WHAT!!!

I've lived in Tooele. Graduated from Tooele High '66, My father worked at the depot there my brother-in-law and brother still do. This area is in north/east Utah, maybe 400 miles (as the crow flies) from Area 51.

There is no hills on the depot and no buildings on a hill. I do not remember any hanger on the base just shops for overhauling military vehicles and storing chemical weapons.

I have as a civilian/non military been on the base/depot and lived in the area for several years and have not seen or heard anything about UFO's at Tooele Army Depot.

The writer must have his wires crossed, or be a dim bulb to think TAD is Area 51.

I do have some knowledge of the area. My home email is RandyJ2@aol.com.

From Glenn:

I don't think anyone said there were hills at Tooele.

The original message concerned Dugway, "50 miles S. of Toella, UT".

See <http://www.angelfire.com/ar/TheArkansasSky/letter.html>

BTW: I note, above, that even a native can mess up on "Toele" spelling.
