00:00:00,000 --> 00:00:09,640

This program is about unsolved mysteries. Whenever possible, the actual family members and police officials have participated in recreating the events. What you are about to see is not a news broadcast.

00:00:09,640 --> 00:00:13,720

00:00:13,720 --> 00:00:16,720

00:00:16,720 --> 00:00:27,040

December 1988. 82-foot freighter named the Freedom set sail for Haiti with seven crewmen,

00:00:27,040 --> 00:00:32,880

a dashing young German captain and a beautiful 23-year-old journalist Lisa Bishop. A few days later, the Freedom vanished without a trace.

00:00:32,880 --> 00:00:37,080

00:00:37,080 --> 00:00:41,400

Twenty-four-year-old Adam Hecht struggled with the paradox of his own affluent lifestyle

00:00:41,400 --> 00:00:47,280 and the poverty he saw in the back alleys of Beverly Hills. In 1989, he befriended a homeless person and even invited him to share his apartment. Now Adam Hecht is missing.

00:00:47,280 --> 00:00:53,880

10

00:00:53,880 --> 00:00:58,720

In the final days of World War II, a fortune in golden precious jewels was allegedly smuggled

00:00:58,720 --> 00:01:04,200

out of the infamous concentration camp at Dachau. Today there is compelling evidence that this buried treasure still lies beneath a mountain lake in Austria.

12

00:01:04,200 --> 00:01:09,880

00:01:09,880 --> 00:01:14,200

Also tonight, an update on the case of a former mental patient who disappeared after her boyfriend was murdered. Maria Armstrong is now in custody thanks to an anonymous tip received after a recent broadcast of the story. Join me. You may be able to help solve a mystery.

00:01:14,200 --> 00:01:19,760

00:01:19,760 --> 00:01:25,680

00:02:19,760 --> 00:02:24,520

The main conception of the Caribbean is that it is a playground for tourists and paradise

00:02:24,520 --> 00:02:32,520

for those lucky enough to live there. In actuality, the gulf between have and have nots is dramatic.

00:02:32,520 --> 00:02:36,960

Nowhere are these contrasts more evident than in Haiti, where the average income is less than $300 per person per year. Today the Caribbean is crisscrossed by dilapidated freighters overloaded with miscellaneous and often stolen goods heading to this impoverished island. Smugglers also abound in the area. Guns, narcotics and stolen merchandise are continually being transported to and from Miami. January 1989, Falcon jets from the United States Coast Guard conducted a search for an 82-foot tramp freighter named the Freedom. On route to Haiti, the steamer had been reported missing at sea the week before. Despite the Coast Guard search, the ship had apparently vanished without a trace. On board the Freedom, a derelict cargo ship of Bahamian registry were seven Haitian crew members, a handsome young sea captain,

00:02:36,960 --> 00:02:45,960

00:02:45,960 --> 00:02:51,720

00:02:51,720 --> 00:02:57,280

00:02:57,280 --> 00:03:04,280

00:03:06,720 --> 00:03:13,720

00:03:13,960 --> 00:03:19,960

25

00:03:19,960 --> 00:03:26,960

26

00:03:30,080 --> 00:03:37,080

27

00:03:37,080 --> 00:03:42,680

and an attractive 23-year-old American journalism student named Lisa Bishop. On the morning

28

00:03:42,680 --> 00:03:47,920

of her departure, Lisa had called her parents to say goodbye. If I could feel something

29

00:03:47,920 --> 00:03:54,000 was wrong, mother's intuition, I guess you could call it. Lisa was to call me when she arrived, and that call never came. Known by her friends for her social conscience,

30

00:03:54,000 --> 00:04:01,000

31

00:04:03,080 --> 00:04:06,880

Lisa wanted to write an article that would dramatize the contrast between the wealth

32

of America and the economic devastation of Haiti. To Lisa, her voyage on the Freedom

33

00:04:12,760 --> 00:04:19,200

was a chance of a lifetime, even though it meant leaving her boyfriend of three years.

34

00:04:19,200 --> 00:04:25,700

We had a long discussion the night before she left that she had to make her own decision, that in life that I couldn't follow her and take care of her wherever she went. Somewhere

35

00:04:25,700 --> 00:04:32,200

36

00:04:32,200 --> 00:04:39,200

Caribbean Sea between Miami and Haiti, Lisa Bishop and eight other people simply vanished.

37

00:04:39,240 --> 00:04:43,080

Explanations arranged from pirates to smugglers even to an encounter with a so-called Bermuda

38

00:04:43,080 --> 00:04:48,480

Triangle. This voyage into the unknown began with a chance encounter with a dashing sea captain.

39

00:04:48,480 --> 00:04:51,480

40

00:04:51,480 --> 00:04:58,480

Atlanta, Georgia. At a nightclub owned by her boyfriend, Paul Cornwell, Lisa met a 28-year-old

41

00:04:58,560 --> 00:05:05,560

German national named Florian Meyer-Borsch. Florian was a modern-day Gypsy, a brilliant

42

00:05:06,120 --> 00:05:11,200 mechanic who had briefly settled in Miami. Florian had sailed throughout the Caribbean and was a fixture of the European expatriate community. Though Florian was outwardly charismatic and charming, Lisa's parents felt appearances were deceiving.

43

00:05:11,200 --> 00:05:17,200

44

00:05:17,200 --> 00:05:23,200

45

00:05:23,200 --> 00:05:30,200

Those were deceiving. When I first saw Florian's photograph, just by looking at him I didn't think that he was the type of person that Lisa would have anything to do with.

46

00:05:30,200 --> 00:05:37,200

47

00:05:37,200 --> 00:05:44,200

Florian, from what I've learned about him, is a drifter and he sponges off of people,

48

00:05:44,200 --> 00:05:51,200

free-loads.

49

00:05:51,200 --> 00:05:58,200

A year after their first meeting, Florian told Lisa of an upcoming voyage from Miami to Haiti.

50

00:05:58,200 --> 00:06:04,200

Aware of her journalistic ambitions, he invited her to accompany.

51

00:06:04,200 --> 00:06:07,200

Oh, that sounds wonderful.

52

00:06:07,200 --> 00:06:12,200

Lisa Bishop and Paul Cornwell had a stormy three-year relationship. Paul was upset when 53

00:06:12,200 --> 00:06:17,200

Lisa told him that she planned to sail to Haiti with Florian.

