Subject: Comments on Dr. Michael Wolf

The only things that seem to link the three organizations Dr. Wolf belongs to other than science is Education and Human rights. I looked hard and found very little about him other than the interview with him in the UK magazine and the review GC wrote about his book. Shadowy character for someone who claims to be so prestigious.

This is about Dr. Wolf from <http://www.isur.com/book/arcturus.htm#9610059>

"He is "Chancellor Emeritus of the New England Institute for Advanced Research," a one-man (Wolf himself) institute whose purpose seems to be to funnel DOD grant money to those working on Black Budget and other DOD-funded projects. He admits to being terminally ill, and to writing this book to set his own personal record straight. Researchers who have tried to verify the details of his outer life have largely failed to find any information regarding any of his claims (except that one university did actually did get some grant money from the NEIFAS)."

This is his web page for his book "Catchers of Heaven: A Trilogy" Its at <http://members.aol.com/wolffound/catcher.html>
