

Area 51 Mailing List Digest v096.n020

10 Nov 1996

---

Index

- 01 - jmr@innet.lu - area51.jpl.nasa.gov
- 02 - PaulMcG@aol.com - Re: secret Navy aircraft ??
- 03 - mayor@tiac.net (Ken MacGr - Yellow Book Report?
- 04 - PaulMcG@aol.com - more on Open Skies
- 05 - mayor@tiac.net (Ken MacGr - Possible Loon?
- 06 - psyspy@vegas.infi.net (Gl - Groom Lake Runway Heading
- 07 - "Albert G. Baier" <ABAIER - More than you ever wanted to know about "Dark Skies"
- 08 - Dan Zinngrabe <quellish@s - Area 51 3D Renderings now on the Web
- 09 - campbell@ufomind.com (Gle - [Norio Explains the Conspiracy \[a.c.a51\]](#)
- 10 - "A.J. Craddock" <craddock - General Datapoints Classified UFO Data - NEVADA
- 11 - "A.J. Craddock" <craddock - Nevada Domains
- 12 - campbell@ufomind.com (Gle - Miscellanea: Lazar Web Site, Runway Heading, Responses, etc.

 [Archive Index | Mailing List Information ]

---

Message #1

From: jmr@innet.lu
Subject: area51.jpl.nasa.gov
Date: Mon, 04 Nov 1996 21:33:40 +0100

Hi there!

I did get access to area51.jpl.nasa.gov via ftp!
Although there don't seem to be too much secrets on it!?
In fact, there isn't anything on it except for the xxx file/dir(?)
I created (just a try)...

Look what I got:

```

C:\WIN95>ftp area51.jpl.nasa.gov
Connected to area51.jpl.nasa.gov.
220-Serv-U FTP-Server v2.0c for WinSock ready...
220-Welcome to AREA51.JPL.NASA.GOV!
220-If you wish to exchange files with other 220-KidSat project members, you can login with 220 the user "exchange" and password "exchange"
User (area51.jpl.nasa.gov:(none)): exchange
331 User name OK, send password
Password:
230-Welcome to the Area51 FTP file exchange directory!
230-~~~~~
230-This directory and user account was created to allow other users to easily
230-exchange of KidSat-related materials with KidSat members.
230-
230-Please do not abuse this service by uploading illegal materials!
230-
230-230 User EXCHANGE logged in ftp> dir
200 PORT Command OK
150 Opening data connection total 2
drwxr-xr-x  1 User      Group          0 Nov  4 12:13 xxx
-r-xr-xr-x  1 User      Group        32768 Oct 24 19:52 .message
226 Transfer complete
134 bytes received in 39.54 seconds (0.00 Kbytes/sec) ftp>

```

I think I also found out that domains beginning with 128.149 belong to NASA headquarters:

NASA Headquarters (NET-JPL-NET)
Code TS
Washington, DC 20546

Netname: JPL-NET
Netnumber: 128.149.0.0

Coordinator:
Operations, Nsi Network (NNO2) noc@NSIPO.NASA.GOV
(800) 424-9920 (415) 604-0063 (FAX) (415) 604-0063

Domain System inverse mapping provided by:

JPL-MIL.JPL.NASA.GOV	128.149.1.101
ELROY.JPL.NASA.GOV	137.78.120.2, 137.78.80.130, 137.78.80.2
MX.NSI.NASA.GOV	128.102.18.31
TRANTOR.UMD.EDU	128.8.10.14

Greetings,

--
J.M. Roth
jmr@innet.lu
<http://www.club.innet.lu/~year0869>
100766.3176@compuserve.com; jm_r@msn.com
+352-295019

---

Message #2

From: PaulMcG@aol.com
Subject: Re: secret Navy aircraft ??
Date: Mon, 4 Nov 1996 18:14:19 -0500

I suspect that those who say the A-14 designation refers to an attack version of the F-14 are correct, but...

I guess I should have mentioned in the original posting that I was so puzzled by the term "A-14", that I did a follow-up investigation, which found the following:

* I checked with OCLC's "Applied Science & Technology Abstracts" database for the last 10 years and found a number of articles that referred to the ill-fated Navy A-12 aircraft, particularly in Aviation Week, but no article anywhere that used the designation "A-14".

