00:00:00,000 --> 00:00:07,000

In the 1960s, our species took its first steps into a vast new realm.

00:00:07,000 --> 00:00:14,000

But NASA astronauts would soon find they weren't the only ones charting a course around the Earth and the Moon.

00:00:14,000 --> 00:00:18,000

I think the last few decades have proven that NASA is definitely covering up something

00:00:18,000 --> 00:00:22,000

when it comes to the connection between UFOs and our astronauts, but what is it?

00:00:22,000 --> 00:00:28,000

Could NASA be hiding the knowledge that by entering space, humanity may have crossed a line

00:00:28,000 --> 00:00:33,000

that threatens every person on the planet?

00:00:33,000 --> 00:00:43,000

Join us for the shocking truth about astronaut UFO encounters on Unsealed Alien Files.

00:00:43,000 --> 00:00:53,000

A global effort has begun. Secret files hidden from the public for decades, detailing every UFO account, are now available to the public.

00:00:53,000 --> 00:00:58,000

We are about to uncover the truth behind these classified documents.

10

00:00:58,000 --> 00:01:02,000

Find out what the government doesn't want you to know.

11

00:01:02,000 --> 00:01:05,000

Unsealed Alien Files.

12

00:01:05,000 --> 00:01:10,000

Exposing the biggest secret on planet Earth.

13

00:01:10,000 --> 00:01:14,000

Baltimore, March 14th, 1989.

00:01:14,000 --> 00:01:22,000

Donald Ratch, an American ham radio operator, intercepts a message unlike anything he's heard before.

The signal source is the space shuttle Discovery in orbit around the planet.

00:01:28,000 --> 00:01:34,000

Even more remarkable is the content of the message itself.

17

This is the story we still have the alien spacecraft on Earth, Lawrence.

Discovery is allegedly face-to-face with a UFO.

19

Moments later, the spacecraft reports that it has lost power.

20

00:01:49,000 --> 00:01:54,000

At this point, mission control instructs the crew to switch to another frequency.

21

00:01:54,000 --> 00:01:59,000

Ratch is stunned by what he hears, and he's not the only one.

22

Other ham radio operators intercept the same message, and some record it.

23

00:02:04,000 --> 00:02:10,000

Despite the many witnesses, NASA quickly denies any such exchange ever took place.

24

00:02:10,000 --> 00:02:17,000

Why would America's space agency deny possible evidence of UFOs in Earth's backyard?

25

00:02:17,000 --> 00:02:27,000

As it turns out, the Discovery incident is just one of dozens of alleged UFO encounters reported by astronauts over the last 50 years.

26

00:02:27,000 --> 00:02:37,000

1961, President John F. Kennedy appeals to Congress and the American public to support his vision of putting a man on the moon.

27

00:02:37,000 --> 00:02:44,000

Now it is time to take longer strides. Time for a great new American enterprise.

28

00:02:44,000 --> 00:02:55,000

It's time for this nation to take a clearly leading role in space achievement, which in many ways may hold the key to our future on Earth.

29

00:02:55,000 --> 00:03:00,000

The race to be the first nation to set foot on another world is on.

30

00:03:00,000 --> 00:03:09,000

When Kennedy put forth the national goal for America to put a man on the moon, the facade was it was to beat the Russians, but it was about a lot more than that.

31

00:03:09,000 --> 00:03:19,000

While NASA is introducing its heroes and their achievements to captivate the masses, behind the scenes a very different show is going on.

32

00:03:19,000 --> 00:03:33,000

June 1965, Gemini 4 commander James McDivitt allegedly captures startling images of an unidentified object that approached their capsule in orbit.

33

00:03:33,000 --> 00:03:44,000

McDivitt later states the UFO had a very definite shape, a cylindrical object. It was white. It had a long arm that stuck out on the side.

34

A few months later, in December 1965, Gemini 7 astronauts Frank Borman and James Lovell are recorded in this communication with Mission Control.

35

00:03:56,000 --> 00:04:07,000

This is Houston, say again, 7.

36

00:04:07,000 --> 00:04:16,000

But instead of breaking the news to the world, the agency allegedly makes every effort to keep these incidents secrets.

37

00:04:17,000 --> 00:04:29,000

After many of the Gemini astronauts started to see things in space, they came up with code words like fire, bogey, even Santa Claus to describe the craft that they were seeing flying outside of the spaceship.

38

00:04:29,000 --> 00:04:48,000

Spurred on by a rash of sightings both on the ground and in orbit, in 1966 the US government sets up a special committee led by leading nuclear physicist Edward Condon to investigate the growing UFO phenomenon.