00:06:17,200 --> 00:06:21,200

I didn't trust him with Lisa. Of course I was concerned about Florian, you know, being

55

00:06:21,200 --> 00:06:26,200

a young guy, and she tried to tell me there was nothing to worry about, there was nothing

56

00:06:26,200 --> 00:06:31,200

romantic. I tried to discourage her as her parents tried to discourage her from going because they were concerned about it.

57

00:06:31,200 --> 00:06:35,200

58

00:06:35,200 --> 00:06:41,200

I expressed my feelings about it, that I didn't want her to go or anything, and Lisa was very, very a headstrong girl when she made up her mind to do something.

59

00:06:41,200 --> 00:06:47,200

60

00:06:47,200 --> 00:06:52,200

On the morning of December 17, 1988, the weather was cold, the water choppy.

61

00:06:52,200 --> 00:06:55,200

Florian considered delaying the departure.

00:06:55,200 --> 00:06:59,200

If we don't go now, I'm not going to be able to go at all. I might as well just turn around and go home.

63

00:06:59,200 --> 00:07:00,200

64

00:07:00,200 --> 00:07:05,200

Minutes before they left, Lisa spoke to her parents for what would be the last time.

65

00:07:05,200 --> 00:07:09,200

She said, don't worry, daddy. She said everything would be alright, you know.

66

00:07:09,200 --> 00:07:14,200

The last words I had, whether it was I was still asking her not to go, you know, and then she talked to her mother. I never talked to her again after that.

67

00:07:14,200 --> 00:07:19,200

68

00:07:23,200 --> 00:07:28,200

Finally at 2.30 in the afternoon, tugboats eased the freedom through the Miami Rivers

69

00:07:28,200 --> 00:07:31,200

that headed towards open sea.

70

00:07:32,200 --> 00:07:34,200

There she goes. She's opening up.

71

00:07:34,200 --> 00:07:38,200

What Lisa thought would be the adventure of a lifetime was just the beginning.

72

00:07:38,200 --> 00:07:44,200

But to those caught in the wake of the Fridon's disappearance, it was the beginning of a nightmare.

73

00:07:47,200 --> 00:07:52,200

The Fridon's planned route would take the ship 600 miles past the coast of Cuba to

74

00:07:52,200 --> 00:07:56,200

Gonaib, a small port on the western coast of Haiti.

75

00:07:56,200 --> 00:08:03,200

Despite the fact that there were no storms and no distress calls, the Fridon apparently never arrived.

76

00:08:03,200 --> 00:08:08,200

But Lisa didn't call on Christmas Day or family became alarmed.

77

00:08:10,200 --> 00:08:16,200

The relatives of the people on board kept calling us, asking us for information.

78

00:08:16,200 --> 00:08:21,200

We kept in touch with the port authorities and the various ports in that mid-Caribbean area and likewise down in Haiti.

79

00:08:21,200 --> 00:08:23,200

80

00:08:24,200 --> 00:08:30,200

We said several search and rescue flights by Falcon jet aircraft in the most commonly traveled area of the Old Bahama Channel, which is the area between the United States and Haiti.

81

00:08:30,200 --> 00:08:35,200

82

00:08:37,200 --> 00:08:39,200

Still it was unsuccessful.

83

00:08:39,200 --> 00:08:45,200

We even sent a telegram to the Cuban border guards to ask them if they had any information on that vessel.

84

00:08:45,200 --> 00:08:48,200

However, they had no information either.

85

00:08:49,200 --> 00:08:55,200

Despite their sweep of the Caribbean, the Coast Guard found no trace of the Fridon.

86

00:08:55,200 --> 00:09:00,200

But Lisa's friends and family refused to give up the search.

87

00:09:01,200 --> 00:09:06,200

Mrs. Bishop and I were the only people looking. We felt we were the only people looking.

88

00:09:06,200 --> 00:09:10,200

I mean, there were no governmental agencies that would look at all.

89

00:09:10,200 --> 00:09:16,200

We came to Miami hoping to maybe get some answers from some of Florian's friends or just find, you know, anything we could. We're desperate.

90

00:09:16,200 --> 00:09:20,200

00:09:20,200 --> 00:09:27,200

And we contacted the New Times and they sent a reporter out by the name of David Nicholl.

Miami, April 1989.

00:09:31,200 --> 00:09:36,200

When an underwater salvager named Bob Nyberg read the New Times article on the Fridon,

94

00:09:36,200 --> 00:09:41,200

he realized that he had seen the ship two weeks after it had allegedly disappeared

95

00:09:41,200 --> 00:09:45,200

in a completely different part of the Caribbean.

96

00:09:45,200 --> 00:09:50,200

I remembered that while I was working in Grand Cayman in January of that year,

97

00:09:50,200 --> 00:09:52,200

there'd been a boat came in.

00:09:52,200 --> 00:09:57,200

We were working underwater directly in the harbor area where the ship's pulled up and tied up.

00:09:57,200 --> 00:10:02,200

When I heard the ship coming in, we came up and as I was coming out of the water,

100

00:10:02,200 --> 00:10:07,200

we looked back and noticed the name was Fridon, F-R-E-E-D-O-N.

101

00:10:07,200 --> 00:10:11,200

And I made a statement to my friend that those guys need their freedom.

102

00:10:11,200 --> 00:10:14,200

They can't even spell the word.

103

00:10:14,200 --> 00:10:19,200

They were there for some time that afternoon, next morning, the boat was gone.

00:10:23,200 --> 00:10:29,200

Nyberg saw the Fridon in Georgetown Harbor on Grand Cayman Island over 500 miles from Haiti.

105

00:10:30,200 --> 00:10:33,200

Or it went after a sighting is unknown.

106

00:10:35,200 --> 00:10:40,200

The fact that the ship was spotted, and I feel like it did not go down,

107

00:10:40,200 --> 00:10:47,200

that it brought me hope that Alisa was alive and had to be held against her will 108

00:10:47,200 --> 00:10:50,200

in order for her not to contact us.

109

00:10:50,200 --> 00:10:55,200

In May of 1989, Paul Cornwell and Bob Nyberg went to Grand Cayman.

110

00:10:55,200 --> 00:10:59,200

There they hoped to find more information on the fate of the Fridon.

111

00:11:01,200 --> 00:11:06,200

After canvassing the port, they found a number of witnesses who claimed to have seen Florian around the same time that Nyberg had spotted the Fridon.

00:11:06,200 --> 00:11:10,200

00:11:16,200 --> 00:11:20,200

Though nobody could remember having seen Lisa, an important clue did surface.

