

Area 51 Mailing List Digest v096.n024

27 Nov 1996

Index

- 01 - James R Graham <jrg@world - DOE Search Finds Another DET 3 \(AFSWC\)
- 02 - campbell@ufomind.com (Gle - Miscellanea: Janet, USS Langley, Million Man March, Nickles, e
- 03 - Ken MacGray <mayor@tiac.n - Holloman AFB Secret Programs?
- 04 - Tim Joiner <tjoiner@flash - Test Site Area 401 and 400 \(alt.con.51 digest\)
- 05 - jmcoarse@juno.com (James - AREA-51
- 06 - Ken MacGray <mayor@tiac.n - Wackenhut Surfaces Again
- 07 - campbell@ufomind.com (Gle - Responses to Jim Course
- 08 - Ken MacGray <mayor@tiac.n - Las Vegas: Gamble In The Desert

[Archive Index | Mailing List Information]

Message #1

From: James R Graham <jrg@world.std.com>
 Subject: DOE Search Finds Another DET 3 (AFSWC)
 Date: Fri, 22 Nov 1996 08:09:55 -0800

Hi all,
 Every now and then, I do various searches for certain key terms on various databases. I did a search for DET 3 on the DOE's Opennet (det ADJ 3) and got the following document. For those who don't know, DET 3 is supposedly the active detachment at Area51 (see the security manual at ufomind.com). Has anyone found any official info on DET 3 anywhere else? Glenn?

james

Document follows:

TWX TO USAEC PROJECT MILROW, SUBJECT:
 NAME OF FACILITIES TO BE VISITED:
 AMCHITKA, BASE CAMP AREA, ADAK, HQ
 AFSWC DET 3 (PROV)

Title:
 TWX TO USAEC PROJECT MILROW, SUBJECT: NAME OF FACILITIES TO BE VISITED: AMCHITKA, BASE CAMP AREA, ADAK, HQ AFSWC DET 3 (PROV)

Location of Document:
 DOE/NV Coordination and Information Center, P.O. Box 98521, City:
 Las Vegas, State: NV, Zip: 89193-8521,
 Phone: (702)295-0731, Fax: (702)295-0877, EMail: cic@nv.doe.gov

Document Type:
 CORRESPONDENCE

Document Date:
 09/16/1969

Declassification Status:
 NEVER CLASSIFIED

Document Pages:
 0003

Accession Number:
 NV0301572

Opennet Entry Date:
 03/04/1996

=====

NOTE FROM GLENN:

There are a lot of "DET 3's" around. It just means "Detachment 3," and in theory any military unit could have one. AFSWC is "Air Force Special Weapons Center". This Altavista search might lead to more details...

<http://www.altavista.digital.com/cgi-bin/query?pg=q&what=web&fmt=.&q=AFSWC>

Message #2

From: campbell@ufomind.com (Glenn Campbell, Area 51 Research Center, Las Vegas)
Subject: Miscellanea: Janet, USS Langley, Million Man March, Nickles, etc.
Date: Fri, 22 Nov 1996 11:01:04 -0800

JANET FLIGHT REVIEWS

Date: Fri, 22 Nov 1996 12:47:59 -0600
From: Dave B <bethland@ix.netcom.com>
Subject: Re: AREA 51: Janet 737 Sighting Near Victorville, CA, Nov. 20

CBoughner@aol.com wrote:
>if this was from the Janet terminal what was it doing > out this way? And if it wasn't what was it?
>

Practice? Civilian pilots require flight reviews, and sometimes instrument competency checks (which can be done in VFR weather). I imagine the military has similar requirements. Most airlines use simulators for this, but maybe Janet finds it expedient to do it in the air. The times you mentioned seem to be when there aren't any LV/Groom flights scheduled.

Dave B in Houston

=====
USS LANGLEY

[Regarding] an e-mail you posted from someone around the October 23 timeframe. This person made reference to a "secret" aircraft carrier, the USS Langley. I thought you might like to know there is a picture of the Langley at <http://www.multied.com/Ships.html>. You'll find this Langley to be somewhat lacking from the one described in the e-mail you received. From my perspective, if you believe it would be possible to build, outfit, homeport and maintain an aircraft carrier in secrecy, then you obviously have no experience in shipbuilding or any other aspect of naval operations.