39

00:04:48,000 --> 00:04:54,000

Unsealed case file, the Condon Committee.

40

00:04:54,000 --> 00:05:01,000

The Condon Committee reviews hundreds of UFO files, including those sightings reported by NASA astronauts.

41

00:05:01,000 --> 00:05:13,000

When the group submits its final report in late 1968, it concludes the incidents are definitely unexplained and in the highest category of credibility.

42

00:05:13,000 --> 00:05:20,000

Nonetheless, NASA conducts no further investigations of the Gemini sightings.

43

00:05:24,000 --> 00:05:32,000

During the 1960s, American astronauts allegedly report a growing number of UFO sightings in orbit.

44

00:05:32,000 --> 00:05:37,000

But some experts believe NASA kept these reports from the public.

45

00:05:37,000 --> 00:05:45,000

NASA not only knew about an ET presence, but that it was dealing with an ET presence on a regular basis.

46

00:05:45,000 --> 00:05:54,000

By late 1968, NASA's Apollo program is ready to leave Earth orbit for the first time on a mission to orbit the moon.

47

00:05:54,000 --> 00:05:59,000

Apollo 8 is commanded by Frank Borman and piloted by Jim Lovell.

48

00:05:59,000 --> 00:06:03,000

With them is lunar module pilot Bill Anders.

49

00:06:03,000 --> 00:06:10,000

Their flight path takes them to the dark side of the moon and out of communication range with mission control.

50

00:06:11,000 --> 00:06:17,000

When the spacecraft reemerges, the following exchange with mission control is recorded.

51

00:06:24,000 --> 00:06:26,000

It's a shocking revelation.

52

00:06:26,000 --> 00:06:35,000

According to alleged NASA radio code, Apollo 8 has indicated the presence of a UFO in close proximity to the moon.

53

00:06:35,000 --> 00:06:40,000

A world they are scheduled to land on in just seven months' time.

54

00:06:42,000 --> 00:06:52,000

Despite public denials, by the time of Apollo 8, NASA was beginning to take the possibility of strange occurrences on the moon seriously.

55

00:06:54,000 --> 00:07:00,000

Unsealed case file, the catalog of reported lunar events.

56

00:07:01,000 --> 00:07:14,000

Released in 1969, the catalog of lunar events remains the single most complete listing of recorded lunar anomalies from the year 1500 to 1967.

57

00:07:14,000 --> 00:07:20,000

Reports include observations of strange colors, streaks of light, and mists.

58

00:07:20,000 --> 00:07:24,000

The timing of the study raises a number of questions.

59

00:07:24,000 --> 00:07:29,000

Did NASA already have evidence of alien activity on the moon?

60

00:07:29,000 --> 00:07:34,000

And if it did, what would happen if the public ever found out?

61

00:07:34,000 --> 00:07:40,000

Would the agency be forced to put its Apollo plans on permanent hold?

62

00:07:40,000 --> 00:07:46,000

Today, many experts believe that NASA gets its astronauts to sign an agreement,

63

00:07:46,000 --> 00:07:53,000

giving the agency final authority about what they can and cannot say to the public about their missions.

64

00:07:54,000 --> 00:07:59,000

Mercury astronaut Gordon Cooper was the last American to fly into space alone.

65

00:07:59,000 --> 00:08:06,000

In a letter read at a UN meeting on November 9, 1978, Gordon Cooper wrote,

66

00:08:06,000 --> 00:08:14,000

I believe these extraterrestrial vehicles and their crews are visiting this planet from other planets,

67

which obviously are a little more technically advanced than we are here on Earth.

68

00:08:19,000 --> 00:08:29,000

I feel that we need to have a top level, coordinated program to scientifically collect and analyze data from all over Earth.

69

00:08:29,000 --> 00:08:41,000

If Cooper is right about extraterrestrials visiting Earth, then what would the astronauts find when they at last set foot on another world?

70

00:08:41,000 --> 00:08:46,000

Well, I kind of have two moons in my head, I guess, whereas most people just have one moon.

71

00:08:46,000 --> 00:08:51,000

But every once in a while I do think of the second moon, you know, the one that I recall from up close.

72

00:08:51,000 --> 00:08:59,000

July 18, 1969, Apollo 11 takes off on its historic voyage to the moon.

73

00:08:59,000 --> 00:09:02,000

The mission commander is Neil Armstrong.

74

00:09:02,000 --> 00:09:06,000

Piloting the command module is Michael Collins.

75

00:09:06,000 --> 00:09:11,000

Buzz Aldrin is the pilot of the lunar module that will set down on the surface.