00:11:20,200 --> 00:11:25,200

Apparently Florian was not alone during his mysterious soldier in on Grand Cayman.

00:11:25,200 --> 00:11:29,200

Yeah, he come with another fellow, short fellow with black hair.

116

00:11:29,200 --> 00:11:31,200

Really with another guy.

00:11:31,200 --> 00:11:34,200

I couldn't help feeling that he was right around the corner,

118

00:11:34,200 --> 00:11:39,200

that I was going to run across him any minute in one of these bars personally.

119

00:11:39,200 --> 00:11:45,200

So I was very apprehensive, very agitated, ready for anything.

120

00:11:46,200 --> 00:11:50,200

And it just made me look harder.

00:11:54,200 --> 00:11:59,200

Paul returned to Atlanta and questioned a woman who had been storing Florian's personal belongings.

122

00:12:06,200 --> 00:12:10,200

There he found a picture of the man seen with Florian in Grand Cayman.

123

00:12:10,200 --> 00:12:13,200

The woman gave his name as Philippe.

124

00:12:13,200 --> 00:12:17,200

Paul would later find out that Philippe had chartered the Fridon.

125

00:12:17,200 --> 00:12:23,200

The girl told me at that time that she had had a personal relationship with this guy, Philippe.

126

00:12:23,200 --> 00:12:27,200

And that he mentioned that he was involved in a large-scale smuggling thing, which really got me going, thinking it was a smuggling thing, and that something had gone wrong,

127

00:12:27,200 --> 00:12:32,200

128

00:12:32,200 --> 00:12:39,200

and that they had gotten involved in something too deep that Lisa didn't know about and that she couldn't handle.

129

00:12:39,200 --> 00:12:46,200

I've heard how they say that gun runners or dope dealers of hijack it, kill everybody on board, and use the ship one time to make a run or something.

130

00:12:46,200 --> 00:12:51,200

131

00:12:51,200 --> 00:12:57,200

I've heard about how the weather can change in a heartbeat out there, and a ship can go under, and they claim that nothing will ever be found.

132

00:12:57,200 --> 00:13:01,200

133

00:13:01,200 --> 00:13:05,200

I've heard all the stories and all the rumors.

00:13:06,200 --> 00:13:16,200

It's just knowing her that you have, that you don't know how she is, where she is, or what, you know.

135

00:13:16,200 --> 00:13:19,200

But you always got hope.

136

00:13:19,200 --> 00:13:23,200

Well, the heartache will never go away.

137

00:13:25,200 --> 00:13:32,200

Perhaps someone out in the audience might be able to tell us that we're about to Florian,

138

00:13:32,200 --> 00:13:39,200

and that would be the key to finally, or what has happened to Lisa.

00:13:39,200 --> 00:13:46,200

I feel that if Florian is out there, eventually I'll find out about it, and I'll locate him.

140

00:13:46,200 --> 00:13:51,200

Authorities believe that Florian Meyer Borsch is the key to the mystery of the Freedom.

141

00:13:51,200 --> 00:13:56,200

He is 30 years old, 6 feet 2, with blond hair and blue eyes.

142

00:13:56,200 --> 00:14:01,200

Known for his mechanical ability, Borsch may be working in a related area.

143

00:14:01,200 --> 00:14:04,200

Today Lisa Bishop would be 25 years old.

144

00:14:04,200 --> 00:14:09,200

She's 5 feet 2 inches in height, with blond hair and brown eyes.

145

00:14:10,200 --> 00:14:18,200

Rumors persist that the Freedom with a telltale bent mast continues to roam the Caribbean under a different name.

00:14:18,200 --> 00:14:24,200

These are the only known pictures of how the boat looked before its disappearance.

147

00:14:32,200 --> 00:14:39,200

Last November we examined the case of 25 year old Maria Armstrong.

00:14:39,200 --> 00:14:46,200

In 1984 Maria was diagnosed as suffering from paranoid schizophrenia, a physical disease of the brain.

149

00:14:46,200 --> 00:14:56,200

In June of 1988 Maria moved from her home in New Jersey to Mesa, Arizona to live with her childhood sweetheart, 29 year old Robert Ron Argenti.

150

00:14:56,200 --> 00:15:03,200

Argenti was aware of Maria's condition, but felt that he could somehow help her to overcome her illness.

151

00:15:03,200 --> 00:15:11,200

152

00:15:11,200 --> 00:15:20,200

00:15:21,200 --> 00:15:28,200

For the first few weeks Maria seemed happy at Mesa. She seemed to blossom under Ron's loving attention.

154

00:15:30,200 --> 00:15:35,200

But Maria soon began behaving erratically and she turned violet towards Ron.

155

00:15:35,200 --> 00:15:37,200

Maria calm down, listen.

156

00:15:37,200 --> 00:15:40,200

I was alone! I told you about you!

157

00:15:40,200 --> 00:15:45,200

I would talk to Ron on the phone and I would tell him send her home.

158

00:15:45,200 --> 00:15:48,200

I don't want to do that, I want to help her he would say.

00:15:48,200 --> 00:15:56,200

I said but you can help her, it's obvious you can't help her. She needs more than you to help her. She needs psychiatric care.

00:15:56,200 --> 00:16:01,200

On November 14th Ron Argenti's body was discovered in his living room.

00:16:01,200 --> 00:16:05,200

He had been bludgeoned to death with a sledgehammer when he slept on the couch.

00:16:08,200 --> 00:16:14,200

Four days later Maria Armstrong was seen hitchhiking 260 miles north of Mesa, Arizona.

163

00:16:14,200 --> 00:16:19,200

This was the last reported sighting of Maria Armstrong until our broadcast.

164

00:16:23,200 --> 00:16:26,200

Update, Maria Armstrong has been captured.

00:16:26,200 --> 00:16:33,200

Shortly after this courier the FBI received a call from one of our viewers with information regarding Armstrong's whereabouts.

166

00:16:34,200 --> 00:16:42,200

We received a telephone call from an unidentified caller that Maria Armstrong had been living in the Mesa, Memphis, Tennessee area.

167

00:16:43,200 --> 00:16:48,200

And that she was going to be at the airport on August 3rd of this year.

168

00:16:49,200 --> 00:16:56,200

The FBI subsequently went to the airport and were able to identify her and they did place her under arrest.

169

00:16:58,200 --> 00:17:01,200

Armstrong had changed her appearance by dyeing her hair blonde.

00:17:03,200 --> 00:17:08,200

Two weeks later she was returned to Arizona to face a charge of first degree murder.

