts openly discussing an encounter with some kind of inhuman entity.

87

00:06:49,793 --> 00:06:58,793

About four decades after the Apollo landing, Buzz Aldrin made a statement that three days into their voyage to the moon,

88

the crew saw an unidentified object following them.

00:07:04,793 --> 00:07:15,793

So they called back to NASA and asked if that could possibly be the booster rocket that they had jettisoned two days earlier.

90

00:07:15,793 --> 00:07:20,793

And the reply from NASA was that the position is not even close.

00:07:22,793 --> 00:07:29,793

Later in the mission, another unidentified object is observed by Apollo 11's crew.

As the Apollo lunar module was descending toward the moon, Buzz Aldrin had a 16mm camera and he recorded a white kind of shimmering, fast moving object that seemed to be trailing the lunar module itself.

00:07:46,793 --> 00:07:53,793

Now what's interesting is that at the same time in the command module, Michael Collins reported the same phenomenon.

00:07:54,793 --> 00:07:58,793

Columbia, this is Houston. Go ahead. Over.

96

00:07:58,793 --> 00:08:03,793

I can see a suspiciously small white object.

00:08:06,793 --> 00:08:09,793

Go ahead with the coordinates on the small white object.

98

00:08:09,793 --> 00:08:16,792

It's right on the southwest ramp of a crater. I think they would know it if they were in such a location.

00:08:16,792 --> 00:08:21,792

It's on the southwest wall of a small crater.

00:08:23,792 --> 00:08:27,792

Astronauts are among the most credible witnesses you could ask for.

101

00:08:27,792 --> 00:08:31,792

And here they are, reporting that they're seeing things on the moon.

102

00:08:31,792 --> 00:08:35,792

This is testimony that you really have to stop and consider.

00:08:36,792 --> 00:08:48,792

Between all of the exchanges that occurred between the Apollo 11 astronauts and NASA, it's impossible to conclude anything other than that they encountered UFOs while on the moon.

104

00:08:48,792 --> 00:08:54,792

But the unanswered questions still are, what were these UFOs doing up there?

105

00:08:54,792 --> 00:08:58,792

And were they monitoring the Apollo 11 mission?

106

00:09:01,792 --> 00:09:06,792

This absolutely appears to me that they are watching and monitoring our progress.

I can't imagine that the extraterrestrials would be surprised that we would come there at some point.

In fact, if you look at the account, they seem to shadow the mission.

And then when the Apollo crew lands, they're there. They're in very close proximity.

00:09:29,792 --> 00:09:35,792

It's also interesting to point out that when Neil and Buzz were landing the lunar module, they didn't even land in the area they were supposed to.

They landed in this rocky area, and they almost ran out of fuel by overshooting their intended landing site.

This leads me to believe they might have landed in this other area purposely because they were looking for something.

Attempts to investigate Apollo 11's original transmissions hit a dead end.

00:09:56,792 --> 00:10:02,792

If you're looking for those original tapes of the Apollo 11 moon landing, NASA claims that the original tapes are lost.

00:10:02,792 --> 00:10:12,792

And what that means is that nobody will ever be able to see what really happened there, and nobody will be able to recreate or understand what Neil and Buzz actually saw on the lunar surface.

00:10:14,792 --> 00:10:21,792

It's a sad reality that for way too many people, the excuse of losing these priceless tapes is enough.

00:10:21,792 --> 00:10:31,792

The government knows this, and they count on the public being appeased by the flimsiest of excuses, which is exactly why we need to speak out and keep the pressure on the public.

118

00:10:32,792 --> 00:10:34,792

What are the powers that be?

119

00:10:34,792 --> 00:10:37,792

Apollo 11, you have a little white dot.

00:10:37,792 --> 00:10:50,792

The Apollo 11 mission is obviously of world historical importance, but I also think that it was in part, at least, designed to find out what or who was on the moon.

00:10:50,792 --> 00:10:58,792

Did Apollo 11 encounter the first real evidence of an extraterrestrial presence on the moon?

When we return, censored NASA photographs suggest an extensive network of bases on the lunar surface.

