00:00:00,000 --> 00:00:09,000

Tonight on Sightings, Stonehenge, The Pyramids, The Bermuda Triangle, do these places possess deadly mystical powers?

00:00:09,000 --> 00:00:13,000

Once you experience it, you have a lot of respect for it.

00:00:13,000 --> 00:00:16,000

Are these unexplainable phenomena proof of a greater force?

00:00:16,000 --> 00:00:19,000

They're somehow produced by the Earth itself.

00:00:19,000 --> 00:00:23,000

Or are they a result of extraterrestrial contact?

00:00:23,000 --> 00:00:28,000

It seems strange. So many huge markings were made on the Earth.

00:00:30,000 --> 00:00:33,000

At that point, it started to appear.

00:00:33,000 --> 00:00:38,000

They had large, dark eyes, small, eye-cans.

00:00:38,000 --> 00:00:42,000

I began sensing, knowing, and feeling.

10

00:00:42,000 --> 00:00:45,000

I do believe in life after death. I mean, I've been there.

11

00:00:45,000 --> 00:00:51,000

We have not scratched the surface of what the mind can do.

12

00:00:51,000 --> 00:00:56,000

It's a connection with the unknown.

13

00:00:57,000 --> 00:01:03,000

What is the purpose of immense stones carefully arranged on an English country plane?

14

00:01:03,000 --> 00:01:07,000

Why are there earthen mounds in the southeastern United States?

00:01:07,000 --> 00:01:11,000

Who built great granite pyramids in the jungles of Central America?

16

00:01:11,000 --> 00:01:14,000

How these places were created remains a mystery.

17

00:01:14,000 --> 00:01:21,000

But perhaps the greater mystery is why these places continue to fascinate us on such a profound level.

00:01:22,000 --> 00:01:31,000

The great forces of the Earth. Some are familiar and essential, such as the force of gravity or the dramatic forces of nature.

00:01:31,000 --> 00:01:37,000

But then there are darker, mysterious forces feared and revered by ancient cultures.

20

00:01:37,000 --> 00:01:41,000

Strange energies that science is still at a loss to explain.

21

00:01:41,000 --> 00:01:47,000

The forces of the Earth are full of bizarre quirks that can cause destruction, even death.

22

00:01:48,000 --> 00:01:53,000

25 degrees north latitude, 70 degrees west longitude.

23

00:01:53,000 --> 00:01:56,000

The center of one of the most mysterious places on Earth.

24

00:01:56,000 --> 00:01:59,000

A so-called energy vortex of destruction.

25

00:01:59,000 --> 00:02:01,000

It's called the Bermuda Triangle.

26

00:02:01,000 --> 00:02:06,000

For 500 years, since Christopher Columbus first wrote about seeing weird phenomena here,

27

more than 1,000 ships and planes have disappeared without a trace.

28

00:02:11,000 --> 00:02:21,000

We have no evidence whatsoever that makes the region described as a Bermuda Triangle any more dangerous than any other set of waters in the world.

29

00:02:23,000 --> 00:02:26,000

But that wasn't the case for Flight 19.

30

00:02:26,000 --> 00:02:29,000

December 5th, 1945, 2 p.m.

31

00:02:29,000 --> 00:02:34,000

Five Navy Avenger bombers leave Fort Lauderdale, Florida on a routine training mission.

32

00:02:34,000 --> 00:02:37,000

The pilots and crew are all experienced airmen.

33

00:02:37,000 --> 00:02:42,000

The day is clear and mild, but at 4 p.m. the Avengers begin sending out distress calls.

34

00:02:42,000 --> 00:02:45,000

Then abruptly, the SOS calls stop.

35

00:02:45,000 --> 00:02:48,000

The crewmen are never heard from again.

36

00:02:48,000 --> 00:02:54,000

This missing squadron, known as Flight 19, becomes one of the greatest air mysteries of all time.

37

00:02:54,000 --> 00:02:59,000

Five planes and 13 airmen vanish in the Bermuda Triangle.