171

00:17:12,200 --> 00:17:17,200

The FBI was able to identify her and then to place her under arrest.

172

00:17:27,200 --> 00:17:33,200

Everly Hills, California with an average yearly income of $75,000 per household.

173

00:17:33,200 --> 00:17:36,200

This is one of the nation's wealthiest communities.

174

00:17:37,200 --> 00:17:44,200

Its streets, stores and sidewalks are filled with glamorous people living their lives in luxury.

175

00:17:47,200 --> 00:17:49,200

But there is another side to Everly Hills.

00:17:49,200 --> 00:17:56,200

As with so much of the nation there is a growing population of homeless who pass through and even live on Asafo-Lewan streets.

177

00:17:57,200 --> 00:18:05,200

In the winter of 1989 at least one of these homeless individuals found an unlikely benefactor in 24 year old Adam Hecht.

178

00:18:07,200 --> 00:18:12,200

The son of an Academy Award winning producer, Adam was born into Everly Hills luxury.

179

00:18:12,200 --> 00:18:18,200

He spent his childhood in an insulated world bordered by movie stars, mansions and privilege.

180

00:18:19,200 --> 00:18:23,200

After graduating from Everly Hills High Adam earned his living giving tennis lessons.

181

00:18:24,200 --> 00:18:29,200

All who knew him remembered a bright, independent and friendly young man.

182

00:18:30,200 --> 00:18:39,200

All that began to change in the morning of January the 10th, 1989 when Adam and his brother Harold went to breakfast at a local delicatessen.

00:18:43,200 --> 00:18:48,200

In front of the restaurant they encountered a street person apparently blind in one eye.

184

00:18:54,200 --> 00:18:59,200

A few minutes later Adam left the table and went back outside.

185

00:19:02,200 --> 00:19:08,200

Adam said excuse me, you went outside and started talking to this person.

186

00:19:08,200 --> 00:19:13,200

And I could see through the lines and I couldn't understand it.

187

00:19:13,200 --> 00:19:15,200

I was quite surprised.

188

00:19:15,200 --> 00:19:20,200

I didn't understand what was his reason for being out there.

189

00:19:23,200 --> 00:19:25,200

What was all that about?

190

00:19:26,200 --> 00:19:31,200

Adam came back in, started talking, I mentioned it briefly, I said what are you doing out there?

191

00:19:31,200 --> 00:19:33,200

He said nothing really.

192

00:19:33,200 --> 00:19:35,200

So we went on and had our breakfast.

193

00:19:35,200 --> 00:19:39,200

When we finished, we left, I went to my car.

194

00:19:39,200 --> 00:19:43,200

Listen I've got a 10 o'clock at Mohon but I'll catch up with you later, I'm gonna make a quick call alright?

195

00:19:43,200 --> 00:19:45,200

Alright, alright, bye.

196

00:19:46,200 --> 00:19:52,200

And just before I got in my car I looked back and he was talking to this person.

197

00:19:52,200 --> 00:19:56,200

I was very surprised and that was the first time he met.

198

00:19:56,200 --> 00:19:59,200

What we know now is Tony.

199

00:19:59,200 --> 00:20:03,200

Harold thinks it's good that you can't see.

200

00:20:03,200 --> 00:20:05,200

Yeah well I feel like I should help you.

201

00:20:05,200 --> 00:20:10,200

Within a few weeks of their first meeting Adam invited Tony to move into his apartment.

202

00:20:10,200 --> 00:20:16,200

Through his new friend Adam was exposed to a lifestyle that was as far away from his experience as night from day.

203

00:20:16,200 --> 00:20:22,200

He seemed to strike a chord in Adam for according to his brother Harold he had become disillusioned with his pampered life.

204

00:20:22,200 --> 00:20:29,200

His family fears that what started out as a gesture of a good Samaritan may have escalated into a nightmare.

205

00:20:29,200 --> 00:20:32,200

Today Adam Hecht is missing.

206

00:20:34,200 --> 00:20:36,200

Tony this is where my mom lives.

207

00:20:36,200 --> 00:20:41,200

Soon after Tony moved in Adam brought his new roommate to his mother's house for dinner.

208

00:20:41,200 --> 00:20:45,200

She was surprised that her son would shelter a street person.

00:20:45,200 --> 00:20:54,200

I thought my goodness that's strange you know but knowing Adam the way he is I could understand it until I met Tony you know.

210

00:20:54,200 --> 00:21:00,200

I really understood it I thought oh my goodness it's so nice that he wants to help him you know.

211

00:21:00,200 --> 00:21:05,200

Oh what a surprise.

212

00:21:05,200 --> 00:21:08,200

What's this?

00:21:08,200 --> 00:21:11,200

Mom this is Tony.

214

00:21:11,200 --> 00:21:13,200

Tony this is my mother.

215

00:21:13,200 --> 00:21:16,200

Okay pleased to meet you.

216

00:21:16,200 --> 00:21:18,200

Listen why don't you come in.

217

00:21:18,200 --> 00:21:29,200

When I saw Tony and how he talked and my god the smell it was unbelievable and wow it was scary it was really scary.

218

00:21:30,200 --> 00:21:40,200

During the meal Tony began to wave his hands over his food as if he were blessing it.

219

00:21:40,200 --> 00:21:44,200

Adam what's going on with him?

220

00:21:44,200 --> 00:21:54,200

Well this is the way Tony is and it's hard to understand right at first but once you get to know him from the inside out he's really a fantastic guy.

00:21:54,200 --> 00:22:15,200

Adam was very much wanting to talk about Tony and to seem to have a good relationship Adam seemed to understand Tony you know and I was led to believe that Tony was really being very kind to Adam as far as you know helping him grow up as a person mature.

222

00:22:15,200 --> 00:22:18,200

That's what he said to me he's helping me mature as a person.

00:22:18,200 --> 00:22:36,200

Adam at the beginning he was an elite preppy businessman you know drove a great car, taught tennis and then you met Tony and I mean it just all changed and you became a mystical person and I just I didn't know him anymore.

00:22:36,200 --> 00:22:44,200

Part of me was torn because I felt for what he was trying to do I mean it was a very noble thing.

225

00:22:45,200 --> 00:22:55,200

With Tony by his side Adam began to visit Skid Row in downtown Los Angeles and often stayed out on the streets at night.

00:22:55,200 --> 00:23:05,200

I know that when Adam sets his mind to something he really goes wholeheartedly into any type of project.