Hangar One contains files suggesting that the Apollo 11 crew witnessed unusual objects on the moon. One man may hold the key to this mystery.

00:11:29,792 --> 00:11:42,791

Carl Wolff was introduced to me by a mutual friend who knew of my interest in UFOs, and over the course of several months of knowing Carl, he shared with me an extraordinary experience that he'd had as a member of the military.

My name is Carl Wolff. In 1966, I was working at the 44th Reconnaissance Technical Group at Langley Air Force Base in Virginia. I was an electronics technician, electronics photographic repairman.

00:12:05,791 --> 00:12:14,791

Carl Wolff got a call that some workers at a secure lab facility needed help. Their special printer wasn't working, and they needed someone to come down and fix it.

00:12:14,791 --> 00:12:23,791

I was the only Airman 2nd class with the Cryptologic Security Clearance. My boss said, oh, I would like you to go over to the NSA and take a look at this piece of equipment.

At the time, I thought he was missing NASA because I did not know what NSA was. This is where they're taking in the images from the lunar orbiter.

From 1966 to 1967, NASA launched five lunar orbital spacecraft around the moon, taking photographs, looking for possible landing sites for the Apollo missions.

00:12:49,791 --> 00:12:59,791

Carl Wolff arrives at the lab where the lunar orbiter photographs are processed. He senses that something is not right.

They took me into the facility. We went into the dark room. It was lit with red lighting. There was a single Airman in the dark room.

Carl Wolff and the Airman strike up a conversation.

00:13:13,791 --> 00:13:26,791

We walked to the far side of the room, and there were some images over there, and he pulled one out. But before he pulled it out, he said, by the way, we've discovered a base on the backside of the moon.

And I thought, oh my God, this kid is giving me information. He shouldn't be giving me. And I'm a little concerned if somebody walks in here now that we're both in jeopardy because there's a huge breach of security.

Can you imagine hearing this kind of news? This was way before we had even landed on the moon. And now we find out that someone or something already has bases there?

And this wasn't just something that Carl Wolff heard. He saw an actual photograph, too.

137

00:13:57,791 --> 00:14:03,791

Carl Wolff recalls being shocked by what he saw in the classified photo.

00:14:03,791 --> 00:14:14,791

I saw these huge structures, you know, domed in spherical buildings, what appeared to be towers. Something reminded me a little bit of radar domes or something of that nature.

00:14:14,791 --> 00:14:23,791

They were massive structures. And when I said whose base is it, he didn't have a chance to answer. The door opened shortly after that, and he didn't respond.

140

00:14:23,791 --> 00:14:28,791

He wouldn't have known anyway, I don't think, any more than anybody knew.

00:14:29,791 --> 00:14:35,791

The fact that he witnessed something that was kept secret at the highest levels of government must have been very stressful to him.

00:14:35,791 --> 00:14:41,791

I think that Carl came forward with a story years later because he felt that people should know the truth.

00:14:43,791 --> 00:14:49,790

Is it possible that Carl Wolff actually saw a base on the moon in that photograph?

00:14:49,790 --> 00:14:56,790

Five lunar orbiter spacecraft were sent to the moon to gather photos of possible landing areas for the Apollo missions.

145

00:14:56,790 --> 00:15:00,790

And it's really no surprise to me that they might have found something else.

00:15:00,790 --> 00:15:08,790

Those images were not sent initially to NASA. They were sent to the NSA, who studied them for their own intelligence purposes.

00:15:08,790 --> 00:15:16,790

And we have to ask ourselves, why would the NSA be looking at them before NASA unless they assumed or had reason to wonder if somebody else was on the moon?

00:15:17,790 --> 00:15:28,790

I've actually interviewed quite a few people and I have been assured that something's going on on the moon that we're not being told about.

00:15:28,790 --> 00:15:38,790

And when you look and you dig far enough, you can find pictures of the moon in which certain things appear to have been airbrushed out.

150

00:15:39,790 --> 00:15:45,790

Richard Houghland, a lunar artifact specialist, claims that NASA has doctored photos of the lunar surface.

