Explanation of Ratings

This is a single-color map of the entire state showing hundreds of former towns, town sites, mining camps and possible roads leading to them. Most of these sites consist only of some mine workings & stone foundations, while others are more recognizable as "towns", with a few houses and mine buildings still standing. This map does not distinguish the type of town or camp, but it does provide a starting point for exploration. Can be used as a supplement to the Delorme Nevada Atlas and the Ghost Town Atlas. Town sites and roads are drawn on a Nevada Bureau of Mines topographic base map. -- Glenn Campbell