-- [Name withheld by request]

=====
MILLION MAN MARCH

Date: Wed, 20 Nov 1996 22:14:29 -0600
From: General Verwirrung <verwirrung@geocities.com>
Subject: 1,000,000 man march

Note: Spread this document like the plague. I want everyone in the world to hear of this.

Please Join My Cause

In this world there exists a secret government. This corrupt system has plagued our people for years. It is my goal to put an end to this system. I plan to gather 1,000,000 people to march onto Area 51 in Nevada. We will take this secret military base and release all its secrets to the world. They can't keep a million people from doing this. It is a futile effort on their part if they plan to take out .05% of the population of the US. Visit <http://www.angelfire.com/mi/verwirrung> for more information

=====
PEOPLE'S ASSEMBLY

Date: Thu, 21 Nov 1996 22:43:28 -0600

From: "Dan M. Rigney" <DanMan@mail.utexas.edu>
Subject: Peoples assembly

I think the time has come for a peoples assembly in protest of government secracy. What better place is there to have it then by Nevada's very own Area 51? I am trying to organize this event for the summer of 1998, maybe sooner. I had planned to work on this in the summer of 1997. Right now I am just trying to get the word out. In fact this is my first attempt. I have no idea where or how to start. I'm trying to learn all I can about Area 51 at present and I am researching how the million man march in Washington was orgazined. I would appreciate any feedback or suggestions from anyone!!!

Thank You.
Dan

=====
NICKELS A FRAUD?

Date: Tue, 19 Nov 1996 16:21:39 -0800
From: Elaine Vincent <evincent@mail.wsu.edu>
Subject: A fraud

About the person planning to enter groom: He doesn't live in D.C., he most likely lives in the Tri-cities region of Washington State (Pasco, Richland, and Kennewick). Since his address doesn't conform to his name, I would have to believe that he is using someone else's address, perhaps his parents? Notice how the domain isn't fbi.gov, but tricon.net Oh yeah, If you trace his domain to www.tricon.net you end up at Washington State Universtity's branch campus. I think he's been watching to much X-Files.

=====
From: Wright Dale <Dale.Wright@wmc.com.au>
Subject: How (who) is pnickels?
Date: Fri, 22 Nov 1996 14:01:00 +0800

Hello from sunny Perth, Western Australia.

I did a search on DejaNews today to see if there was any news from pnickels@tricon.net and his trip into Area51. For some completely unexplainable reason, the only message that turned up was a question regarding the use of migraine medication, from Paula A Nickels.

The cover-up continues :->

=====
From: "Colin Bell" <colin@cyberphile.co.uk>
Subject: I'm Going In (Well Did He ?)
Date: Mon, 18 Nov 1996 16:43:30 -0000

So, last weekend was "Operation Falcon" as John Mark Nickels put it.

Well Glenn, did you hear gunfire from the direction of the Base ?

When does the "vital information" get posted to the list ?

Is JMN still with us ?

=====
FOSSIL FIND ON TIKABOO

From: Chuck Zukowski <czukowski@newmediacorp.com>
Subject: RE: AREA 51: Encounter with an Area 51 "Insider" in Rachel

I agree Dave, Jeff was using fluorescent paint when I was there, which destroys the natural beauty of the landscape. Tape would be better, which could be removed. Did I say that while I was up there, I found a complete fossil shell? My sons and I did a time line on some computer software we have, and for that elevation, we guessed about 1.4 million years old. Talk about icing on the cake when I went to Tikaboo.

=====
NOTE FROM MODERATOR

To keep down the load on subscribers' mailboxes, short messages like these that don't seem too pressing will be condensed into a single "Miscellanea" message like this one every few days. If your message doesn't show up on the mailing list within 12 hours and you don't get a notice from the moderator, it probably means the message is being held for the next "Miscellanea."

In Miscellanea, I won't try to distinguish "Loon" material. I'll just throw it into the bin and let readers sort it out.