00:15:45,790 --> 00:15:53,790

Some objects on the lunar surface can't be identified as natural geologic formations, as they're of complex organizational and geometrical structure.

152

00:15:53,790 --> 00:16:00,790

Richard claims that as of now, different unexplained artifacts have been discovered in 44 regions of the moon.

00:16:01,790 --> 00:16:10,790

These are 44 different regions of the moon. I mean, how much are they keeping from us about what's really going on up there?

00:16:10,790 --> 00:16:23,790

There are those who believe that NASA had two objectives when they sent astronauts to the moon. One, the public was aware of, and another, they were not.

There really appears to be basically two NASA's. You've got the public version of NASA, which we all know about, and then there's the private version, the secret version.

And that appears to be an organization using NASA as a cover, collecting artifacts and any other kind of data relating to other intelligences that may be on the moon.

Hanger 1 Files contains stories of bases on the far side of the moon. If this is true, are they occupied by extraterrestrials who are monitoring us from afar?

00:17:06,790 --> 00:17:10,790

The idea may not be as outrageous as it sounds.

00:17:15,790 --> 00:17:25,790

December 17, 1972, Menlo Park, California.

At the time that the final Apollo mission, Apollo 17, was leaving Earth on its way to the moon, a man named Ingo Swan was at the Stanford Research Institute in California having a meeting with scientists and the CIA.

The CIA is interested in Ingo Swan, a leading researcher in the field of parapsychology, for his alleged abilities as a remote viewer.

This is a phenomenon where certain people claim to have the ability to be able to see things almost like an out-of-body experience.

Where they can go to remote places and either look at objects or other people and report on these things.

00:18:19,789 --> 00:18:36,789

It's pretty well known that the CIA and the Soviet Union were involved with these kinds of experiments because if you can find someone who can go out of their body to help you locate enemy submarines, for example, what a blessed gift that would be to the military.

165

00:18:38,789 --> 00:18:44,789

Ingo Swan passes the CIA's tests with flying colors.

166

00:18:44,789 --> 00:18:51,789

All of this made Ingo Swan kind of a covert superstar in the remote viewing world.

167

00:18:51,789 --> 00:18:58,789

So he gets a phone call that says, look, we have an important situation here, we would really like your help.

168

A couple of days later, Ingo Swan is picked up in an unmarked car and a mask is placed over his face so he won't know where he's going.

169

00:19:08,789 --> 00:19:15,789

He arrives in what appears to be an underground base and is escorted to a small room he is then told to wait.

00:19:17,789 --> 00:19:26,789

The blindfold is removed and here is Ingo Swan standing face to face with a man who describes himself as Mr. Axelrod.

171

00:19:27,789 --> 00:19:30,789

Axelrod essentially lays it out to Ingo Swan.

172

00:19:30,789 --> 00:19:36,789

He says, look, I'm going to have you remote view these six coordinates on the moon.

173

00:19:42,789 --> 00:19:44,789

He starts describing what he sees on the moon.

174

00:19:45,789 --> 00:19:48,789

He sees what seemed like bridges or roads.

175

00:19:48,789 --> 00:19:50,789

He sees structures, buildings.

176

00:19:51,789 --> 00:19:53,789

He saw towers and domes.

177

00:19:53,789 --> 00:19:56,789

He saw concrete and possibly glass.

00:19:56,789 --> 00:20:03,789

I find it interesting that both Carl Wolf and Ingo reported seeing the exact same structures but have never met each other.

179

This can be a little difficult to swallow.

Sure, there have been studies on remote viewing, but does it count as real proof of bases on the moon?

181

And Swan's claims go even further than just moon structures.

182

00:20:20,789 --> 00:20:23,789

He also sees beings or a people on the moon.

183

When he sees them noticing him, he gets very scared and he says they're seeing him.

184

00:20:30,789 --> 00:20:35,789

And Axelrod says, come away from there very quickly and they end that session.

185

Ingo Swan is shaken by his experience.