38

00:03:00,000 --> 00:03:04,000

Did a sudden change in weather cause the disappearance of Flight 19?

39

00:03:04,000 --> 00:03:07,000

Did they run into a bizarre geomagnetic force field?

40

00:03:07,000 --> 00:03:09,000

Or was it pilot error?

41

00:03:09,000 --> 00:03:12,000

But pilot error in all five planes at the same time?

42

00:03:12,000 --> 00:03:14,000

Virtually impossible.

43

00:03:14,000 --> 00:03:17,000

Many theories have been proposed since 1945.

44

00:03:17,000 --> 00:03:21,000

The planes were abducted by UFOs, sucked into a parallel universe,

45

00:03:21,000 --> 00:03:24,000

or even fell victim to death rays from Atlantis.

46

00:03:26,000 --> 00:03:29,000

45 years later, a startling development.

47

00:03:29,000 --> 00:03:32,000

In August 1991, a barnacle encrusted by a giant,

48

was recovered from the treacherous Bermuda Triangle.

49

00:03:36,000 --> 00:03:40,000

Does this bomber both clues to the fate of Flight 19?

50

00:03:40,000 --> 00:03:43,000

When this Avenger broke the surface of the ocean,

51

00:03:43,000 --> 00:03:46,000

it was the most spectacular thing I'd ever seen in my life.

52

00:03:46,000 --> 00:03:48,000

It was like bringing a body out of the ocean.

53

00:03:48,000 --> 00:03:50,000

The mystery still lingers.

54

00:03:50,000 --> 00:03:52,000

We're still working on it today.

55

00:03:52,000 --> 00:03:56,000

A group called Project 19 is dedicated to solving the mystery.

56

00:03:56,000 --> 00:04:01,000

But retrieving the Navy plane also means they must work in the deadly plane.

57

00:04:01,000 --> 00:04:04,000

They're out of the work in the deadly Bermuda Triangle.

58

00:04:04,000 --> 00:04:06,000

There are forces out there.

59

00:04:06,000 --> 00:04:08,000

There is a sense of energy about you all the time.

60

00:04:08,000 --> 00:04:10,000

You don't know what's going to happen out there.

61

00:04:10,000 --> 00:04:15,000

And as the recovery team works to determine if this Avenger was part of Flight 19,

62

00:04:15,000 --> 00:04:19,000

other sailors and pilots who dared to venture into the Bermuda Triangle

63

continue to be plagued by the frightening phenomena.

64

00:04:22,000 --> 00:04:25,000

I took controls of the PBY about two hours out of Bermuda.

65

00:04:25,000 --> 00:04:27,000

And it really was a beautiful day.

66

00:04:27,000 --> 00:04:30,000

I can't say we could not see the wingtip to the airplane.

67

00:04:30,000 --> 00:04:32,000

It was like flying in a tube going through this stuff.

68

00:04:32,000 --> 00:04:34,000

And it never dawned on me.

69

00:04:34,000 --> 00:04:36,000

I was in the Bermuda Triangle.

70

00:04:36,000 --> 00:04:39,000

On June 11th, 1986,

71

00:04:39,000 --> 00:04:43,000

Martin Caden and his wife Dee Dee were part of a flight commemorating the history of a PBY flying boat called the Catalina.

72

00:04:43,000 --> 00:04:47,000

73

00:04:47,000 --> 00:04:49,000

The Cadens are both seasoned pilots

74

00:04:49,000 --> 00:04:52,000

with over 50 years of experience between them.

75

00:04:52,000 --> 00:04:54,000

On June 11th, Dee Dee was at the controls.

76

00:04:54,000 --> 00:04:58,000

Suddenly all the plane's instruments stopped functioning.

77

00:04:58,000 --> 00:05:01,000

The magnetic compass with spinning was totally useless.

78

00:05:01,000 --> 00:05:04,000

We had nothing from the outside world.

79

00:05:04,000 --> 00:05:06,000

We were in limbo.