Glenn

Message #3

From: Ken MacGray <mayor@tiac.net>
Subject: Holloman AFB Secret Programs?
Date: Sun, 24 Nov 96 01:31:16 -0500

(This came to me via private email regarding my Area 51 website... Does anyone have any more information on these programs? -Ken)

Subject: Your page
Sent: 8/23/96 7:16 PM
Received: 11/24/96 1:25 AM
From: Larry Melton, nitelife@wazoo.com
To: mayor@tiac.net

I have recently been searching the net on this subject and find some of this material believable. I am in the USAF stationed at Holloman AFB NM. The reason this subject interests me is because I believe some of it goes on here. I have seen Johnson Controls mentioned on some of the pages I have visited. Do you know what role they play in this? The reason I am asking is because there are a few secret sites located far out into the desert around this area and Johnson Controls is contracted for a couple of them. I know this because I deliver supplies to one of them once a week. The site I visit is called RATSCAT. The site itself is not classified but what they do there is. They have another site deeper into the desert called the RAMS site. All I know is that they do testing on secret new aircraft. I have reason to believe that the government is or has developed their own flying saucer, possibly nuclear powered. If you have heard anything about this I would love to know.
Thanks
Larry Melton

Ken MacGray/Administrator - Virtual Village BBS
508-368-4222
mayor@tiac.net - <http://www.tiac.net/users/mayor>
Area 51 Images/Lore/News:
<http://www.tiac.net/users/mayor/a51/>

Message #4

From: Tim Joiner <tjoiner@flash.net>
Subject: Test Site Area 401 and 400 (alt.con.51 digest)
Date: Mon, 25 Nov 1996 00:37:05 -0600

Summary of alt.conspiracy.area51 thread on "Test Area 400 and 401"

RL is Robert Lineberger <luther@ix.netcom.com>
DB is Dave B <bethland@ix.netcom.com>

RL>
Using Delorme Street Atlas software to search the Nevada Test Site area,

I located an item at Magnitude 13 labeled Nevada Test Site 401. It is very close to coordinates N36*49.190' W116*10.314'. This is about 2/10 mile WNW of something labeled Wahmonie Flat. Railroad tracks nearby.

I am curious about this because the glossary at <http://www.ufomind.com/area51/ref/glossary.shtml> says that the Areas are numbered 1-30, but missing 13, 21, 24, and 28. And of course 51.

Anybody know what Area 401 is/was?

DB>
Scaling off of a Nevada sectional aeronautical chart and comparing to map of the NTS (courtesy of the DOE), that would be in the southwest corner of area 26. It is labeled on the DOE map as "CONTAMINATED WASTE DUMP". There is a short section of railroad track in the area. It doesn't connect to any other.

You'd have to ask Delorme where they got those area numbers.

RL>
It's funny how some of the known areas are not listed on my map, but others that are not familiar are listed. The individual areas are indicated with a point marker, no boundaries.

Also found something called Nevada Test Site Area 400 at about N36*48.838' W116* 17.315'. What is this?

This Area 400 sits a little southwest of what looks like a ground zero by the concentric roads. Weather Station Tower 14 is about two miles east of Area 400 and about 1 mile south of the apparent ground zero. Railroad passes through center of the "ground zero."

DB>
Using my 'scale the Nevada Sectional, transfer to DOE map' technique, this is the center of Area 25. It is now the Nevada Research & Development Area, the site of the Yucca Mountain Project.

In the past, this area was the location of the Nuclear Rocket Development Station. It consisted of a number of sites that were connected by both road and railroad. Some of the roads did form, roughly, a circle.

There also was a "Project Pluto" in this vicinity in the late '50s and early '60s. It was an attempt to develop a nuclear ramjet engine for a flight to Pluto. I'm not sure if this was in Area 25, or the location you mentioned in an earlier post in Area 26. Possibly some of the local residents that frequent this newsgroup can help out.

*At this point thomsona@netcom.com (Allen Thomson) joined the thread correcting DB's "flight to Pluto" statement by saying that Project Pluto was an "unmanned, low altitude, supersonic, nuclear-ramjet-powered bomber meant to attack the USSR."

Message #5

From: jmcoarse@juno.com (James M Coarse)
Subject: AREA-51
Date: Mon, 25 Nov 1996 14:41:18 EST

Hello my name is Jim Coarse. A big fan and interest of Area-51. I have can close to the information on Area-51, my brother is in the air national guard. On a flight to South Korea there C-130 had an unexpected problem and they were diverted to land at Area-51. At 9:00pm it was dark but there was still enough lite for them to find there way there. They landed on the massive 20,000 foot runway. My brother had managed to see too SR-71 Blackbirds parked out on the ramp and a U-2. The runway must be that long for something unusable, like the space shuttle. They stayed over night in the plane and left at 8:00pm. My brother managed to get a picture of the front of the U-2 spy plane. I will send that to you as soon as I get it on photo CD or a scanner. I hope I put this info in safe hands. Area-51 a.k.a. Dreamland, a.k.a. Groom lake is real and no doubt about it has UFO parts.

