Discover the Mystery Beneath Rock Lake...

"The sunken tombs and temples of Rock Lake comprise North America's latest and possibly greatest archaeological mystery. Frank Joseph has done a marvelous job delving into the underwater mystery. His new book is a unique adventure scuba divers and arm-chair explorers alike will find enthralling and exciting."

-- David Childress
author of Lost Cities and Civilizations of North and Central America

"The 500th anniversary of America's 'discovery' (which was actually its rediscovery) went into high gear in 1992. It's too bad many of those who waved Columbus' banner had not read The Lost Pyramids of Rock Lake. This book provides overwhelming evidence of a Bronze Age culture existing in this country over 1,000 years before Columbus 'discovered' it.

"Many other researchers such as Dr. Barry Fell (Bronze Age America, America, B.C., and Saga America) and Dr. Cyrus Gordon (Before Columbus) have long been saying that America supplied copper to Bronze Age societies throughout Europe and the Near East for 1,800 years. What Frank Joseph has provided is a fleshing out of these theories of many leading edge researchers. So who discovered who in 1492? Wouldn't Columbus have been surprised? (Or, would he have been? After all, he was a student of the Kabala.)

-- Robert Hieronimus, Ph.D.
author of America's Secret Destiny

"A gripping tale of adventure and discovery amply supported by impressive scholarship leading to astounding evidence of an ancient and sophisticated civilization that flourished in Wisconsin some 35 centuries ago. This meticulously researched book should stimulate the rewriting of ancient American history. Highly recommended.
