As we get closer to my homecoming show this Saturday at Vale Park in Stoke, I personally wanted to thank you all for your support for this very special event, which is being held to aid 3 charities close to my heart @HUBBFoundation_ @DonnaLouiseUK @UNICEF_uk

If you weren't lucky enough to get a ticket for the Stoke show, there are some other ways you can help raise money for these very worthwhile organisations.

Click the link in my bio or above to help by purchasing a programme, purchasing some merchandise for this special show, make a donation to one of the charities or if you can't donate right now, you can help by spreading the word on social media.

100% of your donations and 100% of the profits from programmes and merchandise sold will go to the charities.

I can't wait to see you all this weekend.

Love,
Rob x

Apparently Bigelow's experts - who are also Tom DeLonge's experts - believed the "Alien Autopsy" video to be real!

of my Memo 2/23/01 to you, and together they poured over the points that I summarized regarding Kit's evaluation of the Santilli alien autopsy film/video and his official briefings info on same. Kit then realized that he answered in haste mine and Colm's e-mail questions because he was rushed for time during our correspondences. Kit is taking responsibility for using imprecise language and/or not providing us with the complete or accurate details of his briefings information. So he and/or Hal asked that I correct Memo 2/23/01 by inserting some additional information and make minor modifications to the text. There will be NO changes to the APPENDIX (E-mails #1 - 4). Newly added text in Memo 2/23/01 will be notated below by a check mark and modified text will be in bold and italicized.

Since spring 1999 me, Colm and Hal have undertaken a series of back and forth conversations with Kit Green regarding the Roswell Incident aliens, their bodies, the crash retrieval program, the Santilli alien autopsy film/video, etc. The sum of the data Kit has provided us during these conversations has now reached a critical level where we can summarize the following facts:

- Kit was briefed three different times during and after his tenure at CIA on topics relevant to UFOs and the Roswell Incident Alien Autopsy:
  - ✓ Briefing #1: Official briefing at the Pentagon ca. 1981. While Kit was at

SECRETARY OF THE AIR FORCE
WASHINGTON

MAY 19 1994

Dear

As you may know, the General Accounting Office (GAO) has instituted an audit that, among other things, seeks to fully explain the claims that the US Government recovered an alien spacecraft near Roswell, NM, in July 1947 and since that time, has covered up that fact. In an effort to assist the GAO, the Air Force initiated a detailed independent review of our records pertaining to this claim. Your name has been prominently mentioned in regard to this matter.

The bearer of this letter, Colonel Richard L. Weaver, Director, Security and Special Program Oversight is heading this review on my behalf. Colonel Weaver has a TOP SECRET security clearance and is authorized access to all Air Force special access programs. If you have information that you feel may be classified you may share it with Colonel Weaver for this official Air Force purpose, without violating any security agreement you previously made. Clearance information or questions should be addressed to Colonel Tim Kinnan, my Military Assistant, at (703) 697-7378.

I encourage your full cooperation to help the Air Force officially resolve this controversial matter. I appreciate your continued service to the Air Force and thank you in advance for your help.

Sincerely

Sheila E. Widnall

UFOs

In 2007, while he was the Senate Majority Leader, he initiated the Advanced Aerospace Threat Identification Program to study unidentified flying objects[36][37] at the urging of Reid's friend, Nevada billionaire and governmental contractor Robert Bigelow,[38] and with support from the late senators Ted Stevens (R-Alaska) and Daniel Inouye (D-Hawaii), the program began in the DIA in 2007 and was budgeted $22 million over its five years of operation.[39][40][41]

The United States Air Force facility known as Area 51 is located in Reid's home state of Nevada. After the revived interest in the 1970s surrounding the balloon crash that is often referred to as the 1947 Roswell UFO incident, Area 51 was rumored by ufologists and conspiracy theorists to be the U.S. government's storage location for the crashed alien craft for study.[42]

June 24, 2009, letter from Senate Majority Leader Harry Reid to Deputy Secretary of Defense William Lynn regarding the Advanced Aerospace Threat and Identification Program (AATIP)

When interviewed in the aftermath of publicity surrounding the AATIP, Reid expressed pride in his accomplishment, and was quoted as saying "I think it's one of the good things I did in my congressional service. I've done something that no one has done before."[39][41] Reid explained the reasoning behind his sponsorship of the program by saying "I'm interested in science, and in helping the American public understand what the hell is going on" and stated that "hundreds and hundreds of papers" have been available since the program was completed and that "Most all of it, 80 percent at least, is public" adding "I wanted it public, it was made public, and you guys have not even looked at it."[41]

A 2009 letter by Reid was published by KLAS-TV investigative journalists George Knapp and Matt Adams, where the Senator states that AATIP has made "much progress" with the "identification of several highly sensitive, unconventional aerospace-related findings" that will "likely lead to technology advancements" and recommends the creation of a special access program for specific parts of

NEW YORK POST

Truth is in here: $770B defense bill includes agency to investigate UFOs

http://pbs.twimg.com/media/FGtrgaCVIAAgGrh.jpg

A provision buried deep in the $770 billion annual defense bill that the US Senate passed on Wednesday calls for the creation of a new agency to investigate reports of UFO sightings.