Send me any info you know on Area-51 and I can verify it.

:-(Jim Coarse :-)

Ps check for a secret military installation in the western most part of Alaska.

Message #6

From: Ken MacGray <mayor@tiac.net>
Subject: Wackenhut Surfaces Again
Date: Mon, 25 Nov 96 22:28:07 -0500

(From a.c.a51... -Ken)

From: norioa51s4@aol.com
Newsgroups: alt.conspiracy.area51
Subject: WACKENHUT surfaces AGAIN!!
Date: 25 Nov 1996 19:42:46 GMT
Organization: AOL <http://www.aol.com>

(by John Galt, from SPOTLIGHT)

(The reason why this relates somehow to alt.conspiracy.area51 is because of the undeniable presence of Wackenhut Corporation, or Wackenhut Security Systems at the Nevada Test Site, and their working relationship with Department of Energy's Special Response Teams. I have personally met Robert Booth Nichols a few years ago when we organized a public seminar that attempted to expose WACKENHUT and its secret dealings with the "BLACK PROJECTS" programs, some of which is indirectly related to the military weapons testing at certain locations within the Nellis Air Force Range. The seminar, attended by about 250 people was held in Arcadia. The seminar was sponsored by the Civilian Intelligence Network and also co-sponsored by a person who claimed to have been a representative of a group then known as COM 12. At another conference held in Anaheim a few months later, I had an opportunity to meet with the wife of Michael Riconosciuto who "happened" to attend my presentations on AREA 51.-----side-note from Norio Hayakawa)

The man who attempted to sell the Army biological warfare technology through Wackenhut Corporation, Robert Booth Nichols, originally facilitated the project at the California-based research corporation under the auspices of Meridian Arms, a subsidiary of Meridian International Logistics, Inc. (MIL).

The Cabazon-Wackenhut Joint Venture had spawned a partnership between Nichols and Michael Riconosciuto, who sits in prison after being convicted on drug-related charges that he contends are trumped-up for the purpose of silencing his "inside" knowledge about a variety of high-level shenanigans. (for example, some weapons-related programs at parts of Nevada Test Site.....side-note from Norio Hayakawa).

Both Nichols and Riconosciuto were interested in developing new, high-tech submachine guns, biological weapons and powerful explosive devices that, like a nuclear blast, could produce an electromagnetic pulse capable of wiping out an enemy's communications and electronics systems.

Corporate minutes of MIL, dated August 26, 1988, along with signed agreements, revealed that biological technology labeled "The Method for Induction and Activation of Cytotoxic T-Lymphocytes" were handed over to the Japanese for further research.

The corporate minutes noted that a grant, or "donation" was provided by MIL to a Japanese medical school for exclusive training of physicians "under contract to and under the direction of Meridian International Logistics, Inc".

The board of directors at MIL included Robert Booth Nichols, a licensed arms importer/exporter; Glenn Shockley, a CIA asset; Peter Zokosky, former owner of Armtech, at that time the sole supplier of 120 mm combustible cartridge cases to the U.S. government; and Harold Okimoto. Intelligence sources believed Okimoto to be a high-ranking member of Japan's Yakuza crime syndicate. (Interestingly enough, Mr. Okimoto was also present, or "happened" to be attending the seminar at Arcadia when we attempted to expose WACKENHUT's involvement in the Black Projects Programs...in fact I believe that I exchanged a few words with him when I was introduced to him by some of the attendees at the conference.....Norio) Nichols also held permits to sell machine guns overseas. In obtaining the required California permits to possess and sell machine guns, Nichols received a recommendation from a CIA official named Larry Curan. Nichols says he was contracted to ship 42 Cobra helicopters to overseas warehouses, destined for North Korea, then Iraq. The biological technology, which he attempted to sell through Wackenhut, had been incubated in cow uterus 20 floors beneath the ground in California bio-labs and shipped to five Japanese institutes for further research and development. Nichols says the identity of the governments sponsoring the research was classified. One thing researchers want to know is why an international arms dealer would fund Japanese scientists in 1988 to research "a method for induction and activation of Cytotoxic T-Lymphocytes?" Some wonder if there is a link between Nichols dealing in germ warfare and the Japanese research.

The answer may lie in microbiological research conducted by Garth L. Nicolson, Ph.D., Department of Tumor Biology at the University of Texas M.D. Anderson Cancer Center.

