From the Book Cover

No longer can the truth be suppressed. Let the evidence speak for itself...

For half a century, a conspiracy of silence has existed at the highest levels of the British Government to prevent the general public from learning the shocking facts which lie behind one of the most emotive issues of our time -- unidentified flying objects. Now the silence has been broken.

Nicholas Redfern has been granted unprecedented access to thousands of previously classified Ministry of Defence and Royal Air Force files on UFOs and permission to make public hitherto top secret data. He has been allowed to interview qualified RAF pilots who have pursued UFOs flying over the British Isles, military personnel who have seen UFOs at close quarters and Ministry of Defence civil servants officially appointed to investigate UFO encounters.

A Covert Agenda demonstrates that the emerging picture is a highly disturbing one. Rationally-controlled machines from beyond Earth are routinely penetrating Britain's airspace, and our military infrastructure has little or no control over the violation. What is it that the British Government was so careful to keep secret for fifty years? And why now is it willing to speak out?

'Billed as the shocking truth of the British Government's UFO conspiracy, anyone with a remote interest will be held spell-bound by this claimed exposé. Redfern is convinced there is an active alien presence on Earth. His book gives much food for thought.' -- DAILY EXPRESS
