Date:    Fri, 5 Aug 1994 08:25:18 LCL
From:    Jeffrey P Wendt <jeffrey_p_wendt@JPLPOST.JPL.NASA.GOV>
Subject: Re: psychosophy

In article <31s16b$ljr@eis.calstate.edu> mkavana@eis.calstate.edu (Michael G.
Kavanaugh) writes:
>Path:
grover.jpl.nasa.gov!netline-fddi.jpl.nasa.gov!elroy.jpl.nasa.gov!usc!nic-nac.CS
U.net!ctp.org!not-for-mail
>From: mkavana@eis.calstate.edu (Michael G. Kavanaugh) >Newsgroups: alt.paranet.ufo
>Subject: Re: psychosophy
>Date: 4 Aug 1994 17:30:03 -0700
>Organization: California Technology Project of The Calif State Univ
>Lines: 7
>Message-ID: <31s16b$ljr@eis.calstate.edu>
>References: <peterm.30.000BB905@ucsd.edu>
>NNTP-Posting-Host: eis.calstate.edu

>Your spelling is all wrong if looking for the "Desert Rat".  Try >PSYCHOSPY@AOL.COM and mention the "Desert Rat" to recieve the thought >provoking, mind bending needed from time to time. Needless to >say.....it's interesting reading.  I'm a fan of the AREA myself and have >recently been looking into the idea of visiting PsychoSpy.

>Good luck and enjoy.

FYI, be aware that there is a persistant rumor that Glen (PSYCHOSPY@AOL.COM) has a 'death pool' against him.  It has also been rumored that certain people in Coral Gables would like to see him have an 'accident'.   I'm not trying to dissuade you from going, but be aware that Glen has made many enemies; including some ex-associates.  So distance yourself somewhat, be suspect of 'uninvited religious guests' at Glen's trailer, and be carefull in your selection of tour guides; it might just be a little too "mind bending", look what happened to Danny Casallero.

JPW

Ps. It is also common knowledge (and courtesy) not to piss-off the local    Sheriff (Deputy Doug) so don't play silly childrens games like locking car doors, and being a 'smart-ass', as Alamo is a long way for your parents or spouse to come bail your ass out.  BTW, if you are polite he is a very friendly guy, and you have no reason to pull an attitude with him; unless you WANT trouble.