Re: "Colonel Steve Wilson" and his lies

From: jan@cyberzone.net (Jan Aldrich)

I am shocked by the post below! Now can't we all just get along? IF Colonel Wilson is in the hospital, I wish him a speedy and complete recovery. He should get back to work as soon as possible so he can defend his good name and correct the mistaken ideas about him.

After his return, two things he should do right away: make sure his records reflect his status as "Triple Ace" and holder to "The Air Medal or Honor." Seems like he has been left off the public listings of Aces and Medal of Honor winners. Or perhaps my eyes, which are not as good as they once were, caused me to miss the entries. Someone with better vision should check out the Aces Site:

<http://www.csd.uwo.ca/~pettypi/elevon/aces.html>

and the Medal of Honor Site:

<http://160.147.68.21:80/cmh-pg/moh1.htm>

Someone with sharp eye sight could probably find his name on these sites. Or you know how bureaucrats operate these days, he was probably just left off the lists by mistake. He should also check the MJ-12 roster to see if they left him off of that also.

Get Well Soon, Colonel!