80

00:05:06,000 --> 00:05:08,000

We believe there was a tremendous electromagnetic effect.

81

00:05:08,000 --> 00:05:10,000

We don't know for sure.

82

00:05:10,000 --> 00:05:14,000

But we had $2 million worth of the world's finest electronic instruments

83

00:05:14,000 --> 00:05:16,000

just completely crap out on us.

84

00:05:16,000 --> 00:05:21,000

Outside the window of the plane, it looked like you were flying an eggnog.

85

00:05:21,000 --> 00:05:24,000

It looked like flying through like an aluminum-maring pie.

86

00:05:24,000 --> 00:05:28,000

You lose all reference to what's right, what's left, what's up, what's down.

87

00:05:28,000 --> 00:05:31,000

And many airplanes go into an uncontrolled spin

88

00:05:31,000 --> 00:05:34,000

and just come out of the sky and smash into the ocean.

89

00:05:34,000 --> 00:05:36,000

It was very sudden when we came out of it.

90

00:05:36,000 --> 00:05:41,000

And it was about an hour, maybe an hour and a half out of Jacksonville that it cleared up.

91

00:05:41,000 --> 00:05:45,000

And little by little, all the instruments began to come back online.

92

00:05:45,000 --> 00:05:49,000

The gyros stopped spinning, the magnetic compass settled down,

93

00:05:49,000 --> 00:05:53,000 and all the electronic devices came back in and were working perfectly.

94

00:05:53,000 --> 00:05:57,000

Martin and Dee Dee Caton survived because of sheer luck.

95

00:05:57,000 --> 00:06:00,000

Perhaps like the Catons, flight 19's instruments failed,

96

00:06:00,000 --> 00:06:02,000

but the pilot's luck ran out.

97

00:06:02,000 --> 00:06:08,000

If that's true, then what is the source of a force powerful enough to make technology useless?

98

00:06:08,000 --> 00:06:13,000

It's hard for science to go out there and document it and dissect it because it doesn't happen all the time.

99

00:06:13,000 --> 00:06:15,000

100

00:06:15,000 --> 00:06:19,000

But boy, once you experience it, you have a lot of respect for it.

101

00:06:19,000 --> 00:06:21,000

It's dangerous.

102

00:06:21,000 --> 00:06:27,000

We feel the unpredictable forces of the Earth in the violent eruption of a volcano

103

00:06:27,000 --> 00:06:30,000

or a sudden high-magnitude earthquake.

104

00:06:30,000 --> 00:06:36,000

These events remind us of the tremendous energy smoldering just beneath our feet.

105

00:06:36,000 --> 00:06:43,000

Might this energy build to such an intensity that it could transform the entire Earth in an instant?

106

00:06:44,000 --> 00:06:48,000

It's 2 p.m. in Los Angeles and you're stuck on the freeway.

107

00:06:48,000 --> 00:06:53,000

Just outside Omaha, it's 4 p.m. and you're finishing up the day's farm work.

108

00:06:53,000 --> 00:06:56,000

It's 5 p.m. in New York City and you're on your way home.

109

00:06:56,000 --> 00:07:02,000

Then at exactly the same instant in time, everyone in the United States, everyone on the planet,

110

00:07:02,000 --> 00:07:06,000

shares one fatal experience, an unspeakable catastrophe.

111

00:07:06,000 --> 00:07:11,000

On May 5th, in the year 2000, the entire Earth turns on its side.

112

00:07:11,000 --> 00:07:16,000

On May 5th, 2000, should the polar ice cap go in motion, the first thing that will happen will be tremendous earthquakes worldwide.

113

114

00:07:22,000 --> 00:07:27,000

Gigantic 8, 9, 10 on the Richter scale.

115

00:07:27,000 --> 00:07:35,000

And at the same time, volcanic activity erupting around the seismic regions of the Earth.

116

00:07:35,000 --> 00:07:43,000

And the wind as the Earth shifts will rage wildly trying to seek a new equilibrium

117

00:07:43,000 --> 00:07:51,000

so that wind speeds of 200, 300 miles an hour will literally destroy most dwellings on the surface.

