Subject: Agent X Appearance on MTV, April 27

I will, or I should say, my alter ego Agent X will appear on the critically-acclaimed program ZOO-TV on MTV this coming Sunday the 27th. The episode is about real alternative lifestyles -- a production crew came to Juneau and we cheesed-up some simulated X activities. Check your local TV guide for show time -- it will be in the late evening right before 120 Minutes. Enjoy.