* I checked several DoD and Congressional budget documents for F-14 funding, such as those for "F-14 Squadrons" and the 234.6 million dollars in the FY1997 budget for "F-14 upgrades", and the term "A-14" is never used. (The upgrades include the tactical air reconnaissance pod system (TARPS).)

So, we are left with a mystery. I'm not going to include A-14 on my FY 1997 "black" budget analysis list, because I don't know whether it is a typo or a real program. I already had a bad experience with the Air Force over a typo, when they listed a classified "special tactical unit detention facility" and I went after them over building a secret jail. It turns out the description should have been "special tactical unit detachment facility" and it was a hangar in a "classified CONUS [continental US] location".

Paul McGinnis / PaulMcG@aol.com
<http://www.frogi.org/secretcy.html> [military secrecy site]

---

Message #3

From: mayor@tiac.net (Ken MacGray)
Subject: Yellow Book Report?
Date: Mon, 4 Nov 1996 19:00:22 -0500

This is forwarded from a.c.a.51. While not mentioning the Groom Lake area specifically, it does deal with aliens returning to the Southwestern US. Hopefully this will be enough to keep it from being canned from the list...

8) -Ken

-----
The Yellow Book

Yellow Book reportedly written in 1970 thru 1972: Only three copies available and (EBE-?, US Gov ?) have copies and "Alien Ambassador" EBE-2 (female) has one copy:

Note: Many of the items in "Carter Doc" reportedly came from "Yellow Book"

Highlights of Reported Contents

- a. History of their visitations to Earth for the past 10,000 plus years. Perhaps a visit ie; Start of Pyramid age in Egypt, circa; 2450 BC ? In circa 2450 BC the Giza Pyramids mirrored the "Orion Belt" of 10400 BC & 2450 BC.
- b. Earth is an out of the way stop in their five or more trading routes. Note: Also, there is said to be five or more groups of "Aliens" visiting Earth.
- c. Left an observer here 2000 years ago: Observer not related to Christ according to sources: They may have holographic images of the crucifixion of Christ. The visitors have supposedly been asking the question, "Why them (humans) and not us to have a "Christ Savior" ??
- d. Their own Social history and Religious beliefs. They believe in ONE GOD. But, do not accept our ideas of a Judeo-Christian Trinity.

A second reminder to the reader that this is just being reported: There is no evidence except sources to back this up at the moment.

What follows is the original Text concerning Yellow Book from "The Aviary " by: Richard Boylan, with additional notes with ** from Robert M. Collins.

The Yellow Book is reported to actually be a sort of holographic compact disk, which can project images of the information it contains. It is alleged to contain references to Biblical events, even including a holographic depiction of the crucifixion of Christ. The red Book is a human compendium of information derived from the extra terrestrials. One of the predictions is that there will be a very large rift in human society as a result of ET contact becoming publicly known. This is supposed to happen in 1997. Another reported prediction is that the ETs will return in a formal pre planned landing on April 24, 1997 on public land in the Southwest USA, probably in the vicinity of White Sands "Missile" Range, New Mexico. The red and Yellow Books are also supposed to contain the prediction that there is one "Horseman of the Apocalypse" left to arrive. (The other three, War, Famine and Pestilence have inarguably already arrived on Earth.) The remaining Horseman is the White Rider wearing the Crown, which is interpreted to mean the Second Coming. This raises profound questions and concerns within the Aviary. Does this mean that a formal ET landing in 1997 signifies, or is, the Second Coming of the Christ? Will the ETs be bearing an ET with Christ Consciousness? Will fundamentalist Christians against the ETs as supposed threats to Christ's supremacy? Et cetera.

**There is the possibility that this could be the Antichrist that gets talked about ?? Haven't heard any "valid reports" to back-up this "2nd" coming of Christ story.

The Aviary are quite concerned that fundamentalist Christians will experience spiritual, if not ontological, shock at the revelation of ET visitation, and over the reported contents of the red and Yellow Books, which contain information that suggests that Jesus had some connection with the extraterrestrials.

** As far as this is concerned it has been reported that there was a helper placed here about 2000 years ago but this "helper" was not related to "Christ."

** As an additional note: There is a recently published a new book entitled: "His Holiness: John Paul ll and the Hidden History of Our Time." While covering extensively the reported connection between then President Reagan, the CIA and John Paul 11 etc it omits an important part of which this side was informed of: And that is, that John Paul 11 and the Vatican were reportedly given a full briefing on our "Alien" subject by the Reagan administration.