118

00:07:51,000 --> 00:07:55,000

Is it possible for the Earth to turn on its side?

119

00:07:55,000 --> 00:07:58,000

Could Los Angeles become the new South Pole?

120

00:07:58,000 --> 00:08:00,000

Yes, says author Richard Noon.

121

00:08:00,000 --> 00:08:04,000

His research indicates that a polar shift is not just possible, it's inevitable,

122

00:08:04,000 --> 00:08:11,000

caused by a massive accumulation of ice at the South Pole, a theory introduced in part by Albert Einstein.

123

00:08:11,000 --> 00:08:17,000

Einstein found that the weight of the ice, the mass, it could be stone, ice, junk cars, whatever,

124

00:08:17,000 --> 00:08:24,000

it takes approximately 1700 pounds of pressure per square inch to fracture the rock,

125

00:08:24,000 --> 00:08:27,000

most of it's sedimentary rock in Antarctica anyway.

126

00:08:27,000 --> 00:08:35,000

As the ice increases in height and size, the weight of it is beyond human comprehension.

127

00:08:35,000 --> 00:08:40,000

And it presses, it depresses the ground under the ice.

128

00:08:40,000 --> 00:08:48,000

The ground under the ice in turn squeezes out the plastic viscous molten material underneath it.

129

00:08:48,000 --> 00:08:51,000

And that viscous molten material has to go somewhere.

130

00:08:51,000 --> 00:09:00,000

And it moves through the Earth's fault lines and this creates more earthquake and volcanic activity, which is what you see today.

131

00:09:00,000 --> 00:09:04,000

Many highly active volcanoes have erupted since Mount St. Helens in 1980.

132

00:09:04,000 --> 00:09:12,000

And in a recent one month period, five earthquakes of a 6.5 magnitude or greater have shifted the Earth worldwide.

133

00:09:12,000 --> 00:09:15,000

We're in the middle of an environmental collapse.

134

00:09:15,000 --> 00:09:22,000

A shift of the crust of the Earth takes approximately three days to complete and with it the destruction of most places on Earth.

135

00:09:26,000 --> 00:09:31,000

Within a three day period, everything that we now take for granted could violently disappear.

136

00:09:31,000 --> 00:09:34,000

The skyscrapers of Los Angeles, gone.

137

00:09:34,000 --> 00:09:37,000

The Golden Gate Bridge, twisted wreckage covered in ice.

138

00:09:37,000 --> 00:09:40,000

The Washington Monument, a mass of rubble.

139

00:09:40,000 --> 00:09:48,000

This is just one man's theory, but the buildup of ice at the poles is one fact in noon's theory confirmed by some geologists.

140

00:09:48,000 --> 00:10:04,000

Presently ice does build up at the South Pole, but it doesn't build up arbitrarily high because the Earth's crust is plastic and it warps it down as a consequence of the weight of the new snow and ice that's being piled up.

141

00:10:04,000 --> 00:10:10,000

So in reality, the whole depth of the ice cap doesn't get all that much bigger than it is right now.

142

00:10:10,000 --> 00:10:12,000

And what about the greenhouse effect?

143

00:10:12,000 --> 00:10:19,000

Haven't aerosol cans and industrial pollution created a hole in the ozone layer that's warming the Earth and melting polar ice?

144

00:10:19,000 --> 00:10:32,000

What happens is at least early on in a warming situation on the Earth, the natural convection currents in the atmosphere itself carry that warm moist air to the poles where the moisture condenses and falls as snow.

145

00:10:33,000 --> 00:10:48,000

Geology, the publication of the Geological Society of America, has recently published research that adds some substance to noon's theory, but the idea of a radical instantaneous polar shift is still considered extremely controversial.

00:10:48,000 --> 00:11:00,000

The theory that's proposed here is that the entire crust slides around catastrophically, and there's really no geologic evidence, there's no any kind of climatic, geochemical, geophysical evidence that shows that that's even possible.