Under Section 1683 of the National Defense Authorization Act for fiscal 2022, Defense Secretary Lloyd Austin and National Intelligence Director Avril Haines have to establish an “office, organizational structure, and authorities to address unidentified aerial phenomena” within 180 days of when President Biden signs the bill into law.

Dear [redacted]

Thank you for taking the time to contact me with your concerns regarding unidentified aerial phenomena (UAP). As your senator, it is important to me that I hear from you.

I appreciate hearing your support for Senator Kirsten Gillibrand's amendment to establish the Anomaly Surveillance and Resolution Office in place of the UAP Task Force. It would also require the Department of Defense to submit annual reports to Congress regarding UAP.

You may be interested to know that on June 25, 2021, a report regarding a preliminary assessment on UAP was provided to Congress following the enactment of the Intelligence Authorization Act (IAA) for fiscal year 2021. The fiscal year 2021 IAA directed the Office of the Director of National Intelligence to submit a report to Congress within 180 days, and there was no requirement for additional reports. With that being said, S.2610, the Intelligence Authorization Act (IAA) for fiscal year 2022 includes a provision directing the Office of the Director of National Intelligence to submit its next report on UAP within 90 days after enactment of the bill and at least quarterly moving forward.

You can find the preliminary assessment on UAP at https://www.dni.gov/files/ODNI/documents/assessments/Prelimary-Assessment-UAP-20210625.pdf

As your senator, I will continue to evaluate legislation that comes before the Senate regarding U.S. policies related to UAP.

Thank you again for contacting me. Please do not hesitate to reach out if I can be of any help in the future. Keep in touch.

Sincerely,

Chuck

RT @WitnessCitizen: Another interesting Vallee find

http://pbs.twimg.com/media/FGfpB2YXEAMfkIp.jpg

[Vallee]: Again, I'm interested mainly in their symbolic contents.

Let me explain what I mean. We live in a society that is oriented toward technology. So when we see something unusual in the sky, we think of it in physical terms. How is it manufactured? What makes it tick? What is its propulsion system? We tend to assume that the physical phenomenon is its most important aspect and that everything else is just a side effect and much less important.

But perhaps we're facing something which is basically a social technology. Perhaps the most important effects from the UFO technology are the social ones and not the physical ones. In other words, the physical reality may serve only as a kind of triggering device to provide images for the witness to report. These perceptions are manipulated to create certain kinds of social effects.

If that's true, then the abduction cases are quite revealing. I am not concerned with how many switches there were on the control panel or whether the percipient felt hot or cold when he was inside the flying saucer. Those questions may be totally irrelevant because maybe that person never actually went inside the object.

But the report is extremely important for its symbolic content. It can help us understand what kinds of images are coming through. One might illustrate the difference in this way:

An engineer observing a computer would want to look at the back and open up the boxes. He would want to take a probe and examine the different parts of the computer. But there is another way of looking at it -- the way of the programmer who wants to sit in front of the computer and analyze what it does, not how it does it. That's my approach. I want to ask it questions and see what answers I get. I want to interact with it as an information entity.

In the case of the abductions, I think we're dealing with the information aspect. I came to that conclusion because abduction cases -- in close encounter cases, in general -- what the witness is saying is absurd.

[Clark]: What do you mean?

[Vallee]: I don't mean simply to imply that the account is silly. I mean it has absurdity as a semantic construction. If you're trying to express something which is beyond the comprehension of a subject, you have to do it through statements that appear contradictory or seem absurd. For example, in Zen Buddhism the seeker must deal with such concepts as "the sound of one hand clapping" -- an apparently preposterous notion which is designed to break down ordinary ways of thinking. The occurrences of similar "absurd" messages in UFO cases brought me to the idea that maybe we're dealing with a sort of "control system" that is subtly manipulating human consciousness.