By Robert M. Collins

See URL http://users1.ee.net/pmason/mora\_index.html for more information

=====
Ken MacGray, Administrator - Virtual Village BBS
Central Massachusetts' Premier Online Service
508-368-4222 - email:mayor@tiac.net - <http://www.tiac.net/users/mayor>
Area 51 Images/Lore/News: <http://www.tiac.net/users/mayor/a51/>
=====

---

Message #4

From: PaulMcG@aol.com
Subject: more on Open Skies
Date: Mon, 4 Nov 1996 19:06:51 -0500

Since I'm becoming more interested in arms control issues, I've been interested in government programs on the topic. While looking at the On-Site Inspection Agency, I found some material that explains a lot about the Open Skies Treaty that Glenn discusses. I found out some things that suggest that foreign governments will not find out much about Area 51 when they fly Open Skies missions. There are things I hadn't noticed before such as a resolution limitation of 30 cm on the optical sensors -- under optimal conditions, U.S. spy satellites have a 10 cm resolution from what I've heard. Also, a facility is given 72 hours advance notice before it is photographed, so that everything can be rolled into hangars. Basically, the Open Skies won't see anything more than Glenn saw from the Cessna!! (By the way, based on documents I have, the Air Force would probably give the Groom Lake authorities, like those at other sites where classified tests are conducted, a computer printout called a SATRAN (Satellite Reconnaissance Advanced Notice) that gives the dates and times when foreign reconnaissance satellites pass overhead)

Here are a couple of Web links:

"Open Skies Overflights -- What Will They See?"
(<http://www.osia.mil/osialink/DTIRP/ARTICLE3.HTML>)

"The Open Skies Treaty -- Questions Facing U.S. Defense Industry" (<http://www.osia.mil/osialink/DTIRP/PAMPH07.html>)

material about the OC-135B aircraft, provided by the U.S government for Open Skies Treaty flights (http://www.osia.mil/osialink/PUB\_AFRS/OC135B.html)

Paul McGinnis / PaulMcG@aol.com
<http://www.frogi.org/secretcy.html> [military secrecy site]

---

Message #5

From: mayor@tiac.net (Ken MacGray)
Subject: Possible Loon?
Date: Tue, 5 Nov 1996 08:51:21 -0500

Boy, I just seem to attract 'em. This is a fellow I've been chatting with for a week now. he either has a death wish, or has gone bye-bye. He seems to be terribly uneducated in the Groom Lake area and what might happen to him if he does indeed cross the border... -Ken (items in single quotes are my own words)

-----

Date: Tue, 5 Nov 1996 07:27:32 +0100 (MET)
From: Roman Horvat <rhovrat@efzg.hr>
To: Ken MacGray <mayor@tiac.net>
Subject: Re: Area 51

On Mon, 4 Nov 1996, Ken MacGray wrote:

> >Hill, where you spend night on your third visit. And mountain where some > >man was parachuting or something.
>
> What? I saw no parachuters during my visits...

Hangglider maybe ?

>
> >No, it is very important: if they use NIGHT VISION than it only enlarge > >current light source (so you can see much with cigaret light), but if > >they use INFRA RED VISION - then every temperature differences are seen like > >light source (every living organism transmit warmth, and they can see > >you with I.R. VISION very clear in night)
> >It will be very hard to sneak if they use I.R.V. (special clothes), but > >in case of N.V. it is easy (just dont use any light source)
> >Do you know do they use N.V. or I.R.V.
>
> It doesn't matter. You won't get 20 feet beyond the border if you are > caught. They will know you are coming as soon as you start down Groom Lake > Road, thanks to some illegal road sensors.

Heh, they wont know I am coming.
Yes, thats why I ask you about miles, caus I (we) intend to travel by foot.
I can (i did it before) march 50 miles in very short time. Thats why I ask about miles and visions. If they use I.R.V. than I am glowing in the dark.
Do you know what they use (I.R. or N.V.)

> Uh, this is about as far as you can get from the government. The fellow > that runs this site, Glenn Campbell, is the world's foremost authority on > this subject. You would do yourself a favor by doing LOTS of research from > his site before going. It could save you from being killed. I'm not being > dramatic. The security patrols have authorization to use deadly force if > necessary to keep intruders out.

Yes I know that. Thats why I ask questions like poison animals. I know that maybe we have to crawl for 5-6 miles. And I dont want to be eliminated by snake or something.