147

00:11:00,000 --> 00:11:09,000

The supposed trigger for this global nightmare will be a rare alignment of all nine planets on May 5, 2000, just eight years from now.

148

00:11:09,000 --> 00:11:15,000

noon believes this will be the fatal gravitational yank on the planet. A preposterous theory? Perhaps.

149

00:11:15,000 --> 00:11:24,000

But just remember, only 40 years ago, no one believed the universe began with a big bang. Today, it's scientific fact.

150

00:11:25,000 --> 00:11:33,000

Coming up, a woman who claims to have witnessed unexplainable natural phenomena.

151

00:11:33,000 --> 00:11:37,000

I saw this beautiful ball of light in the sky.

152

00:11:39,000 --> 00:11:44,000

Certain sites fascinate us because we don't know who created them or even why they're there.

153

00:11:44,000 --> 00:11:52,000

And then there are even more enigmatic places where strange phenomena are believed to reveal themselves again and again.

154

00:11:55,000 --> 00:12:03,000

Massive prehistoric stone monuments. Many people experience a strange feeling of fascination at these sites.

155

00:12:03,000 --> 00:12:08,000

It may be the same type of feeling that inspired the ancients to create them in the first place.

156

00:12:08,000 --> 00:12:20,000

When visitors have strange, unsettling feelings, some scientists believe they could be a real physical reaction to unusually high levels of radiation over electromagnetism emanating from the earth.

157

00:12:21,000 --> 00:12:27,000

These places have been deliberately placed in these locations of great natural power and energy.

158

00:12:27,000 --> 00:12:38,000

And at all the stone circles in England and Wales that we've closely checked all occur either immediately alongside a geological fault line or in a very close proximity.

159

00:12:38,000 --> 00:12:43,000

And we find this sort of pattern throughout the world where we've been able to check it.

160

00:12:43,000 --> 00:12:53,000

And it tells us that people did choose specific areas of the earth's surface because they had certain energetic properties about them.

161

00:12:53,000 --> 00:12:57,000

Paul Devereux is a researcher in the field of earth mysteries.

162

00:12:57,000 --> 00:13:08,000

He investigates the secret energies present at ancient sites like this bizarre collection of immense stones known as the Avebury Henge erected 4,000 years ago.

163

00:13:08,000 --> 00:13:13,000

For the last 10 years, there have been many reports of unusual lights hovering overhead.

164

00:13:13,000 --> 00:13:18,000

They're clearly not UFOs, but frightening apparitions created right here on earth.

165

00:13:18,000 --> 00:13:25,000

Lifelong Avebury resident Heather Garland came face to face with the lights on a clear night in 1987.

166

00:13:25,000 --> 00:13:34,000

I saw this beautiful ball of light in the sky and I thought, oh, lovely full moon, because I love the full moon and starry night.

167

00:13:34,000 --> 00:13:40,000

And I watched it and I thought, oh no, ye gods, it's not the full moon. The moon comes in the opposite direction.

168

00:13:40,000 --> 00:13:43,000

When it got to the stones, it turned and started coming towards me.

169

00:13:43,000 --> 00:13:49,000

And with that, it came right down to the grass and just went out.

170

00:13:49,000 --> 00:13:53,000

These lights, nobody knows what they are. They're rather exotic phenomena.

171

00:13:53,000 --> 00:14:02,000

They're not UFOs. They're not flying saucers. They're somehow produced by the earth itself. I call them earth lights.

172

00:14:02,000 --> 00:14:13,000

Near the seaside town of Penzance in southwest England, a mysterious light phenomenon has been seen at this 3,000 year old subterranean chamber known as the Bolle Fugu.

173

00:14:13,000 --> 00:14:21,000

It continues to mystify visitors. Joe May is a teacher in Penzance and spent a night in the dark underground cavern in June 1988.

174

00:14:21,000 --> 00:14:33,000

Just before the point of dawn, I was awake and I thought I could see spiraling movements as the only way I could describe them.