186

00:20:41,789 --> 00:20:44,789

Ingo says, what was that all about?

187

00:20:44,789 --> 00:20:46,789

Axelrod doesn't answer.

188

00:20:46,789 --> 00:20:48,789

Ingo Swan keeps asking more questions.

189

Well, wait a minute.

190

Does this say, do we have like a secret base or do the Russians have a secret base on the moon?

Still no answer.

192

00:20:55,789 --> 00:20:57,789

Ingo Swan says, wait a minute.

193

00:20:57,789 --> 00:21:04,789

Am I supposed to believe that there's the presence of some other group on the moon?

194

And Axelrod says, pretty interesting, huh?

195

00:21:11,789 --> 00:21:15,789

Axel walks out and the next day Ingo is sent back home.

196

Ingo Swan never hears from the individual called Axelrod again.

197

00:21:25,788 --> 00:21:27,788

The question is, you know, who and what was Axelrod?

00:21:27,788 --> 00:21:32,788

Axelrod never ever told Ingo Swan just what agency he belonged to.

00:21:32,788 --> 00:21:42,788

Well, one possibility is that he was just one more element of the lead-brinthine structure of the U.S. intelligence community.

200

Did Ingo Swan really view extraterrestrial activity on the moon?

201

Or could it have been a lunar base built by the U.S. military?

202

00:21:56,788 --> 00:22:09,788

Long before we even landed on the moon, back in 1960, the Army Ballistic Missile Agency developed a program that would establish a military outpost on the moon.

203

00:22:09,788 --> 00:22:11,788

They called it Project Horizon.

204

00:22:12,788 --> 00:22:18,788

So this permanent military outpost was predicted to cost $6 billion, which was an enormous amount of money at that time.

00:22:18,788 --> 00:22:20,788

We hadn't even gotten anybody into space yet.

206

00:22:20,788 --> 00:22:27,788

But the idea was to have it operational by 1966 with 12 soldier astronauts based on the moon.

00:22:27,788 --> 00:22:34,788

Why would the government feel it necessary to have a secret military base on the moon?

00:22:35,788 --> 00:22:51,788

Lieutenant General Arthur Trudeau wrote a letter to President Eisenhower stating that the lunar outpost is required to develop and protect potential United States interests on the moon and to serve as a base for further exploration into space.

209

Some believe that the moon's natural minerals may one day be essential for Earth's survival.

210

00:22:59,788 --> 00:23:03,788

The main minerals on the moon are oxygen, iron, calcium.

211

00:23:03,788 --> 00:23:09,788

You can imagine as we run out here on the Earth, the moon would be a place we'd want to get those minerals from.

But the big challenge to these is there's a huge energy cost to getting stuff there that can do the mining and then bringing it back.

So a much more likely application would be settle and colonize the solar system.

00:23:23,788 --> 00:23:32,788

Muffin files reveal that bases on the moon might be just the first step towards larger space colonization.

215

00:23:33,788 --> 00:23:41,788

One former soldier recounts his own remarkable experience in space when we return.

216

00:23:42,788 --> 00:24:00,788

Muffin files suggest that America's missions to the moon may have had both a public as well as a secret agenda.

217

00:24:00,788 --> 00:24:05,788

Some believe it was to establish our own lunar base.

218

00:24:06,788 --> 00:24:17,788

If there are in fact hidden bases on the far side of the moon, could they be just one part of an even greater mission to explore other planets?

00:24:18,788 --> 00:24:24,788

Sometimes witnesses come to move on with incredible accounts that demand our attention and investigation.

220

Randy Kramer is one such witness.

221

00:24:26,788 --> 00:24:34,788

Randy Kramer's story might be the most incredible thing I've ever heard. It's way out there and I honestly don't know what to make of it.

00:24:34,788 --> 00:24:45,787

While Randy Kramer's claims cannot be verified, he has shared his account for 10 years and the details always remain consistent.

223

00:24:52,787 --> 00:24:55,787

My name is Randy Kramer. I was born and raised in Eugene, Oregon.

