In the current movie: Austin Powers, International Man of Mystery, there is a scene early in the movie when Dr. Evil's cryogenically frozen body, orbiting Earth inside a "Bob's Big Boy", re-enters the atmosphere. The scene shows NORAD's tracking of the Big Boy and it disappears off the radar screen right over Area 51! The words are never spoken, but if you know geography, there's absolutely no question.

My advice, however, is wait until it plays on the USA Channel.