175

00:14:33,000 --> 00:14:38,000

A sort of soup of spirals swirling around.

176

00:14:38,000 --> 00:14:45,000

And they were very like the shapes on the tips of your fingers. They suddenly exploded into stars.

177

00:14:45,000 --> 00:14:51,000

There were lots of little pinpricks of light in with them flowing around.

178

00:14:51,000 --> 00:14:58,000

Swirling carvings found in primitive dwellings around the world bear an uncanny resemblance to the sight Joe May describes.

179

00:14:58,000 --> 00:15:04,000

Could that mean that people saw these same lights 3,000 years ago?

180

00:15:04,000 --> 00:15:11,000

Another resident of Penzant's artist Gabrielle Hawkes is drawn to the Bolle Fugu by its mysterious energy.

181

00:15:11,000 --> 00:15:17,000

It happened some years ago when I was camping in the grounds here. I came into the Fugu.

182

00:15:17,000 --> 00:15:24,000

It's dark and dank and mysterious as usual. I kind of began to lose myself in a way.

183

00:15:24,000 --> 00:15:29,000

It's a feeling of timelessness for a few seconds.

184

00:15:29,000 --> 00:15:37,000

And then quite suddenly, it was as though a scene unfolded in front of me.

185

00:15:37,000 --> 00:15:46,000

It consisted of a scene in bright daylight of a church and a churchyard.

186

00:15:46,000 --> 00:15:54,000

I remember the colours were very bright. In some ways it was like a dream, but at the same time I was very much awake.

187

00:15:54,000 --> 00:16:01,000

I was aware of standing there thinking, well, this is extremely odd, you know, what is going on?

188

00:16:01,000 --> 00:16:08,000

Do these strange earth energies explain why ancient people selected these locations for their monuments?

189

00:16:08,000 --> 00:16:18,000

Perhaps we are in the late 20th century, beginning to understand scientifically what our ancestors understood intuitively about the potent energies of the earth.

190

00:16:18,000 --> 00:16:23,000

Coming up, are these landmarkings a result of extraterrestrial contact?

191

00:16:23,000 --> 00:16:30,000

No one knows exactly what intelligence was behind it.

192

00:16:30,000 --> 00:16:36,000

The surface of the earth covers 196,800,000 square miles.

193

00:16:36,000 --> 00:16:49,000

And even though every square mile has been mapped and scrutinized, there are still places of mystery that defy explanation.

194

00:16:49,000 --> 00:16:57,000

The ancient Nazca Indians of Peru covered their arid landscape with enormous, precise drawings carved into the rocky desert floor.

195

00:16:57,000 --> 00:17:04,000

Photographer Marilyn Bridges came here in 1976. That first journey to Nazca changed her life forever.

196

00:17:04,000 --> 00:17:10,000

She is driven by her need to understand what drove the ancient Nazcas to create these designs 2,000 years ago.

197

00:17:10,000 --> 00:17:22,000

I feel like I have had a calling in a way. I did photography from the ground for a long time and when I was in Peru, I heard about these lines of Nazca.

00:17:22,000 --> 00:17:30,000

Markings that were so huge that you could only see them from the air. I couldn't believe what I was seeing.

199

00:17:30,000 --> 00:17:36,000

I gave myself this mission to photograph these and bring them back and share them with people.

200

00:17:36,000 --> 00:17:43,000

To say, look, this is what ancient man was doing with the land. Maybe something can be deciphered.

201

00:17:43,000 --> 00:17:48,000

Perhaps most puzzling of all, why are the hundreds of designs here so enormous?

202

00:17:48,000 --> 00:17:54,000

There are animal figures more than 400 feet long. Some patterns extend for over a half mile.

203

00:17:54,000 --> 00:18:00,000

Since the Nazca couldn't fly, who were they trying to reach out to with these huge designs?

204

00:18:00,000 --> 00:18:06,000

I'm looking at a lot of these markings and structures as if a god would look at them.

