

"UFO"—No; "UER/UCT"—Yes

According to the current United States Air Force Space Command (USSPACECOM) set of definitions, the term "UFO" ceased being used at the conclusion of Project Blue Book in 1974. Currently in use are the terms UER (unknown event report) and UCT (uncorrelated targets).

The term UER is used for space-related events, which are always classified SECRET; the term UCT is used for Earth-bound unidentified objects.

UCT Reporting

There are four categories of UCT:

- Significant UCT
- Nonsignificant UCT
- Critical UCT
- False UCT

Copies of "Critical" and "Significant" UCT are sent to NORAD and all Space Command directorates; Naval Space Command, Army Space Command, and Air Force Space Command.
