Interesting about the Thurmond/Corso controversy! What is also strange, is that to my knowledge, Thurmond does not say anything about ET or UFO, and merely offers a testament to Corso's character and years of faithful service. So the heck what does it matter if the book is about Roswell, it doesn't change Strom's opinion of Corso's history or character.

It's really a small issue, and it looks like the foreword is there to stay, since it's apparently not actionable.

Oh, I wouldn't believe a WORD that Boylan says, even if it was just 'the sky is blue', but that's just my opinion about perverts and liars, heh, heh.
