@dave_beaty @MiddleOfMayhem Now all I have said before related to the AAWSAP. What about the AAWSAP sub project AATIP? This secured $10m for FY13 & 13 but was high jacked.

https://twitter.com/_/status/1540656553111728128

@dave_beaty @MiddleOfMayhem FY11 Oct 2010 to Sep 2011. The project had no money. FY12. Money available no contract awarded. FY13. $10m available to DHS they didn't take it up.

https://twitter.com/_/status/1540652124463562752

@dave_beaty @MiddleOfMayhem My understanding is: Year 1. Oct 2008-Sep 2009 $10m. Year 2 Oct 2009 to Sep 2010. $12m. BAASS ran the project till Dec 2010 at no additional cost to the USG. No further money from USG to BAASS beyond Dec 2010.

Precise quotes, 15/7/18 C2C Knapp/Elizondo re BAASS. Knapp "Did you coordinate with them? Did you have access to what they did and vice versa?" Elizondo "Yes." K "Would you have seen Skinwalker Ranch material for example?" E "Yes."

Another point from the previously unaired 2018 Knapp/Elizondo interview.

At one point Knapp says "What about Skinwalker Ranch? Did you get reports on that? Or can you say?"

Elizondo responds "I would prefer to defer that question if that's okay."

In the previously unaired June 2018 Knapp/Elizondo interview; Elizondo states that when he joined the program, its name had just changed from AAWSAP to AATIP. The name AAWSAP was only used for 9 months (from Sept 2008.) It was then AATIP.

Last month TTSA advisor Chris Mellon wrote a piece posing the question why US govt agencies were not trawling through their data for UAP information? I found a 2002 article on the former NIDS website, which raised the same issue. Please take a look at

<https://ufos-scientificresearch.blogspot.com/2019/12/mellon-scheussler-nids-and-us-dod.html>

2019-12-17T01:31:06+00:00

@LtTimMcMillan Although Gough refers to two 2015 videos in the December 2017 New York Times article; I believe the two videos embedded in the article were of the 2004 FLIR video and the other was the 2015 Gimbal. Thus Gough's statement about two 2015 videos in the NYT article is incorrect.

that NIDS itself conducted an investigation into the case

On last night's "UFO Classified" a former BAASS employee stated that he had confirmed, via other former BAASS employees, that James T Lacatski, DIA manager, AAWSAP did visit

Bigelow's Utah ranch. <https://t.co/rdsY325qlu>

Further to my recent blog posts about the testimony of two former BAASS employees; I have been reminded about the 2012 testimony of a third such security guard. I write about his statements, at <https://ufos-scientificresearch.blogspot.com/2019/10/a-third-former-baass-employee-spoke-out.html>

Reflecting on Elizondo's comment that some of TTSA's UFO fragments come from "governmental" sources. Some commentators have suggested this rules out the fragments that Art Bell acquired. However, the original source of Bell's fragments was cited as being the US Army.

In 2005 the book "Hunt for the Skinwalker" provided details on a sighting on the Skinwalker ranch, involving a "tunnel" and a "creature." Has anyone heard any results from the Irish equivalent of the FAA re that UFO reported by pilots in November. We were all excited by the news reports. Is there an official report of findings?

In about 2013, an account appeared on reddit, which seemed to be a slightly distorted reporting of the November 2004 Nimitz events. However, when I re-read the details, it mentioned "seizure of data." So, I have revisited this reddit account in a post at <https://ufos-scientificresearch.blogspot.com/2019/01/did-someone-remove-data-about-2004.html>

According to this source element 115's most stable isotope has a half life of 0.8 seconds. Every 0.8 secs there is only half the original sample left. If this is correct, then what is left of the amount Lazar originally had is truly minute by now. <https://en.m.wikipedia.org/wiki/Moscovium> attendees.

@EngagingThe @AHome4Electrons Agreed. It needs a) a UAP sighting which can't be explained as something conventional plus b) an analysis of a sample seen to come from the Uap, with unusual isotopic ratios plus c) evidence that it has been manufactured in a weightless environment ie space.

At the Rome CUN meeting a slide was shown by Elizondo which contained images of "samples." I think 7 is from the "Arts Parts" collection, and 11 is the Bob White artifact. Can anyone identify any of the others? Thanks to Antonio De Comite for the photograph.

@CurtCollins579 I guess, only time will tell. We didn't have Lacatski's list of BAASS AAWSAP till late last year so no-one could have submitted an FOIA request till then for the non DIRD docs. Except we know that Jack Brewer asked for one non DIRD file by name and DIA said no records.

am no photo expert and therefore rely on those who have expertise in this area. As the two part report says a few such people think the photo is a fake. VUFORS accepted it as real.

I have prepared a second article with further information about the contents of that 1961 document. Hopefully, my two posts on this will assist people form a judgement as to whether or not the document is genuine.

3/4 Does Wilson have a piece of an unknown fragment, which has been analysed and shown to be extra-terrestrial? No, he does not. We simply have a story, told to a US government official. If it wasn't for Edgar Mitchell, we wouldn't even have that story.

https://twitter.com/_/status/1269523771360022528

2/4 We have evidence that Wilson met some individuals who told him a story about reverse engineering a non-Earthly craft. However, does Wilson say he was shown that craft? No, he does not. Does Wilson have any evidence that such a craft physically exists? No, he does not.

1/4 I have been thinking about the Davis/Wilson document. Let us assume now, that the meeting between Davis and Wilson, in 2002, did occur. Furthermore, let us assume that what Wilson said happened, did in fact transpire. What exactly, do we have?

3/4 The DIA official "He Who Must Not Be Named" went to Skinwalker Ranch with Bigelow and others, and saw something unusual out of the corner of his eye. No one else saw it.

There have been no TTSA updates on the US Securities and Exchange Commission website since 27 September 2019. One should be due shortly. Usually they give details of their plans for the next six months.

Today, we learnt that Swedish researcher Clas Svahn had received a "no responsive records" from the DIA re his request about AATIP. Will all such requests be negative? I explore the continuing confusion about FOIAs around AATIP and AAWSAP at <https://ufos-scientificresearch.blogspot.com/2020/02/another-dia-aatipaawsap-reply-under-foia.html>

Shortly after TTSA's Chris Mellon spoke out about US government high tech sensors and their use in studying UAP; a private company (not TTSA) has announced it will collect data about UAP and analyze it. An intriguing development. My summary at <https://ufos-scientificresearch.blogspot.com/2020/02/a-private-company-plans-to-collect-data.html>

Popular knowledge says that BAASS closed down. Yet if you search ""Nevada Secretary of State Businesses" and type in BAASS's full name, it tells you that BAASS as a business entity is still "active." Can anyone explain this apparent anomaly?

Further to the two BAASS ID badges which were shown earlier today. If you go to Ryan Skinner's website, the original source of the two badges; you will actually find a third ID badge image there. The third one is for Robert Bigelow himself.

Tim McMillan's new article refers to a BAASS/DIA "commercial in confidence" agreement. Some work by myself and Jack Brewer produced supportive evidence.
