Area51Web's collection of photographs now has a new addition. I have permission from C.A. to post some of his images of the Groom Lake area online. There are some interesting closeups here, including a fleet of JANET planes sitting on the tarmac at Groom, and even a shot of the pilot of one of the Blackhawk helicopters that patrol the area.

My thanks to C.A. for allowing me to post these images. You can view them now at: <http://www.vvcs.com/a51/ca>
