Christopher,

You make some good points about secretive Las Vegas casino properties owner and billionaire Bob Bigelow, the "UFO Howard Hughes" of the 1990s, and his Roach Motel approach to UFO data: good cases go in to NIDS but nothing substantial comes out.

The NIDS webpage is a joke. Talk about a Potemkin Village of thin-front information as a "cover" for what?

More interesting than the Unusual Animal Death (UAD) cases is the behavior patterns of Mr. Bigelow, who is financially linked with Prince Hans Adam of Lichenstein, another billionaire financier of Roach Motel UFO data acquisitions.

Circumstantial evidence points to most UADs being performed by Special Forces using hand-held lasers and operating out of high-tech conventional/ antigravity-hybrid helicopters, using space-time bending to achieve not only stealth but physical invisibility.

But perhaps the Colonel would like to comment on those Special Forces.

From Glenn:

In fairness to Bigelow, I think "billionaire" is a bit high, and "Roach Motel" is an unkind cut. Bigelow owns the local Sun Harbor chain of short-residency apartments, which actually look quite nice.
