The Trouble Brewing photo:

It was a little while before hand, while you were stamping the signs on the ground and chanting. Before the dedication and the unveiling. You can tell he was stewing...

The younger guy with the dark hair who was with you, did he mention that Ray "bumped" him while walking by? One of those shoulder bumps while passing him in the crowd. He seemed to put an awful lot of effort into the nudge...

Unfortunately, I didnt have the camera ready.
