Gang,

The 1997 USAF Yearbook (got mine yesterday), which along with the annual RAF Yearbook is put out by RAF Benevolent Fund Enterprises, has an article by Chris Pocock on Groom Lake, well illustrated with photos of mostly Lockheed stuff, but also including a 1991 Russian overhead. Haven't read it yet, but reference is made to Soviet stuff flown from there and Tonopah, a recent thread. Another article on early supersonics is of some Lockheed interest, as is an F-22 article. All-in-all a good souvenir issue highlighting the 50th of the Air Force.

Hank