76

00:09:12,000 --> 00:09:20,000

Hundreds of millions around the world are glued to TV sets, watching events unfold minute by minute.

77

00:09:20,000 --> 00:09:25,000

But two days into the mission, the crew learns they may have another audience.

78

00:09:25,000 --> 00:09:32,000

They reportedly observe an unidentified object moving alongside their module.

79

00:09:32,000 --> 00:09:40,000

The three astronauts are stunned, but are allegedly unable to discuss the object for millions to hear.

80

00:09:41,000 --> 00:09:52,000

The astronauts consider the only plausible explanation is that the object is the SIVB, the third stage of their booster rocket, jettisoned shortly after liftoff.

81

00:09:52,000 --> 00:10:04,000

Two days earlier, they ask Houston for confirmation of how far the SIVB is from the module, but the answer they receive sends shock waves through the crew.

82

00:10:05,000 --> 00:10:11,000

Apollo 11, Houston, the SIVBs have asked 6000 nautical miles from you now over.

83

00:10:12,000 --> 00:10:18,000

It didn't make sense. The object they were observing was at a much closer range.

84

00:10:18,000 --> 00:10:28,000

To this day, the alleged object has not been identified, and NASA has never officially acknowledged its presence during the mission.

85

00:10:28,000 --> 00:10:38,000

But if the astronaut's story is true, Apollo 11 wasn't alone, and it's not the last controversy surrounding their historic mission.

86

00:10:40,000 --> 00:10:49,000

I think the last few decades have proven that NASA is definitely covering up something when it comes to the connection between UFOs and our astronauts, but what is it?

87

00:10:50,000 --> 00:10:59,000

During the 1960s, NASA astronauts allegedly reported multiple encounters with UFOs in orbit around Earth.

88

00:10:59,000 --> 00:11:04,000

It's an otherworldly drama that would reach its climax with Apollo 11.

89

00:11:05,000 --> 00:11:11,000

July 20th, 1969, the lunar module touches down on the moon.

90

00:11:12,000 --> 00:11:15,000

And quality days here, the Eagle has landed.

91

00:11:15,000 --> 00:11:22,000

Right in the plane, we copy on the ground, you gotta punch the guys about the same blue, we're breathing again, thanks a lot.

92

00:11:22,000 --> 00:11:32,000

A few hours later, an estimated 500 million people watch as Neil Armstrong becomes the first human to set foot on another world.

93

00:11:32,000 --> 00:11:34,000

I'm gonna step on the lamp now.

94

00:11:35,000 --> 00:11:42,000

It's one small step for man, one giant leap for mankind.

95

00:11:42,000 --> 00:11:55,000

It's a milestone achievement in human history, but many experts believe that during their brief stay, the Apollo astronauts saw much more than the rest of the world was permitted to see.

96

00:11:56,000 --> 00:12:04,000

During the two and a half hour moonwalk, the broadcast is interrupted for a period of two minutes.

97

00:12:04,000 --> 00:12:11,000

The world waits with bated breath for the signal to be restored, wondering what has gone wrong.

98

00:12:11,000 --> 00:12:18,000

But then, just as suddenly as the signal disappeared, it returns and the broadcast resumes.

99

00:12:19,000 --> 00:12:27,000

NASA insists the problem resulted from one of the onboard television cameras overheating, interfering with the transmission.

100

00:12:27,000 --> 00:12:35,000

But many experts question the plausibility of this explanation and what happened during those missing minutes.

101

00:12:37,000 --> 00:12:42,000

According to author Otto Binder, not everyone was left in the dark.

102

00:12:42,000 --> 00:12:57,000

Binder claims to have later been in contact with independent ham radio operators, whose equipment bypassed NASA's broadcasting outlets and picked up an extraordinary exchange between the astronauts and Houston.

103

00:12:58,000 --> 00:12:59,000

I was gonna believe this.

104

00:13:00,000 --> 00:13:01,000

Where's Neil?

105

00:13:01,000 --> 00:13:02,000

Where's Neil?

106

00:13:02,000 --> 00:13:04,000

I'd say that there were other things, yes.

107

00:13:04,000 --> 00:13:07,000

They're lined up in the other side of the crater.

108

00:13:07,000 --> 00:13:10,000

There they are and they're watching us.

109

00:13:12,000 --> 00:13:13,000

Is it possible?

110

00:13:13,000 --> 00:13:20,000

Did Armstrong and Aldrin really see UFOs on the moon during those mysterious missing minutes?

111

00:13:21,000 --> 00:13:36,000

Maurice Châtelaine, former chief of NASA communication systems, would confirm aspects of the story in 1979, stating that Armstrong had indeed reported seeing two UFOs on the rim of a crater.

