Where has Corso been for the past 30 years?

Subject: Where has Corso been for the past 30 years?

Much press has been given on Corso's credentials and "distinguished career" working in real government echelons, but that distinguished career seems to have ended 30 years ago.

My question is, where has he been since then?

There seems to be no mention of this in his book, and recent news stories have lacked any information.

Did he go on to occupy a high position in industry? (He certainly ought to have had the connections for it, given all those secret deals he supposedly brokered.) Or did he waste away in a menial position, unable to regain his former glory.

Thirty years is plenty of time for someone's personality to change, and you can judge his personality by looking at the ways he has spent his time.

Has there been any discussion of Corso's recent background in other forums? If so, please post that info to this mailing list.