205

00:18:06,000 --> 00:18:13,000

Drawings for the eyes of the gods is just one theory. Others believe the designs formed an astronomical calendar.

206

00:18:13,000 --> 00:18:18,000

But because of their size, some believe these markings were actually UFO landing strips.

207

00:18:18,000 --> 00:18:32,000

208

00:18:32,000 --> 00:18:38,000

Peru isn't the only place Maryland Bridges has found huge landmarks visible only from the air.

209

00:18:38,000 --> 00:18:43,000

For 20 years, she has tried to capture on film the images that ancient cultures have left behind.

210

00:18:43,000 --> 00:18:48,000

It is for her an obsession with deciphering the messages of the past.

211

00:18:48,000 --> 00:18:53,000

In this pursuit, she routinely risks her life working from dangerously low altitudes.

212

00:18:53,000 --> 00:19:04,000

My flying is almost aerobatic. We have to slow the plane down to stall speed. Sometimes we even go into a stall.

213

00:19:04,000 --> 00:19:10,000

Stalling the plane at an altitude of only 200 feet reveals more than just an intellectual curiosity.

00:19:10,000 --> 00:19:16,000

It's an irresistible need to understand what ancient people had an irresistible need to create.

215

00:19:16,000 --> 00:19:29,000

There's a point that it strikes inside of people that maybe it takes them back in time to their heritage, to where we've all come from.

216

00:19:30,000 --> 00:19:35,000

Coming up, what mystical powers are hidden beneath the Black Hills?

217

00:19:35,000 --> 00:19:41,000

Our legends tell us that the Black Hills is the heart of our home, the home of our heart.

218

00:19:41,000 --> 00:19:47,000

For the Lakota Indians, the entire earth is revered, but only one place is truly sacred.

219

00:19:47,000 --> 00:19:52,000

They believe the Black Hills of South Dakota are the spiritual heart of the planet.

220

00:19:52,000 --> 00:20:03,000

As I have learned about the Black Hills, from other tribes scattered throughout this land, throughout America, or what we call the Turtle Isle, what they understand also is that that is a center. The Black Hills are a center.

221

00:20:03,000 --> 00:20:10,000

222

00:20:10,000 --> 00:20:16,000

Modern culture has also been drawn to the Black Hills, but for reasons that are far from spiritual.

223

00:20:16,000 --> 00:20:23,000

The Gold and Uranium are mined here, and over 50 million visitors have marveled at its man-made wonders.

224

00:20:23,000 --> 00:20:29,000

The Black Hills booms like a heartbeat. We say it's the heartbeat of the earth.

225

00:20:29,000 --> 00:20:40,000

Once mining started heavily in the 1880s, coinciding with the time that we were forbidden to practice our religion,

226

00:20:40,000 --> 00:20:45,000

that booming got further and further and further apart.

227

00:20:45,000 --> 00:20:53,000

We're not with respect to this entity, to this earth, to this mother who gives us everything.

228

00:20:53,000 --> 00:20:59,000

We say that if the heart cannot live, the earth can't live.

229

00:20:59,000 --> 00:21:06,000

We believe that protecting the Black Hills has to do with all life, all of the children of the earth.

230

00:21:06,000 --> 00:21:09,000

When the Black Hills dies, the earth will die.

231

00:21:09,000 --> 00:21:16,000

A startling photograph taken from space, a God's eye view, so to speak, may prove the Lakota warning is right.

232

00:21:16,000 --> 00:21:19,000

The Black Hills are shaped like a human heart.

233

00:21:19,000 --> 00:21:23,000

Primitive cultures and religions worship the earth and man's connection to it.

234

00:21:23,000 --> 00:21:30,000

Perhaps by studying their mysterious monuments and seeking an understanding of earth's unexplained forces,

235

00:21:30,000 --> 00:21:33,000

we'll rediscover our own connection to the planet.

236

00:21:33,000 --> 00:21:37,000

The distant past may be the key to protecting our immediate future.

237

00:21:37,000 --> 00:21:40,000

For Sightings, I'm Tim White. Good night.