00:24:55,787 --> 00:25:05,787

Had what most people would just consider a very normal, regular, working class American life, really, to be honest.

225

00:25:06,787 --> 00:25:15,787

But in November 1987, at the age of 17, Randy Kramer's normal life takes a shocking turn.

00:25:16,787 --> 00:25:22,787

According to Randy Kramer, he is awakened in the middle of the night by an intense light in his room.

227

00:25:23,787 --> 00:25:28,787

It almost looks like a glowing doorway and something is coming out of it.

228

Two men, dressed all in black, emerge from the light and pull Randy Kramer from his bed.

00:25:38,787 --> 00:25:43,787

He doesn't fight them because he feels like he might be dreaming and then they take him back through this portal.

230

00:25:43,787 --> 00:25:53,787

I was taken to a base, an underground facility, I believe, where we were rallied around a big black triangular craft.

231

00:25:55,787 --> 00:26:03,787

Randy's recollection of a triangular ship actually matches the description of a craft on file. It's known as the TR-3B.

232

00:26:04,787 --> 00:26:13,787

The TR-3B is an alleged black-budget vehicle. It definitely mimics the form, fit and function of what we know as UFOs.

233

00:26:14,787 --> 00:26:19,787

Regarding the performance capability of the TR-3B, we're talking at least Mach 15.

234

00:26:22,787 --> 00:26:27,787

Kramer is led onto the triangular craft, along with other young men and women.

235

00:26:28,787 --> 00:26:35,787

The plank comes down and there were maybe 40 or 50 of us total at that location that got on board.

236

00:26:36,787 --> 00:26:39,787

I didn't really know what was happening at the moment. I knew something different was happening.

237

00:26:39,787 --> 00:26:43,787

So that was kind of exciting actually because at that point, oh, we're going somewhere.

238

00:26:44,787 --> 00:26:52,787

In my own research, I've come across a number of cases that are rather similar to what we hear with the Kramer case.

00:26:52,787 --> 00:27:02,787

That is of people as children being taken by sometimes very exotic means to places where they were tested for various abilities and so on.

240

00:27:03,787 --> 00:27:09,787

You have to question if this actually happened to Randy Kramer or was it all just a dream?

241

00:27:10,787 --> 00:27:16,787

But what Randy Kramer reports happening next feels all too real.

242

00:27:17,787 --> 00:27:24,787

The captain of the ship said, for now what we're going to do is we're going to take a last look at the planet.

00:27:25,787 --> 00:27:36,787

And then the ceiling became a view screen. The whole ceiling visually disappeared and we were looking right out into space and right at the earth, right in front of us.

244

00:27:37,787 --> 00:27:44,787

So he basically says, take a look, take a nice long look. This is what you're fighting for. This was home.

245

00:27:44,787 --> 00:27:50,787

And that whatever we were going out there to fight or do, it was to protect and keep the people on our home safe.

246

00:27:52,787 --> 00:27:59,786

Two hours later, the captain announces that they're about to land at a place called Command Base Luna on the far side of the moon.

00:28:00,786 --> 00:28:14,786

As we came around to the dark side and got close, you could see some like domes, a couple of tall buildings.

248

00:28:15,786 --> 00:28:21,786

Some of these towers were something that was closer to a 50 or 100 story building and these things are huge.

249

00:28:22,786 --> 00:28:29,786

Could these be the same structures described by Ingo Swan in his remote viewing session?

00:28:30,786 --> 00:28:39,786

The ship lands and Randy Kramer is taken to one of the buildings where he is briefed on why he has been chosen.

00:28:41,786 --> 00:28:49,786

Randy was told that he was going to be serving mankind by protecting secret human colonies off planet.

00:28:50,786 --> 00:28:57,786

You're putting the program for a certain genetic distinction that makes you likely to be better at what they want you to be and do.

00:28:58,786 --> 00:29:05,786

According to Randy Kramer, this mission is part of a top secret planetary defense initiative.

00:29:06,786 --> 00:29:13,786

They pulled out the contract that we were going to be under and we were signing and explaining this is the beginning of your 20 year tour.

