Dark Folklore

Deborah Hyde is a film/TV industry coordinator and production manager who served for ten years as the editor of The Skeptic Magazine, the UK's only regular publication dedicated to critical thinking and debunking pseudo-science and the paranormal.

Deborah is fascinated by the supernatural and why people believe in strange things. She approaches the topic from the perspectives of psychology and history. She has been involved in organizations like Westminster Skeptics and Soho Skeptics, which promoted skepticism through events and media, and in 2018 she was elected a fellow of The Committee for Skeptical Inquiry.

The Invisible Night School co-hosts Leah (@LeahPrime), Nick (@InvNightSchool) & Jay (@synoizia) talk: JB Rhine & Duke Parapsychology with special guest Courtney Block (@courtneymblock)

Courtney M. Block is the Instruction, Reference, and User Engagement Librarian at Indiana University Southeast. She is also the author of The Encyclopedia of Parapsychology (Rowman & Littlefield, 2022) and Researching the Paranormal: How to Find Reliable Information about Parapsychology, Ghosts, Astrology, Cryptozoology, Near-Death Experiences, and More (Rowman & Littlefield: 2020). Her work is also featured in volume 3 of The Feminine Macabre and you can find an upcoming article of hers in volume 35 of Haunted magazine. One of the things Courtney enjoys most is combining her librarian and paranormal interests and teaching people how to locate free, credible resources on a wide range of paranormal topics. To see what Courtney does when she's not staying up all night to meet writing deadlines, follow her on Instagram @liminal.librarian.

Transcript Link

Michael Huntington is a Paranormal Travel Writer, Blogger and UFO Researcher from Cape Girardeau, Missouri who has investigated the Unusual since the mid 70s. He has travelled to hundreds of places in the U.S. with his family, documenting strange locations and lost lore - building a paranormal location GPS research database with multiple thousands of locations. Michael has been a guest on dozens of Paranormal, Cryptid and UFO-related radio programs (including "Somewhere in the Skies," "Spaced Out Radio," and "UFO Classified"), has appeared on television discussing UFOs, and has been interviewed for several documentaries - including the cryptid feature "MoMo: The Missouri Monster" and the "On The Trail of UFOs" documentary series produced by Small Town Monsters - as well as the "Creature From Big Muddy" film and the upcoming "Grand Tower UFO" doc produced by Red Room Media. Michael's writing and photography work can be found on all social media (Facebook, Instagram, Twitter), the Strange Travels blog, the occasional print medium and in the eventually-to-be-released Strange Travel Book series.
