To view the terminal in air-conditioned comfort, try getting a room on as high a floor as possible in one of these Las Vegas hotels. (Best views first.)

- Tropicana: Southeast side of Island Tower. Also visible to (discreet) visitors across from elevators on 21st floor.
- Luxor: East side.
- Excalibur: South and East sides of Tower 1.
- Hacienda: East side. Also visible to (discreet) visitors from north stairwell: Take elevator to top floor then walk down hall to stairs.
- MGM Grand: South side (not surveyed)

- San Remo: South side (not surveyed)

Help Needed! Visitors are invited verify this information and report any deviations or additions. Also please report sightings of same aircraft at other airports.

Regarding "Janet Terminal Diagram" - Latest First

View Janet From Mandalay Bay

I stayed at the new Mandalay Bay Hotel and had a great view of the terminal from my 24th floor suite. I watched and listened to my scanner as the planes departed and returned to the terminal mostly during the day. At night a number of cars remained for those on the "graveyard" shift at area 51. I learned about the flights on a documentary and was amazed to see the real deal.
