Our Review

Opinion of the webmaster, subject to debate

"Undeniable Evidence of Alien Intervention." The account of the 1996 abduction of four men while on a canoe trip in the Allagash Wilderness in Maine. This incident ranks as one of the most compelling abduction accounts because it is supported by multiple witnesses. This book is composed largely of interview transcripts with the four men, along with sketches of what they claim to have experienced. Foreward by Budd Hopkins. Dramatized on Unsolved Mysteries. -- Glenn Campbell

Information from the Publisher

Always supportive

From the Book Cover

In 1976 four men, including a pair of twins, sought adventure in the Allagash Wilderness of northern Maine. What they saw and experienced that night changed their lives forever. Not one, but all four were abducted by strange alien beings.

In his latest and most definitive work, highly respected ufologist Raymond Fowler methodically explores the simultaneous abductions of four men and provides overwhelming and compelling evidence that would stand up in court!

The Allagash Abductions provides a valuable link in the historical chain of evidence and information about the UFO abduction phenomenon.