I am not writing this for fun. We had a war out here (Croatia) and I have done similar stuff before.

>
> 1. You will be immediately arrested and will have to pay a fine of $600 > after a night in the Lincoln County Jail, sign a whole bunch of paperwork, > and promise to never return...
> 2. If you resist the security to such a degree that they deem you a threat, > you will be shot.

I dont intend to fight with guards (does BUJINKAN SEISHIN DOJO means something to you) caus I want to be caught (positive thinking helps :))))))

About terrain. Can those mountains (hills) around base be accessed by 4x drive. If cant, than I have advantage. I doubt that any guard can follow me or catch me by foot.

Now if they see me in the restricted border, and catch me outside of it.
Same thing or ?

About cameras, we intend to use digital cameras (one which transmit pictures to far computer, not on tape) so we are safe for pictures.

Thank for your informations.

Roman Horvat

Email: rhovrat@oliver.efzg.hr

Home Page URL: <http://oliver.efzg.hr/~rhorvat/index.htm>
Croatian Formula 1 Champ. URL: <http://oliver.efzg.hr/~rhorvat/formula/main.htm>
Car Sales URL: <http://oliver.efzg.hr/~rhorvat/auto.htm>

tel/fax: +385 01 577-658

On the day seven, God turn around and said: "Everything is perfect".
Then he created PC.

=====
Ken MacGray, Administrator - Virtual Village BBS
Central Massachusetts' Premier Online Service
508-368-4222 - email:mayor@tiac.net - <http://www.tiac.net/users/mayor>
Area 51 Images/Lore/News: <http://www.tiac.net/users/mayor/a51/>
=====

---

Message #6

From: psyspy@vegas.infi.net (Glenn Campbell, Las Vegas)
Subject: Groom Lake Runway Heading
Date: Tue, 5 Nov 1996 08:11:28 -0800

>Date: Mon, 4 Nov 1996 18:54:07 -0500
>To: area51@lists.best.com
>From: mayor@tiac.net (Ken MacGray)
>Subject: Groom Runway Direction?
>
>Folks, does anyone have the answer to this question? I'd like to pass it >along to him... -Ken
>-----
>Date: Mon, 04 Nov 1996 14:40:32 -0800
>From: "Robert L. Gore" <#bobgore@ix.netcom.com>
>Reply-To: #bobgore@ix.netcom.com
>Organization: Becker Realty Corp.
>MIME-Version: 1.0
>To: mayor@tiac.net
>Subject: Groom Lake
>
>I am just about to complete a novel that's action is centered on Groom >Lake. I can't tell from what I've seen here which direction the runway >is. Can you help?
>
>Bob Gore
>Las Vegas
>

According to Peter Merlin's Groom Lake maps, the runway numbers are 14L/32R

That means the runway is heading roughly northwest at 320 degrees.

Glenn

---

Message #7

From: "Albert G. Baier" <ABAIER@MSM.MEA.COM>
Subject: More than you ever wanted to know about "Dark Skies"
Date: Tue, 05 Nov 1996 12:53:52 +0000

Glenn:

The last "Dark Skies" episode (featuring Howard Hughes) was a hoot. After working the Beatles and Ed Sullivan into the previous episode, I thought I'd seen everything, but they really outdid themselves this time.

For those who haven't seen "Dark Skies", here is the concept.

Set in 1964, a young gov't worker employed by "Majestic 12", discovers that a sinister alien plot to take over the world is being covered up by his employers. The aliens are scorpion-like creatures which use human bodies as hosts. Their aggregation is called the "Hive". The pilot linked the Kennedy assassination to the conspiracy. His girlfriend was once a host, but he was able to remove the alien without harming her. Now she is 'sensitive' to their presence. Together, they cross the U.S., fighting the Hive, and outrunning their gov't pursuers.

In the last episode, the Hive is actually operating underground at Area 51. Our heroes entered the compound through a 'holographic' rock wall. Mysteriously, our military enters from a tunnel on the other side and saves the day.

Don't miss the next exciting episode!

Al

---

Message #8

From: Dan Zinngrabe <quellish@shore.intercom.net>
Subject: Area 51 3D Renderings now on the Web
Date: Tue, 5 Nov 1996 21:14:46 -0500

My 3D renderings of Groom Lake are now available on the world wide web at <http://www.frogi.org/danz.html> which is a part of Paul McGinnis' excellent Military Secrecy web site.

