Is this something new? Courts now recognize the internet as legal notice?

Most lawyers I've dealt with send such things registered and with certified receipt. Fortunately, that's been some time ago. :-)

Who is Bill Cooper ? Why is anything he has to say so important that you should be running off to a lawyer. I have been an avid reader of this news group and I don't recall any revelations ascribed to Bill Cooper. I must admit I'm in the habit of trashing the boring, and or long winded. Does Bill fall into this category?

[FROM GLENN: For the amusement of this list, could someone please describe Mr. Cooper and his Area 51 role?]

Maybe I have missed something, here, but I am quite sure that Mr. Campbell is not trying to perform acts of libel or slander. Let me suggest, Mr. Cooper, that you grow some thicker skin and stop getting your BVDs in a bunch over little things.
