InterNIC reports that you are the administrative contact for the ufomind.com virtual server. It has been brought to our attention that potentially libelous remarks have been added to your website at ufomind.com/new/current, regarding the validity, ownership and integrity of our company.

Banzai-net.com is a commercial website hosting company. In reference to Tridot Productions and Mr Robert Lazar, Tridot Productions leases server-space to host it's World Wide Website from our company and is not an owner, employee or business associate of Banzai-net.com.

It is obvious from your webpage that ufomind.com and Mr. Lazar have some differences, and while you may wish to use your individual websites to pursue these differences, I will not tolerate any slanderous or libelous statements, remarks or innuendo directed at Banzai-net.com that could jeopardize it's integrity or profitability.

Considering the amount of users that appear to be accessing your website, and the specific page in question, we feel that some level of damage has already occurred. Our legal council has recommended that prior to taking legal action, we request that you remove any reference, including hypertext-links to the banzai-net.com homesite and the reference be from the page in question immediately.

"Be sure to examine the server root* for more clues about who might be operating this site. (Why "bonzai"?)

If I can provide you with any further information, please feel free to contact me.