RT @AFSUnidentified: @BrianMassUFO We need Senators to know that USDI is trying to kill the significance of UAP. http://pbs.twimg.com/media/FFVyR1lXEAYYUi_.jpg

Important update: Before anyone gets too excited about the recent Pentagon announcement of a new UAP group, please consider the following:

A. USDI is precisely the same organization that has underplayed and tried to kill the UAP effort for years.

B. USDI is an oversight organization and non-operational.

C. Nowhere is there a requirement to provide unclassified findings to Congress, or work with our international partners.

Given that elements still exist in the Pentagon who are actively underplaying the significance of this topic, this is akin to giving an alcoholic the key and control to the liquor cabinet.

If you want to maintain UAP/UFO secrecy, this is exactly how to do it. This is a direct and blatant attempt to circumvent and undermine the Senate, @SenGillibrand, @SenRubioPress, @RepRubenGallego, @MartinHeinrich, @RepTimBurchett and others.

Please, please, please contact your representatives and let them know this is unacceptable and not in the best interest of the American people. The USDI is the one single office that has continuously lied about this topic and persecuted whistleblowers.

1 of 2 I openly apologise to anyone Iâ□□ve offended recently. Iâ□□m going through some stuff since the passing of my mother earlier this year and the truth is mental health is a real bitch. My passion alone for this subject is what gets me through some days.

Anyone who knows me personally, knows this year has been extremely tough and at times, thereâs days I wish I wasnât here. The drama on here, isnât worth it. I guess you have to draw line somewhere when this shit starts effecting your mental health. Take care ufoTwitter. :victory_hand_light_skin_tone::red_heart:

In closing, this has never been about me. Weâve just tried to bring more eyes to this subject over the years. If I am honest being a part of this hasnât done me any favours professionally and in my personal life. Whatever your passion you will always get vindictive individuals.

I think itâs possibly time to leave this platform. The whole thing is very clique. Thereâs some awesome folk doing this and pushing this subject forwards but unfortunately there are those who are doing this for all the wrong reasons. The problem is, everyone wants to be the guy.

We live in a world where people think they can attack you personally and professionally online and have zero repercussions or blow back. When you finally react as youâve had enough, they then cry foul immediately and make you out to be troll. All because theyâre territorial. :man_facepalming_medium-light_skin_tone:

RT @TheProjectUnity: Lue Elizondo gives Susan Gough a piece of his mind in this letter
http://pbs.twimg.com/media/FBlfcRyVUAEUAdl.png

(b)(5); (b)(6)

[redacted]

From: [redacted]
Sent: Wednesday, June 3, 2020 12:10 PM
To: Gough, Susan L (Sue) CIV OSD PA (USA) <(b)(6)
Subject: [Non-DoD Source] REF: AATIP - - ATTENTION: Ms. Gough; Request for Department Action