227

00:23:05,200 --> 00:23:12,200

Hey Tony I got some food and stuff in back of my car maybe help me pass it out.

228

00:23:13,200 --> 00:23:15,200

Okay cool let's go.

00:23:16,200 --> 00:23:23,200

His involvement with street people increased when he met Tony I think started to understand their problems.

230

00:23:23,200 --> 00:23:27,200

There's gonna be some food coming up I'll make sure you guys get some food.

231

00:23:30,200 --> 00:23:35,200

All these things you have Adam it's not what counts what counts as what society.

232

00:23:35,200 --> 00:23:40,200

Tony and Adam would also share in strange mystical rights of Tony's devising.

233

00:23:41,200 --> 00:23:44,200

In one of these rituals Adam burned his hands severely.

234

00:23:47,200 --> 00:23:51,200

All I know is when I saw it I said my god Adam what happened to you?

235

00:23:51,200 --> 00:23:55,200

He said oh he said you know he said I was testing a test of endurance.

236

00:23:55,200 --> 00:24:01,200

He said Tony told me we were experimenting to see how would make me stronger.

237

00:24:02,200 --> 00:24:08,200

June 10th 1989 Harold had not heard from his brother for several days.

238

00:24:08,200 --> 00:24:11,200

Concerned he went to Adam's apartment.

239

00:24:11,200 --> 00:24:13,200

Adam?

240

00:24:13,200 --> 00:24:16,200

Oh gosh Tony is Adam here?

241

00:24:16,200 --> 00:24:19,200

My brother was not there his car was not there.

242

00:24:19,200 --> 00:24:20,200

Have you seen him?

243

00:24:20,200 --> 00:24:21,200

And I tried to get in.

244

00:24:21,200 --> 00:24:22,200

Listen let me ask you.

245

00:24:22,200 --> 00:24:23,200

I said where's Adam?

246

00:24:23,200 --> 00:24:24,200

I said where's he gone?

247

00:24:24,200 --> 00:24:30,200

And in his strange strange way he did not answer that question or seem to really know.

248

00:24:30,200 --> 00:24:32,200

He is everybody's really worried will you let me in?

00:24:34,200 --> 00:24:35,200

Let me in.

250

00:24:35,200 --> 00:24:36,200

He's really hot in here.

251

00:24:38,200 --> 00:24:42,200

A few days later Adam's mother also went to his apartment.

252

00:24:46,200 --> 00:24:47,200

Adam?

253

00:24:47,200 --> 00:24:52,200

As I'm walking back down the corridor he's following me and he's just giving a kiss.

00:24:52,200 --> 00:24:56,200

But starts to put his arms around me and I was always the most scary thing.

255

00:24:56,200 --> 00:24:58,200

What's wrong are you afraid of me?

256

00:24:58,200 --> 00:25:00,200

I just want to know where my son is.

257

00:25:00,200 --> 00:25:02,200

Where my son is where is he?

258

00:25:02,200 --> 00:25:04,200

I'm your son.

259

00:25:04,200 --> 00:25:05,200

That's it.

260

00:25:05,200 --> 00:25:07,200

I'm over here.

261

00:25:08,200 --> 00:25:09,200

I'm your son.

262

00:25:09,200 --> 00:25:10,200

I'm.

263

00:25:15,200 --> 00:25:20,200

On the advice of a private investigator the family contact of the Beverly Hills police filed a missing persons report and began to arrange for Tony's eviction.

264

00:25:20,200 --> 00:25:24,200

265

00:25:24,200 --> 00:25:25,200

Right up the stairs.

266

00:25:25,200 --> 00:25:27,200

Why don't you just stay right there for a second.

267

00:25:27,200 --> 00:25:31,200

Okay what I need you guys to do is go around the back and watch for the second story.

268

00:25:31,200 --> 00:25:33,200

I'm looking at a big guy.

269

00:25:33,200 --> 00:25:34,200

Just make sure he doesn't be around.

270

00:25:34,200 --> 00:25:36,200

Okay partner I'm talking top of the stairs.

271

00:25:36,200 --> 00:25:44,200

On July 9th the family accompanied by the investigators stood by as Tony was forcibly evicted from Adam's apartment.

272

00:25:45,200 --> 00:25:46,200

Come on out here.

273

00:25:46,200 --> 00:25:47,200

Come on out here.

274

00:25:47,200 --> 00:25:49,200

Put your hands up behind your head.

275

00:25:49,200 --> 00:25:50,200

This is my friend's house.

276

00:25:50,200 --> 00:25:51,200

Come on you know the routine.

277

00:25:51,200 --> 00:25:52,200

Come on.

278

00:25:52,200 --> 00:25:53,200

Put your hands down.

279

00:25:53,200 --> 00:25:55,200

I want you to walk down to the bottom of the stairs.

280

00:25:55,200 --> 00:25:56,200

You understand?

281

00:25:56,200 --> 00:25:57,200

Yeah.

282

00:25:57,200 --> 00:25:58,200

All right.

283

00:25:58,200 --> 00:26:01,200

During the eviction Tony made no effort to avoid police.

284

00:26:01,200 --> 00:26:08,200

Local detectives interviewed Tony and came to the conclusion that he had not been involved in Adam's disappearance.

285

00:26:08,200 --> 00:26:11,200

Tony claimed to have no knowledge of his whereabouts.

286

00:26:13,200 --> 00:26:22,200

I can't to this day understand why they didn't interrogate him you know because he obviously knows much more than what was letting on.

287

00:26:22,200 --> 00:26:29,200

I would love to have some silly and penithal or whatever they do and just try and get a truth theorem and have him talk.

288

00:26:29,200 --> 00:26:32,200

Because I couldn't get two sentences out of this man.

289

00:26:32,200 --> 00:26:35,200

He was just so strange you know.

290

00:26:37,200 --> 00:26:43,200

One month after Adam's disappearance his car was found abandoned on a Beverly Hills side street.

291

00:26:43,200 --> 00:26:46,200

On the windshield were several parking tickets.

292

00:26:47,200 --> 00:26:59,200

Inside the keys were still in the ignition and police found Adam's wallet, credit cards and $600 in cash and checks.

293

00:26:59,200 --> 00:27:02,200

No other trace of Adam was found.

294

00:27:02,200 --> 00:27:05,200

We wish we knew specifically what happened to Adam.

295

00:27:05,200 --> 00:27:12,200

Heck, apparently he in the past occasionally had gone away for a few days at a time but always had returned.

