Subject: Just saw "Nixon".... without hate

I just got back from seeing the movie "Nixon," and let me tell you, I'm making my enemies list. All you people on this newsgroup must really hate me, but I don't have to take it. One of these days, you people won't have Glenn Campbell to kick around any more. Then what will you do? What will you say to each other?

You see, people may hate you, but they don't win unless you hate them back. I'm not going to hate, but I do need to plug the leaks. I want volunteers, call them my "plumbers," who will plug the leaks and tell me who my enemies are. But I don't know if I can trust any of you. I know all of you hate me, even the ones who pretend to be defending me. I can see that when you try to kiss up to Glenn Campbell all you really want is my power. You don't care about me, you really hate me, because I'm not a prettyboy rich kid like Kennedy. Everybody loves Kennedy.

And let make this perfectly clear: Don't believe any of that Oliver Stone horseshit about me - er, Nixon - playing some vague role in the Kennedy assassination. Oliver Stone really hates me, too. Those missing 18 minutes are none of your goddamn business, because those are MY tapes, I worked all my life for those tapes, but let me tell you this: There's nothing on those tapes that has anything to do with the death of John Kennedy, or Bobby, even if those tragic events helped clear my path to the presidency. What was on those 18 minutes you're never going to find out, because I can keep secrets, and some things humanity shouldn't have to deal with. Let me just say that Richard Nixon is deeper than you thought, and Richard Nixon knows how to protect the planet.

I am not a crook!
