Regarding "Area 51" - Latest First

Lets Think

In politics an unwritten rule is evident enough to conclude the partial identity of alien conspiracy. This rule can be observed like this: Why is the equation(gov+conspiracy=coverup*) answered-(gov. coverup)? A pre-formulated plan is the reason why answers are non existant. The obvious (gov involvement) can conclude that the gov. is not responsible and Secret govnmnts. are. Above the law would be my choice to conceal top secret technology (51,A4,N9).

Conspiracy

I think that the government is doing something they dont want us to know about. They have high tech security, false statements on record, and no logical explanation for the incident in Roswell. In 1997 the government released a 231 page statement claiming that the bodies some thought were dead aliens were actually "dummies." Give me a break!!!

Area 51 (red herring)

I personally think that the US government runs Area51 as a red herring so that the majority of investigators will focus their attention on that area , leaving other bases open to testing on anything that they want without fear of intrusion .