00:13:37,000 --> 00:13:45,000

According to Châtelaine, the encounter was common knowledge in NASA, but nobody has talked about it until now.

113

00:13:46,000 --> 00:13:50,000

They also reported what they believe to be mining equipment.

114

00:13:51,000 --> 00:13:54,000

Are extraterrestrials mining the moon?

115

00:13:55,000 --> 00:13:59,000

And was the lunar camera blackout really a simple malfunction?

116

00:14:00,000 --> 00:14:06,000

Anytime we look at the communication taking place between Capcom and astronauts in space, there are two channels in use.

117

00:14:06,000 --> 00:14:09,000

There's the public channel relaying information.

118

00:14:09,000 --> 00:14:18,000

There's also the secret channel or the Department of Defense line where they can cut off the public feed and communicate securely between the astronauts and Capcom.

119

00:14:19,000 --> 00:14:27,000

Many ufologists believe the broadcast blackout may have prevented this stunning development from being revealed to the world.

120

00:14:28,000 --> 00:14:39,000

Some also claim that Aldrin actually captured film footage of the lunar UFOs, only to see it confiscated by the agency after the Apollo 11 cruise return to Earth.

121

00:14:41,000 --> 00:14:45,000

Additional evidence has surfaced, pointing to an alleged NASA cover-up.

122

00:14:46,000 --> 00:14:53,000

Photos of huge domes, tunnel openings, lunar cities, and other artificial structures have been documented.

123

00:14:54,000 --> 00:15:04,000

If we look at some of the reports that actually have taken place where when we've gone to the moon, sent our astronauts there, they report seeing a full-on extraterrestrial base.

124

00:15:05,000 --> 00:15:10,000

It's possible that what we photographed on the moon in entirety was never shown to the general public.

125

00:15:11,000 --> 00:15:21,000

As of today, structures of possible alien origin have been allegedly discovered in no fewer than 44 different regions of the lunar surface.

00:15:23,000 --> 00:15:37,000

In my personal opinion, there are alien bases on the moon and they understood that there were a lot of political factors as to why the Apollo missions had to go ahead and why there had to be a certain degree of a manned presence on the moon.

127

00:15:38,000 --> 00:15:44,000

But at a certain point, the aliens said, well, this is our turf. You don't belong here and don't come back.

128

00:15:45,000 --> 00:15:48,000

Soon, they may again have visitors from Earth.

129

00:15:53,000 --> 00:16:01,000

NASA's Apollo 11 astronauts are alleged to have confirmed the existence of an alien mining colony on the moon.

130

00:16:02,000 --> 00:16:09,000

But if this is true, what has brought them here? What treasure does this lifeless world contain?

131

00:16:10,000 --> 00:16:16,000

Some experts believe the answer begins not with the moon, but with the sun.

132

00:16:17,000 --> 00:16:28,000

The sun is a massive nuclear fusion reactor and one of the byproducts of this massive release of energy is an invisible substance known as Helium-3.

133

00:16:29,000 --> 00:16:35,000

The Earth's atmosphere prevents Helium-3 from reaching its surface, but the moon has no atmosphere.

134

00:16:36,000 --> 00:16:42,000

For billions of years, the surface has been bombarded by a constant stream of Helium-3.

135

00:16:43,000 --> 00:16:52,000

Some ufologists believe that alien spacecraft are powered by fusion engines and that the fuel for those engines is Helium-3.

136

00:16:53,000 --> 00:16:58,000

They are convinced that extraterrestrials are mining the substance on the lunar surface.

137

00:17:00,000 --> 00:17:08,000

Both China and Russia have stated the primary objective of any future mining operations is the extraction of Helium-3.

138

00:17:09,000 --> 00:17:16,000

Whoever controls its supply may control the future of planet Earth and space exploration.

139

00:17:18,000 --> 00:17:24,000

Experts believe it won't be long before the United States is forced to join this new space race.

140

00:17:25,000 --> 00:17:34,000

But what will happen when Earth's three great rival powers come face to face with the aliens reported to already be in control of the moon?

141

00:17:35,000 --> 00:17:45,000

There's some type of reality to the extraterrestrial presence not only here on Earth, but obviously out there, possibly on our moon, possibly on other planet.

142

00:17:46,000 --> 00:17:51,000

Will these new lunar missions spark an interplanetary conflict that will engulf the Earth?

143

00:17:52,000 --> 00:17:57,000

And will the ultimate prize be control of the final frontier?

144

00:17:57,000 --> 00:18:04,000

This is Unsealed Alien Files, exposing the biggest secret on planet Earth.