296

00:27:12,200 --> 00:27:17,200

And whether he did this time and just decided not to return we don't know.

297

00:27:17,200 --> 00:27:25,200

He had a very solid business, very active with a number of different people on a number of different levels.

298

00:27:25,200 --> 00:27:31,200

For him just to disappear does not fit his character.

299

00:27:31,200 --> 00:27:38,200

While there are some suspicious circumstances as far as finding the car and finding his property in the car normally you'd take with that with you if you were going to leave.

00:27:38,200 --> 00:27:47,200

We have no real evidence of any foul play or any criminal involvement so we're not handling it as a crime strictly as a missing person case.

301

00:27:51,200 --> 00:28:00,200

As Tony no more about Adam's disappearance than he is telling did someone from Adam's brief time on the street decide to violently reappear?

302

00:28:00,200 --> 00:28:07,200

Or did Adam reject his former life of luxury and just lose himself among the homeless?

303

00:28:08,200 --> 00:28:16,200

We all want him back. He wants so much for our family to understand his thoughts.

304

00:28:16,200 --> 00:28:33,200

And what I would like him to know is that it's very hard for someone like my mother to listen to what he has to say and take it in because everyone has limits to their understanding.

305

00:28:33,200 --> 00:28:40,200

And his was so vast his spiritual knowledge that it was difficult for us to take it in.

306

00:28:40,200 --> 00:28:45,200

What can I say I just love him and I just want him to come home.

307

00:28:45,200 --> 00:28:51,200

I miss him with all my heart. It's not a complete family without him.

308

00:28:51,200 --> 00:28:59,200

And I would try and understand whatever he was thinking and I would not be mad at him in any way.

309

00:28:59,200 --> 00:29:08,200

I just want him to just come home because he's truly loved by all of us and many other people too.

310

00:29:11,200 --> 00:29:19,200

Adam Arthur Hectis 5 feet 11 inches in height and weighs 160 pounds. His eyes are hazel and his hair is black.

311

00:29:19,200 --> 00:29:23,200

Today he would be 25 years old and may be wearing a beard.

312

00:29:24,200 --> 00:29:28,200

Adam also may still have the burn scar on his right hand.

313

00:29:31,200 --> 00:29:37,200

Next, the story of stolen Nazi treasure allegedly buried in Austria near the end of World War II.

314

00:29:37,200 --> 00:29:40,200

Today it could be worth over 50 million dollars.

315

00:29:40,200 --> 00:29:55,200

April 1945, the final days of the Nazi Empire.

316

00:29:55,200 --> 00:30:04,200

Despite desperate measures taken by the defenders, combined Allied forces closed in on the last pockets of German resistance.

317

00:30:05,200 --> 00:30:08,200

The end of the war in Europe was near.

318

00:30:12,200 --> 00:30:20,200

As the Allies advanced into Germany, they discovered treasures plundered from the Nazis' former conquest, carefully hidden away in caves and vaults.

319

00:30:20,200 --> 00:30:31,200

In the months following the Germans' surrender, billions of dollars in riches were uncovered, including these gold bars found in an abandoned salt mine by U.S. soldiers.

320

00:30:32,200 --> 00:30:38,200

While a bulk of these stolen treasures was recovered, billions of dollars still remain unaccounted for.

321

00:30:40,200 --> 00:30:44,200

There was of course more shocking evidence of Nazi barbarism.

322

00:30:44,200 --> 00:30:51,200

Huchenwald, Matherhausen, Dachau, names that would come to symbolize man's inhumanity demand.

323

00:30:53,200 --> 00:30:58,200

And through the gates of Dachau, one multi-million dollar Nazi treasure allegedly passed.

324

00:31:01,200 --> 00:31:06,200

Tonight we will investigate the story of this treasure, as told to us by Dr. Edward Gregor.

325

00:31:06,200 --> 00:31:12,200

He is convinced it was buried on the shores of a small Austrian lake in the spring of 1945, where it remains today.

326

00:31:12,200 --> 00:31:21,200

They have uncovered dramatic evidence that supports Dr. Gregor's story, a story first told by an Austrian physician named Wilhelm Gross.

327

00:31:22,200 --> 00:31:26,200

After the war, Dr. Gross had treated imprisoned Nazi war criminals.

328

00:31:26,200 --> 00:31:32,200

An SS officer who had been condemned to death told Gross of the location of the buried treasure.

329

00:31:32,200 --> 00:31:40,200

In 1952, Dr. Gross shared the story with Edward Gregor, who was then a U.S. Army officer stationed in Austria.

330

00:31:41,200 --> 00:31:49,200

It started at the concentration camp of Dachau, gold and treasure that was accumulated from the prisoners that had brought in there, who were executed and cremated.

331

00:31:49,200 --> 00:31:52,200

332

00:31:53,200 --> 00:31:59,200

The concentration camp of Dachau has been preserved as a memorial. This recreation was filmed there.

333

00:32:03,200 --> 00:32:10,200

According to Dr. Gross, the commandant of Dachau and three of his assistants loaded the treasure into four boxes, which were probably ammunition boxes according to the size.

334

00:32:10,200 --> 00:32:14,200

335

00:32:15,200 --> 00:32:24,200

These boxes were filled with jewelry, rare stamps and gold bars, some of it processed from the gold fillings of concentration camp victims.

336

00:32:24,200 --> 00:32:28,200

Today, their contents will be worth at least $50 million.

337

00:32:34,200 --> 00:32:40,200

Dr. Gross' informant claimed to be one of four SS officers who conspired to smuggle his treasure out of Dachau.

338

00:32:44,200 --> 00:32:52,200

Their route allegedly took them from the outskirts of Munich into Austria through the Arlberg Pass toward the small town of Brat.

339

00:32:52,200 --> 00:33:00,200

Near Brat was a pristine mountain lake called the Lunersee. This lake, located on the Swiss border, was their ultimate destination.

340

00:33:03,200 --> 00:33:09,200

Allied armies had not yet reached this isolated region and the men believed their loot would be safe there.

341

00:33:09,200 --> 00:33:14,200

After burying the treasure, the men planned to escape across the Swiss border.

342

00:33:20,200 --> 00:33:24,200

After several days, the men finally arrived at the Lunersee.

343

00:33:25,200 --> 00:33:28,200

The only structure in the area was a small hut.

344

00:33:29,200 --> 00:33:36,200

Dr. Gross stated that the officers buried the treasure exactly halfway between this hut and a brook across the lake.