Ms. Gough,

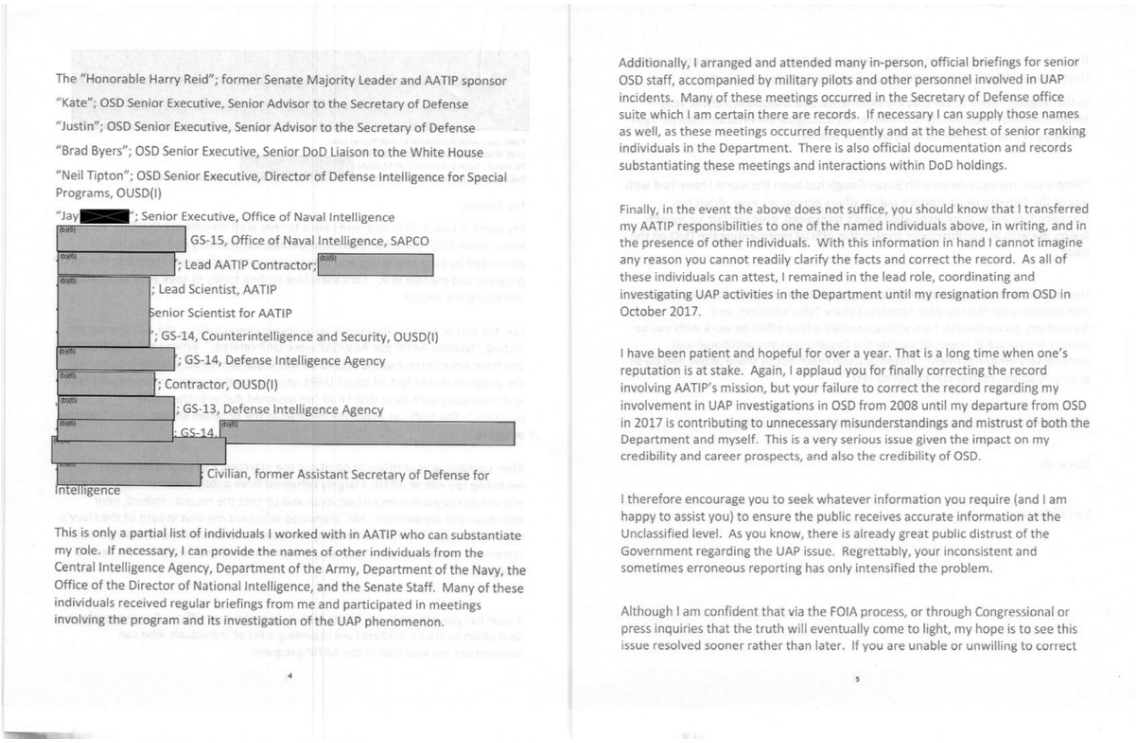

My name is Luis D. Elizondo, and I am a former staff member of OUSD(I). As you know, since 2017 there has been considerable controversy and confusion generated by your conflicting and often inaccurate statements regarding the AATIP program and my role in it. I am therefore writing today to seek your assistance in correcting the record.

Last fall you released a statement erroneously characterizing the AATIP program, stating, "Neither AATIP nor AAWSAP were UAP related." While I am delighted that you have since corrected the record on this important issue, acknowledging that the program was in fact all about UAPs, you have yet to amend your equally false and misleading comment that I had "no assigned duties in the AATIP program." The truth, as everyone involved in the program knows, is that I ran the program.

After contacting your office to point out the inaccuracy of your statements regarding my role at AATIP, I largely refrained from public comment assuming that you would review this important issue and correct the record. Indeed, your colleague and predecessor, Mr. Sherwood informed me that in light of the Navy's recent admission of my involvement, the Department would be releasing a new statement in the near term that would exonerate me and finally set the record straight.

A year has gone by and I am losing faith in you and your office. Consequently, in a final effort to clarify matters I am providing a list of individuals who can substantiate my lead role in the AATIP program:

http://pbs.twimg.com/media/FBlfcRyUYAIhXee.png

The "Honorable Harry Reid"; former Senate Majority Leader and AATIP sponsor

"Kate"; OSD Senior Executive, Senior Advisor to the Secretary of Defense

"Justin"; OSD Senior Executive, Senior Advisor to the Secretary of Defense

"Brad Byers"; OSD Senior Executive, Senior DoD Liaison to the White House

"Neil Tipton"; OSD Senior Executive, Director of Defense Intelligence for Special Programs, OUSD(I)

"Jay [redacted]"; Senior Executive, Office of Naval Intelligence

[redacted] GS-15, Office of Naval Intelligence, SAPCO

[redacted]; Lead AATIP Contractor; [redacted]

[redacted]; Lead Scientist, AATIP

[redacted] Senior Scientist for AATIP

[redacted]; GS-14, Counterintelligence and Security, OUSD(I)

[redacted]; GS-14, Defense Intelligence Agency

[redacted]; Contractor, OUSD(I)

[redacted]; GS-13, Defense Intelligence Agency

[redacted]; GS-14, [redacted]

[redacted]; Civilian, former Assistant Secretary of Defense for Intelligence

This is only a partial list of individuals I worked with in AATIP who can substantiate my role. If necessary, I can provide the names of other individuals from the Central Intelligence Agency, Department of the Army, Department of the Navy, the Office of the Director of National Intelligence, and the Senate Staff. Many of these individuals received regular briefings from me and participated in meetings involving the program and its investigation of the UAP phenomenon.

Additionally, I arranged and attended many in-person, official briefings for senior OSD staff, accompanied by military pilots and other personnel involved in UAP incidents. Many of these meetings occurred in the Secretary of Defense office suite which I am certain there are records. If necessary I can supply those names as well, as these meetings occurred frequently and at the behest of senior ranking individuals in the Department. There is also official documentation and records substantiating these meetings and interactions within DoD holdings.

Finally, in the event the above does not suffice, you should know that I transferred my AATIP responsibilities to one of the named individuals above, in writing, and in the presence of other individuals. With this information in hand I cannot imagine any reason you cannot readily clarify the facts and correct the record. As all of these individuals can attest, I remained in the lead role, coordinating and investigating UAP activities in the Department until my resignation from OSD in October 2017.

