Information from the Publisher Always supportive

From the Book Jacket...

The book the CIA tried to suppress. The first book that the U.S. Government ever went to court to censor before publication. Published with spaces indicating the exact location and length of 168 deletions demanded by the CIA.

[Written] by a former CIA senior official and an ex-State Department intelligence expert. The CIA declared this book would harm national security. The courts decided otherwise. The only thing this book can harm is the sinister clandestine activities of the CIA.
