Sightings (TV series)

Sightings is an American paranormal and news television show that first aired in the 1990s. The show began on October 17, 1991, as a special titled The UFO Report: Sightings. It was followed by the follow-up reports, Ghost Report and the Psychic Experience. The creator and supervising producer of the initial episode, produced by Paramount for Fox TV, was Linda Moulton Howe. One of her episodes was A Strange Harvest, about the worldwide animal-mutilation mystery linked to extraterrestrial beings.

Show history

After the special broadcast to high ratings, it went forward into weekly TV production as the program Sightings. The show featured everything from UFOs to ghosts to Bigfoot in an investigative news format and was hosted by reporter Tim White. The show was created by Ann Daniels Productions, Fair Dinkum Productions (Winkler-Daniel Productions from 1991 to 1993), and Paramount Domestic Television (Wilshire Court Productions from 1992 to 1993). Its executive producers were Henry Winkler and Ann Daniel.

The program began on Fox in 1992, in a 30-minute-long format that aired on Friday nights. When the show was put into syndication in 1994, it was extended to an hour-long format and was on at various times. In 1996, it was picked up by Sci Fi Channel. Sightings was cancelled in 1997, although five special episodes aired in 1998, and reruns continued on the Sci Fi Channel until April 2003.

In 1998, the producers made a new UFO special that aired on UPN, called Danger in Our Skies: The New UFO Threat hosted by Jim Forbes.<sup>[1][2]</sup>

Sightings: Heartland Ghost

In 2002, one of the stories featured on Sightings became the subject of a television movie on the Showtime network, called Sightings: Heartland Ghost. The movie tells the story of a Sightings crew sent to investigate a poltergeist haunting, eventually becoming victimized by the ghost themselves. The movie was later released on DVD.<sup>[3]</sup>

Film (2002)

Released October 27, 2002, this film features the real-life case which took place on location during a shoot for the Heartland Ghost segments on the show.

Title	Original air date
Sightings: Heartland Ghost	October 27, 2002
In this creepy ghost story, a Kansas couple's claim that their Victorian house is haunted prompts a visit from the crew of "Sightings," a TV show exploring paranormal events. Nobody believes the couple's story - especially cynical producer Beau Bridges--but show psychic Miguel Ferrer begins feeling the presence of several entities, including a little girl.

FEATURED REVIEW

I would like to see this show on TV again

If you enjoy a good ghost story, if you enjoy reading, researching, watching shows about the supernatural, this is a movie for you. I wish I could find all the episodes on DVD.

Remember watching Unsolved Mysteries, who hasn't? It is true television is no longer what used to be; taking shows like Unsolved Mysteries, Sightings off the air and replacing them with too many surreal life junk is not entertainment. I wouldn't mind watching re-runs, but I no longer watch TV, because it has become boring. Hope to find more videos about the supernatural and sightings, hey sometimes I want to sit in front of the television and watch something that keeps me glued to it like this video did. Just make sure you are not home at night watching it might scare you.