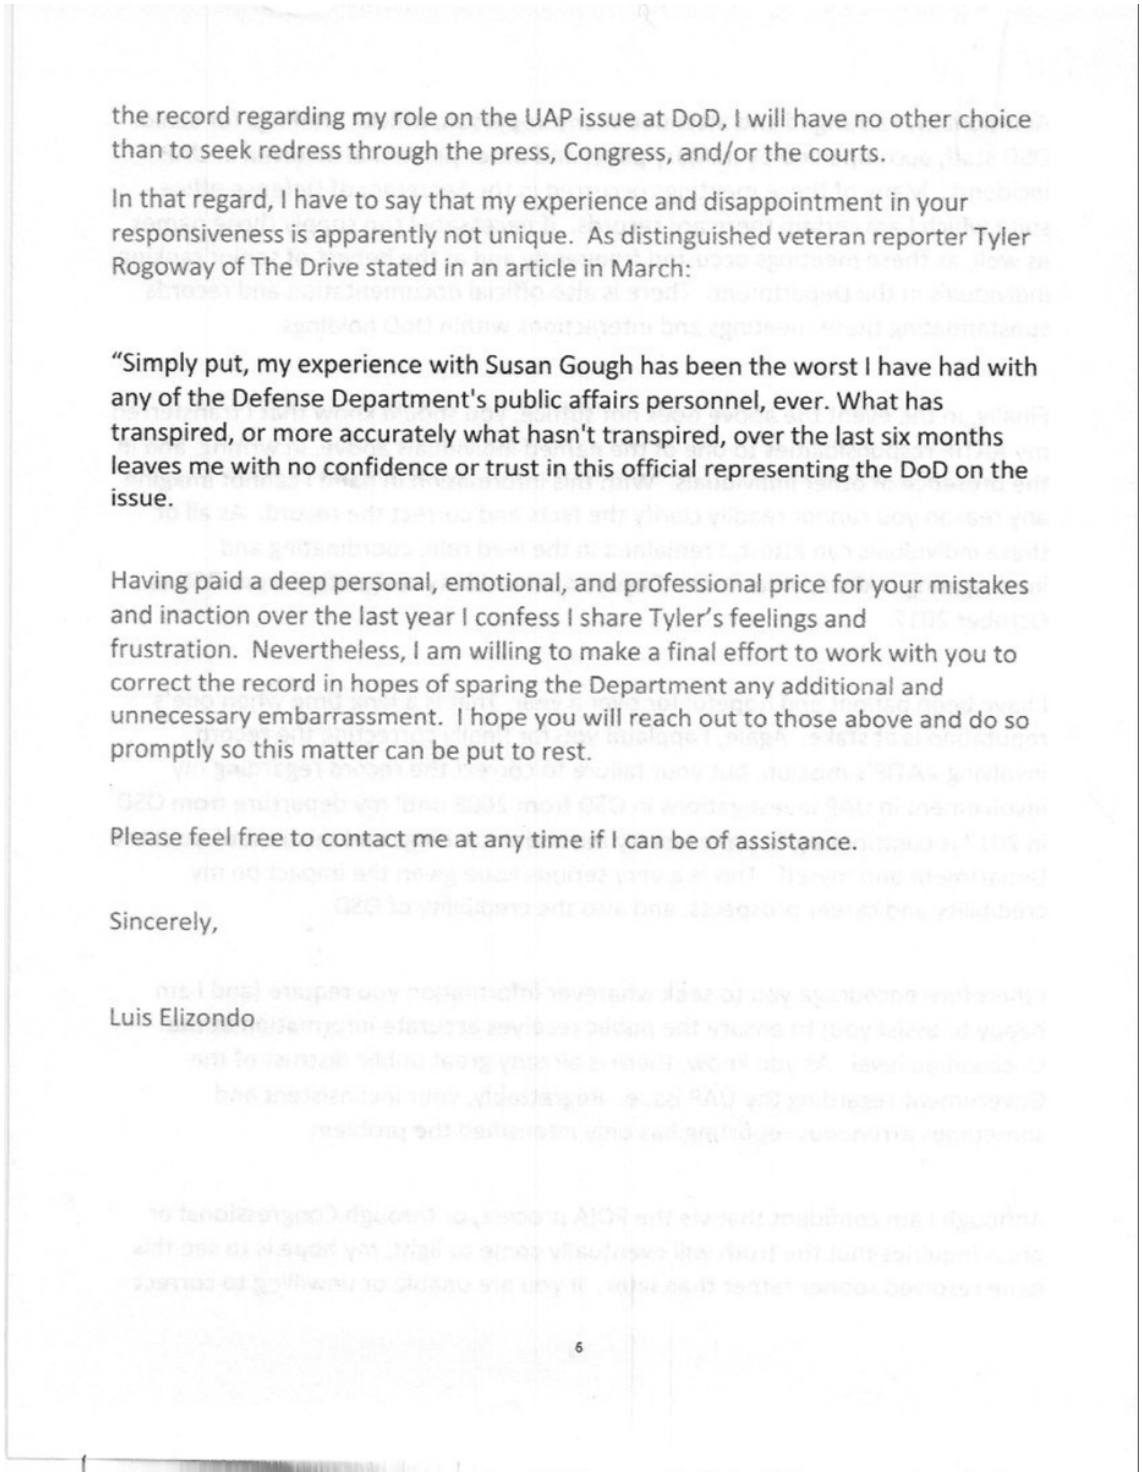

I have been patient and hopeful for over a year. That is a long time when one's reputation is at stake. Again, I applaud you for finally correcting the record involving AATIP's mission, but your failure to correct the record regarding my involvement in UAP investigations in OSD from 2008 until my departure from OSD in 2017 is contributing to unnecessary misunderstandings and mistrust of both the Department and myself. This is a very serious issue given the impact on my credibility and career prospects, and also the credibility of OSD.

I therefore encourage you to seek whatever information you require (and I am happy to assist you) to ensure the public receives accurate information at the Unclassified level. As you know, there is already great public distrust of the Government regarding the UAP issue. Regrettably, your inconsistent and sometimes erroneous reporting has only intensified the problem.

Although I am confident that via the FOIA process, or through Congressional or press inquiries that the truth will eventually come to light, my hope is to see this issue resolved sooner rather than later. If you are unable or unwilling to correct

http://pbs.twimg.com/media/FBlfcRxVIAM1Pp4.png

the record regarding my role on the UAP issue at DoD, I will have no other choice than to seek redress through the press, Congress, and/or the courts.

In that regard, I have to say that my experience and disappointment in your responsiveness is apparently not unique. As distinguished veteran reporter Tyler Rogoway of The Drive stated in an article in March:

"Simply put, my experience with Susan Gough has been the worst I have had with any of the Defense Department's public affairs personnel, ever. What has transpired, or more accurately what hasn't transpired, over the last six months leaves me with no confidence or trust in this official representing the DoD on the issue.