00:29:14,786 --> 00:29:17,786

So I didn't know whether that was something to look forward to or be anxious about.

256

00:29:17,786 --> 00:29:24,786

20 years? So now he's not just in training, he's in some kind of interplanetary defense unit on the moon.

257

00:29:26,786 --> 00:29:29,786

But the moon is in Kramer's only stop.

258

00:29:30,786 --> 00:29:49,786

Move on files contain the story of Randy Kramer who claims to have been transported off planet Earth at age 17 as part of a classified space defense project.

00:29:50,786 --> 00:29:55,786

But what could be the purpose of such a massive secret initiative?

260

00:29:56,786 --> 00:30:01,786

According to Kramer's story, he's been selected as part of a super soldier program.

261

00:30:02,786 --> 00:30:07,786

This means he's going to be genetically enhanced and specially trained for very important missions.

262

00:30:09,786 --> 00:30:14,786

The idea of a super soldier sounds crazy or fantastic to some people.

263

00:30:15,786 --> 00:30:16,786

It's actually very credible.

264

00:30:17,786 --> 00:30:21,786

There's the agency known as DARPA, that's Defense Advanced Research Projects Agency.

00:30:22,786 --> 00:30:32,786

Right now DARPA is already talking about their interest and ability at some point to help soldiers regrow limbs through gene therapy if you can imagine that.

266

00:30:33,786 --> 00:30:37,786

Or to go for extended periods of time without sleep. All of this is out in the open.

00:30:38,786 --> 00:30:44,786

So what can they do secretly? What have they been able to do on the clandestine side of things?

268

00:30:45,786 --> 00:30:53,786

Here's Randy Kramer learning that he's been drafted into a super soldier program after just being flown to the moon on a UFO.

269

00:30:54,786 --> 00:30:59,786

But the moon is just the first stop on his journey. Things are about to get a lot stranger.

00:31:01,786 --> 00:31:09,786

Randy Kramer reports that he is transferred to a new spacecraft that brings him to a second destination.

271

00:31:09,786 --> 00:31:14,786

The captain of the ship says, okay everyone, welcome to Mars.

272

00:31:16,785 --> 00:31:20,785

The ship touches down on the surface of the red planet.

273

00:31:21,785 --> 00:31:29,785

When I stepped off, it was clear to me that it was very real as I was feeling this breeze on my face as I felt the sun.

274

00:31:30,785 --> 00:31:36,785

But I had to touch it and reach down and touch it. So the first thing I did was reach down and scoop up a hand of dust and sand in my hand.

275

00:31:37,785 --> 00:31:42,785

Flying from the moon to a bunker on Mars is definitely where this story goes off the rails, right?

00:31:43,785 --> 00:31:51,785

But at the same time, there is some very recent evidence that the idea of basis on Mars may not be as far-fetched as it sounds.

277

00:31:52,785 --> 00:32:05,785

In 2002, Gary McKinnon, a Scottish systems administrator, perpetrates the biggest computer hack in history by infiltrating U.S. military and NASA computers.

278

00:32:07,785 --> 00:32:13,785

What he discovers may actually corroborate Randy Kramer's incredible tale.

279

00:32:14,785 --> 00:32:19,785

I surmised that an off-planet sort of space marine is being formed.

280

00:32:20,785 --> 00:32:25,785

If you actually look at DARPA, Defense Advanced Research and Projects Agency literature at the moment in the last few years, and a lot of the government that are space command stuff, it's all about space dominance, you know, the final frontier.

281

00:32:26,785 --> 00:32:32,785

282

00:32:32,785 --> 00:32:46,785

Just when you think Randy's story is pure science fiction, Gary McKinnon discovers evidence of a secret space military program that sounds very much in line with Randy's claims.

00:32:47,785 --> 00:32:51,785

Gary McKinnon actually found a list of non-terrestrial officers.

00:32:52,785 --> 00:32:58,785

Now, that indicates that there are at least some people in the U.S. military who are stationed somewhere other than planet Earth.

285

00:32:58,785 --> 00:33:02,785

Otherwise, why would they be called non-terrestrial officers?

