It's about time you stopped this inane rhetoric about Hungarian. You started it all, and were the the focal point for credible information, then you lost all credibility with this Hungarian shit.....You can't just pass the touch though, to Tikaboo....why don't you just STOP with the Hungarian and go back to good journalism?

and none of that "can't return to the days of yore" crap...it's simple, you just stop writing about shit, and start getting back to Area-51.

Have you ever considered this, (and this is just a theory, not some stupid conspiracy thing or what have you) : maby there is no government dis-information program, because as the Rat clearly shows, the ufo community has the innate ability to discredit itself.