Having paid a deep personal, emotional, and professional price for your mistakes and inaction over the last year I confess I share Tyler's feelings and frustration. Nevertheless, I am willing to make a final effort to work with you to correct the record in hopes of sparing the Department any additional and unnecessary embarrassment. I hope you will reach out to those above and do so promptly so this matter can be put to rest.

Please feel free to contact me at any time if I can be of assistance.

Sincerely,

Luis Elizondo

Sean Ellard continues his look at the growing debate over the presence in our skies – or not – of UAPs/UFOs

Distance is one of those things that can bring immense comfort or incredible unease depending on the situation and the individual.

When fighter pilots engage with a target, being able to close the gap quickly or manoeuvre away faster is an essential element to helping maintain the upper hand.

But fighter pilots have to be comfortable in all the spaces in-between, whether as close or as far as possible.

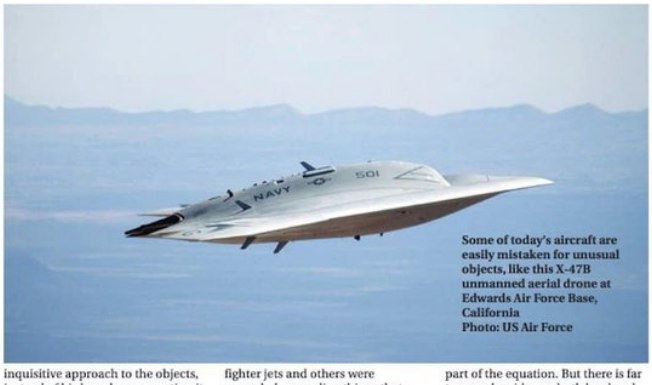

Another day at the office

Former US F/A-18F pilot and member of the famed strike fighter squadron, The Red Rippers, Lt. Ryan Graves is a noted military tactician, artificial intelligence, quantum mechanics and autonomous drone specialist. He also happens to be one of a handful people, out of billions on earth, who has had dozens of first-hand encounters with strange objects in the sky. Armed with skills of observation and assessment, the Pentagon spent a fortune refining and training him to apply those skills in high-stress situations while engaged in mental synchronicity with some of the most advanced technology fighter planes carry. So, when he says there are strange objects in the sky that demand a massive, co-ordinated, public fact-finding mission to understand what is happening, there is probably a good reason.