345

00:33:40,200 --> 00:33:44,200

They then said their farewells and went their separate ways, planning one day to return.

346

00:33:47,200 --> 00:33:53,200

Three of them left and headed into Switzerland. The fourth person went back down into the valley to return to his family.

347

00:33:56,200 --> 00:34:02,200

According to Dr. Gross, this fourth officer was captured and while awaiting execution revealed his secret,

348

00:34:02,200 --> 00:34:06,200

the officers were not sure if they had been able to escape.

349

00:34:06,200 --> 00:34:11,200

While waiting execution revealed his secret, the officers three companions were never seen again.

350

00:34:14,200 --> 00:34:19,200

Gregor believed Dr. Gross' story and agreed to help search for the treasure.

351

00:34:19,200 --> 00:34:24,200

But before they could mount an expedition, Dr. Gross mysteriously disappeared.

352

00:34:26,200 --> 00:34:33,200

In 1956, a dam was constructed on the Lunersee and submerged the treasure's alleged location under 75 feet of water.

353

00:34:34,200 --> 00:34:43,200

34 years passed. In the summer of 1990, enough water had been let out of the dam to return the lake to its original depth.

354

00:34:43,200 --> 00:34:48,200

This coupled with a severe drought had brought the water level to an all-time low.

355

00:34:49,200 --> 00:34:52,200

Get your pick out of the way there and I'll go in there and look at it.

356

00:34:54,200 --> 00:34:57,200

It's not getting any stronger as we're going down deeper.

357

00:34:57,200 --> 00:35:04,200

Armed with information culled from Dr. Gross' personal papers, Edward Gregor finally went to the Lunersee.

358

00:35:04,200 --> 00:35:07,200

It's already off the meter though, so it's as strong as it can be.

359

00:35:08,200 --> 00:35:09,200

I think it's something in the rocks.

360

00:35:09,200 --> 00:35:16,200

Gregor and an associate pinpointed the treasure's location by using coordinates from a map given him by Dr. Gross.

361

00:35:18,200 --> 00:35:22,200

But despite a thorough search, he was unable to find the treasure.

362

00:35:27,200 --> 00:35:29,200

Where is the Lunersee treasure?

363

00:35:31,200 --> 00:35:34,200

Had the other three Nazi officers dug it up?

364

00:35:35,200 --> 00:35:37,200

Edward Gregor feels this is unlikely.

365

00:35:37,200 --> 00:35:42,200

By the time it would have been safe to return, the treasure would have been submerged.

366

00:35:43,200 --> 00:35:47,200

Or could Dr. Gross' story be just that, a story?

367

00:35:48,200 --> 00:35:54,200

Documents brought to light at a 1946 war crimes trial indicate that such a treasure did exist.

368

00:35:55,200 --> 00:36:09,200

I had discovered some evidence in the archives, specifically an interrogation statement from a gentleman by the name of Joseph Gerlin.

369

00:36:10,200 --> 00:36:17,200

Joseph Gerlin was tried, convicted and executed for atrocities committed while he was a subcommandate of D'Hau.

00:36:17,200 --> 00:36:27,200

According to his testimony and statements from four other sources, the head commandant of D'Hau had been involved in a conspiracy to smuggle a treasure from inside the camp.

371

00:36:27,200 --> 00:36:30,200

This officer's name was Frederick Viter.

372

00:36:31,200 --> 00:36:42,200

One witness said that he saw Viter have a truck loaded, being loaded with valuables out of the cash storage areas.

373

00:36:42,200 --> 00:36:52,200

According to some other testimony, Viter was seen leaving the camp in those vehicles.

374

00:36:55,200 --> 00:37:02,200

Later on, he was also seen by other SS personnel heading towards the Swiss border.

375

00:37:02,200 --> 00:37:19,200

Also, Gerlin testified that other camp personnel had assisted in burying this treasure and that approximately five million in gold rice marks was taken in valuables.

376

00:37:22,200 --> 00:37:26,200

Joseph Gerlin went to his grave, never revealing any more about the treasure.

377

00:37:27,200 --> 00:37:36,200

Edward Gregor believes that Gerlin was one of the four men who buried the Lunar Zay treasure and perhaps he was Dr. Gross's mysterious informant.

378

00:37:40,200 --> 00:37:48,200

Today, if it exists, this multi-million dollar treasure is underwater, but Edward Gregor will return again when the water level has lowered.

379

00:37:49,200 --> 00:38:00,200

He believes that if found, the proceeds of the Lunar Zay treasure should be used to provide medical care for needy individuals, a fitting use for wealth stolen under such grim circumstances.

380

00:38:05,200 --> 00:38:12,200

Next, the story of a bold prison break and two unlikely lovers, an escaped convict and his female guard.

381

00:38:18,200 --> 00:38:22,200

The story of a bold prison break and two unlikely lovers, an escaped convict and his female guard.

382

00:38:22,200 --> 00:38:33,200

I like for her to come home and tell me why she did it and to turn herself in because I don't want her to get hurt.

383

00:38:36,200 --> 00:38:41,200

I do love her. I'm just confused right now.

384

00:38:42,200 --> 00:38:53,200

You have just heard the plea of Leslie Beeman, a daughter in anguish over the disappearance of her mother Kay. Is Kay Beeman a victim or a criminal?

385

00:38:53,200 --> 00:39:00,200

Leslie holds out hope that Kay is innocent, but no matter what, she wants her mother to come home.

386

00:39:01,200 --> 00:39:15,200

Kay Beeman was divorced when her son and daughter were nearly grown. For ten years, she had worked as a matron and corrections officer at the Allegheny County Detention Center for Men and Women in Cumberland, Maryland.

387

00:39:17,200 --> 00:39:28,200

August 29, 1990, just seven weeks ago, Kay Beeman was on duty in the prison control center with another female officer, Michelle Puderbaugh.

388

00:39:28,200 --> 00:39:32,200

Michelle, I'll take this round. Are you sure? Yeah.

389

00:39:32,200 --> 00:39:45,200

At 2.12 a.m., Kay left the control center to conduct a routine check of the cell block. All inmates are behind bars except one low-security prisoner who was working in an adjacent room.

390

00:39:48,200 --> 00:39:56,200

Everything seemed normal, but within minutes, the calm of an uneventful night shift would be dramatically turned upside down.

391

00:39:57,200 --> 00:40:04,200

Come on, ladies, come on with us. What are you doing here? I said come on! Do you know how serious this is? You know how serious I am? I ain't got time to listen to this.

