Lawyer hopes to take Area 51 dangers public

SAN FRANCISCO -- Appeals judges ridiculed arguments Wednesday by a lawyer who urged them to disregard national security concerns and allow him to sue the government for harm suffered by workers at the classified Area 51 base in Nevada.

Judge Pamela Rymer of the 9th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals at one point even scolded Washington, D.C., attorney Jonathan Turley for making exaggerated arguments.

"You have a serious problem here, Mr. Turley," she said. "I am trying to get you to explain to me in English."