A decade ago, when Graves says he first began encountering these objects, they initially appeared as singles and doubles. They would turn up while flying his missions and exercises, mainly out of Virginia, off the US Atlantic Coast – where the bulk of its Eastern Navy fleet is based.

According to Graves, the objects he saw were always cubes in transparent spheres – about ten feet or so in diameter – the four corners of which seemed to touch the inner lining of the bubble. They moved incredibly fast, had amazing maneuverability, and seemed to behave in ways that implied intelligence. But there was never any direct communication with the objects.

Looking back, the former pilot says he wished he took a more inquisitive approach to the objects, instead of his broader assumption it was likely a covert military project. Over time, he came to realize that was likely far from reality – at least any reality he understood.

Some of today's aircraft are easily mistaken for unusual objects, like this X-47B unmanned aerial drone at Edwards Air Force Base, California

Common concern

It wasn't until he spent time flying off the coast of Florida that he discovered pilots there were constantly encountering 'Gimbal' shaped Unidentified Aerial Phenomena (UAPs) while flying in that area. According to Graves, the cubes in spheres and the Gimbal shape were the only two crafts seen regularly by military pilots off the Atlantic coast – while pilots on the Pacific coast were encountering different shaped objects, like the Tic Tac. Graves was unable to account for the difference in shapes and regional differences or speculate why. Regardless of the shape, it was the changing behaviours that really grabbed his attention – and continues to hold it firmly in its grasp.

For Graves, the craft went from appearing as singles and doubles – to much larger groups in recent years, flying in formation, performing synchronised movements. No more lone flyers – they were making a much larger presence known – for unknown reasons. Actions that are still being witnessed by pilots – it hasn't stopped. But there are also more of them in the skies than before.

The expert in military technology says many of the objects were not observable with the naked eye until the systems they were using in the fighter jets and others were upgraded – revealing things that they hadn't noticed before. But once they started to see them, the flood gates opened. Almost as if some objects may be able to allow themselves to be seen by humans at will.

Mindful of the situation

When I asked him to speak about the reported negative health effects some of these encounters seem to have had on pilots – including potentially himself – Graves was cautious, only to admit pilots don't like to talk about their health – mental or otherwise. He did acknowledge more research, funding and support infrastructure is needed to help pilots deal with the psychological impact of these encounters – and the job in general – something he felt was long overdue and will only grow in necessity over time.

When it came to speculation about foreign governments or private corporations as the true source of these strange objects, he was happy to concede that is likely a part of the equation. But there is far too much evidence, both hard and anecdotal, plus a lot of common sense, that shows it is not the whole answer.

Hiding in plain sight

You can only hide so much for so long. If there is a giant manufacturing infrastructure producing crafts out of the rarest, hardest to find materials on earth – for 80 years or more – including some materials with reported atomic structures that don't originate in our part of the Milky Way – someone is going to eventually notice the food truck outside the factory. Graves admits it would be nearly impossible to hide that kind of mass military manufacturing for that long with so many high-level groups and individuals out of the loop. Everything leaves crumbs. That kind of operation would leave a trail of bags of flour behind. Particularly given the high number seen around the world in different countries over history, possibly as far back as thousands of years. It doesn't fit together as a really plausible explanation.

> You can only hide so much for so long. If there is a giant manufacturing infrastructure producing crafts out of the rarest, hardest to find materials on earth, someone is going to notice the food truck outside the factory. Everything leaves crumbs. That kind of operation would leave a trail of bags of flour behind...

Come together right now

Graves also claimed to have no knowledge of the many reported sightings of extremely large UAPs, some the size of football stadiums or bigger, sometimes allegedly seen discharging smaller, moving objects. Graves is very much a 'facts first' person who leaves the speculation to others. For him, there is just too much hard data about observable concerns already front-and-centre to bother going down rabbit holes reaching after other speculative stories. Take the bird in the hand. That is why he is helping spearhead efforts with his leader role with the Unidentified Aerospace Phenomena Community of Interest to help gather and promote a public data source of useful information about this issue to help bring as many minds together to work on this for the greater public good.

Graves admits that what he has seen, along with his buddies who still are flying, remains beyond the scope and scale of their equipment, knowledge and experience to give a clear understanding of these things or where they are coming from. When you've had the kind of storied military career as he's had, becoming one of the most important people in the sky defending the United States, he is literally in a small class of exceptional pilots. But if what he saw tells him that this is something we are not properly dealing with as a society, which other important voices should we be listening to that are saying otherwise?

