Subject: RUMINT

Loathe though I may be to rely upon rumor, I couldn't resist passing this on to other members of the SkunkWorks discussion group. True or not, it may provide some well-needed grist for our stealthy mill.

According to a second-hand discussion with (an) employee(s) of Air Force Magazine, the Air Force will reveal "one or two" black projects in April at the Air Force's 50th Anniversary celebration at Nellis AFB. That's it, no other information.

Lessee, more TACIT BLUE or the TR-3.....

Dr Bob