The images were modeled using USGS Digital Elevation Model metadata files and Russian GRU (military intelligence) high resolution satellite imagery and rendered in Infini-D 3.5 on an Apple PowerMac 6100/60AV.

Dan Z

*****
Strategic Consultant, 21's Picks-
Macintosh Artist, Misery Loves Co.
Independant Author of Korn
Fiction and Nonfiction Penal Colony

---

Closed systems are destined to fail by their own nature.

*****
-----Windoze95(tm)(R)-----
-----The Ultimate Sleep Aid-----
-----From The Makers of Office(tm)(R)-----
Simply insert floppy disks, run the installer, and in seconds your insomnia is cured! *WARNING!* Do NOT install Microsoft(R) products while operating heavy machinery, running Microsoft(R) or other applications or extensions, eating, debugging, "surfing" the internet, or living in the continental United States.

*****an

---

Message #9

From: campbell@ufomind.com (Glenn Campbell, Las Vegas)
Subject: Norio Explains the Conspiracy [a.c.a51]
Date: Thu, 7 Nov 1996 15:00:29 -0800

Date: 19 Oct 1996 04:03:35 -0400
From: NorioA51S4 <norioa51s4@aol.com>
Newsgroups: alt.conspiracy.area51
Subject: Re: Scary

Perhaps what is more SCARY than (what may initially appear to some as) a

"paranoid" hypothesis that I present in my web-page (<http://www.peg.apc.org/~newdawn/norio.htm>) is the apparent fact that there are so many "gullible" individuals out there that actually believe that there are alien entities out there in AREA 51, allegedly demonstrating their technology to our select group of scientists and military personnel and perhaps instructing our select pilots how to maneuver their "disks" or our "back-engineered" disks. This very scenario may be the exact scenario that the "government" wants us to believe and may even be "conditioning" the public sector to get familiarized with that type of hypothesis. Who is to say that there is no ulterior purpose behind that type of a conditioning process? To this end, Bob Lazar may well have been manipulated in the creation of this brilliant "COVER STORY" in order to conceal the real purposes of the DEEP BLACK PROJECTS, which may be nothing else than research and development of a new generation of advanced weapons systems, including new breakthroughs in aeronautics and avionics. In other words, so far nobody has ever come up with an iota of tangible evidence that there is something "alien" about AREA 51. Yet, who is to say that the government's policy is not to create convenient "COVER STORIES" to conceal their own agenda? The question that the citizenry should be posing is "just what is the government intending to do with all those advanced weapons systems (including the HAARP Program in Alaska) that are costing the taxpayers billions of hard-earned tax dollars in this post-Cold War era". The fact that the citizenry is not posing this type of question is "SCARIER" than my "paranoid" hypothesis.

Norio Hayakawa

---

Message #10

From: "A.J. Craddock" <craddock@ix.netcom.com>
 Subject: General Datapoints Classified UFO Data - NEVADA
 Date: Fri, 8 Nov 1996 22:27:20 -0800

According to author Whitley Strieber in an Appendix attached to "Breakthrough", published in 1995, the following are allegedly classified datapoints in the DDN (Defense Dept. Network Locations) that contain classified UFO data. In general, these computers are in various Air Force Bases, and only those for the State of Nevada are listed as I am not a professional typist. However, there are many more listed in the Appendix.

Strieber adds that if Congress indeed knows nothing about any of this, then these so-called classified datapoints are not legally classified at all but are simply being illegally withheld. There would have been no crime committed by anybody who obtained them whether they had signed a secrecy oath or not.

Strieber also points out that the addresses could also be an elaborate hoax, and I will have to defer to someone with superior computer expertise to check it out.

Of course the addresses have probably all been changed anyway, but they might be worth a visit.