286

00:33:05,785 --> 00:33:13,785

Let's say this is all true. What's the end game? What would be the purpose of building a secret military force on Mars?

287

00:33:14,785 --> 00:33:19,785

Well, according to some, the future of humanity might depend on it.

288

00:33:19,785 --> 00:33:24,785

Is Mars being colonized to one day replace our own planet?

00:33:25,785 --> 00:33:32,785

Mars really is the best candidate that we have in the entire solar system for creating another Earth-like world.

00:33:33,785 --> 00:33:40,785

I think the evidence is pretty overwhelming that Mars at one time was Earth-like.

00:33:41,785 --> 00:33:48,785

Most of the atmosphere of Mars now is carbon dioxide, which is a great energy source to grow plants.

292

00:33:49,785 --> 00:33:57,785

We could actually start to colonize the planet Mars without really having to do anything more than send a bunch of plants up there.

293

00:33:59,785 --> 00:34:06,785

Was Randy Kramer's mission intended to prepare the way for an eventual exodus into space?

294

00:34:07,785 --> 00:34:13,785

This is an amazing story, yet there appears to be evidence that backs up some of these assertions.

295

00:34:13,785 --> 00:34:20,785

But according to Randy Kramer, the most incredible thing about his story might be how it all ends.

296

00:34:21,785 --> 00:34:34,784

After allegedly spending nearly two decades on Mars, Kramer claims he was teleported back into his childhood bedroom, returned to his 17-year-old self.

297

00:34:34,784 --> 00:34:46,784

So when I was returned 15 minutes after I left, I woke up the next day. I felt older, as I was, but they didn't look older, because I didn't.

00:34:47,784 --> 00:34:57,784

If you go somewhere, say, for 17 years and have a way to travel back to Earth, and now you're at Earth only minutes later than the time you left, that's really traveling back in time.

00:34:57,784 --> 00:35:09,784

One of the theoretical ways you can actually accomplish time travel is through a wormhole, because wormholes are these structures that are tubes that connect two different parts of space and time.

300

00:35:09,784 --> 00:35:18,784

So you can imagine connecting one part of space that's at this particular time to another part of space that's at the time in the past.

301

00:35:19,784 --> 00:35:28,784

Upon his return, Randy Kramer initially has no memory of his interstellar experiences.

00:35:29,784 --> 00:35:43,784

I woke up the next morning with those memories suppressed, and they're going to come out eventually. I tried every option that I could in order to understand why do I feel this way and how do I get through it.

303

00:35:44,784 --> 00:35:52,784

We have collected a lot of files on people that have had a similar experience. A lot of them go through regression therapy to recover those memories.

00:35:53,784 --> 00:36:07,784

I tell people it was a 20-year tour, and it was a 20-year healing process. You know, a solid 10 years of just getting to the point of, now I'm starting to remember who I am, what I am, where I was, and what I did.

00:36:08,784 --> 00:36:21,784

Randy's story is naturally difficult for many to accept. On one hand, there's scientific support for some of his claims, but on the other hand, much of it is theoretical and not really proven, like the ability to travel through wormholes.

306

00:36:21,784 --> 00:36:32,784

I find the whole tale fascinating, and I guess at the end of the day, we each have to decide on our own whether this is truth, fiction, or something in between.

00:36:33,784 --> 00:36:44,784

If these claims are true and human colonies already exist on Mars, where on Earth is this program originating?

00:36:44,784 --> 00:36:53,784

Up next, a military base that some call the New Area 51 might be America's secret spaceport.

Hanger 1 has uncovered evidence of secret off-planet military installations, including the testimony of Randy Kramer, who claims to have been part of a covert defense initiative based on the moon and Mars.

00:37:19,784 --> 00:37:28,784

There were maybe 40 or 50 of us total at that location that got on board. They said, this is the beginning of your 20-year tour.

311

00:37:29,784 --> 00:37:39,784

If the U.S. actually has interplanetary bases, how are all these troops being transported into outer space without anyone noticing?