Nicolson says tens of thousands of Desert Storm veterans suspected of having Gulf War Syndrome were refused medical treatment to hide the possible origin and use of biological weapons during the Gulf War. Veterans' family members were also denied treatment, according to the doctor.

"55% OF GWS (Gulf War Syndrome) vets are suffering from a few types of mycoplasmas, such as "Mycoplasma fermentans", Nicolson wrote. "This one strain alone accounts for 35% of the total. This disease is particularly vicious against the very young, and I have a list of approximately 600 babies less than 2 years old that have died from the illness". Nicolson said it was ironic that his work on the HIV-1 virus and AIDS also pointed to the same agenda -biological warfare.

"The mycoplasma we found in GWS, we strongly believe, was 'engineered' and did not evolve naturally", he noted.

"6000 soldiers have died since the Gulf War...the number of U.S. dead is being hidden from the American public.

"Staff members high up in the VA Central Command in Washington D.C. secretly sent me about a two-foot high stack of records documenting the deaths", Nicolson added.

The doctor also treated a dying military intelligence officer who confirmed the origin and sale of illegal biological weapons to Iraq. He said those weapons were subsequently used against U.S. soldiers in Desert Storm.

Nicolson urged researchers to investigate Tanox Biosystems, Inc. in Houston, Texas.

"If someone can nail a few of these operations, then perhaps the U.S. government will give up on illegal, immoral biological weapons programs", he said.

Apparently Nichols inadvertently "nailed" one operation. A secret desire to write about his exploits with the CIA had led him to contact Jack Valenti, president of the Motion Picture Association of America, through his corporate partner Gene Giaquinto. The three met at the Beverly Hills Hotel where Nichols attempted to sell Valenti a manuscript disclosing top secret CIA technology.

Nichols later said Valenti refused the manuscript because it contained "classified national security information". Valenti once served as assistant to President Lyndon B. Johnson.

Unknown to the CIA, Nichols had copyrighted the material at the Library of Congress under the pseudonym Robert B. LeDevoiller. The 20-page manuscript, entitled ACCEPTABLE CASUALTY, essentially outlines gays and I.V. drug users as targets of biowar by a cabal of military intelligence officers.

In the story, a secret file reveals the origin of the first AIDS infection. Field research dated November 12, 1977 originates from a Bay Area laboratory destroyed by fire in December 1975. Assorted bio-labs are mentioned, one in Palo Alto, California. The hero of the story obtains the secret cure from "the chosen ones" and escapes to Singapore with his family.

Interestingly, the names of those involved include "Yutaka Okimoto" and "Lawrence Zokosky", the last names of which match those listed on Nichols' "real life" corporation, Meridian International Logistics (MIL). END OF ARTICLE. This is one of the more important items that appear occasionally from SPOTLIGHT, which some consider to be a right-wing extremist "wacko" publication. I personally do not see anything "wacky" as far as this article is concerned.

NORIO HAYAKAWA
P.O. BOX 599
GARDENA, CA 90248
TEL. (310) 784-7705

NorioA51S4@aol.com

Norio Hayakawa

Ken MacGray/Administrator - Virtual Village BBS
508-368-4222
mayor@tiac.net - <http://www.tiac.net/users/mayor>
Area 51 Images/Lore/News:
<http://www.tiac.net/users/mayor/a51/>

Message #7

From: campbell@ufomind.com (Glenn Campbell, Las Vegas)
Subject: Responses to Jim Coarse
Date: Mon, 25 Nov 1996 23:23:44 -0800

Date: Mon, 25 Nov 1996 17:34:04 -0700 (MST)
From: Jilain <Jilain@rt66.com>
Subject: re: Area 51

>At 02:41 PM 11/25/96 EST, you wrote:
>> Area-51 a.k.a. Dreamland, a.k.a. Groom lake is real and no doubt >>about it has UFO parts.
>>Send me any info you know on Area-51 and I can verify it.
>> :-(Jim Coarse :-)
>>Ps check for a secret military installation in the western most part of >>Alaska.
>>

Just a couple questions here:

1. How do you KNOW that Area 51 has "ufo parts"? Your statement reads like a declaration of fact. Could you tell me on what you base this statement? Are you privy to evidence of these "ufo parts" that the rest of us don't know about?
2. A secret military installation in the western part of Alaska? If you know about it, you must know a name. So, what's the name of it?

Curious as always.....