Tony Craddock

*****

NEVADA

NET: 131.216.0.0 : NEVADA :

Random Suspected Nets:

WIN: Top Secret Network. All coordinators have last name Win.
 NET : 141.8.0.0 : DFN-WIN8 : NET : 141.9.0.0 :
       DFN-WIN9
 NET : 141.10.0.0 : DFN-WIN10 : NET :
       141.15.0.0 : DFN-WIN15 : NET :
 NET : 141.25.0.0 : DFN-WIN25 : NET :
       141.26.0.0 : DFN-WIN26 : NET :
 NET : 141.28.0.0 : DFN-WIN28 : NET :
       141.57.0.0 : DFN-WIN57 : NET :

and so on in the following pairings:

58,59
60,61
62,63
64,65
66,67
68,69
70,71
72,73
74,75
76,77
78,79
80,81
82,83
84,85
86,87
88,89
90,91
92,93
94,95
96,97
98,99
and

NET : 188.1.0.0 : WIN-IP : NET : 192.80.90.0 :
WINDATA:

ENDS

---

Message #11

From: "A.J. Craddock" <craddock@ix.netcom.com>
Subject: Nevada Domains
Date: Fri, 8 Nov 1996 23:10:13 -0800

Fumbling and stumbling around with Search Engines looking for the "secret" domains that I just posted to the Group, I was able to get confirmation that 131.216.0.0 is indeed Nevada, with ftp.nevada.edu 131.216.1.11 /pub/mac/

So maybe there is some truth to the whole thing.

Come in Glenn?

Tony Craddock

---

Message #12

From: campbell@ufomind.com (Glenn Campbell, Las Vegas)
Subject: Miscellanea: Lazar Web Site, Runway Heading, Responses, etc.
Date: Sat, 9 Nov 1996 09:20:20 -0800

LAZAR WEB SITE REVIEWED

[The Official Lazar website is now on-line at <http://www.banzai-net.com/tridot/s4.htm> See What's New for comments.
This is the first review I have received. -- GC]

----- User Online Comment -----

TYPE : COMMENT
NAME : Jay Ketch
EMAIL : jketch@map.com

----- Comments -----

After reading "What's New" I `surfed' to the new Bob Lazar site and was actually impressed. I did notice a few seemingly inconsistent and confusing things like claiming to sell/have a poster that is an exact replica of one in Area 51. Did Bob memorize minute detail of the poster to share with someone on the "outside", or did someone leak exact info to a publisher who decided not to modify the description and mass produced them and sent one back to Area 51. I don't know. They also seem to have a big need to talk bad about "competition." Even so, the graphics, .MID sounds, and coreography was pretty good ... very showy.

=====

GROOM LAKE RUNWAY HEADING

Date: Tue, 05 Nov 1996 23:57:19 -0600
From: Dave B <bethland@ix.netcom.com>
To: "Glenn Campbell, Las Vegas" <psyspy@vegas.infi.net>
Subject: Re: AREA 51: Groom Lake Runway Heading

Glenn Campbell, Las Vegas wrote:

>
> According to Peter Merlin's Groom Lake maps, the runway numbers are 14L/32R
>
> That means the runway is heading roughly northwest at 320 degrees.
>

It also would indicate two parallel runways; if there is a 14L (left) then there would be a 14R (right). Also, that's magnetic direction. The magnetic deviation in that area is on the order of 15 degrees or so. (I'm at work and don't have my Las Vegas sectional chart handy.)

Dave B in Houston

[A magnetic deviation makes sense because the runway is actually heading NNNW, not NW as the number suggests. -- GC]

=====

EVERYTHING WILL MATCH UP

[Regarding a conspiracy-oriented posting a few days ago....]

From: mike@duncanryan.co.nz
To: psyspy@vegas.infi.net (Glenn Campbell, Las Vegas)
Date: Fri, 8 Nov 1996 16:24:30 +0000
Subject: Re: AREA 51: Everything Will Match Up [Loon]
Glenn

For a little amusement, this isn't to bad. But no surprises to anyone, there are a few factual misses.

The real USS Langley is an old WWII carrier in retirement on the West coast (US).

Soviets ? Why allies with US, and they havent existed for 5 yrs.

Mach 8, yeah right, if so the aircraft would have to be huge to carry the hydrogen tanks for fuel and could never fit on an aircraft carrier, let alone 40 on one carrier.

Ship outer space ?

20 planes in one squadron, USN fighter squadrons only have 18 planes.

40 mach 8's on one carrier, $$$$$$$$$$ no way !!!!

Kind regards, Michael

=====

RENDERINGS FIXED

Dan Zinngrabe <quellish@shore.intercom.net> reports that the orientation of his Groom Lake renderings has been fixed (or will be shortly). They had been backwards.

Well worth a visit at <http://www.frogi.org/danz.html>

=====

---

 [Archive Index | Mailing List Information ]

Sponsored by the Area 51 Research Center (www.ufomind.com)

Created: 10 Nov 1996