00:37:39,784 --> 00:37:50,783

The answer might be found at a military base that some call the New Area 51 and ground zero for off-planet expeditions.

00:37:59,783 --> 00:38:16,783

January 26, 2011. Fred Collins is driving past Dugway Proving Ground, an army base in Toella County, Utah. Something catches his eye.

314

00:38:17,783 --> 00:38:23,783

Fred looks up and sees unusual triangle-looking lights in the sky.

315

00:38:23,783 --> 00:38:31,783

He stops his truck on the remote road to get a closer look, and all of a sudden, the military base's alarm system goes off.

316

00:38:35,783 --> 00:38:41,783

Collins watches the triangle craft circling, and then all of a sudden, he sees his beam of light hit the base.

00:38:42,783 --> 00:38:51,783

Collins tries to get a closer look at the strange activity, but is interrupted by approaching vehicles.

318

00:38:51,783 --> 00:38:59,783

Collins quickly goes back into his pickup truck and steps on the gas. He assumes there are military vehicles that don't want him around.

00:39:00,783 --> 00:39:12,783

The military vehicles pursue Collins until he is far from the base, at which point they drop back, leaving him to wonder what he just witnessed.

00:39:17,783 --> 00:39:23,783

The next day, Collins is expecting to see something about the strange lights on the news, but there's nothing.

321

00:39:23,783 --> 00:39:30,783

Instead, the news report says that the base was on a 12-hour lockdown due to a missing vial of nerve gas.

00:39:31,783 --> 00:39:42,783

The army admitted to a lockdown, but how likely is it that a vial of nerve gas went missing at the exact moment a civilian happened to see something unusual flying over the base?

323

00:39:42,783 --> 00:39:45,783

And this isn't the first time strange lights have been spotted over Dugway.

00:39:46,783 --> 00:39:55,783

We have many reports on file of unidentified objects flying around the base, the bright lights sipping up into the sky, and also rumors of secret underground bases.

00:39:56,783 --> 00:40:04,783

There are rumors of these triangles being spotted going all the way back to the 1960s. This is a place that routinely has objects visible in the sky.

326

00:40:05,783 --> 00:40:14,783

The design of these craft flying over Dugway is interesting because it's the same kind of craft that Randy Kramer described taking him into space.

327

00:40:14,783 --> 00:40:20,783

On top of that, Dugway Proving Ground is in the perfect location for a secret spaceport.

328

00:40:21,783 --> 00:40:25,783

Not only is it absolutely immense in an area, but it's surrounded by mountains.

329

00:40:26,783 --> 00:40:31,783

Its airspace is completely restricted, even up above the Earth's atmosphere.

330

00:40:32,783 --> 00:40:37,783

Furthermore, many defense contractors are at Dugway working on black-budget programs.

331

00:40:38,783 --> 00:40:44,783

Could Dugway Proving Ground be a secret spaceport hiding in plain sight?

332

00:40:45,783 --> 00:40:51,783

Some believe that this program could eventually be the key to our salvation.

333

00:40:52,783 --> 00:40:56,783

Look around. There are clues all around us about how fragile our planet is.

334

00:40:57,783 --> 00:41:08,782

Global warming, rising oceans, rampant wildfires, killer hurricanes, threats of war all across the globe, nuclear meltdowns.

335

00:41:09,782 --> 00:41:13,782

Perhaps this secret push into deep space is all in preparation for Doomsday.

336

00:41:14,782 --> 00:41:18,782

If that's the case, maybe we should be happy that someone's been thinking ahead.

337

00:41:19,782 --> 00:41:28,782

Reports of interplanetary travel and secret spaces on the moon and Mars might sound too fantastical to believe.

338

00:41:29,782 --> 00:41:38,782

However, despite the incredible nature of these stories, there is strong evidence that some of these claims are in fact valid.

339

00:41:39,782 --> 00:41:45,782

Which leads us to ask, where does the truth end and fiction begin?

340

00:41:45,782 --> 00:41:54,782

A discovery that will only be made as we continue to uncover the files of Hanger 1.