Jilain

=====
Date: Mon, 25 Nov 1996 18:42:05 -0500
From: Ben McLaughlin <sitar6@geocities.com>
Subject: Re: AREA 51: AREA-51

I don't buy this. Why would the gov't let air nat'l guard people down to A51? Aren't they like the Army Nat'l Guard that get together or two weeks a year for war games? They have minimal clearance, even if there were no UFO's it'd be a risk to let them near secret planes. Aren't there pictures of the U2 out somewhere, or am I delusional? As for the Alaskan base, I'm not suprised. With the attention Glenn and crew are bringing to S-4, I don't thin the gov't can trully have all of its secret stuff there. Theyre pobably using a less publi base, and jut sending up plaes in late stages of testing at A51 to keep the dram alive, and keep us from looking elsewhere.

Ben McLaughlin

=====
Subject: AREA 51: Re: AREA-51
From: dark_iz@juno.com (Andrew W Martin)
Date: Mon, 25 Nov 1996 23:12:37 EST

>> Hello my name is Jim Coarse. A big fan and interest of Area-51. I >>have can close to the information on Area-51, my brother is in the air >>national guard. On a flight to South Korea there C-130 had an unexpected >>problem and they were diverted to land at Area-51. At 9:00pm it was dark

It must have been one HECK of a problem, b/c they don't detour people to Area 51 for anything. Also, why did they get routed to -51? Why not the run of the mill Air Force Base that is sitting right there (I can't remember the name for the life of me). The Air Force probably would have set them down on a long stretch of highway before letting them NEAR Area 51.

>>but there was still enough lite for them to find there way there. They >>landed on the massive 20,000 foot runway. My brother had managed to see >>too SR-71 Blackbirds parked out on the ramp and a U-2. The runway must be >>that long for something unusable, like the space shuttle. They stayed >>over night in the plane and left at 8:00pm. My brother managed to get a >>picture of the front of the U-2 spy plane. I will send that to you as >>soon as I get it on photo CD or a scanner. I hope I put this info insafe >>hands. Area-51 a.k.a. Dreamland, a.k.a. Groom lake is real and no dought >>about it has UFO parts.

Is the shuttle unusable? And would security at America's most secret Air Force installation have just left three spy planes sitting in the open?

Security is certainly getting sloppy if they'll just let any Tom, Dick or Harry into Area 51 with cameras.

>From a U-2 and two Blackbirds you know that they have UFO parts there?? I just don't get it.

>>Send me any info you know on Area-51 and I can verify it.

>From your brother's landing at a military base you can verify ANYTHING about Area 51? I sincerely doubt it.

>> :-(Jim Coarse :-)
>>Ps check for a secret military installation in the western most part of >>Alaska.

I can't say anything about a base in Alaska.....does anyone have any info on this?

In conclusion, Jimbo, I don't find a word of your story believable. I think it is clear that you just sat down and made this all up, or else you are extremely gulliable. Perhaps if you learned some simple English grammer and spelling then your story would be a bit more believable....or not. Nice try, Kiddo.

Andrew Martin

Message #8

From: Ken MacGray <mayer@tiac.net>
Subject: Las Vegas: Gamble In The Desert
Date: Tue, 26 Nov 96 18:55:09 -0500

To all couch potatoes... "Las Vegas: Gamble in The Desert" will be shown on the Arts and Entertainment Network (A&E) Sunday, December1 at 8:00pm. From the description in this week's TV Guide:

"Examining the past, conflicted present and dubious future of "the city that epitomizes the phrase 'only in America'."

Archival photos and interviews with colorful figures complement tis two hour documentary narrated by Richard Crenna. Among the subjects covered in Part 1: the economic boom that resulted in the building of the Hoover Dam in the 1930's, liberal divorce laws and the legalization of gambling; the contributions of "visionary" and mobster Bugsy Siegel, racist attitudes toward African-American entertainers, and the effects of nearby atomic bomb testing in the 1950's (What??? No UFO's?).

Part 2, "Las Vegas: House of Cards" will be shown the following night...

Ken MacGray/Administrator - Virtual Village BBS
508-368-4222
mayor@tiac.net - <http://www.tiac.net/users/mayor>
Area 51 Images/Lore/News:
<http://www.tiac.net/users/mayor/a51/>

[Archive Index | Mailing List Information]

Sponsored by the Area 51 Research Center (www.ufomind.com)

Created: 27 Nov 1996