392

00:40:04,200 --> 00:40:10,200

Barnes is coming down with Beeman, he's got a weapon. The escaped inmate is Edgar Kearns, a maximum security prisoner.

393

00:40:10,200 --> 00:40:20,200

You don't want to try anything and somebody's getting hurt? I didn't know what they were going to do. When I saw the bathroom door was standing in the jar, so I just darted out and ran.

394

00:40:21,200 --> 00:40:35,200

At first I felt a relief that I was, at least for the moment, safe. But then I was thinking, but my God, you know, what are you going to do here? And they have Kay. What are they going to do to her?

395

00:40:36,200 --> 00:40:41,200

It appeared that Kay Beeman had been taken hostage by James Barnes, Edgar Kearns' cellmate.

396

00:40:42,200 --> 00:40:49,200

I heard the buttons click and the controls and so I thought, well, they're going.

397

00:40:56,200 --> 00:41:00,200

Two days later, Kay Beeman telephoned her daughter Leslie.

398

00:41:01,200 --> 00:41:13,200

It was about a quarter after five in the morning and she called Collette and she told me she was all right and that she loved me and she missed me and not to worry about her. She was all right.

399

00:41:14,200 --> 00:41:18,200

And she said, she told me she was, I went with them.

400

00:41:19,200 --> 00:41:22,200

We're out of here.

401

00:41:23,200 --> 00:41:37,200

Three days after the breakout, James Barnes was apprehended. He told authorities that Kay Beeman's car was used in the getaway. He also claimed that Kay Beeman had helped plan the escape because she was in love with Edgar Kearns.

402

00:41:38,200 --> 00:41:49,200

Edgar Kearns had been convicted of theft and forgery in West Virginia. He was awaiting sentencing in Maryland for passing bad checks.

403

00:41:50,200 --> 00:42:01,200

James Barnes said that Kay Beeman and Edgar Kearns had been romantically involved for three months. At the prison, the two had long, soulful conversations.

404

00:42:01,200 --> 00:42:04,200

I haven't been playing, have I?

405

00:42:05,200 --> 00:42:15,200

Mr. Barnes told us that she would spend sometimes half an hour or 40 minutes in the maximum security area just talking to Kearns. So there definitely was a relationship there.

406

00:42:16,200 --> 00:42:17,200

Sleeping, as usual.

407

00:42:18,200 --> 00:42:29,200

I guess you maybe fall in love with somebody and you do some strange things. But Kay's pretty well lost about everything that she ever had over this one incident.

408

00:42:31,200 --> 00:42:46,200

Once there was almost a certainty in my mind of what had happened, I just, I felt so betrayed. I felt, I just couldn't believe she could do that.

409

00:42:47,200 --> 00:43:08,200

I want to know why she did it and I'd like to have her home so she can explain it to me. She hurt me and I don't know how to feel about it or about her. It just hurts a lot.

410

00:43:09,200 --> 00:43:24,200

Sandra Kay Beeman is 46 years old and 5 feet 3 inches tall. She weighs 170 pounds. She has experience as a beautician and may have changed her hairstyle and color.

411

00:43:25,200 --> 00:43:42,200

Edgar Eugene Kearns is 30 years old and 5 feet 9 inches tall. He weighs 200 pounds. His hair color and style may have been altered by Kay. On his right forearm, he has a tattoo of a panther and heart tattoos on both biceps.

412

00:43:43,200 --> 00:43:51,200

Up to just 6 hours after our broadcast, Sandra Kay Beeman and Edgar Kearns were captured in Canada.

00:43:54,200 --> 00:44:06,200

On September 10th, 12 days after the escape, Beeman and Kearns checked into the Beach Motor Motel in Hamilton, Canada. They registered as husband and wife under the assumed names Fred and Sandy Smith.

00:44:07,200 --> 00:44:23,200

I was watching TV and all of a sudden this lady's picture come on. So I called my wife and she was out in the kitchen ironing and I said, do you recognize this lady? And she said yes, she's the lady that's living in room 12.

415

00:44:23,200 --> 00:44:35,200

And by this time, the gentleman come on and I said, uh oh, he also lives in there. So I reached over immediately and picked up the phone and called the police.

416

00:44:35,200 --> 00:44:48,200

When we got to the Beach Motor Hotel, the information from the Mitchells was the effect that they hadn't left the room and it wasn't their policy to leave the room during the evening. We were convinced they were still inside the room.

417

00:44:50,200 --> 00:44:57,200

The officers at the emergency response unit, which is equivalent to a SWAT team, forced the door open. The room was found to be vacated.

418

00:44:58,200 --> 00:45:05,200

A witness later told authorities that he had seen the fugitive couple getting into a taxi cab earlier that evening.

419

00:45:06,200 --> 00:45:12,200

We were able to determine the name of the cab and a check with the cab company revealed the driver.

420

00:45:13,200 --> 00:45:22,200

I picked them up at the beach trip and that just up from the motel and I asked them where they were going and they said the Red Rose Motel.

421

00:45:23,200 --> 00:45:38,200

When we got to the motel, the cab driver said he had taken one of our officers was able to determine from the office register at that location that they had in fact booked in and that current's in fact that uses his right name.

422

00:45:40,200 --> 00:45:43,200

A few minutes later, the emergency response unit moved in.

423

00:45:44,200 --> 00:45:56,200

Three or four officers of the emergency response unit approached the front door of the motel room. It was at that point that someone from the inside of the room looked out through the drapes.

424

00:45:57,200 --> 00:46:00,200

The officers then forced open the door, entered the room.

425

00:46:00,200 --> 00:46:05,200

Kerns, he was forced to the floor of the motel room and held in a position of safety.

426

00:46:06,200 --> 00:46:12,200

The female in the room was in the bed and her hands were handcuffed above her head to the headboard.

427

00:46:13,200 --> 00:46:15,200

At that point there, both persons were arrested.

428

00:46:16,200 --> 00:46:20,200

Kerns was removed by my partner and myself and transported to Central Station.

429

00:46:20,200 --> 00:46:23,200

He wanted to know how we had learned of his whereabouts.

430

00:46:24,200 --> 00:46:27,200

We asked him if he had ever seen the program before.

431

00:46:28,200 --> 00:46:29,200

He said yes he had.

432

00:46:30,200 --> 00:46:33,200

We told him that he was on it tonight and he was astounded.

433

00:46:50,200 --> 00:46:57,200

Join us next week for another edition of Unsolved Mysteries.
