I must say that as an Arizona resident, I disagree strongly with your assesment of kingman. It is indeed a pit. Everyone wearing wife-beater tank tops and drinking three year old Meister-Brau. And also as a nine year old, I would have hated spending 75% of my day in the car. You might also want to consider that most people don't begin to enjoy natural beauty until they hit their mid teens. Your son will probably love Vegas and be unimpressed with moving rocks. The kid in me certainly does appreciate the neon whenever I visit for a few days of wasting my money. Why not leave the kid at home?
