

UFO Sighted Over SF Bay Area?

8-4-98

AP story in Napa Register, CA

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) -

What was that light in the sky? More than a dozen people who saw a bluish-white light streak over the San Francisco Bay Tuesday evening were left asking that question.

Radio station KCBS received about 15 calls at 9:45 pm moments after the object was spotted whizzing over the bay before reportedly breaking into two or three pieces and disappearing from sight.

"It was about 200 feet up in the air when it finally fell apart. It was arcing just a little bit," said Sid Marcovich, who saw the object while driving along the Embarcadero waterfront.

A Federal Aviation Administration spokeswoman had no reports of airborne oddities in the area, and the National Weather Service received no calls reporting the light.

But witnesses like Marcovich remained stunned at what they said they saw. "I had never seen anything like that in my entire life. It was big and it was close. It was exciting," said Marcovich.

Revised report of alleged downed UFO in Tracy, CA, 8-4-98, 9:45 PM Pacific

Original Report

I received the report last night at 1:45 AM (E), and being awoken by the call may have not been clear enough when I sent out the report. The caller, Jennifer is from Idaho. What she claims is, a reliable witness reported the event to her practically in real time. Already people are focusing on Jennifer's 208 Idaho area code, perhaps thinking some sort of deception. There is no deception. In the original post: "...confirm from a reliable eye-witness" "The caller's witness..." Sorry if I was not obvious enough that the caller is reporting this to me second hand. Also, I should have said "Jennifer is from Idaho and the witness is from California." I have changed the date of the alleged crash to 8-4-98, as it was at 9:45 PM, Pacific time and I got the date mixed up. I'm sure you understand...Please direct any further inquiries to Jennifer Lipshin. I warned her people would call and contact her if she went public. Perhaps she can coax the eye witness into coming forward. Jennifer Lipshin 208-232-5490 regina2836@aol.com Regards, Claude DiDomenica, UFOnetwork Founder