Where they are coming from and why, the former Naval Aviator doesn't know. But he says this is likely not a singular issue or phenomenon, just something that is as complex and multi-faceted as the modern weapons of war he used to fly. He also adds, like so many others, that it could be from something that is already among us here on earth – not travelling from the far away distance of another world.

That's an idea that is much easier to digest by the pubic masses as whole, when the idea of a possible other-worldly threat has to come from far, far away – rather than the very unnerving idea that distance between us and something else is much closer than we think – which should be enough to push all of us to want to close this vast knowledge gap – even faster.

RD: It causes many, many mistaken UFO reports. But back to the the so-called drone encounters. I mean, does it seem realistic to you, that the Russians or Chinese would actually be able to have drones that could come right up to these Navy destroyers, which are equipped with incredible, electronic detection systems, and just like…appear. Because as far as we've been able to learn, that seems to be the case. Like, whatever these things were, just…boom, came right there.

DEPUTY SECRETARY OF DEFENSE
1010 DEFENSE PENTAGON
WASHINGTON, DC 20301-1010

JUN 25 2021

MEMORANDUM FOR SENIOR PENTAGON LEADERSHIP
COMMANDERS OF THE COMBATANT COMMANDS
DEFENSE AGENCY AND DOD FIELD ACTIVITY DIRECTORS

SUBJECT: Unidentified Aerial Phenomena Assessments

A recent report from the Office of the Director of National Intelligence (ODNI) highlights the current challenges associated with assessing Unidentified Aerial Phenomena (UAP) occurring on or near DoD training ranges and installations. It is critical that the United States maintain operations security and safety at DoD ranges. To this end, it is equally critical that all U.S. military aircrews or government personnel report whenever aircraft or other devices interfere with military training. This includes the observation and reporting of UAPs.

The report also confirmed that the scope of UAP activity expands significantly beyond the purview of the Secretary of the Navy, who heads the Unidentified Aerial Phenomena Task Force (UAPTF), and suggested process improvements to ensure timely collection of consistent data on UAP. Consistent with these recommendations and to improve partnership with the ODNI and other non-DoD organizations, I direct the Office of the Under Secretary of Defense for Intelligence and Security to develop a plan to formalize the mission currently performed by the UAPTF. The plan should:

1. Establish procedures to synchronize collection, reporting and analysis on the UAP problem set, and to establish recommendations for securing military test and training ranges.

2. Identify requirements for the establishment and operation of the new activity, to include the organizational alignment, resources and staffing required, as well as any necessary authorities and a timeline for implementation.

3. Be developed in coordination with the Principal Staff Assistants, the Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, the Secretaries of the Military Departments, and the Commanders of the Combatant Commands and with the DNI and other relevant interagency partners.

All members of the Department will utilize these processes to ensure that the UAPTF, or its follow-on activity, has reports of UAP observations within two weeks of an occurrence.

RT @bradheath: Oh, hey, meanwhile the Navy is weighing in on UFOs.

Video here: https://www.navair.navy.mil/foia/documents

http://pbs.twimg.com/media/EWnWrxVUMAALCAC.png

Media colleagues,

The below statement is attributable to Ms. Sue Gough, Pentagon spokesperson.

The Department of Defense has authorized the release of three unclassified Navy videos, one taken in November 2004 and the other two in January 2015, which have been circulating in the public domain after unauthorized releases in 2007 and 2017. The U.S. Navy previously acknowledged that these videos circulating in the public domain were indeed Navy videos. After a thorough review, the department has determined that the authorized release of these unclassified videos does not reveal any sensitive capabilities or systems, and does not impinge on any subsequent investigations of military air space incursions by unidentified aerial phenomena. DOD is releasing the videos in order to clear up any misconceptions by the public on whether or not the footage that has been circulating was real, or whether or not there is more to the videos. The aerial phenomena observed in the videos remain characterized as "unidentified." The released videos can be found at the Naval Air Systems Command FOIA Reading Room: https://www.navair.navy.mil/foia/documents.

Regards,
Duty Officer

@ThreeUKSupport if youâ□□re considering Thereâ□□s offer of the HUAWEI AI cube on their unlimited deal, stay clear the speeds are initially good. But using this service to watch @NOWTV or @NetflixUK and youâ□□ll get rubbish speeds and constant buffering. Â£20 a month for this is a con.
