Publisher's Synopsis

Angels have enchanted the human race. People who don't believe in Christ flock to read best-sellers about out-of-body experiences with angelic beings or abductions by horrifying aliens. Are these accounts--and the people reading them--simply silly? Dailey explores the current fascination with angelic appearances, UFOs, and other supernatural phenomena.

From the Book Cover

What in the World is Going On?

- A mysterious hitchhiker talks about the Second Coming of Jesus Christ, then disappears into thin air.
- Betty Eadie, author of the bestselling Embraced by the Light, describes angelic beings that her on an enchanting trip to the afterworld.
- A ghastly winged creature is reported by Soviet geologists to have flown out of a nine-mile-deep Siberian drill shaft amid hellish shrieks.
- Whitley Strieber, best-selling author of Communion, joins many who describe chilling experiences of abduction by horrifying aliens.

Are these accounts of angels and aliens -- and the millions of people reading them -- simply nutty? Or should Christians take notice of what is going on? In a page-turner as riveting as the stories he writes about, Timothy Dailey explores the current fascination with angelic appearances, bizarre UFO abductions and other supernatural phenomena.

As the world is intrigued -- and a little rattled -- by the upcoming turn of the millennium, Daily suggests that today's extraordinary spiritual activity may be a demonic preparation for the coming of the Antichrist. He exhorts Christians to exercise spiritual discernment at a time of burgeoning curiosity.

"This book is a biblically informed and levelheaded look at a variety of controversial spiritual phenomena. It is a needed corrective to both New Age error and evangelical credulity."

Douglas Groothuis
author of Unmasking the New Age
